THE primaries of last Saturday developed some very close contests in other counties besides Forest. In Venango, for instance, the Assembly fight stands as follows between the four leading Republican candidates: Corrin, 1,960; Foster, 1,976; Milliron, 2,001; Whitman, 1,969. These figures are not official and a few turns are complete, but unofficial. Fig. changes may work an entirely different ures on the Democratic ticket are not result than is shown here. There are two candidates to nominate. The sure winners in Venango are Gordon Johnson for recorder, E. A. Wilson for treasurer, Judd Thompson for prothonotary. H. H. Baumgardner and J. W. Accidental Death of Homer Burdick.

Homer Dwight Burdick was born May a resident of Porkey, Howe twp., living with his father, Robert W. Burdick, generally working for his father on saw mills, he steamed some oil to be run out by the ting up steam to pump the oil out with a field pump, when the boiler exploded badly mutilating his body and killing tieth sections of said act.

D. W. Morrison, law, G. W. Barney, wired his parents of the sad accident, and after a funeral service at the Frst M. E. Church at Robinson, the remains were started for this piace, and were met at Sheffield by his relatives and were their at Sheineld by his relatives and friends where the remains were interred. Homer was a general favorite wherever known, and was always ready to join in any social function. About three years ago he began the work of the Savior and was "faithful unto death." This fact was proven by the most beautiful tribute of sympathy and love sent to the parents by the Robinson Sunday School class of which he was a member. We shall miss him but he is safe, and we Social functions. To Compel Observance of Treaties.

Liverpool, April 14.-"If by June next Belgium has not annexed the Congo Independent State on acceptable terms, the British government is determined, with the co-operation of the American government, to take measures which will compel the Congo government to observe its treaty rights which have been openly and persistently violated," was the announcement made by E. D. Morel, secretary of the Congo Reform association, at a meeting of this body. Mr. Morel has been in close touch with the British government and has had recent conferences on this subject.

Four Strike Breakers Arrested.

Elmira, N. Y., April 14.-A special to the Star Gazette says a strike breaker at the Lehigh Valley railroad shops in Sayre, Pa., opened fire with a revolver on a group of striking boiler makers when one of the latter stepped forward as they were returning from work Saturday night and asked if they did not know a strike was in progress. Olin Decatur, a striker, was wounded in the right side but is expected to recover at the Packer hospital. Four strike breakers were arrested charged with assault and after a hearing were held to the grand jury.
