The Democrats of this Congressional district having filed no petition for a candidate for Congress at Harrisburg, as the primary law provides, our present efficient member, Hon. Nelson P. Wheeler, will have the field to himself so far as that party is concerned. This is a distinct compliment to Mr. Wheeler, whose excellence as a representative of ability and worth, and whose strength as a vote-getter are thus recognized and appreciated by the party next in power to the Republicans. The Prohibition party has filed a petition favoring a gentleman named J. M. Brown, of Grove City, Pa., who will be Mr. Wheeler's only opponent at the fall election.

THE thoughtless fresh air fiend is given a timely scolding by the Chester Times in these words: "Simply because the air feels balmy when the exercise of walking is indulged in, the fresh air fiend takes it into his head that he must whiff the ozone as he travels in a trolley car or railroad coach; so up goes the window as soon as he takes his seat. Every year at this season, scores of men and women will rise to testify that severe colds are caught solely through the selfish neglect of some man or woman to consider the comforts and rights of fellow travelers. But for all this, the fiend is with us again and no amount of discussion will get a sufficient amount of sense into his addlepate to make the knowledge of any benefit to society."

Mr. Agnew Withdraws.

Editor Republican: Kindly withdraw my name from the list of candidates for the nomination for County Commissioner. In taking this course I desire to express my heartfelt thanks to the many friends who have assured me of their cordial support at the Primaries. Sincerely Yours, L. AGNEW.

He is a poor stick of a Congressman, remarks the Oil City Blizzard, who cannot achieve notoriety at the present session by "denouncing the President."

THE April number of The Ladies World, New York City, which has just reached our table, has made an unusual departure for a household magazine, and in connection with its puzzle department—which seems rather appropriate—has obtained the opinions of its readers on the presidential possibilities. The result is certainly interesting, for out of over two thousand two hundred replies, Roosevelt obtained 756, Taft 667, Hughes 392, Bryan 236, Fairbanks 20, Johnson 32, LaFollette 29, Cortelyou 12, Knox 12, Gray 12, Folk 11, Haywood 8, Foraker, Hearst, Loeb, Berry, Cannon, Daniels and Douglas getting each a few. The editor in a brief comment on the figures states that the letters come from every State in the Union, and whether they have or have not any significance, are at least a free expression of opinion on the part of a body of representative people.

ACCORDING to a New York correspondent the yellow shoe is coming back. Of course it has not been away entirely, but this season it is coming back good and plenty, for men as well as women. And the women are responsible, according to the shoe dealers. "The yellow shoe had its greatest vogue about 15 years ago, and then the sales began to decrease, and as far as men were concerned, fell off almost entirely in New York. Last year the women began to show a liking for brown and other light colored shoes. Then they asked for the yellow shades. Then some man was induced to ask for yellow shoes and that started it. The buyers for the big stores, always looking ahead, began ordering yellow shoes and the factories obeyed. Hence the great and increasing display of yellow shoes in the windows along Broadway. "By the time the warm wave hits here," said a dealer, "the town will be full of yellow shoes."

THE clerks of the state department at Harrisburg are still wrestling with the avalanche of nomination petitions, resulting from the first operations of the uniform primaries act. According to the Harrisburg Telegraph, about three thousand such petitions were received, fully fifteen hundred of which were not filed until the 14th, the last day allowed for that purpose. Every one of these papers has to be examined, recorded and checked up. Many papers were rejected as defective, in some instances the names of the candidates and the districts represented being omitted. Efforts were made to file petitions on behalf of the Roosevelt, United Labor and Independent parties, but as only five parties, by reason of the votes cast, have the right to file petitions, these were all rejected. The law requires all candidates for congressional, judicial, senatorial and legislative honors in this state to file petitions of nomination with the state authorities, who certify the nominations to the various boards of county commissioners for printing on the ballot.

SPEAKING of the "farical hypocrisy" displayed by Congressmen, in voting to restore "In God We Trust" on the coins, the Washington Post pertinently asks: If we are to inscribe these words upon our coins, why may we not with equal propriety stamp them on our bullets? They not cut them on the blades of our bayonets? Each does a service for the American Government, and the work of war has, in its essence, just as much connection with God and His divine character as commerce. If we are not engaged in unrighteous war, our bullets may be labeled with declaration of our trust with precisely as much and as logical reason as our coins, since each is but a servant of legitimate governmental functions. The fact is that as individuals the people of the United States do trust in God. As a government they don't do anything of the sort. They trust in their might, in their men, in their ships and guns and money. Our whole policy as a nation has proved this. It is a mockery to put upon the symbols of governmental functions a piece of sentimentality which our whole national conduct proves a bit of pretense and in reality denies.

Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Herring of Limestone Twp., celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage Wednesday. Their wedding occurred March 18th, 1858, at Stewart Run, Pa., Rev. W. S. Randall of Albion, Pa., having been the officiating clergyman.

Four generations were present, all but one of their six children coming home to celebrate the event. There were also seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Several gold pieces and some very useful presents were received. The principal event of the day being the bountiful repast which was served, at which covers were laid for twenty-eight.

The four sons present are Jerry H., Edgar L., Ellis E. and William H. and two daughters, Mrs. Ellen Ives and Mrs. Olive Rice of Volant, Pa., the latter being the only absent one. Mrs. C. Metcalf of Titusville and Mrs. R. Steitz of Bradford, sister of Mrs. Herring, were present; also her nieces, Mrs. Judge P. C. Hill, Tionesta; Mrs. Joseph Swab, East Hickory; Mrs. Geo. Copeland, Alabauagh Hill, Mrs. M. Merkle, a neighbor, and Miss F. T. Marsh of Corydon were also present.—Tidoute News.

Neighborhood Notes.

The latest case of spectacle fraud that has come to my notice, Alfred Truman says, was perpetrated on John Kunselman by a traveling humber. The only money John had was a ten dollar bill, for which the fakir exchanged a pair of spectacles such as our home dealers charge $1 for. When will our people learn some sense, and under no circumstances deal with traveling miscreants in the spectacle business.—Brookville Democrat.

Frank Button, secretary of the Cory Water company, was a drummer boy in the civil war, has been troubled for some time with wounds received at that time. The pain became so severe that the X-rays were used recently. The photograph shows two bullets embedded in the flesh with ligaments grown about them in such a way that their removal is impossible. He has carried these bullets since the war, being compelled to walk with a stick, but recently he has been compelled to use a crutch.

While driving along the road between Snow Shoe and Clarence, Center county, Monday of last week, Frank Uzzle noticed a flock of crows feeding in a hollow. He became curious and went to the spot, where he found the body of Theodore F. Musser, postmaster at Clarence, who disappeared on January 4. A revolver was found lying by his side and there were two bullet holes in the skull. He had been in ill health for a number of years and evidently took this means of ending his troubles. On January 4th, Musser left his home ostensibly for the purpose of going to the postoffice, but when he did not return at night his relatives became worried and although a thorough search was made, no trace of him could be found. It was thought that his mind had become confused and he had perished in the cold. He was over 70 years of age.

Allegations of Forgery.

Albany, March 24.—Information received here from Cohoes was to the effect that Ira J. Bayless, who is in honor from Danier, Cal., in charge of detectives, is wanted in Cohoes on eight or ten charges, mostly allegations of forgery, while acting as local superintendent of a well-known insurance company. It was stated that Bayless maintained an office in Cohoes for about two years, but suddenly disappeared about six weeks ago. It was stated he secured money from his company by giving notice of the death of a policyholder when, as it is claimed, the policyholder was still living.

Going Over Entire Gillette Case.

Albany, March 24.—It was said at the executive chamber that Governor Hughes had devoted three nights going over the entire Gillette case and was familiar with every detail. He is holding his final decision in abeyance, it is said, because certain friends of Gillette have informed the governor that they desire to submit additional data, which the governor has promised to look into before announcing his conclusion.

PHIPPS GETS HOSPITAL SITE.

Ground for New Institution For Treatment and Study of Tuberculosis is Secured.

Philadelphia, March 24.—The first authoritative connection of the name of Henry Phipps, steamship and philanthropist, with the reported purchase of a site at Seventh and Lombard streets for the great hospital for treatment of patients suffering from tuberculosis, which Mr. Phipps will establish in this city, under the direction of Dr. Lawrence F. Flick, appeared with the recording of deeds transferring to Mr. Phipps the properties 639-41 Lombard street, which are included in the proposed site for the institution.

It has been reported at various times, and as often denied, that these purchases were made to provide a site for the institution for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, which Mr. Phipps five years ago announced intention of building and endowing. Deeds for the last of the ground necessary for the new institution have now been secured. Mr. Phipps in choosing the location insisted that the hospital should be located within easy reach of crowded centers of population, which the modern study of tuberculosis has come to consider as extremely favorable to the perpetuation of the disease.

It is not known that any plans have yet been prepared for the buildings which it is proposed to erect, though it is reported that work on them is already so far advanced as to permit of beginning work on the hospital before summer is far advanced. The purchase of the site has, it is believed, cost Mr. Phipps not much less than $100,000. The building will probably cost about $500,000. Mr. Phipps, it is understood, has pledged himself to expend at least $1,000,000 in the establishment of the institution, which is to bear his name.
