—Oil market closed at $1.75.
 —You can get it at Hopkins' store, if —Ladies' Coats and Furs, G. W. Robinson & Son.
 —Many a man's peck of trouble comes in liquid form.
 —Shoes for all—men, boys, ladies and children. Hopkins.
 —Hunters should remember that state law prohibits the use of automatic shot guns in Pennsylvania.
 —The subject of Rev. W. O. Calhoun's sermon at the M. E. church next Sabbath evening will be "Hindered Christians".
 —Mrs. W. G. Wyman is still plucking roses of the largest, sweetest variety from a bush she has cultivated for the past two seasons.
 —Through the efforts of Congressman Wheeler, our townsman, W. W. Walford, a veteran of the civil war, was last week granted a pension of $15 per month.
 —No use waiting for a January price on Coats, Jackets or Furs. The price at the opening at Hopkins' Store will be in the January case. Friday, October 25th.
 —Mrs. Rose Zents, one of Barnett township's oldest citizens, died at her home near North Pine Grove on the 30th ult., aged 80 years. Several children, all married, survive her.
 —The only way to buy a Coat or Jacket is to buy at an opening. Then you get just what you want and save money. Don't forget the opening at Hopkins' Store, Friday, October 25th.
 —An exchange has been made little figuring on its own account. It finds that Adam would have had to earn $10 a week from the dawn of creation until next Saturday night to pay the Standard Oil Company's fine.
 —Don't miss the Coat, Jacket and Fur sale at Hopkins' Store, Friday, October 25th. When you buy a coat at an opening of this kind you get a chance to select from hundreds of garments and you save dollars in price.
 —Now that the hunting season is on the advice to look twice before you shoot is timely. Don't, through carelessness, be responsible for the death or maiming of some fellowman, says an exchange, and the admonition is wise and should be heeded by all hunters.
 —Henry & Campbell have broken ground for their mill on the A. K. Shippe tract. The mill will be located back of the Rafus Dodge place above town. It will be portable, with a capacity of 10,000 feet a day. C. Fitzgerald has the contract to stock the mill which will be in operation in the very near future.—Marienville Express.

—The rains of last week raised the creek and river to good boating stage, and permitted the lumbermen to get a number of barges started for the Pittsburgh market. The Nebraska firm started ten, and the Forest Barge Co., at Hickory, has sixteen of the big craft on the way. Law Cook and Albert Lawrence are the respective jobbers in charge of the fleets.
 —A new law in this state, which went into effect on the first of October, requires that no person employed as a telegraph operator, engaged in business pertaining to the movement of railroad trains, shall work more than eight hours at a time. This will necessitate three operators each twenty-four hours at each railroad telegraph office where train orders are received and sent.
 —Present indications are that the requirements for shipment over the Pennsylvania line between Oil City and Olean are such as to demand a double track at a date in the not distant future. The capacity of the single track is taxed to the utmost, one long train of heavily loaded freight cars following another so closely that it is simply remarkable there are not more accidents.—Blizzard.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—Restaurant on State street, Marienville, Pa. Has been doing a good business for over three years. All the latest improvements. Has its own water works. A thriving ice cream business, all kinds of fine candy, a big stock of cigars and tobacco. It is located right where the street cars stop, one of the best locations in the town. Reasons for selling are on account of ill health.
 —Attention is directed to the broad-gauge ad. of the Monarch Clothing Co. in this issue. Their fall opening begins tomorrow, Thursday, and will be a feature of special interest to all. Those who attend will be regaled with a choice musical program by noted artists who have been secured for the occasion at great expense. The Monarch people extend a special and cordial invitation to all to attend this fine attraction.
 —During the severe thunder storm last Thursday afternoon the barn on the farm of George Kennedy, at Hunter Station, was struck by lightning and totally destroyed by the fire which ensued. The total loss will not be large, as the barn was a small one, but it falls quite heavily on Mr. Kennedy, he having all his hay in the building. A pig was also burned to death, but two others which were in the barn at the time, escaped.

