Congressman Wheeler Will Again be a Candidate.

The Washington correspondent of the Warren Daily Mirror, writing under date of Dec. 16th, has this interesting news for the constituents of Mr. Wheeler:

The statements sent out from here recently to Pittsburg newspapers to the effect that ex-Congressman Sibley while absent in Egypt was to be forced back into Congress by his admiring constituents and that Congressman Wheeler had agreed to the plan and would be satisfied with one term are misleading and the latter part of the assertion is false,

The writer has talked on this subject several times here during the last month with both Mr. Sibley and Mr. Wheeler and knows whereof he writes. In the first place, Mr. Sibley insisted that he was out of politics and that he did not expect to be a candidate again for any office. He expects in February to start on a trip to the Holy Land and the following December to start on a trip around the world which will take up at least a

Now as to Mr. Wheeler. He admits frankly that he would not have been a caudidate for Congress if Mr. Sibley had not declined last year, but now after having been elected and having just commenced his work here he believes that it is the sentiment of the Republicans of his district that he should be given another term and not forced out of the race in favor of a man who is not a candidate. Mr. Wheeler intends to be a candidate before the Republican primaries in April for a renomination and will accept the decision of his constituents and not that of those who are trying to force Mr. Sibley back into political life.

Ever since Mr. Sibley voluntarily declined last year to be a candidate for another term, some of his personal friends, aided and abetted by the federal office holders in the district, or some of the latter class, have been working hard to nominate him against his will. Last year they tried it on and after a visit of one of the practical workers over in Elk County, they were confident that they could deadlock the convention until all of the other candidates would agree to withdraw and renominate the man who had declined. But when the convention met on the very first day it developed that some of the delegates would not stand without being hitched, or in other words they took Mr. Sibley at his word and nominated Mr. Wheeler the first day of the convention. And the reports received from the district indicate that at the April primaries the voters will repeat what the delegates did last year and renominate Mr. Wheeler. This will be because they take Mr. Sibley at his word, and not because they love or admire Mr. Wheeler any more than Mr. Sibley.

So far as Mr. Sibley personally is concerned, some of his warmest friends believe that it would be unwise to force this nomination upon him even if it could be done. He has made such a record here in political life that higher honors await him, and if either Speaker Cannon or Senator Knox is nominated and elected president, Mr. Sibley will be invited to become a member of the Cabinet. And a similar offer is likely to come if Vice President Fairbanks, or Secretary Cortelyou should be the next President. Thus to nominate and reelect Mr. Sibley to Congress might injure his chances for higher political pre-

Announcement to this effect has been made to his friends and Mr. Wheeler is now circulating the necessary petition. He is not likely to have any opposition in Mercer county .- Mercer Dispatch.

ONE faction of the Democratic party wants a Southern candidate for president, another prefers a Western man and others are for an Eastern, Northern or Middle man. Looking the whole field over it is apparent that Col. Bryan is the only candidate who fulfills all of these requirements.

DEATH OF MRS. P. T. WYMAN. Departure of a Good Woman, Active in Good Works.

There passed away on Friday morning, December 20, 1907, at seven o'clock, at the home of her daughter, Miss H. Maud Wyman, in Chattanooga, Tennessee, woman whose bright intellect, polished manners and sweet christian character, made her lasting friends among all with whom she came in contact. Mrs. Prudence Taylor-Wyman was born in Meadville, Pa., in the month of October 1833, and was aged 74 years and two months at the time of death. Soon after reaching womanhood she became the wife of John D. Wyman, also a resident of her native city, and as a dutiful wife and loving mother, her departure leaves a vacancy in the family circle that can never be filled. Mr. Wyman died 22 years ago, leaving to her tender care the rearing of a family of three children. How well and faithful she performed the trust thus placed upon her, we leave it to those who knew her best to judge. Some twelve years ago she came to Tiones a making her home with her son, William G. Wyman, she soon took her place in the front rank for all that was commendable in the elevation of mankind, being an indefatigable worker in the cause of Christ, and the uplifting of the human race to a higher sphere of usefulness. She was a power in the church and always took an active part in the cause of Home and Foreign Missions, but perhaps her greatest interest and most zealous labors were centered in the cause of temperance, being president of the W. C. T. U. in Crawford county before coming here, and could always be found laboring in the front ranks for "God, Home and her Native Land." It is beyond the ken of any writer, no matter how gifted, in a brief newspaper article, to do justice to one who has devoted her entire life to the betterment of all mankind. The world is better for her having lived in it, and she leaves to her ncestry an inheritance that will live in the ages to come. At her new home in the Southland, Mrs. Wyman was also identified actively with the religious and philanthropic life of the city. She was a member of the First Methodist Episcopal church and an earnest worker in the Woman's Christian Temperance union. She was a valued member of the board of managers of the Frances Willard home for working girls, and her never-failing tact and graciousness, as well as her executive ability, soon won for her the esteem and confidence of all. She had been in rather poor health for the past year, but only for the past six weeks had her condition been of an alarming nature, her death finally resulting from a complication of diseases. She is syrvived by one son, William G. Wyman, of Tionesta, Pa., and two daughters, Mrs. George N. Burt, of Oswego, N. Y., and Miss H. Maud Wyman, of Chattanooga, all of whom were present at her bedside when her spirit took its flight. She is also survived by one brother, Mr. John Taylor, a prominent business man of Erie, Pa. The body arrived in Meadville Thursday morning, Dec. 26th, at eight o'clock, and the interment followed in Greendale Cemof which the deceased was a life long mem- | week of pneumonis. ber, having charge of the services.
