To All Subscribers in Arrears.

Bills have been sent out from the REPUBLICAN office to all subscribers one or more years in arrears. Many have responded promptly to these notices, but there are quite a number who have yet to be heard from. It will be but a few days until the ruling of the postal authorities takes effect, April 1st, and publishers will no longer be permitted to send papers to subscribers more than one year in arrears. It is not our desire to cut off a single subscriber, but we have no choice in the matter, and we trust this warning will be heeded by all. After the date specified unsettled accounts will have to be placed for collection.

Hal Bortzer, the young son of Elmer Bortzer, of Dawson Station, stepped in a small hole and fell, last Saturday, injuring his left arm. It was at first thought to be broken, but a visit here to Dr. Dunn proved the injury to be a dislocation at the elbow.

Mr. Everdon, of the merchant tailoring establishment of Lacey & Everdon, Oil City, was a business visitor in Tionesta Friday. This firm is successor to the well known Jacob Simon company and are building up a fine trade in the city and surrounding country.

The Allegheny College Trio, W. E. Thomas, impersonator, J. A. Bortz, vocalist, and B. R. Ross, violinist, will give a concert in Bovard's hall, Saturday evening, March 28th, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society. An evening of rare pleasure and profit is assured. Admission, 25 and 15 cents.

Following is the list of letters lying unclaimed for in the Tionesta, Pa., post-office for week ending March 25, 1908: Mrs. Lusetta Huff (card), Mrs. Floetha Shaw, Mrs. James, laundry agent, Mr. Harry K. Bellman, Mr. Wm. McNally (card), Mr. Harry Davis (card).

J. C. Myers, promoter of the proposed casket factory for this place, left this morning for his home in Tionesta. A meeting was held in the Opera House last night and a considerable amount of stock of the proposed company subscribed for. Dr. Gass has the stock subscription paper and will give information to interested persons during the absence of Mr. Myers.—Sheffield Observer.

It is stated that since the tuberculosis dispensary was first established in Erie 3,900 eggs and 2,200 pints of milk have been distributed among indigent patients, and the statement gives some idea of the work being carried on by the dispensary under the auspices of the state department of health. Six eggs and one quart of milk per day is the allowance of each patient in indigent circumstances and the state "pays the freight."

The district conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Mission was concluded at Titusville after a four days' session, and the list of ministerial appointments was announced. Among the nearby appointments made was F. M. Pike, Pleasantville; W. A. Backus, Stewart Run; F. D. Goodwill, Titusville. Rev. L. W. Strong former pastor of the Stewart Run church was appointed to the church at Sugar Grove, Warren county.

Let a young man at twenty years of age put twenty dollars at interest, instead of expending it for tobacco. Then, at the beginning of the next year repeat it, and include also the principal and interest of the preceding years, and thus continue to do from year to year, until he shall have reached the age of seventy; the amount he would realize would exceed thirty thousand dollars. How many of our young men will try it?

Mercer may not obtain the proposed $250,000 court house to replace the one destroyed by fire several months ago. The old court house was insured for $50,000, which amount the insurance companies have absolutely refused to settle on that basis and now the companies holding the policies threaten to restore the old court house to its former condition. A Sharon firm has made a bid to restore the building for $32,000. The insurance adjusters and Commissioners are patting on the proposal.

Inasmuch as the ducks are now flying northward, a word or two concerning the open season for wild water fowl will be interesting to local sportsmen. Under the act approved by Governor Edwin S. Stuart on April 15, 1907, the last legislation on the subject, the open season for wild geese or swan or wild duck, or any wild bird belonging to these families is from the first day of September to the tenth day of April next following. During this period such wild fowls may be killed, with the exception of on Sunday, and the number in one day is not limited.

The 11-year-old daughter of Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent Atherton at West Hickory has been ill for several weeks, and her peculiar case is attracting the attention of physicians in this vicinity. Her case is said to be one of hysteria, the child also refusing to partake of food. Specialists were brought from Buffalo and other cities, who brought about no betterment in her condition, and the life of the girl was finally despaired of. An Oil City physician finally took hold of the case, and it is now given out that the girl is improving and beginning to take some interest in life.

Charles Ott, who is engaged in getting things in shape at Tionesta for the beginning of work on the State road there states that the lumber business in that county is about down and out. He says that during the past week a large quantity of lumber was shipped up the Tionesta creek to Sheffield and there reshipped to West Hickory and is now hauling up the banks of the stream on cars. The industry that brought so much wealth to this section is rapidly fading.—Warren Times. There will be lumbering going on in these parts long after Mr. Ott has finished paving the streets of Tionesta, we opine.

