—This is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the Lenten season, which lasts forty days.
—The Woman's Relief Corps will hold a dime social next Friday evening in their hall. All are invited.
—Remember the school literary entertainment in Bovard's hall tonight. Everybody invited. Admission free.
—Wm. H. Hood, of the borough, is announced in the Vindicator as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff.
—We carry no winter goods over at low prices will sell them. You make your own price on most any winter garment. Hopkins.
—What about your subscription? Is it fully paid up? Don't let the time slip around when we shall have to take your name off the list.
—Harry H. Harp, of Jenks township, is this week announced as a Republican candidate for Prothonotary at the primaries April 11th.
—Cutting and slashing in prices at the Hopkins store these days make things nice for the economical buyer. It's hard on us but our customers enjoy it.
—Butler and Jamieson, drillers of Tionesta, are about to start another well for the Francis Oil Company on the Shippe lease.—Marienville Express.
—We are not running off a lot of old state goods at our cut price sale. Every garment is new and right up-to-date, but the price makes them look like 30 cents. Hopkins.
—Two of Tylersburg's old and well known citizens, Messrs. Caldwell Hoover and Peter Brewster, are at present critically ill with grip, and their recovery is considered very doubtful.
—Examinations for Forest County Free Scholarships to Clarion Normal will be held in Tionesta and Marienville on Saturday, March 14, 1908. There will be about 40 pupils from various parts of the county competing.
—A sleighing party from East Hickory and Endeavor comprising two tally-ho loads, enjoyed the fine sleighing Saturday evening, attended the farmers' institute and took supper at Hill's restaurant before returning home.
—This establishment will soon be bringing on its big stock of spring goods, and much room will be required. Goods on hand must move out, and that means a terrific slaughter in prices. Don't miss the opportunity. Hopkins.
—I have the American Wall Paper Agency this year and can sell you better wall paper cheaper than ever before, and am prepared to do papering, painting, graining and all kinds of inside finishing. Let me hear from you and I will call with samples on request. J. H. Shoemaker, Endeavor, Forest county Pa.
—The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will serve a chicken supper at the Relief Corps hall in the evening of St. Patrick's day, March 17th, and as it will be a supper "worth while" they have no hesitancy in asking the patronage of the public on this occasion. Don't forget the date.

—The narrow gauge between Foxburg and Kana was again tied up last week on account of snow drifts and neither mail nor passengers were moving in or out of Marienville by rail from Tuesday till Sunday.
—The house and lot of Mrs. Jacob Hood, in the upper end of town, was sold Saturday through the Arner agency to John H. Cropp, of Green township. Mr. Cropp will move his family into the house as soon as possession is given.
—Owing to the continuance of the revival services at Tionesta, preaching services will be held in the Tionesta M. E. church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, taking the place of the evening service. The subject of the sermon will be "Peculiar People."
—A Warren man has been again honored for his worth. This time it is W. H. Allen who has been appointed attorney for the State Railroad Commission by Governor Stewart and was wholly without solicitation. Mr. Allen is to be congratulated upon his appointment and the commission upon his choice.—Times. He is a son of Hon. O. C. Allen. The position pays $4,000 a year.
—Pittsburg authorities state that that city is being flooded with spurious fifty cent pieces. The bogus coin is a good imitation. It is made of a composition of zinc and lead and is coated with a mysterious preparation that resists acid tests. It is feared that the gang will endeavor to float some of the bad money in the country districts and merchants and others are warned to be on the lookout for it.
—G. W. Osgood makes the following report of February weather conditions: Total rain 1 1/2 inches. Total snow fall 42 1/2 inches. There were 6 zero days in the month as follows: Second and fourth just zero; 9th, 25 below; 10th, 4 below; 11th, 2 below; 29th, 6 below. The same month one year ago, 1907, showed 9-16 of an inch of rain, and 19 inches of snow. The river closed with ice Feb. 21, and broke upon the 14th, 1908.
—In the Commissioners' Statement, published during the month of February in connection with the County Auditors' Report an error occurred which made it appear that the expenditures in the county account were $10,000 more than they actually were. The items of expenditure are correctly given but in the footing a figure 2 was inserted instead of a figure 1. The footing of that account should have been $17,750.81 instead of $27,750.81.
—J. A. Stover, at his premises, near Wolf's Corners in Tionesta twp., Saturday, March 14, 1908, will offer the following property at public sale: One cow, two sheeps, mowing machine, one-horse wagon, set single harness, set heavy harness, quantity of hay, one side range, book case, beds, carpets, cooking utensils, and other articles too numerous to mention. Remember the date. Sale begins at 1 o'clock p. m., sharp.
