—The weather department should drop its effort to make up all the season's shortage of heat in a single week.
—Wallace Mealy's new house on Vine street is already making a good showing and he will soon be living under his own roof.
—At Edinboro Normal students are surrounded by influences conducive to study. Send for catalog. John F. Bigler, Principal.
—Oil City has two cases of smallpox, but the authorities are hot after them and expect to check and hold the disease right where it is.
—The party of glassworkers from Beaver Falls, who were camping at the Hopkins farm, up the river, broke camp and returned home last Friday.
—The Tionesta junior ball team went to Pleasantville on the morning of the Fourth and defeated the High school team there by a score of 7 to 6.
—J. B. Erb, of West Hickory, was thrown out of a buggy last Friday, and considerably bruised about the head, but is again able to go about his business.
—You may think the summer is about over, but the prophets tell us the hottest weather is yet to come. Get into one of our comfortable suits and enjoy yourself, Hopkins.
—Lost, between the residences of J. C. Bowman and Wm. Smearbaugh, a ladies' gold bracelet, set with four rubies. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving at this office.

—Following is the list of letters lying unclaimed for in the Tionesta, Pa., post-office for week ending July 17, 1907: George Baker.
D. S. Knox, P. M.
—Charles Anderson can supply you with the choicest of new potatoes taken fresh from his garden, at a nominal price. Your orders will receive prompt attention if left with Mr. Anderson.
—FOR SALE.—The Eli Holeman property in Tionesta. Good ten-room house with fine running spring water. Between five and six acres of land. Inquire at this office or of Mrs. Eli Holeman.
—WANTED.—We want good teams and men for cutting and skidding logs at President, Pa. Plenty of work all summer and winter at good wages. Come at once. No limit to number. GRANDIN LUMBER COMPANY.
—Buffalo is planning for an old home week Sept. 1-7 inclusive, and we have been requested to ask all former Buffalo residents to send their present address to the Old Home Week Committee in order that they may receive a special souvenir invitation to attend the gathering.
—A feature of the celebration yesterday was the work of the Kelleysville band. The band is composed of 32 pieces, and a lady cornetist added much to the work of the organization. Frank Henderson and Leon Watson were in town with the musicians.—Warren Times, July 5th.

—The C. E. Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a lawn fête at the residence of Mrs. A. B. Kelly Wednesday evening, July 24, from 7:30 until 10 o'clock. Ice cream, cake and frappe will be served. A cordial invitation is extended to every one to be present to make the occasion a pleasant as well as a profitable one.
—Mrs. G. W. Osgood remembered the REPUBLICAN office last week with a bouquet of as handsome and fragrant roses as one could wish to enjoy, plucked from her own garden. When such beauties can be cultivated right here in Tionesta there is no need of going to Portland, Oregon, to enjoy the delights of a rose carnival.
—A party of Tionesta's young folks, numbering fifteen or twenty, is again enjoying an outing at last summer's camping ground on the pleasant banks of Tionesta creek at the head of the Gaston pond. They are having, they say, a lovely time far ahead of a trip to distant resorts where all the discomforts that the hot summer days can bring are encountered. With three large tents to shelter from heat and rain, an abundance of sylvan shade, pure spring water, boating and bathing perfect, and a congenial crowd to enjoy it all, why shouldn't they have the time of their lives? Enjoy it while you're young, for when you're old you'll want to, but you're "a has been."

