—Remember the lawn fete at the home of Mrs. A. B. Kelly this, Wednesday, evening, from 7:30 till 10 o'clock. The Endeavor society has prepared for a large turnout and will be pleased to serve you with delicious ice cream, cake and frappe. Every body invited.

—Jamieson & Butler finished a dry hole last Friday for a Marienville company on the lands of C. J. Harris, "the Indian doctor," in Jenks township. The company has made a location and will rig up at once for No. 3. No. 1 is said to be good for four or five barrels a day.

—The last quarterly meeting for this circuit will be held in the Tionesta M. E. church next Saturday and Sunday. Saturday evening Rev. D. A. Platt, Presiding Elder, will preach and hold the quarterly conference. Sunday morning at 10 o'clock Love Feast will be held, and at 11 o'clock preaching by the Presiding Elder, followed by the Communion service. Sunday evening, preaching by the pastor, Rev. W. O. Calhoun.

—The Brackney Oil Co. shot a good well Monday on their lease on the C. Leeper lands, a mile east of Leeper, in Clarion county. The well is showing up for a 15-barrel producer and would indicate an extension of this territory, being somewhat in advance of the earlier developments. The oil is found in the third sand at about 1,000 feet. This company has drilled twenty wells on its lease, of which thirteen are good producers.

—Something in the nature of a freak in the growth of wood was left at J. C. Scowden's place last week by Elmer Patterson, who has been timbering over on Bates run the past season. It is a piece of birch sapling about 8 inches in diameter having a good sized limb about five feet long which has both its ends grown into the trunk of the sapling completely and symmetrically, making a loop or handle to the larger piece. It is quite a curiosity.

—Because of the two mild cases of small-pox in Oil City, there is talk of establishing pest houses in the various neighboring towns. It is always that way. But the spasm will undoubtedly recover and no more will be heard about the pest houses until, at some time in the future, when another case is reported. As a matter of fact no concern is felt regarding the matter here. The two patients have been isolated and all proper precautions taken.—Oil City Blizzard.

—The postmaster general has ruled that mail matter intended for delivery on the rural routes must have an address other than simply the number of the box. Another ruling is that all rural carriers have the right of way on all country roads and that all carriages and conveyances must surrender that right of way to the rural carriers. Attention is again called to the fact that the return address on all letters and on all valuable packages should be written on the upper left-hand corner without fail.

—A Meadville man who has made gardening almost a science has discovered a new cabbage worm which he believes is going to cause trouble. The old, familiar cabbage worm is green, works on the top of the leaf, and moves very slowly. The new worm works on the under side of the leaf. It is a sort of yellowish caterpillar, such as is frequently found on trees, and can when necessary move quickly. This apparently new cabbage pest will very quickly destroy young plants, and can only be discovered by looking for it on the under side of the leaf.

—Tionesta is gaining new residents rapidly as a result of the starting of the asphalt factory. The latest accessions are A. H. Kelley, one of the principals of the new industry, who is moving into a part of the Bonner house, the other part being occupied by Walter Stright and family, H. E. Robertson, Machinist, has moved into the old Wenk homestead. Arthur W. Noble, general superintendent of the factory, and W. P. Dechant, the tailor, have rented the Thomas brick house and will move in shortly. Others will move to Tionesta as soon as they can secure domiciles.

—The annual summer session of the Meadville Unitarian conference will be held at the Unitarian house at Chautauque August 7 and 8, as has been the custom of the conference since the establishment of the Unitarian headquarters in 1902. Representatives will attend the conference from all parts of the district centering around Meadville, from Pittsburgh to Buffalo. The general subject of the conference, which will be public, will be "A Clearer Idea of the Importance of a Church to Society." Among the speakers expected are the ablest divines in the Unitarian church.

—Chautauqueans have come to look with confidence to the biennial visit of Mr. Leland Powers. One of the leaders among the well known readers in America, he comes very close to being the most popular who ever appears as a visitor at Chautauque, New York. Mr. Powers will deliver three readings, on the evenings of August 3, 5, and 7. The first of his readings will be that most popular comedy, "Twelfth Night"; the second, a new reading from Dickens' "Bleak House"; the third, a miscellaneous program of which the principal number is the old romance, "Gringoire."

—The Tionesta township school board at their meeting Saturday elected the following teachers for the coming year: Hunter Station, Miss Luella Handy; Hunter Run, Miss Alta Ledebur; Blum, Miss Olive Childs; Shriver, Miss Clara Wolf; Smoky Hill, Orion Alho; German Hill, Miss Alice Ledebur; Huddleston, Milton Wolfe; Oldtown, Miss Blanche Hunter; Blocher, Miss Augusta Korb. Unless more pupils appear to attend the Jamieson school it will be discontinued and the children now there will be sent to the Tionesta Boro schools. The length of the school term is seven months and will begin September 10th.