The minister was addressing the Sunday school. "Children, I want to talk to you a few moments about one of the most wonderful, one of the most important organs in the whole world," he said. "What is it that throbs away, beats away, never stopping, never ceasing, whether you wake or sleep, night or day, week in and week out, month in and month out, year in and year out, without any volition on your part, hidden away in depths, as it were, unseen by you, throbbing rhythmically all your life long?" During this pause for oratorical effect a small voice was heard, "I know; it's the gas meter."

Fred Rathfon, of Nebraska, was down last week to have a little surgical operation applied to the index finger of his right hand which he had placed a little too close to one of the buzz-saws in the box mill at that place. The end of the finger was cut half in two, but the physician succeeded in saving the part from amputation.

The April number of the Woman's Home Companion contains several notable articles, and is, in addition, a thoroughly artistic and beautiful issue. Kellogg Durland contributes his second article on "Women of the Russian Revolt"; Jane Addams writes a thoughtful and appealing article on "The Working Woman and the Ballot"; Dr. Edward Everett Hale gives a helpful talk on "The Meaning of Home," and Elizabeth Stuart Phelps continues her serial story, "Through Life Us Do Part." There are also some excellent short stories. This April issue is beautiful in its Easter cover and in many fine pictorial features by Hermann C. Wall, Florence Seovel Shinn, Ellen Macaulay and others.

Joe Levi, the well known shoe dealer of Oil City, met with another serious fire loss at an early hour on Sunday morning last when his entire block, located on Center, Sycamore and Seneca streets, was destroyed. His loss is nearly $40,000 on building and stock with an insurance of $19,500. Wm. Vann Ausdall, occupying part of the block as a wholesale liquor store, lost $20,000, and had $14,000 insurance. Aaron Silberberg, merchant tailor, lost $500, covered by insurance. The fire started about 3 o'clock in the morning, and as the block was a wooden structure it burned rapidly and could not be controlled. Mr. Levi had given the contract for the erection of a 3-story brick block and had arranged for the removal of his stock this week to another building pending the erection of a new block. He expects to resume business within the next two weeks in a new location.

It is hard to teach an old dog new tricks," it is said, and just as difficult to keep an old riverman off the water when there's a flood. Last week Ed. Witherell, of Endeavor, the veteran pilot, made a run on the Allegheny from Hickory to President with an small fleet—much smaller, in fact, than in the halcyon days of 30 years ago—but still with a full crew aboard. They were all young, and some were old boys, but they "bucked'er up" at the command of their pilot, just as the young men, now grown grizzled, used to do in those good old days, and the craft was landed, safe and sound, at its destination in time to allow the crew to catch the evening train for home, having enjoyed the trip to the full extent. And the happiest one in the bunch was the veteran Ed, for having again been permitted to give the order to "point her up" for the next bend or to shove the madd to the next point of rocks. It is hard to get the river out of the noggin's of these old timers, and we wouldn't if we could.

A card from Leonard Agnew withdrawing his name from the list of Republican candidates for County Commissioner appears in this issue of the REPUBLICAN. To many voters and taxpayers of the county who had determined on supporting him for re-election his withdrawal will be regretted, for they recognized in him an efficient, painstaking and level-headed official, who looked after the interests of the county in a thorough and business-like manner. In doing so, however, he is doubtless aware of having encountered some opposition, as well as left some disappointments. The office of County Commissioner is a difficult one to fill to the satisfaction of a majority of the people, especially if one attempts to conscientiously perform its duties, and it is altogether probable Mr. Agnew feels that for all the encomiums and glory there are in the position it is not worth the effort that a re-election would entail. The people will be fortunate if they always succeed in electing as good material to the office of County Commissioner as Len. Agnew.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Forest County Summer Normal and School of Methods was held last Saturday evening. Prof. G. W. Mitchell, of Marienville, was elected principal of the school, Prof. J. F. McArthur, of Siverly, assistant, and Miss Nan L. Mildren, of Frederick, Md., instructor in primary work. Prof. Mitchell is well and favorably known throughout the entire county. His excellent work here last year made him the favorite and secured his unanimous election for the present year. Prof. McArthur, for the past three years supervisory principal of the schools of Siverly borough, Venango county, is a strong teacher and a valuable addition to the school. Miss Mildren was superintendent of primary work in Caroline county, Md., last year and is at present doing the same work in Frederick county, Md. She is a practical teacher and well informed on the needs and limitations of the country schools. She possesses the highest recommendations from two very conservative teachers' bureaus. Every teacher of primary pupils in Forest county ought to avail themselves of the opportunity of her instruction. The school will open on Tuesday, May 12th, for an eight weeks' term.