—The Green township school board has elected the following teachers for the coming year: Nebraska, No. 2, R. A. Stricker; No. 1, Miss Lura E. Harding; Tubbs Run, Miss Etta Rodgers; Blum, Miss Beba Cole; Gultonville, Miss Florence McCartney; Young, Miss Edith Gayley; Flynn, Miss Grace Reed; Hinderer, Miss Hattie Purcell.
—George Parker, son of H. C. Parker of Golconda, who sustained a bad fracture of the right forearm over a year ago, is still having much trouble and pain from the injury. Friday Dr. Dunn was obliged to again operate on the injured arm which had refused to heal completely, but the physician now thinks George will get along without further difficulty.
—John Hoy, well known in this section died at Cambridge Springs, Ohio, on the 26th ult. The deceased was born and reared at Lineville, Clarion county, and was one of the well known firm of oil and gas operators and contracting drillers known as the Hoy Bros, who established a second gas line in this place which was afterward absorbed by the Tionesta Gas company.
—The school board of Kingsley township has decided not to build the proposed new school building near the Jones farm, on the Marienville road. Miss Florence Jensen, elected to this school, is transferred to Starr. Miss Beulah Miller, elected at Starr, resigned, and is elected to teach in Hickory township. The contract for the addition to the Mayburg building was let to George Zuendel.
—It is not the site of a town, but its character that makes it a desirable place to live. A live, prosperous town is a desirable one to live in, and a town may prosper and yet be small. Every citizen in a town should be interested in its prosperity. One of the best ways to help a town is to speak well of it. It is true patriotism to stand by your own town, and interests that effect the town should effect every citizen.
—Before and after taking: "Tionesta will be here to-day, Thursday, for a game of ball. Watch us."—Marienville Express, before. "The ball game in the afternoon between Tionesta and Marienville resulted in a victory for Tionesta in the tenth inning by a score of 8 to 4. That this was a hard pill to swallow for our home boys we cannot deny."—Marienville Express, after. But that's the way our Tionesta boys do things.
—Notwithstanding the repeated publication of the fish and game laws there is still some misunderstanding as to the time when the trout season closes, and for the benefit of those who are in doubt on the question we will explain that the season during which trout may be legally taken in Pennsylvania ends with the last day of July. For a number of years it was July 15, but in 1901 the legislature changed the closing date to and including the last day of the month, which is two weeks from today.
—The following teachers have been elected for the coming year by the school board of Howe township: Brookston, No. 3, Roy Jensen; No. 2, Miss Eleanor Small; No. 1, Miss Edna Zuendel; Pigeon, Miss Lura Jackson; Watson Farm, Miss Goldie Hadden; Sheffield Junction, Miss Belle Bly; Lynch, Miss Gertrude Black; Gusher, Miss Mary Fling; Sheriff, Miss Anna Allaire; Hastings, Miss Myrna Barnes; Porkey, Miss Kittie Hepler. Length of term eight months, to begin August 28th.

—W. P. Black, who spent a few days with his mother at Pleasantville, left yesterday for New Mexico. He is a prominent mining operator in New Mexico and Colorado and one of the greatest hustlers who ever went out from the Pennsylvania oil country. He made a fortune in the eastern fields, lost and made it again in Indiana and is now doing well farther west in the mining business. He spent several busy hours yesterday shaking hands with old friends here and at Pleasantville. He was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Black.—Titusville Herald.
—The best racing ever witnessed in this vicinity at Oil City, July 23, 24, 25 and 26.
—The Hickory township school board has elected the following teachers for the coming year: East Hickory, No. 4, Allen W. Jones, principal; No. 3, Miss Emma Anderson; No. 2, Miss Lydia Albaugh; No. 1, Miss May Whaley; White, Miss Myrna McIntyre; Beaver Valley, Miss Sara Zahniser; Queen, Miss Beulah Miller; Albright, no election; County Home, Miss Ethel Douglas; Schwab, Miss Georgia Whitman; Church Hill, Mrs. Ethel Alcock; Otter, Claude Terrill. The length of the term was extended from seven to eight months, and to begin September 24.
—The Oil City Races will have the greatest number of horses ever shown in this vicinity.
—Harry Bankhead, who is now located at Elkins, W. Va., is keeping up the good reputation he won here as a base ball pitcher. On July 4th, pitching for the Y. M. C. A. team, which stands second in the city league of four clubs, he defeated the leaders, the Coal and Coke team, by a score of 11 to 5, holding them down to 7 hits, striking out 8 men and giving no bases on balls. And those same leaders were boasting a few days previous how they would bat the "little fellow" out of the box in the first inning. Harry's brother, Dr. C. H. Bankhead, plays third base for the Y. M. C. A. team.
—Don't forget the dates for the Oil City Races, July 23, 24, 25 and 26. The event of the season.
—Notwithstanding the backwardness of the season there is evidence that many crops are going to "catch up" pretty well and are not going to yield so poorly after all. Wheat is looking good, and oats will be fair if not stricken with blight. The potato crop never looked richer at this season of the year, with apparently no bugs in sight, something out of the ordinary for this section. Hay is still making, and what looked for a spell like a failure now promises almost if not quite an average yield. Corn is practically a failure, and many fields have been sown to buckwheat. Berries are promising well and with sufficient moisture will yield a good crop. The fruit crop will not be large, although some apple orchards are showing up nicely. So that on the whole there'll be plenty of the necessities and some to spare perhaps. All things in nature generally come out right if only we have the patience to wait.
—Over 250 horses at the Oil City Races, and 14 speed events on the card. Special railroad rates.