—A fleet of river barges arrived here on Tuesday from Forest county and all but one tied up at Morans eddy. The exception first grounded on some rocks at the foot of pump house eddy and when poled into deep water saddlebagged itself on one of the piers of the P. R. R. bridge.—Oil City Derrick.
 —Fred Heckathorn, of Rouseville, was arrested Saturday charged by Mrs. Mahaffy, a former resident of Tionesta, with attempting to rape her 13-year-old daughter, Pearl Sutter. At a hearing Monday before Alderman Johnston, Heckathorn was held in $500 bail for court. The Mahaffy's now live in Oil City. The offense is alleged to have occurred at a dance in Rouseville Friday night, which the mother and daughter attended.
 —During the past summer many of the fishermen of Warren have enjoyed some good fishing on Sundays, but that sport is now at an end and Sunday fishing must cease. D. T. Gabriel has received a letter from W. E. Meahan, of Harrisburg, saying that Sunday fishing must be stopped and the law on the subject enforced. Fishermen are thankful that the law was not enforced until the end of the summer, when the sport was nearly at an end.—Warren Times.
 —A carrier pigeon flew against a telegraph pole near the Keystone hotel on last Wednesday and broke its wing and is being cared for by G. W. Buhl. On a ring around one leg are the letters T. Y. and figures 2724 which no doubt indicate who the bird belongs to, and on the other leg just the string and remnants of no doubt the envelope containing the information it was carrying. Mr. Buhl would be pleased to hear from the person to whom the bird belongs.—Marienville Express.

—Several car loads of flag stone have reached this station and will be distributed among lot owners of the borough who will lay new walks this fall. Tionesta, noted for its fine walks, keeps up the pace remarkably well, and it will not be long till every foot of walk on Elm street and many of the side streets, too, will be of the substantial stone or cement variety. At present there are but a few short pieces of wooden walks on either side of Elm street that need replacing with the permanent material.
 —Mrs. Collner, wife of ex-Sheriff W. F. Collner, died at the family home in Clarion on Wednesday last, of heart disease. She was a daughter of the late Judge John G. Braddon, of Barnett township, Forest county, and will be remembered by many friends in that portion of the county. She is survived by her husband, three sons and one daughter, one of her sons, Arthur B., having held the office of prothonotary of Clarion county for two terms, and is now cashier of the Rinersburg National Bank.
 —The REPUBLICAN acknowledges, with thanks, a souvenir postal card containing a group picture of the Kellektiville Concert Band in which 34 musicians are shown, including Squire Leon Watson, who doesn't have a horn or other musical instrument, but who is just as much a part and parcel of this flourishing band as any of them, and doubtless often helps "pay the freight" when the boys need the sinews of war. There is no other town in Pennsylvania the size of Kellektiville that can boast of as fine a musical aggregation.
 —The hillsides are beginning to take on their annual autumn hue, and soon they will present the most gorgeous array of all the year, and the "rare day in June" will be far outclassed in grandeur and sublimity. Nothing so great as fine fall weather when she's fine, even if it has a suggestion of the fast dying year or a premonition of the wintry blast to come. Isn't it the time for hickory nuts and squirrels and pheasants and buck-wheat cakes with sausage meat and honey? Gee whiz! What more need mortal crave?
 —The lumber firm of Newton, Reed & Fisher, well known locally, has bought 700 acres of virgin oak timber at East Brady on the Allegheny river. The price paid is believed to be somewhere around $25,000. The tract will be lumbered as soon as preparations can be made to begin it. Mr. Newton was formerly a resident of Tionesta. Mr. Reed is a Rouseville man and Mr. Fisher used to live at Sparrowsburg. They have been associated in the lumber business along the Allegheny river and elsewhere for a number of years.—Tionesta Herald.

—Ray Birtel, Tionesta's reliable drayman, has purchased Mrs. Eli Holman's handsome property, consisting of the old homestead buildings, a nice orchard and several acres of fine meadow and grazing lands, and will take possession within the next few days. Council run courses through this property and we understand it is Ray's intention to build a large ice pond and serve Tionesta customers with a pure article of ice next summer, in connection with his drayage business. If close and prompt attention to business will accomplish it Ray will make this industry a paying one.
 —Messrs. D. B. Shields of Marienville, A. R. Mechliff of Clarington, and W. H. Stiles of Endeavor, were at the county seat Monday on business connected with the suits brought by the Citizens National Bank against the firms of Osgood & Jamieson and Landers & Wyman, in which the gentlemen named have been chosen arbitrators. They were sworn in as such, and by agreement of all parties to the issues, December 9th, next, was set as the date on which to begin proceedings. These suits are brought by the bank for alleged overdrafts and there are five separate cases to be tried.
 —For several years it has been the pleasure of the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to give a dinner at the County Home, for the benefit of the inmates. The pleasant custom was not forgotten this year, as on the beautiful morning of Wednesday, October 2d, a large number of the "White Ribbons" with baskets filled with overflows were driven to the home, where they were most cordially received by the superintendent and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. Wenk, who turned over to them the free use of the dining room and culinary department, as well as giving them the "freedom of the home." It was not long until a bountiful repast was spread and the inmates were seated around the tables partaking of it. The words of pleasure and thanks expressed by the inmates more than repaid the "White Ribbons" for the treat they had provided. And if during the year it is remembered by them as a bright day in their lives, it will also be remembered as a happy occasion by the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

