—Another evidence of the convenience of the telephone is reported from a neighboring town where an order for two cents' worth of cat's meat was countermanded with the statement that the cat had caught a bird.
—The card of Thomas Cowan & Son, maker, Endeavor, Forest county, Pa. If Robert Huling had the thumb of his left hand badly lacerated by one of the rip-saws at the casket factory Wednesday of last week. He had just begun work, having been engaged less than half an hour when overtaken by the painful accident. Dr. Dunn dressed the injury and it required six deep stitches to close the wound.

—One of Rural Route Agent Johnston's horses got a vicious streak one day last week near S. C. was attending to his cleaning and feeding and bit out a chunk of the muscles of his left arm above the elbow. The hurt is a very sore one, but the old veteran is taking his medicine like a good soldier, and will be able for duty in a few days.
—We had a pleasant visit Monday afternoon with F. K. Brown, of Mayburg.
Mr. Brown, is superintendent of the interests of the Watson Lands Lumber Co., and takes a great interest in the town of Mayburg, the headquarters of the lumber operations. Through the instrumentality of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mayburg has a good union Sunday School with a large attendance, regular preaching services by the Methodist minister of Kellestville, an opera house with a seating capacity of about three hundred, and many advantages that are not usually enjoyed in lumber towns of that size.—Sheffield Observer.

—By the burning of his dwelling house, at Centerville, Crawford county, five miles northeast of Titusville, at 2:30 o'clock Friday morning, David B.
Westerber, his wife, and daughter, Mrs.
Albert Lemm, were burned to death, and his son-in-law, Albert Lemm, was very badly burned, but will recover. The unfortunate inmates are supposed to have been suffocated by the smoke before they were awakened, and it is thought the soon-in-law was overcome in trying to make his escape, he being dragged from the burning building in an unconscious state.
The family was one of the most prominent in the neighborhood.
—Thursday evening last Rev. Boyd F.
Williams was installed pastor of the Emlen-ton Presbyterian church. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. F. Scherer, of Endeavor, the charge to the pastor was delivered by Rev. S. A. Cornelius, of Oil City, and Rev. H. A. Bailey, of Tionesta, delivered the charge to the people.
The Emmenton News says: This is the second time in the history of the church that Rev. Mr. Williams has been called to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of this place. The first time he served seven years, going to Oil City in 1894. He is a most able minister and it with pleasure The News welcomes him to town and wishes him a pleasant home among us.
—The Grandin Lumber Co. expect to finish their lumbering operations at President and Eagle Rock in July of the present year. This company began operations on the Clapp lands in President township five years ago next September, and has employed a large number of men, some of whom have lived with their families at the plant, a short distance below Eagle Rock station, during this time, and a small town has sprung up there.
The closing up of its affairs will mean much to the laboring interests of that section. The timber on this large tract was originally the property of the late Edwin E. Clapp, from whom it descended to the late Capt. J. M. Clapp. The latter sold it to Crawford & Gregory, who in turn sold it to the Grandins.
—The entertainment given Friday afternoon by the pupils of Room No. 1 of the Borough schools, under the direction of their teacher, Miss Blanche Pease, was quite largely attended by the patrons of the school. The room was tastefully decorated with ground pine and cut flowers and presented a very pleasing appearance.
A program of songs, recitations, dialogues, etc., was given in a manner which reflected great credit on the pupils as well as the teacher. The attendance throughout the term in Room No. 1 was unusually good, the average for the past two months being 99 per cent. Those present every day of the term were Corrine Wyman, Bowman Proper, Martha Kaffery and Gertrude Rhodes. Those absent one-half day were Robert Ellis and John Osten. Absent one day, Elizabeth Bowman.
—Charles Southworth, a former well known citizen of our county, but now a resident of Tacoma, Wash., writes: "I enclose herewith money order to apply on my subscription. Get your paper every Monday, and am always glad to receive it and to know what is going on in old Forest. I am well pleased with the ticket you have nominated. The new primary law seems to work well. The boys and myself had to help elect a Republican mayor here. They have the same law here, but it didn't work good for the Democrats. They have had a Democratic mayor for four years, and they put up a hard fight to keep him there, but he lost by 2,000. We elected the whole Republican ticket. The mills are all running here on the coast. My boys are all working, but at 50 cents less wages than a year ago. It looks a little better, but still somewhat shaky. Best regards to all my old friends." —The DuBois Evening Courier gives the following account of a wedding in which a former Tionesta boy figured as the happy groom, he being a son of Harry Maze, well remembered by our people: Wedding bells rang merrily Saturday evening for S. M. Maze, a well known young man who occupies the position of an engineer with the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railroad company, and Miss Mary Schaefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schaefer, of 111 South Stockdale street. The ceremony took place at 10:30, conducted by Rev. Mr. Hare, of the Baptist church, in the presence of a quite large company. The congratulations and gifts bore abundant testimony to the popularity of the young couple. At midnight the company was served with a bounteous wedding supper, the feast concluding with the usual apportioning of the bride's cake. The bride and bridegroom left on an early morning train for the city of New York. They were accompanied to the B. & P. station by a delegation of their young friends, who were well supplied with ammunition consisting of the Chinaman's chief article of diet and cast-off shoes.
—Beautiful imitations of natural wood finished with varnish may be obtained by Clarion was calling on his old Tionesta friends Monday and Tuesday.

