Increased --- Teachers In State Colleges To Be Pensioned.

Shooting In a Courtroom—Mrs. Vanderbilt Seeks Divorce—Watson Is Nominated by Populists—Wreckers Get $100,000 in Stamps—Y. M. C. A.'s 40th Anniversary.

Announcement was made in New York city that Andrew Carnegie would add $5,000,000 to the fund of the Carnegie Foundation, or whatever sum might be necessary to include as pension beneficiaries eligible professors of state universities.

No provision was made for this class of educators in the original gift for the reason, stated by Mr. Carnegie at the time, that the donor thought it possible that such institutions might prefer that their relations should continue exclusively with the state from which their chief support was derived.

This view was not taken by the National Association of State Universities, which in the year following the establishment of the foundation petitioned the trustees for admittance to the benefits of the retiring allowance system. It was then found that the earnings of the original fund of $10,000,000 were exhausted through the outlet already planned, and that if the faculties of all state universities were to be benefited an additional $5,000,000 would be required.

The situation was placed formally before Mr. Carnegie by Dr. Henry S. Pritchett, president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, on March 31 last and on that same day Mr. Carnegie replied that the money would be forthcoming for any state institution whose application received the approval of the legislature and governor of its state. The additional donation will be in 5-per-cent bonds, so providing an added annual income of a quarter of a million dollars and a total for yearly disbursement of $750,000.

The Carnegie Foundation was established by Mr. Carnegie on April 27, 1895, with a gift of a trust fund of $10,000,000 in 5-per-cent first mortgage bonds of the United States Steel Corporation. This fund was placed in the care of trustees who include the presidents of the better known colleges and universities of the country.

The revenue of the fund provides pensions for teachers of universities, colleges and technical schools in the United States, Canada and Newfoundland, who are retired after twenty-five years service or having reached the age of 65 years have taught fifteen years preceding. From the benefits of the trust were excluded institutions supported by state or colonial government and schools under sectarian control.

Desperado Shot Up Courtroom.

Found guilty of a charge of arson, Henry D. McDonald, in the circuit courtroom at Terre Haute, Ind., shot and killed Chief of Detectives William E. Dwyer, seriously wounded three other officers and a bystander, and was himself seriously wounded. McDonald had been tried for dynamiting stores and a church in Sanford last year.

As soon as the jury reported its verdict McDonald jumped up, drew a revolver and fired at Prosecuting Attorney James A. Cooper, Jr., but missed, because Cooper tipped his chair over backwards. McDonald continued firing at the officers seated around the counsel table. Detective Dwyer fell dead at the third shot.

Policemen and deputy sheriffs in the courtroom drew revolvers and opened fire on McDonald, who returned the fire. Before the convicted man fell with a half dozen bullets in his body he had shot Harvey V. Jones, superintendent of police, in the side; Deputy Sheriff Ira Wellman in the chin; Sylvester Doyle, court bailiff, in the leg, and a bystander in the side.

The jurors jumped to their feet at the first shot. Judge J. T. Walker, one of the attorneys, tried to stop McDonald, but he only hindered the officers, who were afraid of hitting him when they shot at McDonald.

Judge Crao, who presided at the trial, ran to the railing of the jury box and the spectators rushed out in confusion.

McDonald was finally overwhelmed by officers, his ammunition spent and his strength weakened by wounds, and taken to a hospital. It is said that McDonald and the other wounded men will recover.

Events which culminated so tragically had their origin in dynamiting outrages that destroyed the Methodist church and the general stores of Shickel & Johnson and J. W. Rees of Sanford on the night of Feb. 21, 1907. Henry McDonald and James Scanlon were arrested the next day, charged with the crime. In a former trial the jury disagreed. Scanlon has not been tried.

Mrs. Vanderbilt Sues For Divorce.

Within an hour after he had sailed for Europe, Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt was made the defendant in a suit filed with the supreme court by his wife, Ellen French Vanderbilt.

It was learned from an official in the county court house, who saw the papers in the case, that Mrs. Vanderbilt's action is one for absolute divorce.

Mrs. Vanderbilt was Ellen French,

Employment For 1,000 Idle Men.

Sharon, April 7.—The Wheatland mill of the Shenango Iron and Steel company and the finishing department of the Sharon Steel Hoop company resumed operations yesterday, affording employment to 1,000 men. Orders have been booked by each company that will keep the plants working several weeks.

Ministerial Responsibility.

St. Petersburg, April 7.—The duma has scored a victory of sweeping importance in forcing the retirement of M. Alexieff, vice minister of commerce and director of the department of commercial navigation, the affairs of which long have been in a chaotic condition. The budget commission threatened to report against the budget of this ministry unless Alexieff was removed and M. Shipoff, the minister of commerce, yielded. This is considered the first step toward the establishment of ministerial responsibility, which the first duma tried in vain to enforce.

Burned to Death Frying Doughnuts.

