Voters should bear in mind that September 4th is the last day for legal registration in order to entitle them to vote at the November election.

BREAKING the laws is more apt to breed panics than the enforcement of the laws is to have that result.

AS FAR as the prosperity of the West is concerned, Wall street is a local issue, and the same may be said of the country's prosperity in general.

NEW YORK barbers have decided that men who shave themselves must cut their own hair. Here's a splendid chance for a correspondence school to teach hair-cutting by mail.

IT is now being pointed out that if the prosecution of the trusts continues, the poor will suffer with the rich. Still, that's a heap better than the poor suffering alone.

ANOTHER bluebird in England gives the navy of the United States second place in fighting strength. And Uncle Sam has made up his mind, in the interest of peace, to keep the navy in up-to-date working condition.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has decided that the Prosperity procession must not be halted by tariff revision. This will be a disappointment to the dyspeptics who have been growling at the good times.—Scranton Truth.

A FEW years ago it would have been said that the annual expenditure of $35,000,000 on rural free delivery would be ruinous, but the Post Office Department has been cutting down the deficit of late, and hopes to wipe it out.

IN the year 1857 the treasury revenue of the United States Government was $68,000,000, an amount nearly equaled now by the monthly receipts. Another tenfold increase in the next fifty years would reach amazing figures.

MARK AN "R" on the calendar for September 4, which will remind you to register on that date. Do not neglect this. It will qualify you for voting both at the November and February elections. And unless you register you cannot vote.

EXPOSITION Clubs are being formed in different parts of the country. The members are saving one, two or three dollars each week in order that by the time the Alaska-Yukon Pacific Exposition opens at Seattle, June 1, 1909, they will have sufficient funds to pay for a trip to the world's fair. A treasurer is elected who collects and keeps the money. Which moves the appreciative Oil City Bizzard to remark that "this will afford many a thrifty person an opportunity to get away with the club's funds before the opening, which is nearly two years away."

Republicans, Attention!

Here are some "last days" to which we invite your attention:

For registering voters, Wednesday, September 4.

For paying poll taxes, Saturday, October 5.

For filing certificates of nomination, State offices, Monday, September 23.

For filing nomination papers, State offices, Tuesday, October 1.

For filing certificates of nomination county offices, Tuesday, October 8.

For filing nomination papers, county offices, Tuesday, October 15.

Election day, Tuesday, Nov. 5.

Candidate Sheatz's Opening Speech.

The opening speech of Mr. Sheatz, the Republican candidate for State Treasurer was direct, manly and unequivocal. He gave every pledge that the people could ask, and his pledge was convincing because there was an honest, fearless man behind it.

Mr. Sheatz declared for the punishment of the Capitol looters to the fullest extent of the law. Whatever he can do to promote that object will be done, and no effort within his power to prevent the recurrence of such crimes in any branch of the public service will be spared. He has himself been an upright and irreproachable public representative—and that, too, amid many temptations—and he abhors such a betrayal of public trust.

But his pledges went much farther. He said: "Of this you can be absolutely sure—that if elected I positively will refuse to pay any request or demand upon the State Treasury where the expenditure is not clearly defined and approved by existing laws, or when I suspect that great extravagance exists."

That goes right to the root of the whole matter. The Treasurer is the custodian of the State funds. He pays upon warrant, but that is not perfunctory mission to pay any and every warrant that may be presented. He must know the authority of law for it. He must be on guard against wanton extravagance. He must be a faithful watchdog. If any other official has been lax he must enforce rigid accountability. That is what Mr. Sheatz pledges himself to do and his record is the assurance that he will fulfill his pledge.

The people of the State can ask nothing more or better. Mr. Sheatz will do his duty without fear or favor. He is free and untrammelled. He is under no obligations except to the people. He was nominated, not by machine influence, but by the general sentiment of independent delegates who recognized the importance of making a candidate whose character and record would command implicit public confidence. Mr. Sheatz meets all the requirements.—Philadelphia Press.

Emory Covell, aged 29 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Covell, of Goodwill Hill, Pa., was struck at Celeron Sunday afternoon by being struck by a trolley car. His head was badly crushed and his body mutilated, death resulting instantly. Young Covell had been employed as a pumper by George Coe at Pleasantville. Besides his parents, he leaves surviving five sisters and two brothers.

George Barnes, of Shingle House, N. Y., was held up Saturday by three masked footpads and robbed of his watch and $7 in money. A number of young men who reside in Sheffield and Warren are preparing to go to Mardi Gras in New Orleans this winter. This trip will be made from Warren to New Orleans by boat, and it is expected that about three months will be consumed in their trip which will be started as soon as the water reaches a stage sufficiently high to carry the boat over the shallows in the stream. A naphtha launch will be taken with the party so that good progress can be made through slack water when necessary, and the house boat can be kept out of the track of the big steamers on the Ohio and Mississippi.

Henry Wagner, the prisoner in the Meadville jail who is charged with assaulting 14-year-old Alma Whitehead near Turnersville confessed Wednesday to two similar cases of assault previous to the one on which he is now held. He also made known his identity. He said his name was Henry Lehna, of West Newton, Pa., where his parents and his brother and sister reside. One of the cases to which Lehna confessed was that upon Nellie Ott, 15 years old, at Ridgely, Mineral County, West Virginia, on June 22 last. The other was upon 14-year-old Mary Medegar, at West Newton, July 6. Lehna was identified by both these victims. In the West Virginia affair Lehna caught Miss Ott early in the morning while she was in the mountains after the cows. He dragged her to his camp where he tied her to four stakes previously driven in the ground. At West Newton he caught Mary Medegar early in the evening and kept her in the woods about half the night.

From Indian Territory.

ALLUWE, IND. TER., Aug. 20, 1907. DEAR FRIEND:—Today, as it is trying to rain, I thought I would try to fulfill my promise to drop you a few lines, as I am sitting in the power house, and thinking of the old home and friends.

Well, this is one of the driest seasons I ever saw. It has not rained for two months and everything is drying up. In fact I am just about dried up myself and tanned as brown as an Indian. Some of the machines have shut down for water, but there is plenty of work and men are scarce here. The corn crop in this part is a failure; the wheat was good but there is not much raised here. The natives are poor farmers; they like to hunt and fish better than work. There will be plenty of quail and squirrels this fall. Wish you and Joe Sowdon were here. I would show you a good time. There is no use asking any one else to come out here, as this is too far from home. Well, I like the west for I have been here half of my life, and I can't stay in Pennsylvania longer than a year at a time. The oil business is good here. Wish some of the old boys would come out and see this field. We would show them how to put down a hole and get oil. Well, I will have to close as the rain has passed off and I will have to go out and look after my work and get a drink—not beer, as that is scarce here. With best wishes to all, Yours, R. C. SHRYVER.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him. It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—Sam. H. Gwin, Concord, Ga. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so far sold in its currency five powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J.