—Andrew Budai and Mary Wisniewski, both of Brookston, Pa., were granted a license to wed on the 24th inst.
—Hon. W. D. Shields and Guy Van-Horn, of Clarington, were business visitors at the county capital yesterday.
—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Withreel, of Endeavor, were guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Butler, Sunday.
—Mrs. A. Baldensperger, of Stoneham, Pa., and Mrs. L. Crowther, of Pittsburg, were guests of Miss EtReta Proper over the Sabbath.
—Mrs. A. C. Brown and daughters, Martha and Elinor, left Monday for a two weeks' visit with friends at Brookville and New Bethlehem.
—The REPUBLICAN was favored yesterday with a call from Clarence N. and Miss Clara N. Head, twin children of our old friend E. B. Head of West Hickory.
—Mrs. J. F. Proper and Miss Edith Hopkins visited the former's mother, Mrs.
Jackson, at Warren, this week, and attended the Carreno piano recital Monday evening.
—Frank McElhoo, agent for the Canadian Pacific railroad in the Calgary district, Alberta, Can., visited his brother-in-law, Dr. Morrow, at West Hickory, a part of last week.
—Mercantile Appraiser W. C. Brown was over from Marlinton last Wednesday holding the appeals from the Mercantile assessment which he recently completed in this county.
—Mrs. Sarah Hilbert, a former resident of West Main street, Clarion, died Wednesday at the home of her daughter in Bradford. She was the mother of Mrs.
Harry Felt, formerly of Tionesta.
—A. R. Mechlinc, the popular Republican nominee for Assembly was over from Clarington last week to file his expense account, which was a very modest sum considering the length of the campaign.
—Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ledebur returned yesterday from their visit in Mercer county, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Paul D. Schillinger, who came up with them for a fortnight's visit with friends here.
—J. W. McCrea, recently installed as station agent at Reno, on the Erie road, paid a visit to Tionesta Sunday, meeting a host of old friends. He expects to move his family to that place from Orangeville, Ohio, in a short time.
—Wm. A. Royer of Clarington made a brief business call at the REPUBLICAN office Thursday morning. He had been up to the headquarters of Queen creek, Hickory township, whither he had taken Frank Wolford's family, who will spend the summer at the Beers lumber camp.
—Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Hardin of Cuba, N. Y., where the former has been pastor of the Presbyterian church for some time, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill Smith.
They also had with them their daughter, Miss Carrie Wynkoop, of Warren. Mr. Hardin occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening and gave a very acceptable sermon.
—Miss Kate McMillen left Thursday for Seaford, Ontario, where she will visit a sister a few days, and will then depart for Vancouver, B. C., expecting to make her home with her brother, who resides there. Miss McMillen's long residence in Tionesta has gained her a host of friends, who will extend best wishes for her happiness and welfare at her new home.
—Paul Huling, a member of the senior class, Tionesta High School, has been enrolled as a student in the Tionesta public schools for nine years, during which time he has been neither absent nor tardy. He is a member of the Order of American Boy, Shepardon Chapter, to become which he had to be perfect in attendance for five years. Paul's good record will be hard to beat.
—Charles M. Pope of Kellestville was a business visitor in Tionesta last Thursday and the REPUBLICAN is indebted to him for a pleasant call. Mr. Pope conducts a flourishing dairy business at Kellestville and supplies pure milk and cream to a large number of the residents of that thriving town. He went into the business in a small way about two years ago and by giving strict attention to business has built up a good trade and one which is constantly growing.
—Miss Lillian L. McCrea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCrea, was united in marriage with Mr. James Lane of Orangeville, Ohio, Thursday, April 23d.
The wedding took place at the home of the bride in that place and was a quiet affair, witnessed by only a few friends.
The groom is employed in a large general store in Orangeville and had a newly furnished home all ready for his bride.
Miss McCrea left many friends here and we unite with all those in wishing the happy couple a long life of prosperity and happiness.

