The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church drew a good house at their Easter supper Saturday evening and netted a nice sum for their treasury, besides giving their patrons a fine supper and lots of it.
 —Committee No. 1, of the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church, will hold a market at the church next Saturday afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock.
 Many good articles will be on sale, and the patronage of the public is invited.
 —R. O. Carson got a fair portion in his No. 7 well on his farm at Nettilton, last week. G. H. Lowe is preparing to drill on his lease in the same locality and will make a thorough test of the territory. His first well, drilled last fall, made a good showing.
 —Adam Wagner, a Tionesta township farmer has bought the H. R. Sigworth store property, at Johnstown, and is giving most of his attention to that business. Mr. Wagner is a shrewd business man and will undoubtedly make a success of his new undertaking.
 —A large assortment of Campbell's Stains and Floor Finishes have just been received by Bovard's Pharmacy. These Stains are unequalled for staining and varnishing furniture and interior woodwork. The floor finish is very durable and suitable for all floors. Ask for color card.
 —I have the American Wall Paper agency this year and can sell you better wall paper cheaper than ever before, and am prepared to do papering, painting, graining and all kinds of inside finishing.
 Let me hear from you and I will call with samples on request. J. H. Shoemaker, Endeavor, Forest county, Pa. 5t —Dave Belding was a very proud individual, Friday night, when he stepped from the up-river train at the Union station. He had reason to be puffed up, for during the day he landed a 15-inch speckled beauty, while trout fishing on one of his favorite streams in the Forest-Venango district.—Blizzard. Gee, what a whopper!
 —Tidoute Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold their regular monthly meeting April 30th at the home of Mrs. Lillian Hunter, Tidoute, when the annual election of officers will take place. Mrs. Sue Evans Warden, of Endeavor, will attend the coming Continental Congress at Washington as the Tidoute Chapter's delegate.
 —Although over three weeks have elapsed since J. H. Jennings disappeared from his home, no trace has been had of him. Numbers of fruitless clues have been cleared away without disclosing anything regarding the whereabouts of the missing man. It is the most baffling mystery that has ever confronted the police of the city.—Warren Times.
 —The dwelling house of Frank Whitmore, located near Crouch's store, East Hickory, was partially destroyed by fire on Friday night last. The kitchen, where the fire originated, was totally destroyed, and the main building and Mr. Whitmore's household goods were damaged to the extent of about $700. The property was insured with the Arner agency.
 —Nearly 300 residents of the rural districts in Butler county were bunched by agents of a mythical mail order house, who opened a store there three months ago and visited farmers, taking orders for dress goods, etc. The supposed orders signed by the farmers are now being held by banks as judgment notes and many have been given notice to call and pay.
 —An attempt was made at an early hour Sunday morning to rob the Adams Express office at Oil City of a large sum of money. The thief, who was crawling into a window, was frightened away by night clerk John Truby, who fired several shots at the robber. Had he succeeded in his design he would have gotten close to $20,000. There is no clue to his identity.
 —The third quarterly meeting of this conference year will be held at Nebraska, Friday and Sunday of this week. The Presiding Elder will preach Friday at 8 p. m., and hold the quarterly conference, Sunday at 10 a. m., Love Feast, followed by the sermon and Holy Communion.
 The Presiding Elder will preach again in the evening. No preaching service in the M. E. church in Tionesta next Sunday.
 —The State Board of Pardons at Harrisburg has refused a recommendation for a pardon in the case of Fred McDon-nel, of Titusville, now serving a life sentence in the Western Penitentiary.
 He was sentenced in January, 1895, to be hanged for the murder of John McCand-rews, a newsboy on July 4, 1894, in Titusville. The sentence was afterward commuted to imprisonment for life. Mc-Donnell was 18 years of age when he committed the crime.
 —As the result of a special election at Franklin on Tuesday last week on the proposition to bond the city for $260,000 to buy the water plant supplying the city, the voters in favor of the purchase of the plant were victorious. The vote was very lopsided in favor of the affirmative. The water supply of Franklin has recently been a great bone of contention among the people of the city and the election was preceded by much discussion in the newspapers.
 —At argument court Tuesday P. F.
 Whittekin was appointed trustee and B. A.