—According to the Oil City Derrick, there has been a wonderful revival in the freight business of the P. R. R. and many of the train crews some time ago laid off have been put back to work. It is stated that no less than 45 trains were run over the river division starting from Oil City or Olean, on Feb. 22. It is also said that there were not trains of empty cars but loaded ones and classed as new business. Yesterday 18 trains left Oil City for Olean.
—The Derrick's report of oil operations for the month of February in the Pennsylvania field shows 321 wells completed, 3,011 barrels of new production, and 90 dry holes. This is a decrease of 85 in new wells, 344 barrels in new production, 47 less in new work over the January report. In all the fields combined the declines are shown as follows from the January report: 303 completed wells, 3,109 in new production, and 95 in new operations.
—Farmers of this vicinity who have sugar camps are preparing to open them, making ready for the first suitable weather. If there is virtue in hard freezing, this sugar making should be the best for a number of years. While the industry is not one of great importance in Warren and adjoining counties, there are still many farmers who make enough syrup for their home consumption and occasionally send a little of it to market.—Warren Mirror.
—All subscribers to the Forest County Summer School, and all who are willing to contribute toward the continuance of an institution meaning much to the welfare of the town, and a great deal to the future of the entire county, are requested to meet in the Council room next Friday evening, at half past seven, for the purpose of organization, election of a board of directors, and the consideration of matters pertaining to the school. Let us all turnout.
—At a meeting of members of the Prohibition party at the court house on Monday the following names were presented as candidates for nomination by that party at the April primaries: Assembly, R. S. Lynch, Endeavor; Prothonotary, H. M. McKean, Endeavor; Sheriff, Jacob L. Klinefister, Hickory township; County Commissioner, Asa Heath, Tionesta twp., and J. S. Henderson, Hickory twp.; Auditor, J. G. Bromley, Tionesta boro, and A. W. Albaugh, Hickory twp.; Jury Commissioner, Wm. Lowman, Jenks twp.
—No greater evidence is needed of the growing popularity of the Clarion State Normal School and the efficiency of the work being done there than the substantial increase in attendance from term to term. The departments are all well maintained, the buildings thoroughly equipped, and the school has a well deserved reputation for earnest work. The cost to prospective teachers over seven years of age for board, room, rent, light, heat and laundry is about $3.00 per week. Spring Term opens March 24. Write for catalogue. J. George Becht, Principal.
—We are very sorry to learn of the entire destruction by fire of the residence of Rev. George Ballentine in Bradford Co., Pa., at 2 o'clock in the morning of Feb. 15th, inst. The family barely escaped with their lives and had to be supplied with clothing by the kind neighbors around. Mrs. —, nee Mrs. Harding, was a guest in the house and suffered with the family. There was but small insurance on the house and, we understand none on the furniture.—Clarion Democrat. Rev. Mr. Ballentine is the father of Mrs. Fred Klinefister of Nebraska, and a daughter of Mrs. Harding, Miss Lora Harding, is the primary teacher at Nebraska.

RECENT DEATHS.
HENRY.
Allen Gregory, the bright little boy baby of Ralph and Bertha Yough Henry died at the home of Mrs. M. L. Vought, Friday night, Feb. 28, 1908, after an illness of about two weeks of pneumonia. The child would have been one year of age had he lived till today. He was a sweet lovable little fellow and had become a pet with all the neighbors of the family, who sympathized deeply with the bereaved ones. Funeral services were conducted on Sabbath afternoon by Rev. H. A. Bailey, and the little body was laid to rest in Riverside cemetery.
SNYDER.
Mrs. Nancy Jane Snyder was born October 27, 1844, and died February 29, 1908. She was the wife of Conrad J. H. Snyder, of near Truckenyeville. Mrs. Snyder was an invalid for many years on account of rheumatism. The bereaved husband served honorably in a Vermont Regiment during the war, and is a sorely afflicted member of Eli Berlin Post on account of blindness. The W. R. C., No. 32, had charge of the last services and our able pastor spoke words of comfort and cheer to the bereaved ones on March 4th, and now, beside her mother, she rests in the beautiful cemetery at East Hickory. Besides the husband, one daughter, Mrs. P. H. Little, of Binghamton, N. Y., survives.
RAISIG.
