ALTON TO BE IMMUNE

If It Has Kept Agreement With the Government.

Final Report on Capitol Thievery. Care Fell From Niagara Bridge. Three in Auto Party Killed—Robert A. Pinkerton Dropped Dead. Long Ocean Race.

If the Chicago & Alton railroad has kept faith with the government in the deal for immunity on the Standard Oil rebates made with former District Attorney Morrison observing of the agreement will be insisted upon by Attorney General Bonaparte. The road will receive immunity if it has earned it. If, on the other hand, the road has broken the agreement made with former Attorney General Moody's consent it will be prosecuted to the limit on the rebate charges.

This was announced last week at the department of justice. In order to get at the exact truth of the situation Mr. Bonaparte has called a conference to meet in Washington this week, which will be attended by District Attorney Sims, former District Attorney Morrison and Assistant District Attorney Wilkerson.

As Mr. Bonaparte understands it, there is a question as to whether the Alton has furnished the government with all the information in the Standard case which it said it would. The attorney general has no positive information to this effect, but it was hinted at the grand jury in Chicago on Wednesday and the department naturally wants to know.

It is plain, however, that Mr. Bonaparte will insist on the government observing its contract to the letter if the road has done the right thing. He is determined that for the effect in future prosecutions the government shall not be charged with breaking faith, even when pledged with a violator of the law.

The way the immunity deal was worked has just come out. District Attorney Morrison, it was said, had gained large amounts of information regarding rebating, involving both the Alton and the Standard. He found that the testimony from one would be necessary to convict the other. He informed the department that without the assistance of the Alton the Standard could not be convicted on more than half a dozen counts.

As it was desired to assess a great fine against the Standard, the promise of immunity was agreed upon by Attorney General Moody, according to the story.

Final Report of Capitol Probers.

Criminal and civil proceedings against all persons concerned in fraudulent transactions in the construction and furnishing of Pennsylvania's $12,000,000 Capitol are recommended in the final report of the Capitol investigation commission made to Governor Stuart.

Eighteen persons are named in the report as being involved in one way or other in the irregular transactions and the attorney general through the governor is urged to act at once.

The commission says the testimony shows that goods costing $1,574,299 were sold to the state by Sanderson and the Pennsylvania Construction company for $6,434,748.

After receiving the report, Governor Stuart said:

"I will transmit the report to the attorney general for his action and I can assure the people of Pennsylvania that there will be a vigorous prosecution of every person whom the evidence may show to have been guilty of any criminal offense in connection with the construction and furnishing of the state Capitol.

"Wherever the evidence submitted shows that there has been any money wrongfully or fraudulently taken from the state treasury, civil suits will be commenced to compel restitution."

Attorney General Todd is in Maine but he will return in time to prepare criminal proceedings here in September.

Care Fell From Niagara Bridge.

A Grand Trunk freight train was wrecked on the lower Steel Arch bridge at Niagara Friday morning. The bridge was badly damaged and four cars jumped from the upper deck and four cars tumbled into the rapids, 200 feet below. The cars that went over the bridge were loaded with meat from Swift's packing house.

The cars were all broken up on the slope of the bank, a portion of the wreckage and meat sweeping into the whirlpool rapids. At the point where the train left the track on the upper deck of the bridge cars were derailed and trucks piled up in a promiscuous way.

The lower deck of the bridge was littered with splinters from a walk on the upper deck, ruined by a derailed car that was dragged clear across the bridge.

Priceless Records Escape Fire. But for the timely interference of the bar of Butler county, Pa., county records of untold value would have been dumped into the scrap pile. The court house is being repaired and a ton of records dating back to 1776 were carried away by a junk dealer. Judge Galbreath named a committee to examine the papers before any more are disposed of. Trial dockets 60 years old and election records 100 years old were about to be burned.

ASKS FOR INJUNCTION

Against Use of Boycott and So-called Unfair List.

Washington, Aug. 20.—A national conference for the consideration of the subject of state and local taxation will be held under the auspices of the National Tax Association, in this city, Nov. 12, 1907.

The president of the association, Allen R. Foote, has invited all auditors or controllers of states, all members of the state tax commissions, boards of equalization and state tax commissioners; the president and professors of economics and public finance of all universities, and a large number of persons prominent in public and business affairs throughout the country, to attend and participate in the deliberations of the conference.

