—Captain J. C. Delaney, head of the State Department of Factory Inspectors, began the New Year with 41 deputies, five in Allegheny, and 14 in Philadelphia County, and 22 in other parts of the state, five of the whole number being women as provided by law. This increase has necessitated the rearrangement of the districts. Erie, Forest and Warren counties are placed in one district, with M. N. Baker, of Corry, as inspector. A. W. McCoy, of Meadville, the former inspector, has charge of Crawford, Mercer and Venango counties.

—This year Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day and Fourth of July fall on Saturday, giving the public three double holidays. Ordinarily these do not fall on the same day, but by the intervention of February 29 this year, Washington's Birthday falls just 14 weeks earlier than Memorial Day.

—The new announcements this week are: National Delegate, E. W. Marshall of Warren, and Harry Watson of Greenville, Mercer county; Auditor, A. C. Gregg of Brookston, and Geo. H. Warden of Endeavor; County Commissioner, Fred. L. Reib of Tionesta twp.; Assembly, Geo. W. Osgood of Tionesta.

—Sheriff A. W. Stroup closed a deal last week whereby he becomes the owner of the lot lying between the properties of Mrs. John Charleston and Martin Rhodes, on Vine street. The purchase was made from Mrs. Frank Witherell, of Endeavor. The lot is 50x200 feet and the sheriff may decide to build a residence thereon.

—It is reported that Wm. Wray, W. G. Rogers, N. F. Hoover, Edward Harmon, and others, owners of a big gas lease over in Jefferson county, have disposed of their holdings for the handsome sum of $85,000, the purchasers being the Standard people. The leases cover several thousand acres, most of which is believed to be prolific territory.

—A company composed of Ralph Morris and several Pittsburgh parties got a good well the last of the week on the S. B. Morris farm, in President township, Venango county, a short distance below Baum station. The well is reported to have made a flow and to have produced at a 35-barrel clip the first day it was pumped. It is expected to settle down to a ten-barrel pumper. The oil is heavy.

—We are in receipt of a letter from Mandel Senor, press agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad in which he states that there is no truth in the published report that the narrow gauge division between Kane and Foxburg was to be converted into an electric road. We did not think there was when we read the report and stated so at the time. When any change is made in the present gauge it will be when there is a different management.—Kane Republican.

—Martin Carlson, who has been farming the Kelly place on Tionesta creek for the past eight years, has purchased a dairy farm near Lander, Warren county, and will move his family there some time next month. His new purchase consists of 110 acres of cultivated land with all modern buildings and improvements, and he will give special attention to the dairy business. We are sorry to lose so good a citizen as Mr. Carlson from our community, but wish him success at his new home.

—Ray Elder, aged 17, a Warren Pa., boy who disappeared from home on Thursday of last week, was picked up by Police Chief Kightlinger about 5 o'clock Tuesday evening, and a little later the lad was turned over to his father, William Elder, who had arrived in the city during the afternoon in search of his son. The lad had seen the world down to his last four cents, and was entirely ready to be forgiven and taken back home. Mr. Elder took the lad to the Kepler hotel, where they remained over night, and this morning they will return home to Warren.—Meadville Star.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Keely, of Franklin, Pa., want information concerning their son, Wallace, who disappeared from home on the afternoon of Sunday, Dec. 29, 1907. He is described as follows: Age, 14 years; height, 5 feet and 2 inches and slender; face, rather full; dark hair; grey eyes; when he disappeared he wore a grey plaid suit, with knee trousers and a cap almost matching the suit, white shirt, with no necktie, and lace shoes. The lad is very bashful and may be slightly demented. Any information concerning him should be sent to Mr. Keely or to E. T. Stevenson, Franklin, Pa.

—It will no doubt be gratifying to the citizens of Forest county to learn that the county is out of debt, the last of the county bonds, $7,000, having been redeemed by the Commissioners last week. There were seven one-thousand-dollar bonds, and the checks given in liquidation of the debt were among the first large ones issued by the new Treasurer, Geo. Holeman. There are still about $21,000 in Poor bonds outstanding, a part of which are payable next year, and the balance in 1914. When that time comes the funds will be available to liquidate this debt. The board of Commissioners expects to materially reduce the county tax levy this year on account of this condition of things, a step which will be appreciated by the tax payers.

—My friend, help the editor in his wild-eyed search for news. When your friends come to see you, if you are not ashamed of it, tell him; when your wife gives a tea party, if you have recovered from the effects of the gossip, drop in with the news; when a baby arrives, fill your pockets with cigars and call, if you go to a party, steal some of the good things, and leave 'em with the item in our sanctum. If your wife licks you, come in and let us see your scars, and tender sympathy through the paper; if your mother-in-law has died, don't be bashful about it; give in all the common place news. In short whatever makes you feel proud, sad, lonesome or glad, submit it to our twenty-four karat wisdom and send our matted looks part and stand on end with gratitude, which will pour from every pore like moisture from the dew besprinkled earth.