—John Atkins & Co. finished their No. 4 well on the Hugh Miles farm at Fagundus last week and it was showing for a twenty-barrel producer. The company will drill two wells this season and will install a modern power.
—The tennis game goes out to play her nerve-producing game; the flippant girl goes out to lark because her life's no tame; the reading girl betakes herself into a world of books; the scheming girl to the seaside goes to fish with artful hooks; the flirting girl goes anywhere she thinks there is a man; the dressy girl to Paris goes to buy a dress and fan; the country goes upon the stage to show her hand- some looks; but the girl who gets the husband stays right at home and cooks.
—Our farmers should be on the lookout for fake inspectors who are said by some newspapers of this state, to be at work in some sections, pretending to examine live stock, head by head, to ascertain if they are in a sound physical condition. All of the cattle thus examined are pronounced sound, and then the inspector demands a fee of twenty-five cents per head, or two and a half dollars for the inspection of the entire lot. The men who are engaged in this business are simply frauds and they are without license to act in the capacity of live stock inspectors, from municipal, county, state or national authorities.—Ex.
—On July 3, 1907, at Atco, N. J., where he had lived the last few years, John Frick died, aged about 75 years. Mr. Frick was a son-in-law of the late Col. P. D. Thomas, of Tionesta, and brother-in-law of Mrs. S. D. Irwin. He is survived by his wife and several grandchildren. He was of an old Chester county family. He frequently visited Tionesta and was well known to some of our citizens. He was formerly agent of the Schuylkill Navigation Co. at Philadelphia, and afterwards engaged in various enterprises, but of late years failing health prevented him from pursuing his avocations.
—In reproducing some of the items appearing in his paper thirty years ago, Bre'r White, of the Tidouze News, has the following in his last week's budget: "The bell in the old church up town has been sold to the County Commissioners of Forest county for $185. It goes to the Court House in Tionesta. The bell is a Buckeye, weighs six hundred and thirty pounds, and cost, when new, three hundred and fifteen dollars, bell metal being then worth twelve cents more a pound than now." We might state that the old bell is still doing good service, and its melodious tones ring out as sweetly as ever to those who are not compelled to answer its summons.
—The reception tendered to Rev. and Mrs. Harry A. Bailey at the Presbyterian church in the evening of July 5th was an occasion which gave more than one hundred friends who attended it the greatest pleasure. The guests of honor were supported by the two elders of the church, Messrs. G. W. Robinson and A. B. Kelly, who occupied stations in the receiving line and extended a cordial welcome to each of the guests, who in turn had a word of encouragement and good cheer for the popular parson and his amiable wife. A number of choice musical selections were rendered by the young ladies of the Sabbath school and Endeavor society, and light but very delicious refreshments were served by the latter society. At 10 o'clock the charming occasion came to a close, the guests departing with only the most pleasant recollections of the evening's enjoyment.
—Our old friend N. G. Cole, who owns and cultivates a thrifty farm not far from Nebraska, in Green township, experienced somewhat of a shock to his nerves one day recently while working in his hay field. He had sat down by the trunk of a tree to enjoy a short rest in the shade. Feeling that a smoke from the old pipe would brace him up some he put one hand on the ground "sort of back of him like," and with the other was pulling the pipe out of his pocket. Noting that something cold and clammy was touching his hand he gazed around and there, right by his side, crawling leisurely over his hand, was a four-foot rattlesnake! Well, you've heard the story of the cow that jumped over the moon. That was a mere amateur performance compared with Nell's exhibition. Had there been a half dozen moony hands he'd have scaled them all at a single bound. And his boy tells the story that when he came back to see his Banquo's great would have resembled a full-blooded African beside him. But—that snake never left the meadow alive.—The boy killed him. Nelson was out of commission.
—The generosity of a prominent Forest county citizen was again demonstrated a short time ago in the gift of a valuable lot to the Methodist church of Brookville upon which to erect a new edifice, mention of which is made in the Republican of that place of a recent date: "On Monday last Judge Frank X. Kreidler, of Nebraska, a former citizen of Brookville, and a Christian gentleman with a heart as big as the lofty mountains that surround his present home, dropped into town and before he took his departure on Tuesday he closed negotiations with William T. Darr, Esq., for his vacant lot on the corner of Pickering and Jefferson streets, at a valuable consideration of possibly $10,000 (the deed says $1,000) and made known to the church officials that it was his intention to donate the grounds to the Brookville Methodist Episcopal church as a site for a new church. The generosity of our former townsman is so magnanimous, coming as it does in the hour of greatest need, that it will harmonize every thought and action, and with the united efforts that will now be inaugurated, a magnificent new church building is the possibility of but a very few years."
—The Grove City Bible School will begin Thursday evening, August the 1st and close Sabbath evening, August 11th. This promises to be the banner Conference at Grove City. The universal testimony is that the program is of a higher grade than ever yet published by this Conference. Three distinguished Scotchmen will have a place on the program, Prof. James Orr of Glasgow, the Rev. H. A. A. Kennedy, D. D., late of Calander, Scotland and Prof. Hugh Black now of New York. Prof. Borden P. Bowne, who has just returned from his trip around the world, will give his ninth course in Philosophy. Prof. Charles Cuthbert Hall of the Union Theological Seminary, will conduct the lectures in Missions, and Prof. George M. Sneath of Allegheny, will conduct the Western Theological Six noted Bible teachers from six distinguished Theological Schools, will give instruction in both the Old and New Testament. These men are Prof. Matthew Brown, of the Western Theological Seminary; Prof. Cornelius Wolfkin, of the Rochester Theological Seminary; Prof. D. A. McCleanham, of the United Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Allegheny; Prof. Henry D. McMillan, of Toronto; Prof. Kerr D. McMillan, of the Princeton Theological Seminary, and Prof. Orr, of Glasgow. Boarding can be had from $5.00 a week and up. For programs and all information address the President Isaac C. Ketter, Grove City, Pa.