 McCloskey and S. M. Henry viewers for a proposed county bridge across Maple creek, on the road leading from Redcliffe to Black's Corners. F. F. Whittekin was appointed artist and Fred Weingard and W. H. Cropp viewers for the proposed public road from Kellettville to the Jenks township line. Dr. F. J. Bovard, A. C. Brown and D. W. Clark were appointed a commission in lunacy to inquire into the condition of Media Irene Detar, daughter of W. J. Detar of Kel-lettville.
 —Mrs. M. C. Ion, mother of Mrs. D.
 W. Morrison of this place, died at her home near Strattonville, Pa., last Thursday morning, April 16th, from causes incident to old age. She was well known and greatly beloved and her death will cause sorrow to many old friends in the community, where she had been a lifelong resident. Her husband, Richard Ion, died sixteen years ago. Mrs. Ion was aged 79 years. She is survived by four sons and three daughters, namely: John, Carl, Platt and Bird Ion and Mrs.
 Frank Riddle, Mrs. D. W. Morrison and Mrs. Otis Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison attended the funeral services which were held Saturday at the home, the interment being made in the Asbury M. E. church cemetery.

New M. E. Church for Tionesta.
 The Methodist Episcopal congregation of Tionesta have a new church edifice before another year rolls around. This much was settled at a meeting held a few days ago by parties who are not given to much talk, but are in the habit of doing things when once arriving at a decision.
 The new edifice will be one of the substantial kind, likely of brown stone, and of sufficient dimensions to supply the needs of the congregation for many years to come, perhaps for all time. It will be located on the Bonner lot, which the church organization has owned for the past three years, and which was purchased with this end in view. The men who have taken up this work, and who will carry it through to completion are T.
 D. Collins, George F. Watson and F. X.
 Kreitzer, who, in spite of the fact that they have made extensive investments in western properties and have large interests demanding their attention, have determined to make this sacrifice at this time, because of the pressing need of a new house of worship, and because they feel it their duty under the circumstances.
 The active work will begin as soon as plans and architectural designs can be completed which are now under consideration.
 —Mr. and Mrs. G. V. von der Graeben and son of Pittsburg were visitors here Thursday and Friday. The former is teacher of the French and German languages in the Erie high school and is also a scientific forester. He is looking for a large tract of high land where he can make a summer home and engage in forestry and was attracted to this locality through correspondence with R. M.
 Herman. He found a piece of land which can be purchased and which would suit his purpose admirably, and being a great admirer of our fine scenery, may decide to locate here.
 —Contractors Beck and Ott, who have the contract for the laying of a quantity of macadamized road and brick pavement on the streets at Tionesta, have loaded a car of tools and material and shipped it to Tionesta. The car will be unloaded at once and the work of putting down the road will be commenced as soon as possible.—Warren Times. The machinery has arrived and everything will be in readiness for the rapid prosecution of the work the moment the weather conditions will permit. With favorable weather the contractors expect to complete their job by the first or middle of September.
 They will put a large force of men to work.
 —John Swires was born in Mercer county, Pa., in the year 1846 and died at the Forest County Home, April 15, 1908.
 He lived for a number of years in the vicinity of Hazen, Jefferson county. He was twice married. His first wife died several years ago, and about two years ago he was united in marriage with Mrs.
 Elizabeth Wyant, of this place. He had been in poor health for the past six months, death resulting from cirrhosis of the liver. He is survived by his wife, and three children by his first marriage. Brief services were held at the County Home Friday morning followed by the interment in Riverside cemetery, Rev. W. O. Calhoun officiating.
 —The trotting season has been on for one week yet we hear of no great catches by the truthful angler in these parts. As usual about this time we read in the neighboring papers of great catches by citizens who have come home from a day's angling, but these be "fish" stories mostly, and are delusions and snares, and it's "against the law" to catch fish by either method, if our neighbors want to know it. There should be a law against lying about one's catch, especially trout.
 Would go farther toward protecting the trout, we're thinking, than any other thing that could be done. A big fish he will cause more excitement and trouble in the average community than a dog fight.
