Looking Forward To Easter.

It's only a short time to Easter—less than three weeks, you know, and three weeks is not too long to allow for the selection of a proper suit for spring wear.

In past years Easter has often been early—sometimes too early—and women have allowed suit buying to go over until after that day. But this year there is no excuse for that. Every one will want a new outfit on Easter Sunday morning.

Suits Cut in the Snappiest New Styles.

Look out for the important new requisites in style and shape, such as the pointed dip cuts—the new vest fronts that show at the bottom openings of stunning cutaway coats—look for the graceful touches of novelty and you'll find them in all our suit offerings.

Immense variety of course at $25, $35, $50, $65 and $75 and so on, but there are many lower priced ones, too, and you can pin your faith to them with perfect confidence.

Kid Gloves at About Half.

Buy your Easter Gloves now. Here's several lots we picked up at what may strictly be called "bargain prices." One lot Three-Button Black Suede, Fownes Bros. make, all sizes, regularly $1.75, now $1.

One lot Eight-Button Black Glace, Fownes Bros. make, regularly $2, now $1. One lot Eight-Button Grey Glace, Fownes Bros. make, regularly $2, now $1.

One lot Eight-Button French Grey Suede, Perrin's make, regularly $2, now $1.

One lot Sixteen-Button Tan Cape Kid, regularly $4, now $2.90.

— a good bank.

It's almost impossible to become a property owner or "have money" without first opening a bank account. Ask any monied man. He will tell you. Most of them—almost every one of them—began that way.