—Jacob Swartzfager, of Porkey, one of Howe township's officials, was transacting business at the county seat Monday. Mr. S. is superintending a 30,000 cord barqueing job in his locality, but thinks it will fall some short of that figure owing to the difficulty in getting peepers.
—Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Zahniser are entertaining the latter's daughter, Mrs. G. W. Arner and children, Samuel and Ruth, of Rimersburg, Pa., and their niece, Miss Katherine Zahniser, of Jackson Centre, Pa. Miss Alice Zahniser, of Polk, was also their guest over Sunday.
—Messrs. F. H. Lammers and A. R. Smart, of Oil City, headed an auto party which passed through here Sunday afternoon. There were four big machines in the procession, making rather an imposing sight. Mr. Smart's machine was slightly disabled and had to be left over for repairs.
—W. W. Jamieson, of Clarksburg, W. Va., paid a visit to old friends in this section during Fourth of July week. As a former Forest county boy many friends here are pleased to know that Mr. Jamieson has been very successful in oil and coal operations in West Virginia and is enjoying the fruits of his labors as only a big hearted, jolly good fellow can do.
—Mrs. Harry Canfield on Monday received a letter from her brother, Newton Zahniser, at Bridgeport, Illinois, stating that he was injured in an accident, having three ribs and his shoulder broken. No further particulars were given. The letter also stated that their brother, Frank Zahniser, was confined in the hospital there with an attack of typhoid fever.
—L. G. Stover, a former resident of this county, but now employed in the Oil Well Supply shops at Siverly, was the victim of a severe accident a short time ago. A heavy casting fell on his foot, crushing the great toe and severely bruising the foot, laying him up for some time. Many friends of the genial "Gill" in this vicinity will be sorry to learn of his misfortune.
—Dr. McAninch, of Lamartine, Pa., and brother, Glenn McAninch, of Manhattan, Kansas, spent several days of the past week in this community visiting the friends of their brother, the late Rev. J. V. McAninch. They found a hearty welcome among the many ardent friends and admirers of the late popular pastor of the Presbyterian church, and expressed much pleasure at the reverence in which his name is still held in the community.
—Andrew J. Engdahl of West Hickory returned home recently from the west, where he had gone in search of health. He got as far as Paxton, Illinois, the home of his brother, Peter Engdahl, formerly of West Hickory, where he was so ill that he could go no farther. As soon as he was able to get out of bed he started home. He was seriously ill for a week, but we are glad to learn he is convalescing well and will be able to be around again soon.
—One of those quiet little weddings which is characteristic of a time when a wedding follows a few months after death has entered a family and taken away the dear mother, was performed by the Rev. Wm. Richards at the home of the bride's father, Jacob G. Wolf, at Kelleysville, Pa., on July 24, when Miss Violet Saloma Wolf and Mr. Ernest A. Babcock were quietly married. None but the members of the family were present. The bride and groom left on the 1:35 train on their honeymoon.

THE JOHNSTON RAKE
All Steel
NOT IN THE TRUST
Two desirable features to look for when buying a hay rake are ease of operation and durability of construction. The Johnston All Steel Rake is made toughest where the strain is greatest. The head and frame where most of the strain comes are made of angle steel making a light, rigid, strong, durable machine. Wheels are made of steel with cast hubs and round staggered spokes—it's all steel but the tongue or shafts—there'll be no warp, no shrink and no split if it's a Johnston. The teeth do clean work without scratching; are long, flat-pointed and interchangeable. The Johnston All Steel Rake is easy to operate—easy on horse and man because it is so nicely and evenly balanced. The Johnston

Few People
Understand the philosophy of keeping cool while "Old Sol" is doing his best. About the only contentment they find is to greet everyone with the words, "Isn't it hot?" If men only knew how much effect a disturbed mind has over the body they would try to suggest more pleasing propositions. The best thing to do is to clothe yourself in lightweight garments, mostly light-colored, and then engage your thoughts in some pleasing occupation or study. Idleness is conducive to disturbance of mind and a disturbed mind makes the possessor uncomfortable.

For the clothing part we can help you, for the mental part you must help yourself—both work harmoniously together. Let us suggest that you come in and get one of our Suits for $20, that sold all season for $25; Manhattan Shirts at $1.50, $2 to $3, or lightweight Flannel Shirts from $1.50 to $3.
