MOON'S PHASES. New Moon 7 5:30, Full Moon 21 4:18, First Quarter 14 5:02, Third Quarter 29 2:51.

Republicans, Attention!

Here are some "last days" to which we invite your attention: For paying poll taxes, Saturday, October 5. For filing certificates of nomination county officers, Tuesday, October 8. For filing nomination papers, county officers, Tuesday, October 15. Election day, Tuesday, Nov. 5.

ARE YOUR TAXES PAID?

AMERICAN farmers seem to have learned the important art of raising good crops after a late spring's bad start.

THE sea water injection cure is making great headway. One of the merits of the new remedy is that no trust can corner the supply.

PERSONS who expect a panic because dishonest methods are exposed have an unreasonably poor opinion of the basis on which business rests.

SOME Democratic papers are wondering who will be named by Bryan, if he decides not to run himself. This is a desperate extremity Mr. Bryan may not consider for twelve or sixteen years more.

IT is not expected that the predacious financiers of Wall street will find any comfort in the speeches now being delivered by President Roosevelt. The only hope for Wall street lies in a contrite and eternal reformation.

By means of what is called the "recall," Los Angeles can eject any of its municipal officials who fails to fulfill his duty. Flinging promises to the winds after an election is not indulged in there as freely as in some other cities, it isn't likely.

GOVERNOR STUART is proving himself worthy of the confidence reposed in him by the people when they elected him to the highest office in the State of Pennsylvania. He promised to give a clean business administration, and he has thus far made good on that promise. Confidence in his sincerity is increased by his utterance at the convention of Republican Clubs in support of clean politics, and contempt for that class of politicians who, by dishonesty and indecency, have cast odium upon the party, and the declaration that they should be driven out of the organization. That is the attitude needed at the present time, and is an assurance that there will be no shirking when it comes to meting out punishment to any who may be found guilty of wrongdoing. —Oil City Blizzard.

The two-cent fare law in Pennsylvania went into effect yesterday, October 1st. All railroads in the State are now charging two cents a mile for passenger travel. The rates for interstate business will remain the same as now. No round trip tickets will be sold, the rate being two cents for each and every mile traveled. Mileage books will be sold on the same basis as formerly. This action is taken by all railroad companies pending the test in the courts of the validity of the new rate law, passed by the last legislature. The new schedules have been posted and agents are busy familiarizing themselves with the changed rates. Whether the old rates will be again adopted should the court of last resort decide the law unconstitutional is a question, but it is doubtful. It is altogether likely 2-cent fares have come to stay. At least on the larger lines of railroads.

Old Soldiers Defend Sheatz.

"Any man who says that John O. Sheatz is not a friend of the old soldier is a liar." Gen. St. Clair Mulholland, local pension agent at Philadelphia, last night made this public announcement in denouncing the men who are blaming Sheatz with the failure of the soldiers' pension bill in the last legislature.

The general told of the introduction of the bill by a Democrat who fixed the amount so low that it was apparent the legislator did not intend the measure to become a law. When the legislation reached the house, Mr. Sheatz, who was chairman of the appropriations committee had a meeting with Mulholland and other prominent Grand Army men. "We told him," said the general, "how much money would be needed and he inserted the sum in the bill and pushed the measure through the house. Gov. Stuart had to veto the bill because of lack of funds. I have a circular letter signed by the Rev. James Patton, in which it is stated that Sheatz raised the amount for the purpose of defeating the bill. Any man who makes that statement is a falsifier. I can furnish the name of every old soldier in the state who is entitled to a pension and can prove the correct amount was named in the bill. If Mr. Sheatz was guilty of wrong in raising the figures, I am guilty and the officers of the Grand Army are guilty, for we told him the amount."

If you desire to vote next month don't put off the payment of your taxes another day. October 5th is the last day for this business, and you'll have only yourself to blame if you are unable to present a tax receipt to the election board. Let no Republican be so negligent as to lose his vote on this account. See to it at once.

EX-SENATOR JAMES K. JONES of Arkansas has reappeared at the front to say that "I talked with Mr. Bryan lately, and it is by no means certain that he will be a candidate." Mr. Jones will not even say that he believes a Democrat will be elected in 1908. How changed is this once sanguine Bryan leader, but the public may rest assured that it is the same Jones.