Interment of the body of the late Mrs. Catherine Raisig, wife of Rev. J. G. Raisig whose death occurred on Friday at the home of her son, Charles Raisig at Wilkinsburg, Pa., near Pittsburgh, was made in the cemetery at Plumer, on Sunday. The funeral party arrived here from Pittsburg on Sunday morning. Deceased, who was in her 77th year, was well known here and at Plumer, where her husband had been pastor of the Plumer church from 1864 to 1890.—Derrick.
The husband of the deceased was well known in this community, having ministered to the Lutheran congregation on German Hill for many years. His son Charles is well remembered by nearly all of our people as a former resident of Tionesta.
STOUGHTEN.
John E. Stoughten was born in Butler county, Pa., May 16, 1837. Enlisted Sept. 9, 1862, in Company K, 14th Pa. Vol. Cav., and was honorably discharged May 31, 1865. Comrade Stoughten was a charter member of Eli Berlin Post, No. 629, had filled the various offices in said Post and served as Commander two years. He died of heart failure at the Oil City hospital, Feb. 29, 1908. Comrade Stoughten leaves to mourn his death two sons, Herbert J., of Warren, Pa., and Bernard V., of East Hickory, and one daughter, Mrs. Henry Kemble, of Oklahoma. Rev. W. E. Davis, pastor of the East Hickory M. E. church, delivered an able discourse in honor of our comrade at two o'clock p. m., March 3. The G. A. R. had charge of the services and laid him to rest according to their ritual service, and was ably assisted by the W. R. C., No. 32. Our comrade now lies beside the companion of his youth, who passed over about three years ago. Comrade Stoughten was a resident of East Hickory for more than thirty-five years and will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends, all of whom tender their sympathy to the surviving family. Our Post charter and flag will be suitably draped for thirty days in kind remembrance of our departed comrade.
J. A. WAY.
Sallie Martha Way was the daughter of Robert P. and Harriet N. Craig, and was born at Pine Grove Mills, Centre county, Pa., December 19, 1858, where she spent her childhood days. She died in Tionesta, Pa., February 27, 1908. After the death of her mother she made her home with her brother, the late John L. Craig, in this place. She is the last of a family of eight children, her father having died after she had grown to womanhood. She was a step-sister of our townsman, Robert M. Herman. July 11, 1878, she was united in marriage with Daniel W. Agnew, who died April 12, 1888. In 1890 she was married to Boon Magee, of Warren, Pa., whose death occurred about 18 months later. About five years ago she was married to Prof. George A. Way, of New York City, and by his death nearly two years later she was again left a widow. Since that time Mrs. Way had made her home with the family of her brother-in-law, Leonard Agnew, and no home could have given her a warmer or more gracious welcome. Parents could not have done more for a child than did Mr. and Mrs. Agnew for their beloved sister-in-law, and when overtaken by illness the inevitable termination of which was death, she found here a home so sweetened with solicitous care for her comfort that her last days on earth were made days of happiness, notwithstanding her great suffering from pain and weakness. Her every wish was quickly gratified. Her faithful nurse and old time friend, Mrs. Clara Hayden, who watched with her to the last, bears testimony that in her most trying hours no word of complaint ever passed her lips, but on the contrary, when too weak to speak, the patient sufferer looked her gratitude for the unflinching devotion of her benefactors.
Mrs. Way was a woman of wonderfully pleasant disposition; kindness and good cheer marked her whole life, and her friends were limited only by the circle of her acquaintances. She was a member of the Presbyterian church, and in her last illness she greatly enjoyed the visits of the pastors of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches of this place, to whom she had often expressed her desire to be taken whenever it was the will of the Master, and she looked forward to a joyful meeting of loved ones gone before. Her experience in this respect was a blessed one, not only to herself but to those about her as well.
Impressive funeral services in her memory were held at her late home Saturday afternoon, Revs. Bailey and Calhoun officiating, both clergymen speaking eloquent eulogies on the life of the deceased. The beautiful white casket, bearing all that was mortal of this patient little woman, was interred in Riverside cemetery beside the remains of her first husband.
Those present from out of town were her niece, Mrs. F. L. Lane, of Toledo, Ohio, daughter of the late George Craig, brother of the deceased, who came before her aunt's death and ministered much toward her comfort. Mr. and Mrs. Darius Magee, Mrs. Charles Greenlund, Warren; Miss Katherine and Mr. Finley Agnew, Youngsville; Mr. and Mrs. John Agnew, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Cook, Cooksburg; Mr. and Mrs. George Schnell, and Mrs. Boyd Martin, Oil City.