March 20th, Temperance Rally Day, was observed by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. of Nebraska with a banquet given by the losers in the recent membership contest and a literary entertainment by the winners. All of the young people who took part did so well that we give the program in full: Recitation, "Something and Nothing," by Lillian Gold; recitation, "The Drunkard's Funeral," Ruth Wiant; song, "Sunset Pearl," by Glee Club; recitation, "The Rey's Lament," Wilda Thomson; recitation, "Nellie's Victory," Augusta Hunter; song, "The Kicker," Glee Club; recitation, "The Painter of Seville," Lura Harding; solo, Augusta Cook; recitation, "The Inventor's Wife," Grace Reed; recitation, "High License," Mary Klabatz; "Boat Song," Glee Club; recitation, "One Glass More," Douglas Sherman; solo, "Vote as You Pray," Mary Klabatz; recitation, "I'll Take What Father Takes," Rachel Hunter; solo, Glee Club; recitation, "The Face on the Floor," Evadne Hunter; song by a quartette of young men. After the serving of the refreshments, Rev. W. O. Calhoun, an honorary member of the Union, was called on for a speech and he responded with a rousing talk on voting for "principle, not party," that was heartily applauded by all present.

F. Watson. —Perry Harrison, who has been indisposed the greater part of the past winter, left last week for Cadillac, Mich., to visit his brother, John, whom he has not seen for upward of thirty years. —Mrs. Ida Small and daughter Lorna, of Nebraska, went to Oil City yesterday to visit relatives and to be present at Grandma Small's 95th birthday party, which takes place today, March 25th. —Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Proper returned last week from their southern sojourn in Cuba, the Isle of Pines and Florida. At St. Petersburg, Fla., they met a number of Pennsylvania people, West Hickory and Tionesta being represented among those who are enjoying the delights of that climate.

The students home from the Normals returned Monday, as follows: Miss Fern Bowman to Edinboro; Misses Marie Dunn, Maude Canfield and Sarah Carson to Clarion. The scholarship winners from this section, Charles Fleck, Parker Fleck, Miss Beulah Ledebur, Miss Mary Wolfe and Miss Maggie Amburger, also went to Clarion, Monday. —Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Clark are enjoying a sort of family reunion with their children, most of whom are home this week, the first ingathering of the boys and girls in more than a dozen years. There is Sam, of Leadville, Colorado; Mrs. Charles Hinkle and Miss Evelyn, of Erie; Paul, Miss Colyn and Mrs. David Edwards, and daughter Dorothy, of Sharon; and the expected ones are Mrs. Charles Stahl of Lancaster, John of Shingle House, N. Y., and Bruce of Yatesboro, Pa.

Sam Q. Clark, for the past thirteen years a Colorado hustler, is here on a couple of weeks' visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Clark and other friends, it being his first trip home since leaving Tionesta. Sam hasn't changed in the least but finds many changes in his old home town in the way of improvements, and yet enough of the old landmarks are left to make it recognizable. He is located in Leadville, employed as superintendent of a quartz mill, and travels considerably about the state. He has not seen "Dad" Hulings or "Davey" Hillsands lately, but reports them contentedly located at Ward, Colorado, with no desire to return to their native state.

The Local Oil Field. G. H. Lowe, who is operating over in the Poland Hill oil field, on the West Side, finished No. 9 on the McKee farm and got a nice producer. He will begin No. 10 this week on the same tract. S. T. Carson started to drill the first of the week on the Fred Dryer farm, Hunter Run, for Mr. Lowe, who has a lease of the territory in that vicinity. —Proper Bros. had a fishing job on the Clapp tract, Poland hill, but are drilling again. —Sutley Bros. are drilling on the Osmer tract, same district, for themselves, and ought to finish this week. The Osmer tract adjoins the Jacob E. Wagner farm. —Driller on the Swab farm, Hunter station, are badly hampered with fresh water, which has threatened to drown them out, but they hope to get the fluid cased off. —James Canfield has bought a drilling machine and has taken a contract for cleaning out some wells and drilling a number of new ones for John Bellows at Reno, Pa. —Morrow & Carson completed a well on the A. J. Siggins farm. West Hickory, last week, which promises to make a fair pump. They shot it yesterday, and will set the pump to work today. They will begin another in a few days on the same tract.

RECENT DEATHS.

