GEORGE W. HOLEMAN.

Republican Nominee for Treasurer of Forest County.

George W. Holeman, whom the Republicans of Forest county nominated last spring as the candidate for County Treasurer, was born November 16, 1856, at three miles below Tionesta on the Alleder Holeman, the first Associate Judge elected in Venango county, and he also was one of the county's early representatives in the Pennsylvania legislature. George was reared on his father's farm and upon attaining young manhood struck out early to hostle for himself. For a number of years he worked in the woods making ties and cutting timber. His marriage with Miss Garry Heath hibit A. took place Jan. 30, 1878, and soon after he began housekeeping in Tionesta, which has since been his home. For 13 years he was engaged in building coal boats of disgust. "Case dismissed and presenear the mouth of Tionesia creek, and for