—The new state road above Tubbs run is progressing fairly well these days. About one-half the distance, or about 4,000 feet has received the first top-dressing of crushed limestone, and about half of that, or between 2,000 and 3,000 feet, is practically completed. More than two-thirds of the whole distance has received the Telford, or foundation work, which is the slowest part of the work. When this has all been laid the work of putting on the top dressing is an easy task and much greater progress can be made. However it will be pretty well along toward fall before the entire stretch is completed. "Good roads" talk is cheap, but it takes time and expenditure to make 'em.

—By request of the presiding elder, Rev. S. A. Coffman, of West Hickory, will preach in the Tidouste M. E. church next Sunday morning. Rev. W. O. Calhoun, of this place, will preach and hold the communion service at West Hickory at 11 a. m.; also preach and hold communion service at Cripp Hill at 3 p. m. Preaching services at East Hickory Sunday evening by the pastor.

—Meadville is rich in historic anecdotes, such names as "Aaron Burr," "Tecumseh" and "Lafayette" being closely connected with its growth. Not many people of the present day are aware of the fact, but one hundred years ago the meeting that quashed the Burr conspiracy was held in the city hall. On the green opposite is the spot where Burr's effigy was burned, after being paraded through the streets.

—The Greenwood M. E. church, Barnett township, will be dedicated Sunday, July 28, at 11 o'clock a. m., by Rev. A. R. Rick, D. D., who will preach the dedicatory sermon at the hour named. At 2:30 p. m. addresses will be made by former pastors Rev. J. P. Hicks, Rev. R. J. Montgomery, Rev. S. L. Richards, Rev. E. W. English, Rev. J. R. Miller. Sermon at 8 p. m. by Rev. M. B. Riley, of Calensburg. A general and cordial invitation is extended to all these services.

—In the Buffalo Evening News of the 11th inst., the following interesting item appeared: "Mrs. John Gordon of Wadsworth street announces the marriage of her sister, Miss Jessie E. Bradshaw, to Mr. Donald Cameron Davis last evening, Wednesday, July 10. At Home at 88 College street after Aug. 1." Many friends here will recognize in this simple announcement the familiar name of a former Tionesta boy whose popularity was limited only by the circle of his acquaintance. And all these friends will extend their warmest congratulations to Don and his bride upon this auspicious occasion.

—In these later years nearly every person has to have their summer trip, to Cape May, Atlantic City, Saratoga, Washington, New York, Chautauque, Lilly Dale, or some other "resort" says a grumbling exchange. They think these necessary to their health, and enjoyment of life. We wonder sometimes, as we see our neighbors going on and returning from these trips, how our dear old fathers and mothers got through life, many of whom never got outside the county, and some of them scarcely outside the township in which they lived. Our recollection of them is, that they were just as happy as their children and grandchildren who go and come so often; and we believe they were much more contented.

—People who work for themselves, especially mothers, often glory in not taking a vacation, in staying forever at home in sticking solidly to what they believe to be their duty. To you, my conservative reader, a vacation is just as necessary as it is to the tired teacher or the faithful clerk; and for the same reason—that you may do more work when you do work, and do it more effectively. The duty which holds you will be better performed, the home that you are guarding will be better kept, and the cheerfulness, and courage, and optimism which you need will be more readily summoned, if you take time—not next year, but in the remaining weeks of this very summer—to drink in the stimulant of new faces, new landscapes and new experiences.—Woman's Home Companion for August.

—Harriet Myrtle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hunter, of Pittsburgh, Pa., died Thursday afternoon, July 15th, after a two days' illness of cholera infantum, aged one year, one month and eighteen days. Funeral services were held at the home on Friday evening and the remains brought to Tionesta Saturday afternoon and interred in Riverside cemetery, Rev. H. D. Call conducting a brief service at the grave. Mrs. Hunter was formerly Miss Luella Saul, and will be remembered as a former resident of Tionesta. The sympathy of the community will go out to the stricken parents in their bereavement. In addition to the parents and their daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Saul, of Wilkensburg, and Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Gibson of Warren, were also members of the funeral party.

—Carrie May Luce, aged 24 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. C. Luce of Titusville, committed suicide by swallowing carbolic acid on the porch of her parents' home about 11 o'clock last Thursday night. She had lately been visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Margaret A. Howell, at West Hickory and her cousin Fred H. Luce, at Youngsville. On the evening mentioned she had been at the theaterium a few hours before killing herself and appeared to be in her usual joyful happy frame of mind. When her father responded to a knock at the front door he found his daughter in a stupor on the porch. She told him she had swallowed the acid, and died in a short time. What caused the desperate act will probably never be known, the secret, which concerned no one but herself, being buried with her body.