 —Some of our readers have doubtless wondered whether our popular Congressman, Hon. N. P. Wheeler, had stopped his good pension work, having seen nothing of late in the papers about it. We will state that the lists are growing so large that the newspapers can scarcely find space for them. Since Feb. 20th, just two months, Mr. Wheeler has been notified of the granting of 110 pensions to his constituents, aggregating a monthly payment of $1941, together with back pay amounting to $1838. And still the good work is going on. In the list of recent allowances, of which our Congressman has been notified appear the following names of Forest county veterans: Aaron Fenstermaker, Tionesta township, $15.00; Sebastian Cook, Coopersburg, $15.00; Joshua Heath, Glendale, $15.00; Jones Shank, Weig Hill, $20.00; Samuel Douglass, Fagundus, $12.00; Stephen Maze, Redcliffe, $12.00.

Kellettville.
 Mrs. Mary Shaffer, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Stover, at Tylersburg, for several weeks, returned home Tuesday.—Mrs. and Mrs. W. S.
 Hendricks spent Monday in Sleight Canon. The parlors were artistically decorated in smilax and ferns and presented a very attractive appearance. The audience was large and appreciative and was received by Mrs. Proper, Mrs. Miss Lanson and Mr. Cannon. Miss Lanson played two groups of solos, and the Dance of Death by Saint-Saens, with Mr. Cannon at the second piano. This number was given a very characteristic interpretation and in it Miss Lanson displayed remarkable memory and brilliant technique. Her solo numbers, which were also given from memory, were played with genuine artistic feeling, an artistic feeling and style were especially pleasing features. As an encore she played the Shadow Dance by MacDowell. Mr.
 Cannon gave great pleasure in his Chopin group and in the Concerto in G minor, by Saint-Saens, which he played from memory with great breadth and abandon.
 Miss Lanson accompanied this number on the second piano in an able and sympathetic manner. Six pupils of Miss Lanson, the Misses Irene Morrison, Nyetta Mor, Bertha Sowden, May Lanson, Marjorie Carson and Frances Gerow, assisted in ushering and handing programs.
 At the conclusion dainty refreshments were served and in every detail the evening was an entire success. Following were the guests present from out-of-town:
 Mrs. Jacob Goettel, Miss Madara Goettel, Mrs. Dewitt Loomis, Oil City; Mrs. J. R.
 Hartley, Pittsburg; Mrs. Anna Hill, Jameson, N. Y.; Miss Mae Fuellhart, Tidoute; Miss Justina Siggins, West Hickory; Mrs. Ethel McCray, Warren; Miss Edna Lowe, Mason City, Iowa, and Mr. Mix, Boston, Mass. The program follows:
 PART I.
 Sonata, Op. 14, No. 1, Allegro, Allegretto, Rondo—Beethoven; Preludes, Op. 28, Nos. 17 and 21; Waltz, Op. 64, No. 2; Polonaise, Op. 40, No. 2—Chopin.
 Miss Lanson.
 Grande Valse, Op. 34, No. 1; Berceuse; Polonaise, Op. 53—Chopin.
 Mr. Cannon.
 Dance of Death (two pianos)—Saint-Saens, Miss Lanson and Mr. Cannon.
 PART II.
 Hungarian Dances, Intermezzo, Op. 118, No. 1; Rhapsody in B Minor—Brahms; Love Dream, No. 3—Liszt.
 Miss Lanson.
 Piano Concerto in G Minor; Andante Sostenuto; Allegretto Scherzando; Presto—Saint-Saens.
 Mr. Cannon.
 (Orchestral part on second piano.)
 Miss Lanson.
Licenses Granted.
 At license court yesterday all the applications for license were granted, as follows: J. J. Young, New Marien Hotel, and Geo. W. Buhl, Hotel Keystone, Marienville; Gerow & Gerow, Central
 House, and C. F. Weaver, Hotel Weayer, Tionesta.

 thy of Fagundus was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Maurice Brewster, this past week, Mrs. J. J. Jones and daughter of Endeavor spending Tuesday here with them.

Miss Lanson's Piano Recital.
 A delightful concert was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Proper last Wednesday evening, by Miss Olive Lan-son, assisted by her instructor, Franklin Cannon. The parlors were artistically
 played two groups of solos, and the Dance
 nique. Her solo numbers, which were also
 genuine artistic feeling, an artistic feeling and style were especially pleas-