Governor Harris has formally requested the governors of the divers states of the Union to appoint three commissioners to represent their respective states at this conference.

The purposes of the conference are: To secure an authoritative and an exhaustive discussion of the subject of state and local taxation in all of its details; to produce a volume of proceedings containing the best thought of those who, by reason of their special educational training and practical experience, are qualified to speak with authority upon the specific branch of the subject they may elect to discuss; to furnish to the members of the legislatures of the several states a concrete, up-to-date statement of the economic and business principles that should be applied in state and local tax legislation, to be used as a guide for their action when considering proposals to improve the tax laws of their respective states and in the administration of the same; to secure the application of correct economic and business principles in all tax laws of the several states; and by securing uniformity in tax laws, to eliminate the evil of changes in legal residence and in the location of business undertakings induced by differences in state tax laws, and to create conditions of high value in aid of the effective and economical management of the financial affairs of all state and local governments.

Three Tourists Killed on the Jungfrau.

Berne, Switzerland, Aug. 20.—The fate of three German tourists who had been missing on the Jungfrau since last Thursday was cleared up yesterday when guides discovered their dead bodies on a glacier below Rothli-Sattal. They had fallen together a distance of 2,900 feet.

Unlawful Conspiracy Alleged.

The plaintiffs ask that the defendants be enjoined on pain of special process, first alleging a conspiracy unlawfully to injure their business. These points are as follows:

From in any manner carrying on a conspiracy to restrain and destroy the business of the plaintiff; from agreeing or combining to interfere in any manner with the business of the plaintiff or any other person, firm or corporation; from boycotting or attempting to boycott the plaintiff or the plaintiff's business; from publishing or distributing through the mails any copy of the "American Federationist," the organ of the American Federation of Labor, which contains the name of the plaintiff under its "we don't patronize" or "unfair" list, or which contains any statement that the plaintiff is or has been unfair; from publishing or circulating in any way, in pursuance of the alleged conspiracy, in writing or orally, any statement to the injury of the plaintiff; from representing or stating to customers of the plaintiff or dealers or the public that the plaintiff's factory has been boycotted and that its goods should not be dealt in, or for the purpose of coercing any dealer or person not to purchase the plaintiff's product; from threatening or intimidating the customers of the plaintiff; from giving any orders or directions to committees, associations, officers, agents or others for the performance of any acts or threats which would interfere with the plaintiff's business; and from carrying on the alleged conspiracy to prevent the plaintiff from conducting his proper business in any other state or territories of the Union.

The complaint states that the American Federation of Labor comprises 120 national or international unions, and has during the past 20 years repeatedly declared and prosecuted boycotts against the business and products of numerous individuals and concerns "under its ban" and that the federation's combined power is now being directed maliciously against the business of the plaintiff.

Steps Leading Up to the Action. The steps leading up to this action are set forth in the complaint to the outcome of a strike. According to the complaint, Aug. 29, 1896, the members of the Metal Polishers' union, No. 13, of St. Louis, in the employ of the stove company, struck in a body and without notice to the company, or waiting for an adjustment of grievances, in violation of an agreement between the International Union of Metal Polishers and the Stove Foundry's National Defense association, of which the Bucks company is a member.

On the failure of the strike the International Union of Metal Polishers declared a boycott against the Bucks company and its product, inserted the company's name in its "unfair" list and published it in the union paper, the "Journal."

In November, 1906, the products of the company were placed on "We don't patronize" lists of the American Federation of Labor, and published in the "American Federationist."

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

For the Consideration of State and Local Taxation.

Columbus, O., Aug. 20.—A national conference for the consideration of the subject of state and local taxation will be held under the auspices of the National Tax Association, in this city, Nov. 12, 1907.

The president of the association, Allen R. Foote, has invited all auditors or controllers of states, all members of the state tax commissions, boards of equalization and state tax commissioners; the president and professors of economics and public finance of all universities, and a large number of persons prominent in public and business affairs throughout the country, to attend and participate in the deliberations of the conference.

Governor Harris has formally requested the governors of the divers states of the Union to appoint three commissioners to represent their respective states at this conference.