—Beginning August 1 senders of postal cards may use a portion of the front as well as the back of the government cards for writing messages thereon. Up to this time this has not been permissible but under a ruling of the postoffice department, in view of the fact that it was allowable to write on the front of private postal cards, the authorities thought it best to allow a part of the regular U. S. cards to be used in a like manner. After the date mentioned the front of the government cards may be divided by drawing a line across the face about one-third the space from the left of card, and that portion to the left of the line may be used for writing messages thereon as well as on the back. The right hand end of the card will be for the address. New cards will be issued to conform with the regulation and others on hand August 1 may be used in the manner stated.

—A suit of great interest to the Macca-bees of Western Pennsylvania has just been decided in the Supreme Court of Michigan against the order and in favor of a Pittsburg member, Dr. St. C. Wine-land. Mr. Wineand brought suit some years ago against the Supreme Tent of the society to prevent the abolishment of old age benefits and the establishment of new and higher rates. Many of the members in Western Pennsylvania objected strenuously. The Pennsylvania defense committee was organized to take action against the order and the case was first brought in the United States district court. The defense committee, working in the name of Mr. Wineand, has been repeatedly beaten, but has finally won in the Michigan supreme court, the state where the society is incorporated. The decision covers forty pages, and has not been made public in full, but it is expected to be final unless the Supreme Tent decides upon an appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Joseph Weaver, Charles Weaver, Dallas Reck, Paul Carson, Earl Maxwell, Charles Inel and George Hunter, of Tionesta; Miss Mamie English and Anon Carson, of West Hickory.

—The W. C. T. U. will hold a market on F. L. Lanson's porch, Saturday, July 27, beginning at 2:30 p. m. Everyone is invited to come and buy something for the Sunday dinner.

PERSONAL.

Fred. C. Percival Dead.

Old friends in this community will be saddened to learn of the sudden death of Fred. C. Percival, who lived with his parents at Newtown Mills, this county, during the latter fifties and early sixties. His death from acute Bright's disease occurred at Cambridge Springs, Pa., July 4, where he had gone to recuperate his health. Frederic C. Percival was a son of the late J. C. Percival, of Palo, Mich., and was born in New York state, July 2, 1843. At an early age he came with the family to Pennsylvania. In later years he resided in Philadelphia. He was in Detroit in 1877 and 1878, as state agent of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company of Milwaukee. From Detroit he went to Cincinnati where he resided a number of years, and for the past twelve years, Mannington and St. Marys, West Virginia, had been his home.

About the year 1866 Mr. Percival married Mrs. Jemima Higbee, of Cincinnati. She died in 1885, and he never remarried. He is the third brother in the family to pass away. There are three surviving brothers James C. Percival of Stanton; and George A. and W. J. Percival, of Lake Odessa. The deceased had in recent years been a dealer in oil properties. For a number of years he was president of the West Virginia Sportsmen's association, being a crack shot and a lover of the outdoor life. He was recently re-elected president of the association, which indicated his personal worth. He was a mason, a wholesome, genial man, one who made friends to keep them, and was liked wherever he went.

The remains were taken to Palo, Mich., where they were interred beside those of his father and mother, July 9th.

Pretty Wedding at Clarington.

From the Brookville Republican of last week we take the following account of a pretty home wedding at Clarington, this county:

"The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, of Clarington, Pa., was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday, July 10th, at high noon, when their daughter, Miss Anna Campbell, was united in marriage to Rev. U. David Reiter, of Allegheny, Pa. Only a few near relatives and friends were present to witness the ceremony which united these hearts in the bonds of holy wedlock. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. J. I. Humbert, of the Sigei Presbyterian church. The ring ceremony was used. The bride was beautifully gowned in white acaian and carried white roses, while Miss Anna Fihlhart acted as bridesmaid and carried pink carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. Robert Campbell, brother of the bride, and was dressed in the conventional black. The wedding march was played by Miss Nettie Campbell, of Clarion. After the ceremony and hearty congratulations a wedding luncheon was served. The bride and groom were the recipients of a number of beautiful, expensive and useful presents. Under a shower of rice the bridal party entered their carriage at 3:00 p. m., to leave Brookville on the east bound train for an extended trip to Washington, Harrisburg, Jamestown and Philadelphia. Rev. Reiter was formerly of Jefferson county, but for several years has been absent attending college, preparatory to entering the work of the Christian ministry. After graduating at Grove City College he entered the Western Theological Seminary, at Allegheny, from which he will graduate next year. He is now pastor of West View Presbyterian church. The bride is one of Clarington's accomplished and most highly respected young ladies, and has many friends not only at her home but in Brookville, where she has frequently been called in the past in the capacity of professional nurse. Rev. and Mrs. Reiter will be at home to their friends after August 1st, at Allegheny, Pa."
