SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE

Starts Thursday, June 25th, Closes Friday Night, July 3d.

Many names suggest themselves for this sale. We prefer to have it known as our Semi-annual Clearance Sale, as hundreds know from past experience what that sale means here, since that first Clearance Sale in January, 1900, the most important by far of any conducted by this store. That statement is not made for the purpose of misleading. There has at no time since this store started in September, 1898, been so great a necessity for our Semi-annual Clearance Sale.
Never have we had on hand, at the end of the season, such great quantities of seasonable merchandise. We believe in stating facts in a plain straightforward manner. No false sense of store keeping pride will prevent a frank confession of the fact that we're overstocked. Early confidence in the outlook for Spring, 1908, prompted us to buy in the most liberal manner. As everyone knows trade conditions everywhere this season have been "away off." We have no alternative.
A surplus stock of fully $10,000 worth of choice merchandise must be sold. It's to be done for cash and in the shortest possible time. In limiting the sale to eight days, we know that we undertake to move a lot of merchandise in that time. With prices cut deeper than at any previous sale we'll do in eight days what some stores would require a month to accomplish. Prices you haven't seen equalled in a life time.

In the Cloak and Suit Department.—A $5,000 stock of the choicest Women's Tailored Garments make it absolutely imperative that we conduct this sale in the most forcible manner. That all the Suits and all Skirts and fully 90 per cent. of this great stock of "Women's Ready to Wear" are all new garments, this season, will not deter us from resorting to the most emphatic price reductions in force at any time since we opened this Women's Tailor Made Department. See how forcibly this statement is borne out in the prices quoted.
Long Cloths, Nainsook, Persian Lawn and India Linen.—A year ago in May we contracted for this 1908 supply of staple white goods. This meant a great saving, but had we waited six months, we would have bought $1,000 less. So there is just $1,000 worth of Nainsooks, Persian Lawn, Long Cloths and India Linen, which you will note quoted elsewhere in this advertisement, at less than the price we paid for it, in a hundred pieces of a number, in May, 1907.

TAFT FOR PRESIDENT,
James S. Sherman of New York Nominated For Second Place.
Platform as Presented by Senator Hopkins Had Been Previously Adopted, While a Minority Report Reflecting the Views of Senator La Follette Had Been Voted Down.
Taft on the first ballot by 702 votes; Taft by unanimous choice of the convention.
Such is the record of the culminating day of the Republican national convention of 1908, effected amid scenes of tumultuous enthusiasm, and after a nerve-racking continuous session lasting nearly eight hours.
The favorite sons of other states had been named, save Knox and La Follette, and now on the roll call came Ohio. As the Buckeye state was reached, the tall, gaunt form of Theodore E. Burton, with student-like face and severe clerical garb, advanced to the platform to nominate Ohio's candidate. He spoke fervently with the droning voice of an evangelist which went ringing through the great building. The close of his speech for nomination was the signal for a loosening of the long pent-up feeling. Instantly the Ohio delegates were on their feet, other Taft states following, while the convention hosts, in gallery and on floor, broke into mad demonstration.
California Secunda Taft's Nomination.
A brief lull gave the opportunity for the speech seconding Taft's nomination, by George H. Knight of California, whose big, round face beamed forth on the sympathetic multitude, whose splendid baritone voice wailed forth like the tones of a great church organ. California's tribute to Taft was brief and fervid. Now there was another lull in the Taft movement, while the remaining candidates were placed in nomination.
A hush of expectancy hung over the assembly as the call proceeded. Hasty summaries showed that Taft was far ing officer's chair, advanced to nominate Governor Guild of Massachusetts for the vice presidency. The senator's voice was strained with the exertions of recent days, but he spoke eloquently and forcibly for the Massachusetts candidate.

