Oil market closed at $1.78. You can get it at Hopkins' store. If John T. Carson lost his horse by death Monday.

S. J. Shriver, first-class painter and paper hanger, Tionesta, Pa. Hopkins is the mercantile bargain maker and sustains the reputation against all comers. Try him.

Cyrus F. Hunt, of Marienville, is this week announced in the Victor as a Democratic candidate for Assembly.

In shoes we can please, especially at this time when we have so many marked at bargain prices. Hopkins.

Edinboro Normal is pre-eminently a professional school. Spring session begins March 24th. John F. Bigler, Principal.

The Monarch Clothing Co., Oil City, are showing a special leader in a fine Panama Ladies' Suit at $9.98. They come in all colors.

The subject of Rev. W. O. Callahan's sermon at the M. E. church next Sabbath evening at 7:30 o'clock, will be "Lessons from the Race Track."

Very many good bargains are to be found at the Hopkins store these days, where everything in the heavier grade of goods is going at ridiculously low prices.

Dr. James Gass accompanied Mrs. Arthur C. Gregg, of Brookston, to Buffalo Wednesday, where she entered the hospital for an operation.—Sheffield Observer.

A new rubber boot was picked up on the road leading to Tylersburg, not far from Tionesta, and left at this office, where the owner can get it by proving property.

The Otterbein Male Quartette and bell ringers have been secured for the next number on the lecture course and will appear as soon as satisfactory dates can be arranged.

We are indebted to Theo. G. Huddison, of Chelsea, Okla., for a copy of the Oil Investors' Journal, a handsome publication devoted entirely to the mid-continent oil industry.

Patrick Joyce offers his home in Tionesta for sale. Pleasantly located on the west side of Elm street. Good buildings, fine large lot with excellent garden plot. See or write him for price and terms.

We'd much prefer to sell below cost than carry goods over the summer, and as our spring stock is coming on we're determined to make room for it by hammering down the prices on our present stock. Hopkins.

Rev. A. H. M. Zahniser, of Franklin, will hold quarterly meeting in the Free Methodist church at Kellettsville beginning Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock and continuing over the Sabbath. A general and cordial invitation to attend all these services is extended.

Stow Relief Corps had the pleasure of entertaining a large delegation of their sisters of the Hickory Corps at the former's hall last Wednesday evening, the Hickory ladies coming in sleighs. After the regular meeting light refreshments were served and an enjoyable social session was held.

...the announcement of Prof. D. W. Morrison for County Superintendent will be found in this issue. He is asking for re-election after a term of faithful and efficient work in advancing the cause of education in the county, and from present indications he will probably be accorded this honor without opposition.

Attention is directed to the new ad. of Lacey & Eversden, merchant tailors, Oil City, in this issue. These gentlemen are successors to the well known Jacob Simon company, and are building up a line trade in Oil City. They guarantee all of their work to give entire satisfaction, and ask a trial by all fastidious dressers.

The entertainment given by the Swastika Literary Society in Bovard's hall, last Wednesday evening, was one of the real good things of the season and was thoroughly enjoyed by a large audience. Every number on the program was well rendered and reflected credit on the performer as well as the school represented, and the society has reason to feel proud of its first appearance in public. Many of the numbers were particularly good and deserving of special mention, notably the stumpy speeches of Delbert Decker, Charles Flick's oration on Washington, and the debate, "Resolved, that the farmer is of more use to society than the mechanic." The affirmative was taken by Ralph Sigwins and Arthur Zuver, and the negative by Parker Flick and Harvey Zuver. The negative won by two points.

Wedding Bells. ALLEN-HONNELL. The marriage of Miss Bertha M. Bonner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonner, 572 Roselle court, and Mr. Amos G. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund A. Allen, 5617 Washington avenue, Chicago, was solemnized in the evening of March 3d, 1908, at the University Congregational church, Rev. O. C. Holmberg officiating. Over eight hundred invited guests witnessed the beautiful event. The Chicago Daily News, which publishes a very good likeness of the accomplished young bride, gives these particulars of the affair: "Miss Ida Bode served as maid of honor and wore white and carried pink flowers. The bride wore a white duchesse satin gown and full tulle bridal veil. There were four bridesmaids, the Misses Faye Smalley, Bessie Dickinson, Caroline Kuhnart and E. Vanderpool, the latter of Winnetka, all of whom wore gowns of pink tulle. Edward Weary was best man, and the ushers included John Whipple, Robert Ware, Archibald Bonner and Hamilton Parye. Following the church service there was a large reception at the home of the bride's parents. This is said to have been one of the most magnificent social functions of the city in many months, and was very largely attended. A host of Tionesta friends of the bride and her family will extend lappy felicitations upon this occasion and will wish her a long and happy married life. The happy young couple are now enjoying their honeymoon in a tour of historic Old Mexico and the salubrious southwest.

