For paying poll taxes, Saturday, October 5.

For filing nomination papers, county offices, Tuesday, October 15.

Election day, Tuesday, Nov 5.

ONE reason for our present interest in the planet Mars, is that we would like to know so much how the Martians go about the business of digging a big canal.

THE news that one of our islands has disappeared must confirm the worst fears of Hobson and Bob Taylor. Japan has evidently swallowed it while we were not looking.

THE harvester trust ought to be prompt in paying the fine of $1,000,000 assessed against it in the Lone Star State, and be thankful that it did not fall into the hands of Judge Landis.

THOSE who have been looking for a hopeful sign will find it in the announcement that the rich farmers of the West are coming to the relief of the embarrassed financial concerns of the East.

JUDGE CRISWELL is being commended in many localities for his action with reference to the county roads. For example, the Philadelphia Press says: "Judge Criswell, of Venango County, has had 28 Road Commissioners indicted because they neglected to repair the roads. This looks like rather drastic action, but there are some sections of the state where Road Commissioners have never learned that it is their business to see that the roads are kept in proper condition. Some of them have been accustomed to hearing a lecture from the bench without being very much impressed with it. An indictment is different and will go much farther toward getting the work properly done."

SECRETARY TAFT, who is now on his way to the Philippines, will be absent from the country for several months, but that fact somehow seems to add interest in his availability for the Presidency. Mr. Taft has had a wider experience in public affairs than any other man mentioned for the great office which seems to be calling for him. He solved the difficult problem of the Philippines, stopped the insurection in Cuba and put the island in a healthy condition in a few days, and above all he is successfully conducting the most stupendous engineering undertaking to be found anywhere in the world's history—the Panama Canal. So this long record of successes seems to hold him out conspicuously as one eminently fitted for the "High Office."

THE Bell telephone company and its subsidiaries are said to have withdrawn the half-rate long distance night service, which is equivalent to saying that the night and day cost of telephoning will hereafter be the same. The reason given for this drastic change is that much business was held back until after 6 p. m. in order to get the cheaper rate, thus causing a congestion in the evening. This sounds well for the telephone people, but there are a whole lot of folks who will see in it a desire to pull more blood out of the public as the monopoly gets its fangs thoroughly fastened in the flesh of its patrons. There is one way, and a good one, to even up with this effort to gouge and that is to use more one-cent postal cards and less telephones, a thing which is easily done if the public will just "steady up" and do for awhile. The pace has been one of too great rapidity anyway and it won't hurt to slow up a little just to give certain institutions to understand that there is a limit.

A PECULIAR and somewhat embarrassing situation has arisen in Georgia in consequence of the recent enactment of the prohibitory amendment to the constitution of that state. Under a strict construction of the law which goes into effect January 1, 1908, it is held it will be unlawful to administer wine at the communion table. This feature of the law is causing protests and Grand Juries throught the state have adopted the following: "After January 1, 1908, every minister who hands sacramental wine to his members will subject himself to as many indictments as there are members. Every deacon who hands the sacramental wine to the members of the church will subject himself to as many indictments as there are members. We petition the General Assembly of Georgia to make such amendments to the law as will allow the Christian people of the state to worship God according to the dictates of their own conscience, without violating the laws of the state."

OUR fleet will consume 100,000 tons of coal on its passage to the Pacific and take three months for the journey. The Oregon made the distance in sixty days, but was needed in a fight, and got there in time.

REFERRING to the decision of Judge Willing, of Erie county, finding the mayor of Erie guilty of violating the corrupt practices act, the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "The first decision of the corrupt practices act was handed down on Monday by Judge E. A. Willing, of Erie county. The case before him was that against the new mayor of the city of Erie, who is charged with violating the provisions of the act. The matter will now be brought to the attention of Attorney General Todd, who will likely institute quo warranto proceedings to ouset the mayor from office. The friends of reform in elections have been greatly encouraged by the opinion handed down by the Erie judge. In his opinion Judge Willing holds that the mayor spent money for various purposes and made no mention of it in his official accounting, all of which is contrary to law. Several cases similar to that of the Erie mayor are pending in various parts of the state."

Neighborhood Notes.

The oldest school teacher in Indiana county is said to be W. L. Davis of Armagh, 70 years of age, hearty and still effective.

They had a frost up in McKean county about two weeks ago that did much damage to the corn and other tender vegetation.

At Kittanning, one night recently, burglars made a raid on several residences and showed a discrimination that was unique. They raided the house of Edward Adams, a dairyman, took several dollars in pennies found in a cup and then divided the other things. They only appropriated one-half of a beef roast, one of two dozen eggs, half a cake, one-half the potatoes, half a pound of coffee, one-half of a four pound roll of butter, etc. They then visited a neighboring house, and, carrying Ed. Cushman's trousers from his bed room took nine dollars out of a roll containing $18.

Following the accidental shooting of his companion, Robert Ramsey, Jr., shortly after midnight, Howard Riley committed suicide by jumping in front of an express train on the Allegheny division of the Pennsylvania railroad near Kittanning Sunday. Ramsey and Riley had started on a lark, and when passing a farm house decided to secure some eatables for a feast. Ramsey went into the farmhouse and Riley went to the chicken coop. While Riley was in the coop Ramsey opened the door and as he struck a match Riley, thinking it was the owner shot Ramsey through the breast. Riley when he found he had shot his friend, became almost insane, and tried to shoot himself. Riley took the injured man home, then hurried for doctors, remaining near the bedside until early in the morning. Then he went home, told his mother of the shooting, changed his clothes, and returned to Ramsey. He seemed to be beside himself with grief. Without saying anything, he left the house, walked out on the railroad track and when the express from Buffalo came rushing along he threw himself in front of the engine and was ground to pieces.

Letter to Wm. Cropp,

Tionesta, Pa.

DEAR SIR:—Suppose you've got 200 cows; how much will you take for calves and milk of 100 of 'em next year—you pick out the 100?

How much for the other 100?

The point is: cows are not all alike, and you know which is which.

It is so with paint. You've got one best cow in that herd. There are 200 different paints in the United States; and one best. You know your best cow; we know the best paint.

The best cow is the one that gives the best calves and milk. The best paint is the one that covers most surface and stays there longest—neither paint nor cow goes by color—nobody asks whether Holstein or Jersey is better to look-at.

10 gallons Devoe will cover your barn and wear 10 years; it'll take 15 of another paint, and that paint'll wear 5 years.

Reckon costs. Devoe: 10 gallons $1.75, $17.50; about 10 days' work $3, $30; the job, $47.50 for ten years; $4.75 a year. The other: 15 gallons $1.60, $24; about 15 days' work $3, $45; the job, $69 for five years; $13.80 a year. Devoe $4.75 a year; the other $13.80 a year. Difference $9 a year.

That's how to reckon cows and paint.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.,
35 New York.
