Figured in Two Accidents.

Ex-patrolman Orman Whitten, & former Forest county citizen, figured in an exciting runaway accident near Miller farm on Saturday in which one of his team of valuable draught horses was badly crippled, says the Derrick. The sleds were heavily loaded with logs and in coming down the Miller farm hill the lock broke and the sleds shoved the team shead of them. Mr. Whitten threw the horse blankets in front of the runners, but the sleds passed over them without checking the speed and the team was forced over the bank. Mr. Whitten jumped off at the brink of the precipice. He found one of the animals uninjured and one hoof torn loose from the foot of the other. The harness was destroyed and the sleds badly damaged.