MAIN-SICKLE. A very delightful home wedding took place this morning at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Nickle of Park street when their daughter, Miss M. Myrtle Nickle, was united in marriage to Horace M. Main, of Ellington, N. Y.

The home had been beautifully decorated with evergreen and smilax, and the ceremony was performed promptly at high noon in the front parlor. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Everett, of Tionesta, and the best man was Parker Main, a brother of the groom. Little Gertrude Sweet, a niece of the bride, was flower girl.

The bride wore a creation of cream silk and her maid was beautiful in a gown of Persian lawn.

Following the ceremony dinner was served by Mrs. Anna and daughter, and the bride's table was laid with covers for eighteen. The color scheme was pink and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Main left this afternoon for an extended trip, and will be at home after July 1st at Ellington, N. Y.

Among those from out of the city present were: Mr. and Mrs. Willis White, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Clapp, Miss Lola Graves, Mrs. White, Miss Cora Main, Conewago Valley, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Main, Ceca Main, Parker Main, Ellington, N. Y.; Miss Mary Everett, Tionesta; Mrs. L. G. Bennett, Mr. Leslie Bennett, Kennedy, N. Y.—Warren Times, 5th.

Kellettsville. Dr. C. Y. Detar, wife and son, Russell, visited relatives at Fryburg last week. Blanche Hendricks spent Saturday in Sheffield.

W. W. Kribbs, who has been in town for the past week, returned to Marienville, Thursday, and C. C. Lincoln, who has been clerking in Mr. Kribbs' store in Marienville, returned and has resumed his duties in the clothing store in this place.

Prof. R. W. McWilliams spent Saturday in Warren.

Mrs. Andrew Small, of Nebraska, was the guest of her nephew, Lewis Arner, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kribbs were called to Philadelphia, Saturday, on account of the death of their brother-in-law.

Asa Barnes was seriously injured Wednesday while working on the runway at the new saw mill. He was taken to the Emergency hospital at Warren, and is getting along as well as can be expected.

"The Vagabonds," given by the Mayburg Dramatic Club, in the opera house at this place, Saturday evening, was well attended and enjoyed by all. The play was well rendered and was creditable to the company.

Harry Beam, of Endeavor, spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. R. M. Cochran.

Mrs. R. J. Montgomery is visiting relatives in Brookville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McKenzie returned to their home at Newmansville last week.

I have the American Wall Paper agency this year and can sell you better wall paper cheaper than ever before, and am prepared to do papering, painting, graining and all kinds of inside finishing. Let me hear from you and I will call with samples on request. J. H. Shoemaker, Endeavor, Forest county Pa.

Warren will be represented by a good team in the Interstate base ball league this season.

PERSONAL.

Chas. J. Carlson, of West Hickory was a welcome caller Monday.

Bert Thomson, of Jamieson Station, was a pleasant caller Saturday.

R. A. Fulton was a business visitor in Warren yesterday and today.

Dr. O. Paul Miller, of Green township, was one of the REPUBLICAN'S business callers Saturday.

Will S. Clark of the Hunter run district, dropped in Friday to say how delighted and make the printer happy.

Clerk Geist issued a wedding permit Thursday to George Stoltz and Miss Emma Miller, both of President, Pa.

Misses Lila, Sarah and Catherine Corl, of Tidoute, have been guests Miss Blanche Pease during the past week.

Rev. H. A. Bailey occupied the pulpit of the Tidoute Presbyterian church last evening and will preach there again tonight.

Mrs. Goldie Snapp has resigned her school at Watson Farm, Howe twp., and Miss Olive Wolfe has gone over to finish the term.

Mrs. H. E. Daugherty and daughter, Maude, of Oil City, were guests over the Sabbath at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fulton.

Floyd Botsford was the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. L. Thomson, at Jamieson Station, a part of last week. Mrs. Belle Redman was also a guest of Mrs. Thomson last week.

J. J. Jones of Endeavor was looking after the bounty and pleasure of a large party of Knights of Valor young people last Thursday evening, who enjoyed a delightful sleighride to this place.

Squire F. E. King of Tylersburg, who had been named as mercantile appraiser of Clarion county, was obliged to give up the job on account of not feeling able to make the rounds of the county in the rough and inclement weather.