Watertown, N. Y., April 7.—Mrs. John St. Denis, aged 40, of Natural Bridge, was burned to death while frying doughnuts. The fat ignited and the woman was enveloped in flames. Death soon followed.

Watson Nominated by Populists.

For president of the United States—Thomas E. Watson of Georgia.

For vice president of the United States—Samuel Williams of Indiana.

The foregoing ticket was nominated by the People's party convention, after two stormy sessions during which the Nebraska and the Minnesota delegations bolted because they could not procure a postponement of the convention until after nominations had been made by the Democratic national convention so that the People's party might nominate William J. Bryan for president, if he were defeated at the Democratic convention.

The Nebraska men fought desperately to the last, and when Jay W. Forrest of Albany, N. Y., mounted the platform to place Watson in nomination they withdrew from the convention, followed by the Minnesota delegation which consisted of one man, T. J. Weighan. If Bryan is nominated at Denver, the men who walked out of the convention say that they and the Populists of Nebraska will support him to a man.

Wreckers Get $100,000 In Stamps.

Postage stamps valued at over $100,000, forming a consignment in process of shipment from New York to Newfoundland, have been washed ashore at the island of Cuttyhunk from the wreck of the steamer Silvia. The stamps are of the current Newfoundland issue, and were being shipped by the American Bank Note company of New York to the Newfoundland government.

They came ashore several days ago in a single box which was cast aside by the male wreckers but was quickly seized by the women. Many sheets of the stamps have been given away and some are said to have been sold. They are in two and five cent denominations. One woman is said to have possession of all the five cent stamps, valued at $80,000.

The stamps were not listed on the ship's manifest, the insurance adjusters here state, but were shipped as cash in charge of the purser of the steamer.

Order to Surrender Diamond Formula.

The magistrate of the Bow Street police court in London has issued an order to the bank in that city which holds the envelope alleged to contain Henry LeMoynes formula for the manufacture of diamonds to surrender this document to the French authorities demanding it. LeMoynes is under arrest in Paris charged with obtaining money under false pretences from Sir Julius Chables Werber of the De Beers Mining company. The original demand for the envelope in question was made March 23, since which time the Bow Street magistrate has consulted with the home office and as a result issued the order of Friday. Counsel for the bank brusquely declined to obey the order. The magistrate admitted that he had not the power to compel obedience, but he intimated that the matter would be taken before a higher authority.

Battleship Fleet Starts North.

The battleship fleet having completed target practice at Magdalena Bay, the crews will give the greater part of the week to the work of putting the big ships in spick and span condition for the receptions that await them at California ports. The warships start Saturday for San Diego bay. The torpedo flotilla is expected to arrive at Magdalena bay from Acapulco during the week.

Employers' Liability Bill.

The naval appropriation bill will succeed the District of Columbia bill in the house and its consideration will consume a large part of the week. The employers' liability bill, amending the present law so as to meet the criticisms of the supreme court, was introduced Monday, and only one vote was recorded against it. House committee hearings on the Aldrich bill will begin Wednesday.

Scope of Government Control.

The scope and limits of government control over industry and corporate management will be the general topic to be discussed at the four sessions of the annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science at Philadelphia on Friday and Saturday.

Y. M. C. A.'s 40th Anniversary.

The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Young Men's Christian association will begin at Chicago on Saturday, continuing until April 23.

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY BILL

Passed by the House With Only One Vote Recorded Against It.

Washington, April 7.—With only one vote recorded against it, that of Mr. Littlefield of Maine, the house of representatives, under suspension of the rules, passed the Sterling employers' liability bill, after forty minutes debate.

In brief, the bill establishes the doctrine that the railroad companies engaged in interstate commerce are liable for personal injuries received by employees in the service of such carriers. It abolishes the strict common law rule of liability which bars a recovery for the personal injury or death of an employee occasioned by the negligence of a fellow servant. It also relaxes the common law rule which makes contributory negligence a defense to claims for such injuries.

A provision, however, diminishes the amount of the recovery in the same degree that the negligence of the injured one contributed to the injury. The bill further makes each party responsible for his own negligence and requires each to bear the burden thereof.

The bill as passed by the house was transmitted to the senate later in the day and on motion of Senator Dolliver was laid on the table subject to being called up at any time. Mr. Dolliver explained that the bill is quite similar to the measure reported to the senate from the committee on education and labor.

Mr. Dolliver contemplates asking the senate to agree to take up the bill at an early day. He will probably move to substitute the senate measure for the house bill and after the senate acts will then leave to conferees the task of agreeing upon a compromise measure.

The house bill is much more sweeping than the senate bill, and it applies to all "common carriers" while the senate bill applies only to "common carriers by railroad."

In the debate Minority Leader Williams said he welcomed "the opportunity to illustrate to the country how quickly and how rapidly we can join in passing remedial legislation."