The purposes of the conference are: To secure an authoritative and an exhaustive discussion of the subject of state and local taxation in all of its details; to produce a volume of proceedings containing the best thought of those who, by reason of their special educational training and practical experience, are qualified to speak with authority upon the specific branch of the subject they may elect to discuss; to furnish to the members of the legislatures of the several states a concrete, up-to-date statement of the economic and business principles that should be applied in state and local tax legislation, to be used as a guide for their action when considering proposals to improve the tax laws of their respective states and in the administration of the same; to secure the application of correct economic and business principles in all tax laws of the several states; and by securing uniformity in tax laws, to eliminate the evil of changes in legal residence and in the location of business undertakings induced by differences in state tax laws, and to create conditions of high value in aid of the effective and economical management of the financial affairs of all state and local governments.

Eric Machine Shops Burned.

The lives of 60 strikebreakers in the Erie machine shops at Susquehanna, Pa., were imperiled and the mammoth storehouse of the company was destroyed by fire Wednesday morning. The strikebreakers had been unable to obtain board in the village and were quartered in the upper portion of the big wooden building in which are stored all the supplies used on the Erie divisions between New York and Buffalo.

The fire was discovered in the upper portion of the building shortly after 3 o'clock and it was with difficulty that the men made their escape. The flames spread rapidly, threatening the entire plant, and help was summoned from Binghamton.

A steamer and a quantity of hose with a force of firemen was placed on a special train bound for Susquehanna when word was received that the building was totally destroyed but the adjacent shops were saved after a hard fight. The loss is $185,000 and is believed to be covered by insurance.

The origin of the fire is unknown.

Three in Auto Party Killed.

A large auto containing a party of five persons from Bristol, Conn., collided with the New York-Pittsfield express at Ashley Falls crossing, near Great Barrington, Mass., on Sunday, with the result that three of the motoring party are dead and the other two are suffering from injuries which may prove fatal.

According to the engineer of the express Mr. Root was at the wheel of the automobile. He had been racing with the train apparently, the tracks running almost parallel with the highway for some distance. The accident occurred at a grade crossing just north of the Ashley Falls station.

It is believed that Mr. Root hoped to cross ahead of the train, but he miscalculated the speed of the express and his machine hit the tender of the locomotive and was smashed to bits.

Mr. Root's friends who came here from Bristol said that he was troubled with extreme deafness. His mother and aunt, too, were both hard of hearing and the former was also blind, being 82 years of age.

Robert A. Pinkerton Dropped Dead.

Robert A. Pinkerton, who directed the business of the Pinkerton detective agency with his brother, William A., died suddenly aboard the steamer Bremen on way to Europe. He was walking on deck when he dropped dead. With Florrie Sullivan and several other friends he sailed on Aug. 8, hoping that the waters of Nauheim would restore his health. Mr. Pinkerton had been suffering from heart trouble for months, but none of his friends thought his condition was alarming. The body was taken to Germany on board the Bremen and will be shipped to New York from Bremen on Aug. 20.

Long Ocean Race a Dead Heat.

A race across two oceans from Honolulu to the Delaware breakwater, at Philadelphia, a distance of some 14,700 miles, between two four-masted ships for a wager of $500 ended at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in a dead heat, when both vessels engaged in the long race were the Edward Sewell, Captain Quick, and the Astrill, Captain Dunham, both American vessels, with big cargoes of sugar. To make the race interesting each captain agreed to divide $300 with his crew provided his ship won.

Motor Boat Tank Exploded.

A gasoline tank in a motor boat on the Seacoast river, near Tiverton, R. I., exploded Sunday night, causing the death of two persons and serious injuries to five others. The boat was a 36-footer owned by Joseph Chouinard of Fall River, and contained 14 young people who had been on a trip to Newport from Fall River and had stopped at Tiverton on their return.

Secretary Taft's Trip Across Continent.

Secretary Taft delivered an address at Columbus, O., on Monday. He will proceed slowly on the journey to the Pacific coast and will make brief stops at several cities during the week.

Governor Hughes at County Fairs.

The circuit of the state arranged by Governor Hughes of New York to permit him to attend all the larger county fairs will begin this week, but it will be well into September before it is completed.

4 Per Cent Savings.

The savings department of the Warren National Bank presents several attractive features. The first is that interest is paid or compounded twice a year, thus affording a return on savings once each six months. The second is, the whole amount on deposit, or any portion of it, can be withdrawn at one time, without notice. This appeals to persons who are saving to buy a home, or for some other purpose, and who may want their savings without delay.