We had a most pleasant call yesterday from our old friend John H. Shunk, of Whig Hill, one of the REPUBLICAN'S highly appreciated subscribers. He generally gives the label on his paper a big boost when he gets in, and it now reads 1911.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben J. Thompson, former residents of Tionesta, now living at Ridgway, Pa., celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Tuesday evening of last week at their home. Fifty-five relations, friends and neighbors felicitated with them in the happy event.

Lyman Cook was home from Grunnderville a few days of the past week, returning to his lumbering operations Monday. Mr. Cook thinks he will be a year yet in getting the stock all worked up that was left on the old Warren Lumber company tract at Grunder.

Misses Jane Moore and Sylvia Swisher, of Pittsburg, spent part of a short vacation in Tionesta last week as guests of Miss Marie Smearbaugh, who entertained in their honor on Wednesday evening at pedro. Three tables were employed, a dainty lunch was discussed and the evening was pleasantly passed.

We note that our former citizen, W. A. Shewman Jr., has gone back to his first love and taken editorial management of the Oregon City Courier, a very creditable weekly newspaper published in the city bearing its name. Like its editor the paper is Democratic, but that doesn't mean that it is not a readable and up-to-date publication. Best wishes to the new editor.

Mrs. L. Fulton has been a welcome guest of Tionesta friends during the past week. She has had the family household effects packed and shipped to their new home at Danbury, Conn., where she and her husband have resided since last fall. A number of pleasant social functions have been arranged in honor of Mrs. Fulton by her lady friends while she remains in Tionesta.

A jolly sleighing party from Endeavor and vicinity enjoyed the last of the sleighing Monday night and came to Tionesta, where they found a good supper at the Hill restaurant. Those of the party were: Rev. J. F. Scherer, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Abbott, Miss Myrna McIntyre, Miss Marcia Smith, Miss May Whaley, George H. Warden and Dr. W. G. Morrow.

James C. Welch dropped in Friday to pay his respects, and likewise to liquidate a little lousy wager he entered into with the editor some two or three months ago. The forfeit was a 25-cent cigar, and we guess Jim paid the price all right if the size of the Havana is to be judged from. It measured an even nine inches, and kept us puffing one whole afternoon. It's safe to bet with James. He pays in good coin and doesn't skimp in quantity.

Ex-County Commissioner W. A. Conely, of Hickory township gave the REPUBLICAN a welcome call Thursday while transacting business at the county seat. Mr. Conely expects to move to Ludlow, Pa., some time during the coming spring where two of his sons are prosperously located, James A. being a stockholder and general manager of the large tannery at that place. Sorry to lose you, William, from our county, but if you're bound to go, good luck to you.

N. E. Witherell, of Endeavor, was among the REPUBLICAN'S welcome callers yesterday, looking hearty and declaring he never felt better in his life, having completely recovered from his illness of two years ago, when all his friends were preparing to attend his funeral. He fooled 'em all. Ed. is one of the few old-time river pilots still left among us, and he promises to give us some reminiscences of the days of river lumbering, which we know will be interesting. Remember your promise, Ed.

Letter to J. O. Carson, Tionesta, Pa.

DEAR SIR:—Here's another problem for those arithmetic and algebra scholars: If Devoe is worth $1.75 a gallon, and spreads a half faster than average paint, and wears twice as long, what is average paint worth a gallon put-on, painters' wages being $1.50 a day and a day's work a gallon of paint.

The answer is minus $1.75 a gallon. That is; you could afford to paint with average paint if somebody gives it to you and pays half the painters' wages.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO. P. S.—Dunn & Fulton sell our paint.

RECENT DEATHS.

Charles Aharrah, Sr., aged nearly 84 years, died at his home at Raughts, Elk county Pa., Feb. 29, 1908. He was one of the well known figures along the Clarion river, coming from Indiana county over fifty years ago. He followed the lumbering business until a few years ago, when he opened a farm and devoted the last few years of his life to that industry. Besides the wife, two sons, Emery J., and Charles W., survive.

Mrs. Emma Sigworth, wife of Harrison Sigworth, of Wolfe's Corners, Clarion county, whose serious illness had heretofore been mentioned in these columns, died at the Oil City hospital at 5 a. m. Thursday, March 5, 1908. She had been taken to the hospital ten days prior to her death and was operated upon for the removal of a tumor of the stomach, but which proved to be of a cancerous nature. Mrs. Sigworth was aged 41 years. She is survived by her husband, one sister, wife of C. D. Sigel, pastor of the Oil City Evangelical church, to whose home the body was taken. Funeral services were held at Pierce, Armstrong county, on Saturday. The interment was made in the Salem cemetery. Mrs. Sigworth was an exemplary Christian, and held in highest esteem by all who knew her.