Henry Walters was born August 7th, 1841, on a farm near Newmansville, and died in the Oil City hospital, March 20th, 1908, aged 66 years, 7 months and 13 days. He was the son of David and Mary Walters, who about seventy years ago moved from Westmoreland county, Pa., to a home in the forest near where Newmansville now stands. As soon as their son Henry was old enough to aid in the work of clearing up a farm in the wilderness, he gave most cheerful help in this arduous toil and remained on the homestead until the death of his parents. The greater part of the time since then he has made his home with his sister. He was an honest and industrious citizen, an attendant of the Lutheran congregation in Newmansville, and in his death another link which unites us to the days of the pioneers has been broken. Four weeks ago, after suffering from a severe attack of the grippe, he concluded to go to the Oil City hospital for treatment, and was slowly improving when an abscess at the base of the brain developed and after a few days of suffering he passed away. He is survived by two brothers, Daniel, of Tionesta, and James, of Newmansville; also one sister, Miss Josephine Walters, of Newmansville. The body was brought to the home of his brother in this place on Saturday morning, where funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. O. Calhoun on Sunday at one o'clock, after which, followed by a large concourse of relatives and friends, he was laid to rest in Riverside cemetery, Kellettville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Watson and daughter Alda visited the former's father at Mill Village, Pa., a few days last week. Clara King, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity, returned to her home at Sugar Grove, Wednesday. Olive Welsh is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Welsh, at Balltown. Mrs. Andrews has returned home after a few weeks' sojourn in the south. Mrs. H. Lucart, of Newmansville, who has been visiting her sons, Frank and William, here, returned home Saturday. Mrs. Lura King, of Sugar Grove, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Berlin. James Wolfe, of Mayburg, and George Welsh, of Balltown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Babcock. Mrs. M. D. Spencer, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. Fry, at Oil City, returned home Wednesday. Frank Cunningham spent several days in Pittsburgh last week. Floyd Frill, of Lickingville, visited his uncle, W. J. Detar, last week. Mrs. Frank Harkless spent Friday in Warren.

Prof. R. W. McWilliams visited friends at Loleta over Sunday. Mrs. D. I. Beck, of Whig Hill, is visiting relatives in town. Alice McCrea, of Mayburg, was the guest of Mrs. Frank Nash over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McKenzie, of Newmansville, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. P. Smith, who has been quite ill for the past week. Tressa Oberlander, Mrs. J. C. and Flora Miller spent Saturday in Warren. The entertainment given by the W. C. T. U. at Andrews' hall, Friday evening, was very much enjoyed by all present. Local option was very ably discussed by Rev. F. A. Gaupp, of Ridgway. Mrs. A. C. Ludwig, of Titusville, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lewis Arner. Mrs. W. A. Kribbs, who has been visiting her sister in Philadelphia, returned home Saturday, accompanied by her niece, Miss Armas. Wm. and Chas. Dotterer, of Muzette, visited their grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Dotterer, Thursday. A. C. Davis, of Union City, was the guest of W. A. Kribbs last week. Miss Flynn, of Newmansville, visited at J. C. Miller's a few days last week.

Porkey. The robins have returned and are causing the air to ring with their sweet singing. The Porkey flats were badly flooded by the flood in Tionesta Creek during the past week. The Warren Oil Co., who are drilling up Porkey Run, expect to complete their well on Tuesday afternoon. The residents of this section are hoping for a good oil well. A. E. Highgates and family, of Hastings, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Slocum, over Sunday. Miss Olive Wolfe, of Kellettville, spent last week at Balltown the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jas. Welsh. Mrs. Mabel Sylvis and two children and sister, Miss Anna Bell, of Barnes, visited their mother, Mrs. Laura Bell, in town over Tuesday night. Mrs. H. E. Gillespie and Miss Katharine Hepler called on Mrs. Wm. Kelley at Sheriff on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Grace Miller and Mrs. Myrtle Durrell were Trueman's visitors on Saturday. Claude Littlefield was visiting friends at Marienville over Sunday. Jas. Welsh spent a couple of days of last week at Sheffield. Earl Downey and family spent Sunday afternoon at Minister as guests of Lew Brennan and family. Meryl Maze and Miss Nora Stover, of Minister, called on friends in town on Sunday. Mr. Bloss, of Sheffield, spent Sunday in town, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. O. E. Rupert. Mr. Bloss has spent the past two weeks in town helping to care for her daughter, who has been sick. Nathan Burdick visited at the Rupert residence over Sunday. Mrs. Lew Brennan and two children, of Minister, visited her sister, Mrs. Wm. Stover and family, at Tylersburg, last week. Mrs. J. W. Littlefield spent Friday afternoon at Pools Creek. Mrs. Bean and Mrs. Showers, of Lynch, visited Mrs. O. E. Rupert on Friday between trains. Mrs. H. E. Gillespie purchased a new driving horse from Gles Whitton, of Tionesta. Miss Grace Reese, of West Virginia, was the guest of her friend, Mrs. Grace Miller, last week. Fred Howard, of Garfield, called on J. W. Littlefield a few hours on Sunday. —Lots of people live all their lives without learning how to live.
