Murder at Lumber Camp.

Henry Kepple to-day received the tolowing letter from the superintendent of the Moore, Kepple & Co. Lumber Company at Etimore, W. Va .:

"We had a shooting affair here last night. Four strange Italians went to our Italian shack on Laurel run, and demanded their money. Our fellows re-fused to give it, and a fight to death ensued. One of the strange men and one of our men were killed, the other three escaped, one being so badly wounded that a posse of men tracked him from blood stains on the spow this morning. One of our men was shot through the body, the bullet penetrating the left lung near breast bone, and coming out under the shoulder blade. He is still alive and feeling comfortable this morning. The four others were shot and slashed with knives, but not seriously hurt. We are making an effort to capture the three felows that got away."—Corry Leader.

Funeral of the Late Charles Leech.

Foneral services in remembrance of the late Charles S. Leech, were held at Marienville on Friday afternoon last, and a large concourse of friends and former neighbors attested by their presence the community where so many of his best Mrs. B. F. Amsler, of near Fryburg, is days were passed. The body arrived on the morning train Thursday and was conveyed to the home of his mother, Mrs. S. M. Whitebill, were many friends called to offer sympathy and condolence to the stricken family and relatives of the deceased. At 3:00 p. m. on Friday a large congregation assembled at the M. E. church where the Rev. Dr. Earseman, of Edenburg, pastor of the Presbyterian enurch, delivered a most impressive and just eulogy upon the life and character of Mr. Leech. The pastor was assisted in the services by Rev. Mr. Thompson of the M. E. church of Marienville, and the united choirs of both churches sang three appropriate hymns, one of which, "Lead, her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Miller, over Kindly Light," being an especial favorite of the deceased, and all being beautifully rendered. At the close of the services the pastor announced that all who desired to view the remains would be privileged to do so at the home of his mother pression as the form reposed in a profusion of roses, carnations and smilax. The interment was made in Marienville's beautiful cemetery, where all that was mortal of a once honored and respected citizen was laid to rest in the family plot. The pall-bearers were T. J. Reyner, J. B. Cottle, L. H. Mensch, B. F. Kendall,

Harry Harp and A. H. Sigworth, At the time our obituary of Mr. Leech was written last week it was impossible to give the cause of his death, which occurred on the 9th of January. His allment was kidney trouble, a condition he probably never suspected and the end was hastened by uraemic poison.