Floyd Russell Allio, son of John and Essie Allio, was born in Tionesta township, March 14, 1889, and died in the Oil City hospital, March 4, 1908. Four weeks ago he was taken sick with an acute attack of congestion of the lungs, which was followed by pleurisy. The disease seemed to yield to medical treatment when septic pericarditis with effusion suddenly developed and his condition became critical in the extreme. An operation relieved his sufferings somewhat and after a few days he was able to be taken to the hospital, where a second operation was performed in the hope of saving his life but in spite of all the aid medical skill could afford he gradually grew weaker until death ended his sufferings.

He was a young man of exceptional merit, strictly temperate, kind and considerate in the home and a general favorite with his companions. From childhood he had been a member of the M. L. Zion Evangelical Sunday school. His death was most peaceful. To his brother he said: "Tell the people at home that I died a Christian and that I am going to heaven." After sending a message to each member of his family, he rested for a few minutes, when he exclaimed: "How light it is! I see my sister and the angels and they have come for me," and with a smile he joined them. He is survived by his parents, two brothers, Orion and Rolla, and one sister, Ethel. One sister died several years ago. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. F. C. Timins, of Lickingville, and Rev. W. O. Calhoun, in the Mt. Zion church, March 6th, in the presence of a great concourse of people who had assembled from miles around to pay their tribute of respect to the departed. Interment was in the cemetery beside the church.

The family wishes to thank all the friends for the kindness and sympathy extended to them in their bereavement.

Badly Hurt at Kellettsville. Asa Barnes, aged about 25 years, employed at the Salmon Creek Lumber company's mill at Kellettsville, fell from a runaway at the mill on Wednesday afternoon last, a distance of twenty feet to the railroad track and sustained very severe injuries. He was engaged in running lumber out of the mill and stepped to one side in order to get out of the way of a car that was being shifted. He either stepped too far out or missed his footing, at any rate of the runaway and lit on the tracks below. He was picked up by fellow workmen and a physician summoned who found that his left leg was broken in two places, his right wrist dislocated and his nose broken. The physician reduced the fractures and the unfortunate man was made as comfortable as possible, and on the following day was taken to Emergency hospital at Warren, where he is getting along quite well considering the nature of his injuries. Mr. Barnes is a married man and resides at Kellettsville. He is a brother of Frank Barnes, the unfortunate young man who met with such a tragic end at Oil City about a month ago, having frozen to death.

Porkey. Mrs. Geo. Blum, Mrs. Wm. Slocum and Mrs. Wes. Durnell were Trueman's visitors last Monday.

Ed. Gillespie was at Lynch on Tuesday where he became a full fledged township officer, that of supervisor.

O. E. Rupert was at Kellettsville, Saturday evening, in company with the Mayburg Orchestra, of which he is a member. The home talent play of Mayburg entitled "The Vagabonds," was given at that place on Saturday evening for the benefit of the band.

Mrs. Bloss, of Sheffield, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. O. E. Rupert.

Al. Marbaugh, of Kellettsville, spent Sunday at Wes. Durnell's.

Mrs. J. W. Littlefield was shopping at Sheffield on Saturday afternoon.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Rupert on Wednesday, March 4th.

Capt. J. J. Haight and John Jackson of Cooper Tract, were in town on business last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. J. A. Lore and Miss Lulu Spencer were at Trueman's Saturday afternoon.

Geo. Blum is driving team for James Welsh at McMichael's camp, near Garfield.

J. W. Dunkle was circulating among Clarion county friends a couple of days last week. The supposition is that there is some special attraction down there.

The new Porcupine Oil Co. have begun drilling well No. 2 on their lease up Porkey Hollow and are making fine progress. We expect soon to have a booming oil field.

When It Rains

A heavy Overcoat is like a blotter. It absorbs the rain and after a good wetting is a shapeless, soggy affair.

Our Rain Coats are overcoats whose fabric has been made water-tight by the famous "Cravenette" process. Rain or any other variety of bad weather is the same to them as sunshine. They're made in every style, and out of every kind of cloth that regular overcoats are built of. They cost no more than any other good overcoat that hasn't the advantage of the "Cravenette" process.