SINCE the pure food law went into effect a certain kind of raspberry jam has borne this inscription: "This jam is made of glucose, with artificial seeds, and is colored with harmless aniline dyes." Hayseed appears to be too valuable for some preserves, and artificial seeds, made by machinery, are substituted. People who object to jam in which there is no fruit ought to read the labels.

SOUND THE SLOGAN.

Trio of Distinguished Pennsylvanians Blaze The Way.

[Special Correspondence.] Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 1.

United States Senator Philander C. Knox, Governor Edwin S. Stuart and former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith make a distinguished trio that have gone upon record, within the last few days, in most emphatic terms in favor of the election of John O. Sheatz, the Republican nominee for state treasurer.

Not only have they eulogized Mr. Sheatz in the highest terms, but they have sent a note of warning to Republicans of the Keystone state of the danger that would come to the Republican party in the nation as the result of a Democratic victory in Pennsylvania this fall.

Upon the eve of a presidential campaign, they plead for the wiping out of all factional lines, the cementing of the party organization, and a vigorous and aggressive onslaught upon the works of the common enemy in this, the skirmish of a great national political battle.

Knox Points the Way.

Senator Knox, who is taking a lively interest in the state campaign, has, over his own signature, just given expression to these sentiments: "We have in Pennsylvania this year a perfectly simple proposition, and one in respect to which I do not think it is possible to mislead the public. The Republican party has presented a good candidate on his own and his party's good record; and, after all, how much more substantial a record is this than a prospectus. There are no side issues this year and no middle ground. The issue of the campaign now on is the approval or disapproval of the party's unswerving continuity of act and purpose to express the public will in legislation and administration.

Live Issues Are Met.

"The Republican party in Pennsylvania has responded to the awakened political and commercial conscience of the people in a way which would commend itself to all to whom political and commercial rights are dear. The reform measures for the protection of the elective franchise; the abolishing of fees in elective offices; the safeguarding of the state's funds and other legislation of the late extra session of the legislature of the commonwealth, to which has been added the legislation of last winter of almost equal importance in character and effect, constitute a record of real achievement for which the Republican party can justly claim credit.

"The last time we tried conclusions in Pennsylvania with our friends of the opposition we marched to victory with Edwin S. Stuart at the head of the ticket, who, as governor, has fulfilled all the expectations and predictions expressed of him.

"Now, with a record of permanent reform to our credit, one of the fruits of which was the untrammelled selection of John O. Sheatz by delegates directly chosen by the people, we should poll a vote for this candidate of unassailed integrity and large public experience that will set at rest once and for all the shallow pretense that involves anything beyond the endorsement of Republican policies and the calling of a well-versed and tested public servant to higher honors and graver responsibilities for which he is eminently qualified."

Governor Goes Upon Record.

Governor Stuart, who has promised to make one or more speeches in favor of Mr. Sheatz's election, in commenting upon the issues in the state canvass, said:

"This campaign turns solely upon the election of a state treasurer, and next to the election of an honest man it is important to elect a Republican. I do not propose to indulge in personalities. Mr. Harman is an upright, honest man. I have known Mr. Sheatz for 20 years, and there is no reason why every Republican cannot vote for John O. Sheatz for state treasurer. I was in almost daily contact with Mr. Sheatz during the legislative session. He was chairman of that most important committee, appropriations, and I know no man who ever held public office or trust who took care of the purse strings more honestly than did he.

"Every act that he performed was for the good of the commonwealth. I say this from a personal knowledge of the man. Sheatz stands for honesty in politics and decency in the management of public affairs. Any man who stands for anything else is not a Republican and not deserving of the name."

A Tip to the Independents.

Former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith, and one time minister to Russia, is already upon the stump advocating the election of the Republican nominee for state treasurer. Mr. Smith is looked upon as expressing the views of those with whom he has been associated in independent political movements in this state, and his pronounced stand in behalf of Mr.

Sheatz has discouraged the Democrats, who had been counting upon independent support for their ticket. "I am glad," says Mr. Smith, "that the Republican party is now united in Pennsylvania in support of an exceptionally strong candidate for the office of state treasurer.