—In making a substantial remittance in renewal of his subscription, our former townsman and friend Chas. F. Thomson, of Bradner, Ohio, says, "Everybody well here. Best wishes and a happy new year to all our friends." Charlie is still engaged at oil well work, and seems to have become a fixture in the Buckeye state.

—John D. Lobough, of Kaylor, Armstrong county, Pa., and Miss Myrtle C. Stewart, of the same place, were united in marriage Wednesday, January 8th, 1908, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, in Tionesta, Rev. W. O. Calhoun officiating. W. Clark, Esq. —Miss Sue Magee, one of Tidoute's most highly esteemed ladies, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Hunter of that place, on last Sabbath evening. Miss Magee was a daughter of Alexander and Nancy Magee, early pioneers of Tidoute. For a number of years she was a teacher, teaching her first term in what is now Forest county, more than fifty years ago. She was a charter member of the Tidoute Chapter, D. A. R., being a grand-daughter of James Magee of the 8th Pa. Reg't of the American Revolution, who was buried on what is now the Carter farm, on "Hickory-town flats," in 1822.

—The REPUBLICAN finds much pleasure in announcing the marriage of a former Tionesta boy, and joins his many friends here in extending hearty congratulations and best wishes. We refer to Lester A. Holeman, whose marriage with Miss Belle Stinson, one of Erie's most estimable young ladies, was consummated at the State street M. E. parsonage, Meadville, Pa., on Wednesday, Jan. 8, 1908, Rev. R. A. Buzza, officiating. This bit of news will doubtless agreeably surprise many of Lester's friends in Tionesta, where he was born and reared to young manhood, and where he has always been held in highest esteem. He will still retain his position as express messenger on the Pennsylvania Railroad between Erie and Philadelphia, but will make his headquarters at Vineland, N. J., where his mother now resides. Again we say, greatest happiness to you and yours, Lester, and "may you live long and prosper."

$20,000 Fire at Fryburg.

The business portion of Fryburg, Clarion county, was badly damaged by fire at an early hour on Monday morning. An entire block on the west side of main street was destroyed, with estimated losses and insurance as follows:
Hardware establishment of Samuel Miller, loss about $3,000; insurance, $2,000.
Wagon shop of Joseph Siegel, loss about $3,000; insurance, $600.
Furniture store of J. Faller & Son, loss nearly $15,000; insurance, $2,200.
The Iseman house, across the street from the destroyed block, was badly scorched. Loss on that structure is estimated at $500, fully insured.
The fire originated in the Miller hardware store, about 12:30 a. m. Two oil well drillers on their way to work discovered the flames coming out of the roof of that building and gave the alarm.
The building occupied by the Siegel wagon works was one of the oldest landmarks of all that section of Clarion county and was originally a foundry, the first in this section of the state, and built longer than the oldest inhabitant can recall.

Death of Geo. T. Maze.

From the Ridgway Advocate of January 9th, we take the following particulars of the death of a former resident of Tionesta:
George T. Maze, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maze, who recently moved from Halliton, this county, to No. 528 West Washington avenue, DuBois, died on Friday morning last at 7:45 o'clock from pulmonary tuberculosis, with which he had been ailing for the past year. His death occurred at Mount Alto State Sanitarium, in Franklin county, Pa., where he had gone some weeks ago in the hope of improvement from a change of climate. Mr. and Mrs. Maze were at the bedside of their son when he died, having gone to him on Monday preceding his death. The remains were brought to DuBois Saturday morning and taken to the family residence, where the funeral was held on Monday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. Bell Neff, D. D., pastor of the DuBois Methodist Episcopal church. Beautiful and appropriate floral tributes were contributed by employees of the B. R. & P. Railway Co., employees of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co., and Ridgway and DuBois friends.

George Thomas Maze was born at Greenwood, Pa., on October 9, 1883, and was therefore in his 25th year. He was an exemplary young man and well liked by all who knew him. He was employed for a short time a few weeks ago in the Big Store of Smith Bros. Co., where his brother Henry has been employed for some years past. At the time he was taken with the dreaded white plague, the young man was employed as chief clerk for the United Coal Co., at their Edna No. 2 mines, at Irwin, Pa.

The deceased is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maze, who have many friends in Elk county who will sympathize with them in their sore bereavement; also by four brothers as follows: Merle, of Pittsburg, Pa., Henry, of Ridgway, Pa.; Scott M., and Jacob, of DuBois, Pa.

Death of Charles S. Leech.