 —Dr. W. J. McKnight, the well known historian of Brookville, is circulating among old friends in town, and incidentally taking a good many subscriptions for his Pioneer History of Northwestern Pennsylvania, one of the most carefully compiled books that has ever been written. The Doctor is meeting with good success.
 —Theodore Huddleston, who has spent the past two months amongst old friends here, left yesterday for his place of business at Chelsea, Ind., Ter. While looking after business matters in this vicinity he made his home with his uncle Robert and George, at Little Hickory and spent his idle time in searching for bee-trees, of which he found seven in all, two of which he cut last week and they yielded over a hundred pounds of nice honey.
 —Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bruner and children, Harold and Mary, of Oil City, were guests at G. T. Anderson's, Saturday and Sunday. They came up Saturday night, Mr. Bruner's large naphtha launch, making the trip in about five hours. In returning Sunday they covered the distance in 2 1/2 hours. The launch has a five-horse engine, is built to carry ten persons, and is a handsome pleasure craft. G. T. Anderson accompanied them to Oil City.
 —Pasquale Rizzuto, better known to our townspeople as Patrick Richards, was married by Rev. Father William Connan at St. Bernard's church, Bradford, Pa., Sept. 29, 1907, the bride being Miss Mary Acarella, of Bradford. Patrick and

Boy Wanted.
 Under the head "Boy Wanted" the South Dakota Spirit publishes the following clipping, which every parent of a son would do well to lay before his boy and ask him to read it for the good advice it contains: Boy Wanted.—One of any age or breed to fill an important position. Must have a clean face, clean habits and a clean heart; need not know how to roll a cigarette nor how beer tastes, and if he is not up-to-date in all smutty jokes of the pool room his ignorance will be overlooked. He must be a boy who gets up cheerful in the morning, one who can lay down his books occasionally to do an errand, who treats his mother and sister—and every boy's mother and sister with respect, and does not refer to his father as the "old man." He must be truthful, prompt, obedient and industrious. He must make his employer's interest his interest, and never be afraid that he is earning more than his wages. He is wanted to respond to once in any number. Merchants want him to sweep out the store for a few years, ultimately to take charge of it. Newspapers want him to commence with the crowd at the bottom and work to the roomy places at the top. He is wanted everywhere—in medicine practice, in the counting room, to run great public works. The people who pay big salaries are looking for him. The people want him for judge in court, for member of Congress, Senator and President, and the sweetest girl in the world wants him for her husband.
 —Need a new overcoat? Go to Hopkins and see how easy it is to be suited in it, style, wear and price. The Wile Co. clothing takes the lead.

Boy Wanted.
 Under the head "Boy Wanted" the South Dakota Spirit publishes the following clipping, which every parent of a son would do well to lay before his boy and ask him to read it for the good advice it contains: Boy Wanted.—One of any age or breed to fill an important position. Must have a clean face, clean habits and a clean heart; need not know how to roll a cigarette nor how beer tastes, and if he is not up-to-date in all smutty jokes of the pool room his ignorance will be overlooked. He must be a boy who gets up cheerful in the morning, one who can lay down his books occasionally to do an errand, who treats his mother and sister—and every boy's mother and sister with respect, and does not refer to his father as the "old man." He must be truthful, prompt, obedient and industrious. He must make his employer's interest his interest, and never be afraid that he is earning more than his wages. He is wanted to respond to once in any number. Merchants want him to sweep out the store for a few years, ultimately to take charge of it. Newspapers want him to commence with the crowd at the bottom and work to the roomy places at the top. He is wanted everywhere—in medicine practice, in the counting room, to run great public works. The people who pay big salaries are looking for him. The people want him for judge in court, for member of Congress, Senator and President, and the sweetest girl in the world wants him for her husband.