"The party is harmonious, and I am asking all who have stood with me in the past, for the principles which I have championed, to give loyal and earnest support to the Republican nominee for state treasurer, Mr. John O. Sheatz.

"Mr. Sheatz has a splendid record as a member of the general assembly. "In 1905 he alone of all the members of the legislature from Philadelphia had the courage and independence to stand up and vote against the ripper bill. He was chairman of the committee of appropriations, and in all the work of that important committee, around which the cormorants of the state flutter, there is not a single blot or blemish, and there has not been a criticism of any of its actions."

Messrs. Knox, Stuart and Smith all predict the election of Mr. Sheatz by a large majority.

A Beautiful Exposition.

Far too little has been said about the real merits of the exposition that celebrates the three hundredth anniversary of the settlement of the United States. The Jamestown Ter-Centennial Exposition was unfortunate in allowing itself to be seen long before it was ready for inspection. It is not colossal, but it is beautiful and it is instructive. Visitors going there in the mood of willingness to discover the attractions of the exposition will not be disappointed. The eight or ten weeks that remain of the fair ought to bring hundreds of thousands of visitors from all parts of the country. The region itself is full of historic and present-day interest. Norfolk, Newport News, Hampton, and Fortress Monroe are at hand, and water excursions may be made to Jamestown Island and in every direction. The architecture of the exposition is to the trained observer more charming than that of almost any other in a long series of expositions. If the exhibits are not of a bewildering extent and variety, they are at least thoroughly illustrative of recent progress. Some of the special exhibits, like that contained in the negro building, for instance, are worthy of great praise. The United States Government has expended much money and ingenuity in its various efforts to represent in this fair what the government departments are doing, and the management of the enterprise has achieved wonders in the overcoming of difficulties that have arisen. The weather on Hampton Roads during the remaining months of the exposition ought to be very agreeable for visitors.

Avoid Swindle!

This is the fact of the matter, that many people get swindled on now days, for the single reason that they do not understand the monument business; in the same way, we do not understand your business. We guarantee all our work to be A-No. 1 in every particular and also guarantee perfect satisfaction, and we fulfill the above guarantee at the lowest possible price, and we have the facilities for turning out work as cheaply as any other firm. Now you will ask how another firm can fill a contract at less money. If you are in need of a headstone, monument or marker, of any size, style or description, drop us a postal and our solicitor will call on you and tell you the rest. J. O. A Certain Cure for Group-Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Man and Wife Drowned in Canal. Rome, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. William Sishover of New London, eight miles west of here, were drowned in the Erie canal at noon yesterday. A man fishing some distance away saw the woman run out of the house, near the canal, and jump in. She was immediately followed by her husband, who attempted to rescue her but failed, and both sank before help could reach the scene. The man was about 40 and the woman 35. Two young daughters survive. Domestic differences are said to have caused the trouble.

Says There's No Ground For Divorce.

New York, Oct. 1.—Mae Catherine Wood has brought action in the supreme court for absolute divorce from United States Senator T. C. Platt, alleging that she had been married to him in the Fifth Avenue hotel, New York, in 1901. John B. Stanchfield, who appeared for Senator Platt, asked that the matter be heard in private by a referee. He said Senator Platt was never married to Miss Wood and therefore there was no ground for divorce. Justice Seabury reserved decision.

Deadlock Between China and Japan.

Pekin, Oct. 1.—There has been a complete deadlock between China and Japan over Manchurian affairs since June last, and the attitude of the United States towards Japan has now become a feature of the situation. The new administrations at Mukden and Peking welcomed what the officials call a "revival of America's spirit" in sending the battleship fleet to the Pacific, after apparent indifference to the Far Eastern situation, and as a result the Chinese officials are resisting the demands of the Japanese.

Company Accepts Cut Fares.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 1.— Announcement was made by the Lincoln Traction company that it will comply with the order of the state railway commission that it sell six fares for 25 cents to adults and 10 fares to school children for 25 cents, to be used during certain hours of the day. The commission's recent ruling places a valuation on the plant of the traction company and the Citizens Railway company and limits their earnings accordingly.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

"Just fancy Wegmald, I've forgotten my card case." "Never mind, dear boy; I'll lend you some of mine." "But—the name would be different, you know." "But Jose, so it would. What a head you have, Algy."

Afflicted With Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed.