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES.
Cruel Fate Pursues a Good Man Unto Death.
Miles H. Harriger, of Mayburg, this county, was so severely injured on Saturday evening between three and four o'clock that death resulted on the following Sabbath morning. He was employed at the "botter" saw in the mill of the Watson Lands Lumber company, when a slab was thrown over the saw, striking him in the side. He did not consider himself so badly injured as to be unable to walk to his home, but had to be hauled after walking about half the distance.
Physicians were summoned but the extent of his injuries could not be determined by outward appearances, there being but a slight bruise where the missile struck him. Sunday morning he seemed to feel better, but in less than an hour afterward he began to sink and death followed almost immediately. His wife, five daughters and two sons survive him. He was aged 48 years, and was born near Scotch Hill, Clarion county, where the funeral was held yesterday.
Ever since Mr. Harriger came to Mayburg, five years ago, he seems to have "struggled in the storms of fate." Twice since his residence in the place his foot was caught while on a lumber dock and his ankle badly smashed in each instance.
Hardly had he recovered from the last of these injuries when he fell off a high lumber pile and was badly injured. A year ago or more his house was destroyed by fire and one child was burned to death and another so severely burned that her life was despaired of. A few months later he met with an accident quite similar to the one which took his life on Saturday, being struck by a slab thrown over the botter saw, tearing one of his kidneys loose and fracturing several of his ribs.
Fate has also dealt harshly with other family connections. Mrs. Harriger is one of three daughters of Alexander Wallace of Leeper, Pa. The husbands of all three women have met violent deaths within the past few years. Tracey Linsey was run over by a run-away logging car on Little Conon creek and his head severed from the body. Arthur Frost was another victim of a tragic death, having lost his life in an accident while employed on the saw mill at Leola, Pa.
He was also struck by a bolt thrown from a saw. And now Mrs. Harriger is called upon to mourn the death of her husband in a tragic manner, making the third in the family connection to meet a violent death. Surely these coincidences are very striking.
Mr. Harriger was a member of the M. E. church of Mayburg, and was the teacher of the Bible class in the Sabbath school. He bore in a high degree the respect and esteem of his fellow citizens, who sympathize deeply with his stricken family. He was also a member of the National Protective Legion, and of the Maccabees, in which latter order he carried insurance to the amount of $2,000.

Takes Carbohic Acid and Dies.
John G. Bigony, a citizen of this borough for a number of years, committed suicide last Wednesday by taking carbohic acid. He had returned from Warren on Sunday evening prior, and had been suffering for several days from extreme nervousness. About 10:30 o'clock in the morning he procured a 2-ounce vial of carbohic acid and went to his bedroom at his home and immediately swallowed almost the entire contents of the bottle. Hearing an unusual disturbance his wife rushed up stairs and found her husband writhing in agony, discovering at once the cause. Physicians were quickly summoned, but they were powerless to stay the fatal effects of the powerful drug, and at 12:00, less than two hours after he had swallowed the acid, the unfortunate victim breathed his last.
John Bigony was born at Troy, N. Y., Oct. 7, 1861, being the son of Mr. and Mrs.
H. W. Bigony, deceased. His parents removed to Lock Haven, Pa., where the deceased grew to manhood. He was well educated and a man of more than ordinary intelligence. He came to Tionesta in June, 1883, to receive treatment at the Keelley institute, and had been a resident of the borough ever since, being employed principally in taking orders for clothing by large city firms. December 28, 1893, he was united in marriage at Elmira, N.
Y., with Miss Lorena Clark of Tionesta.
To this union were born six children, four of whom, with the mother, survive, namely: Mary Katherine, Jack, Harold and Warren. One brother, Robert F.
Bigony of Reading, Pa., and one niece, Miss Helen Bigony of Flemington, Pa., also survive.
Funeral services, conducted by Rev.
W. O. Calhoun, were held at the late home of the deceased on Thursday evening at 4:30 o'clock, and the body was laid to rest in Riverside cemetery.

Fire at Tylersburg.
Tylersburg was visited by a fire last Thursday night, which destroyed the Central Hotel barn and a barn adjoining, owned by Wm. Morgan, and it was only after a desperate fight against the fiery elements that the balance of the village was saved from destruction. The fire was discovered at 10:30 in the hotel barn, which was a building 30x70 feet, substantially built, and one of the landmarks of the place. The ringing of the Presbyterian church bell aroused the whole neighborhood and soon a large force was on hand to fight the flames. The women joined in the work and pumped the water from the wells of J. F. Mealy and Chas. McCloskey, while the men formed a bucket brigade and fought the fire until 2:30 the next morning before it was under control. When the roof of the hotel barn fell in the Morgan barn burst into a mass of flame from the terrific heat. Considerable damage was done to property to the north and west, across the street. A dwelling house owned by Joseph Mc-Closkey and the office of Dr. Lee O'Dell were on fire several times. Nearly all of the glass in the front of McCormick & Mealy's store, in the Odd Fellows building was broken by the blast. The flames were finally checked at a small building on the north side of the street, owned by J. R. Alt, which was badly damaged.
Had the fire gone beyond this nothing could have been done by the firemen. The hotel barn was owned by G. C. Miller and his loss is placed at $800, with an insurance of $200. Emert Bros. lost five tons of phosphate and M. Walters two boggles, which were stored in the barn. Mr.
Morgan's loss on his barn, which was a building about 24x32 feet, is estimated at $300, with no insurance. The origin of the fire is very mysterious and is believed to have been caused by an incense burner, as no person was known to have been in the barn after nightfall. A man who lives near the barn declared that everything was all right five minutes before and when discovered the whole interior was on fire.