Collins vs. Clough Ejectment Suit.
 The jury in the ejectment suit which attracted so much interest, and which lasted a full week in its trial, reached a verdict at 6 o'clock on Thursday morning, after being out all night, in favor of the defendants, L. S. Clough and others. This is the most important action in ejectment ever heard in Forest county, and perhaps in Western Pennsylvania for many years. The case involves the title of about five hundred acres of valuable timber land in Kingsley and Howe townships, and arises from an interference of the original surveys made in the year 1794, between what are known as the Mead warrants and what are known as the Millin warrants. The question in this case hinges on the priority of the Mead surveys, and the location of the original Mead line, running northeast and southwest. The plaintiffs, known as the Watson Lands Lumber Company, consisting of T. D. Collins, F. X. Kreidler, F. K. Brown and W. W. Dickey, of this county, are the owners of warrant 5295, of the Mead surveys, and the defendant, L. S. Clough, of Warren, is the owner of Mead warrant 5282, and Millin warrants 5101 and 5102. All of these tracts were laid upon the ground in the year 1794, when all of this part of the country was a vast wilderness, and it is contended a part of the Millin surveys overlap the lines of the Mead surveys. The testimony was very complicated and a large force of lawyers and surveyors have been working on the case for over two years past. His honor, Judge Frank J. Thomas, of Crawford county court, presided at the trial of the case, and his rulings were considered very fair and impartial to all concerned. The plaintiffs were ably represented by Thomas H. Murray, Esq., of Clearfield, Pa., one of the leading land lawyers of the state of Pennsylvania; A. L. Cole, of DuBois, Pa.; C. Z. Gordon, of Brookville, Pa., and Ritchey & Carringer, of Tionesta, Pa. The defense was conducted by D. I. Ball, W. D. Hickley and W. E. Rice, of Warren, and A. C. Brown, of Tionesta. Owing to the advance in the price of timber there is said to be from one hundred thousand to one hundred and fifty thousand dollars involved in this case. Upon the rendering of the verdict of the jury the plaintiffs immediately made a motion for a new trial, which motion will be heard by Judge Thomas some time within the next two months. The jury was made up as follows: A. J. Carnahan, of Harmony twp.; J. T. Carson, of Tionesta; Amos Eldridge, of Jenks twp.; Philo Williams, of Barnett twp.; Wm. Hindman, of Kingsley twp.; A. R. Slaughenbaupt, of Barnett twp.; Clarence Jones and H. F. Blum, of Kingsley twp.; J. A. Shriver, of Tionesta twp.; Reese Stitzinger, of Tionesta; F. M. Hoover, of Harmony twp., and Harry Mintz, of Jenks twp.

Once More the Game Season.
 So many muddled accounts of the open season for game have found their way into the newspapers, hardly any two being the same, that hunters have gotten badly mixed, hence we again give the proper dates herewith together with number of each species of game which a single hunter may take. The list may be depended upon as correct; in other words, when you see it in the REPUBLICAN it's so:
 Blackbirds, doves and shore birds, bag unlimited, September 1 to January 1. Bear, unlimited, October 1 to March 1. Deer, male with horns, one a season, November 15 to December 1. English, Mongolian or Chinese pheasant, 5 in one day, 20 in one week or 50 in one season, October 15 to December 1. Grouse, commonly called pheasant, five in one day, 20 in one week or 50 in one season, October 1 to December 1. Hare or rabbit, unlimited, October 15 to December 1. Quail, 10 in one day, 40 in one week or 75 in one season, November only. Wild turkey, one in a day, four in a season, October 15 to December 1. Woodcock, 10 in one day, 20 in one week or 50 in one season, October 1 to December 1. Squirrel, (fox, black or gray,) six of all kinds in one day, October 1 to December 1. Web-footed wild fowl, of all kinds, unlimited, September 1 to April 10. Snipe (Jack or Wilson,) unlimited, September 1 to May 1. Plover, unlimited, July 15 to December 1.
 Many sportsmen think spring shooting should be entirely abolished in all states, and a concerted effort will be made at the next session of congress to have passed a bill, drawn by George Shiras III, of Pittsburg, to place all migratory wild fowl under federal control and to stop spring slaughter, while birds are on their way to breeding grounds. This would be a wise and just thing to do.

Letter to G. E. Grew,
 Tionesta, Pa.
 DEAR SIR: Josh Billings never said anything truer than this: "Suckers duz not konist or never makin blunders, but in not makin the same wun twist."
 N. R. Watkins, of Lot, Texas, had his house painted some years ago, and it took 13 gallons of what he believed to be paint; he bought it for paint, and it was paint.
 He has had it painted again; it took 7 gallons Devoe.
 It cost $65 before; now $35.
 He knows it is painted now, and he's got that $30 in a safe place. He's got his knowledge in a safe place too.
 Yours truly,
 F. W. Devore & Co.,
 New York.

How to Cure a Cold.
 The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Dunn & Fulton.