Very many friends throughout this section will receive with much sadness the announcement of the death of this most excellent citizen. On New Year's day he left his home at Lexington, Ky., for a business trip to Fort Morgan, Colorado, where he had thought of locating. Having been somewhat indisposed for some time previous he was doubtless in no condition physically to withstand so long a journey, and after reaching the end of his trip was obliged to call in a physician, who discovered symptoms of a threatened attack of typhoid fever. Fearing such might be the case Mr. Leech went on to Denver and entered St. Anthony's hospital, reaching there on the 7th of the month. On the ninth his family was apprised by telegram that he was very seriously ill. His wife and son started immediately for Denver, and when they reached Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 11th, were shocked by a telegram announcing his death. What his real ailment was is not known by his friends here at this writing.

Charles Sumner Leech, was the eldest son of John and Susan M. (Everhart) Leech, and was born in Washington township, Clarion County, Pa., March 20, 1857. When the subject of this sketch was but six years of age his father died, leaving the devoted young mother with the care of five small children, the youngest a mere babe. Charles fast developed into a steady, true-hearted, ambitious young lad, and was early a student at Carrier Seminary at Clarion, where, at the age of 16 years he began the service of an apprenticeship in a printing office. His steady, manly habits, formed very early in life, and the careful training of a good mother, were never departed from, and of his wages as an apprentice, not large at best, he devoted most to the use of his mother and the family. After four years spent at the printing trade he embarked in mercantile pursuits at Lickingsville for some time, and then engaged in the oil business as a contractor, and for a time was located in York State. In 1881 he moved to Marienville, where for fifteen years he was extensively engaged in merchandising and lumbering, and became one of the most progressive citizens of that fast growing and busy little city, having, perhaps, as much if not more to do with the upbuilding and progress of the place than any other citizen. He was the first to build a large business block and erect a pleasant home there, having faith in the town and its future. In all that made for the moral progress and uplift of its people he was first and foremost, fearless in urging his conception of right, so that when any movement for the betterment of the community was proposed he was generally selected as the leader. As a member of the board of trustees of the Presbyterian church of Marienville for many years Mr. Leech faithfully discharged his duties and did very much to extend the church's influence for good toward all mankind. The Christian church always found in him a worthy and influential advocate and supporter. No enterprise that had for its aim the improvement of the conditions of his community, either morally or financially, ever lacked his earnest and energetic support. It was he who organized and carried through to successful completion the county telephone system which we now enjoy.

Disposing of his interests in Marienville in 1899 he invested in a fruit plantation in Porto Rico, where he lived for a short time with his family, but returned soon to take up lumbering again, locating at Harrison, Tenn., and after about four years' residence there went to Kentucky and engaged in coal mining pursuits. Although quite successful in this undertaking the hazardous nature of the business was too great for him, and he disposed of his interests to good advantage. A business opening at Fort Morgan having tempted him to investigate its advantages he had gone there, to be overtaken with a fatal illness.

In all his various business dealings the honor and integrity of Charles Leech were never for a moment questioned. He was patient, kind and generous almost to a fault. As a boy and young man he was gentle and loving toward his mother, counseling her in all his affairs, and never in all his life crossing her will in the least particular. In his domestic life he was the most devoted husband and father, ready at all times to make any sacrifice for the comfort and happiness of his wife and children, whose loss in his death is tremendous.

In 1877 Mr. Leech was united in marriage with Miss Kittle B. Smulden, of Palmerville, Armstrong county, Pa. To this union five children were born, three of whom, Edna, Frank and Reba, with the widow, survive. Also surviving are his mother, Mrs. S. M. Whitehill, and J. E. Leech, a half brother, at Marienville; Soot E. Leech, a brother at Cameron, W. Va.; one sister, Mrs. J. E. Wenk of Tionesta; Clyde E. Whitehill, a half brother, at Muncie, Indiana. Not these alone but the whole community as well as shocked by this sudden and unexpected death, for no man stood higher in the estimation of his acquaintances, business associates and friends than Mr. Leech, and the loss is deeply felt wherever he was known. Surely the world is better because such men have lived in it.

The body is expected to arrive at Marienville tomorrow, Thursday, and the funeral will be held on Friday afternoon.

When We Advertise Cut Prices

The public look for and go bargains, because as a matter of business we never knowingly make a misstatement either in our advertising or in the selling of the goods, because we don't think it pays. And when we state in our "ads" that we have reduced the price of every Man's, Boy's or Child's Overcoat in our stock 25 per cent, we are stating facts that are easily provable and the man who takes advantage of this reduction in prices will save dollars on thoroughly dependable clothing. $7.50 is the price for 810 Men's Overcoats in winter-weight materials, cut short or long. All splendid value at their former prices and now matchless bargains. $11.50 is the price on 815 Overcoats. At these former prices these Overcoats were easily leaders, and now the reduced prices has made them the best values ever offered. Well tailored, superior garments, right up to date and truly rare offerings. $15 is the price on 820 Overcoats. Choice of Overcoats that sold at $20, and present every favored style of the season in Men's high class attire. Exceptional tailoring and style characterize these garments and make them wonderful values at this cut price. $18.75 is the price on all 825 Overcoats.