Michigan, through Charles Osborn, ordered her voice for Guild and New Jersey brought forward her favorite son, in a speech by Thomas E. McCarter, nominating former Governor Murphy of New Jersey for second place on the ticket.
Now began the vote, taken amid confusion at first, which increased as the figures climbed upward to the nominating point. The result was never in doubt as the totals of the states were heaped one upon another. There were scattering votes, but the great body of delegates swelled the vote of Sherman until it reached 816. With keen appreciation of the effect of the climax, Chairman Lodge announced the result, reserving Sherman's sure total until the last.
Vice President Fairbanks gets one vote, Governor Sheldon of Nebraska 10, Governor Guild of Massachusetts 75, Governor Murphy of New Jersey 77, and James Schoolcraft Sherman of New York 816.
JURY OUT 75 HOURS.
Two Defendants in the Land Fraud Cases Found Guilty.
Washington, June 23.—Guilty—Fredrick A. Hyde, Joost H. Schneider. Not guilty—John A. Benson, Henry P. Dimond.
This was the verdict rendered by a jury in the criminal court here in the case of the trial of these four men, all Westerners, one of them Benson, a millionaire real estate operator, for alleged conspiracy to defraud the government out of valuable lands in the far West. The jury had been out almost 75 hours.
Benson and Dimond were immediately released from custody. Hyde's bail was increased under the jury's verdict to $20,000 and Schneider's to $12,500.
Sentence in the case of Hyde and Schneider was deferred. The maximum penalty for the offense is imprisonment of two years or $10,000 fine or both.

COAL RAILROADS SUEN
Under the Commodity Clause of the Hepburn Act.
President at Oyster Bay—Convicted of Murdering Her Husband—State Railways to Be Electrified—Spanish Swindle Exposed.
After most brilliant addresses at Philadelphia by Attorney General Bonaparte on behalf of the government and John G. Johnson of Philadelphia, representing the seven railroads named as defendants in the suit instituted to restrain them from transporting anthracite coal from mines in Pennsylvania in which they have an interest, both sides rested and the case was submitted to Judges Dallas, Gray and Bullington of the United States circuit court. Both sides will file briefs.
Mr. Johnson in his address assailed the constitutionality of the commodity clause of the Hepburn act under which the proceedings were instituted and decided that "authority which seeks to centralize the government and segregate the people."
Mr. Bonaparte in answer to Mr. Johnson confined himself principally to a defense of the constitutionality of the commodity clause and asserted that the power of congress to regulate and even to prohibit interstate commerce when it was inimical to public interests could not be successfully disputed. It is obvious, he said, that congress will not admit that a corporation is an imaginary thing. It cannot be, he continued, that the same gentlemen can be the active agents in a railroad company and a coal company, and then deny that the two interests are indirectly, if not directly, the same by taking different names.
Mr. Bonaparte in referring to the power of congress to regulate corporations even to the extreme of confiscation, cited the case of a bridge over the Allegheny river, which was condemned and razed by the secretary of

MR. SHERMAN ILL.
Compelled to Remain in Cleveland Longer Than He Intended.
Cleveland, June 23.—James Schoolcraft Sherman, Republican nominee for vice president, has been ill here for two days. His illness will necessitate his remaining here beyond his scheduled.
Mr. Sherman on his way from Cincinnati to Cleveland Saturday night was seized with a bilious attack. Upon arrival here he went to the home of Myron T. Herrick, former governor of Ohio, whose guest he was to be over Sunday. He was compelled to go immediately to his room. He had a large number of important conferences scheduled to take place in this city and was compelled to break them all.
The physician who was summoned to attend him ordered that no one be admitted to the room and that Mr. Sherman be not disturbed. There was nothing alarming at any time in Mr. Sherman's condition. His illness is believed to have been the result of hard work at the Chicago convention and the heat at Chicago and Cincinnati. His physician had no doubt that Mr. Sherman would be able to continue his journey to Utica today as the attack is at an end.
A great welcome home demonstration was planned for him last night at Utica but it had to be declared off. It may, however, be carried out on his arrival there.
An effort was made to learn Mr. Sherman's wishes with reference to the selection of a national chairman to conduct the Republican campaign. No expression could be obtained from him directly. One of Mr. Sherman's closest friends said, however, that if the question were left to him he would choose Myron T. Herrick.
Fires Four Shots and Uses Knife.
Harrisburg, June 23.—Luks Searovic, a Serbian, living at Steelton, shot and killed his wife during a quarrel at their home and then shot himself, inflicting a wound which may prove fatal. He fired three more shots at the woman and then stabbed her in the breast. After shooting himself he tried to reload, but the revolver was taken from him.

PHIL EMERT
FANCY BOOT & SHOEMAKER.
Shop over R. L. Haslet's grocery store on Elm street. Is prepared to do all kinds of custom work from the finest to the coarsest and guarantees his work to give perfect satisfaction. Prompt attention given to mending, and prices reasonable.