Mr. Payne declared that Mr. Williams had no more to do with the bringing about of the report from the committee on the boys on the street. It has been said, the settled purpose of the majority to bring the bill before congress. Mr. Payne feared the bill would meet the same fate with the supreme court as did the former law, but he said he would vote for it, nevertheless, as he had voted for the previous bill.

The bill passed by a viva voce vote, but in order that members might be recorded the yeas and nays were ordered.

WILD STEERS IN THE RIVER.

Many Swam a Long Distance Before They Were Captured.

New York, April 7.—A fleet of tug-boats pursuing a drove of wild Texas steers swimming in the East river was an exciting and unusual spectacle witnessed by hundreds of persons. A Lehigh Valley railroad float carrying a carload of thirty steers and several cars loaded with coal sprung a leak in the East river near the foot of North Ninth street, Brooklyn, and sank.

Before it went down the deckhands opened the door and the steers made a dash for safety. About fifteen of them got clear of the float before it went down but the others were drowned.

A lively chase ensued. Passing tugs joined in the pursuit and several unsuccessful attempts were made to lasso the swimming steers. Those that were captured were towed ashore where great difficulty was experienced in getting them onto the docks. Several of the steers swam a long distance up the river before they were captured and others were drowned.

Says He Was Drugged and Robbed.

Springfield, O., April 7.—Contending that he is an official interpreter for the court of King Edward and that he was sent to this country ten months ago on important business for the British government, Robert Henry Clemming told the police that he had been drugged and robbed on his way from Detroit to this city. He said that clothing had been stripped from him and another suit put on him instead. Clemming says he is a native of Achesia, Asia Minor, that he has been all over the world, speaks fourteen languages and seventeen dialects. He is black as a negro.

Saloons In Cities to Escape.

Milwaukee, April 7.—The past campaign has shown no noticeable change over other years in the anti-saloon question. Despite the lectures which have been delivered all over the state by anti-saloon lecture-workers, none of the cities of size have liquor fights on their hands. The local option issue, however, is figuring in some of the towns of 1,000 or more population in various parts of Wisconsin.

Cruiser Wolverine Sent to Erie.

Washington, April 7.—At the request of Strong Vincent post, G. A. R., Secretary Metcalf has ordered the old cruiser Wolverine to Erie for the Memorial day exercises in that city. The cruiser is to remain in port during the first week in June, during which time the annual encampment of the Grand Army is to be held in Erie. Notice of these arrangements was received by Representative Bates yesterday.

INFATUATED WITH GIRL.

Elderly Married Man of Family Killed Her and Himself.

Pittsburg, April 7.—Jealous of a 17-year-old girl, Samuel L. Gardner, aged 59 years, a prominent civil engineer, residing at McKees Rocks, a suburb of this city, shot the young woman, Miss Dorothy Yost, through the heart, causing instant death, and then fired a bullet into his mouth, dying three hours later in a hospital without having regained consciousness.

Gardner, who is a married man with several grown children, lived next door to Mrs. Bradney, the girl's mother. Both Gardner's and Miss Yost's families are prominent and had been on the best of terms.

Sunday evening Miss Yost, accompanied by a young man, attended services at the Presbyterian church where Miss Yost was a member of the choir. It is said that when Gardner heard of this he became greatly enraged. He arose in excellent spirits Monday morning, however, according to his wife, ate his breakfast, and after kissing her left the house and went to a hardware store nearby. Here he purchased a revolver, informing the clerk he was going to "fix some burglars." After leaving the store Gardner met the young man who escorted Miss Yost to church Sunday night and shaking his fist at him said: "I'm going to get even with you."

Gardner made his way past his own home and entered the Bradney residence. Miss Yost was on the second floor and Gardner went to her there. What passed between them there will probably never be known. The next instant a number of persons, including Mrs. Bradney and Mrs. Gardner, were attracted by two shots. Rushing into the house they found Miss Yost dead and Gardner dying.

Mrs. Gardner said that two weeks ago her husband confessed to her that he was infatuated with the young girl. The girl's mother, however, says that Gardner's infatuation has been of long standing.

Gardner was a thorough engineer but lost his position about a month ago when the administration changed. This is also thought to have preyed upon his mind.

Stole $1,000 From Banker's Coat.

St. Louis, April 7.—While Michael E. Hogan was standing in the public banking room of the Mercantile Trust company, Frank Sellick of New York, a bookmaker's sheet writer, suddenly seized a roll of $1,000 from Hogan's overcoat pocket and ran, pushing aside men and women who stood in his path. He was captured on the steps of the bank while attempting to pass the money to a confederate. Sellick was fashionably attired and was wearing a number of diamonds. He had plenty of money in his pockets. Superintendent John Shea of the Bertillon bureau identified the prisoner as "Kid" Burke, alias Fisher, known to the police of every large city in the United States and in Paris and London. Several pictures of Burke were found in the rogues' gallery. Mr. Hogan is president and principal owner of the bank at Altamont, Ill.
