Great Work by Great Convention.

The Republican National Convention at Chicago last week did its business up promptly and to the eminent satisfaction of a vast majority of the party. The work of the great gathering progressed smoothly and harmoniously from beginning to end, and it is doubtful whether a convention of such magnitude has ever been so successful in pleasing so many people where such great interests were at stake. The selection of Secretary Taft on first ballot by such a decisive majority is an evidence that the grand old party wanted him as their standard bearer, and subsequent expressions of approval by the press of all sections is further evidence that he will have a united and solid party at his back. The almost unanimous choice of the Vice Presidential candidate, Congressman Sherman, of New York, was a happy climax to the good work already accomplished by the great convention, and it is conceded on every hand that the Republicans of the nation have a winning ticket in the field. Invincible, in fact, and one that will grow in strength as the campaign advances.

HOORAY for Billie Taft and Sunny Jim Sherman!

The fact that the United States has made a parcels post agreement with Uruguay is pretty conclusive evidence that the Express trust does not have much of a hold on Uruguay.

MARYLAND has decided to send an un-instructed delegation to Denver, but Mr. Bryan will have a gentlemanly usher at the convention hall door to hand the Marylanders their instructions.

CARRIE NATION was in Punxsutawney, Pa., the other day, and told the residents of that town that they were the worst ever, but as her hatchets and other bric-a-brac sold later on like hot cakes she may have changed her mind.

WITH Mr. Onion running for congress in Texas and Mr. Leake already there, we only need Mr. Garlic to complete the trio," says the Augusta Herald. All right; here he is Mr. Garlic is a candidate in Louisiana.—Washington Herald.—They should come in bunches—three for a cent.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.—Some election day they will all be in the soup.—Judge.

THE new law which permits prisoners to plead guilty before the court and receive sentence without having their indictments presented to a grand jury, is greatly reducing the work of the criminal courts all over this state. When a prisoner now finds that there is no chance to escape conviction, he takes advantage of the law in the hope of securing a lighter sentence.

ONE thing about Senator Knox, he was second in the race, if not a very close second. He had 48 votes, 64 from Pennsylvania and 8 from New Jersey. Hughes was third, with 67 votes—65 from New York and two from Virginia. Fairbanks had 42, "Uncle Joe" Cannon 58, La Follette 25, Foraker 15, and Roosevelt 3. Taft had 702 votes on first ballot, a majority of 491 over all.

GOVERNMENT engineers made tests at Niagara Falls recently to ascertain to what extent the great power plants there were affecting the flow of water over the falls. All the power plants in the city were shut off for nine hours. By careful measurements it was ascertained that it made a difference of only one and one-fifth inches in the depth of the water immediately above the falls. The effect was not discernible to the eye. This proves that there was no necessity for Mr. Burton's bill to protect the water supply for the falls.—Punxy Spirit.

WHEN Senator Lodge, in his address, referred to the visionary policies of the opposition as "the fevered fancy of an uneasy dream," he got the convention going, but when he stated that "the President is the best abused and most popular man in the United States," one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in a convention followed. And that the explosion of pent-up enthusiasm came just as it did is undoubtedly fortunate. The blowoff was about the best thing that could have happened. Had it been deferred it might have created serious complications.—Blizzard.

THE New York World, unquestionably the leading Democratic newspaper of the country, announces that Taft will be the next President, and explains it to the extent of nearly one page of editorial comment. If the rest of the Democrats will only agree to this, we may save money, trouble and excitement in the coming campaign.

THE fact that Taft started in life as a newspaper reporter is wholly to his credit. He licked a man who libeled his father and after that was respected. It is not the whole of dignity to sit on an opponent, but when a struggle arises, the man with the most nerve and the most muscle has a good chance, especially when he has right on his side. And they say in Cincinnati that "Bill" Taft was always on the right side.

IT will cost more hereafter to become a citizen of the United States under the new law passed by Congress. Hereafter the clerk of every court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization cases will be permitted to charge $4 instead of $1 for registering and filing a declaration of intention, $3 instead of $2 for docketing the petition and $3 instead of $2 for entering the final order for citizenship.

THE temperance movement, which is sweeping over the country like a prairie fire, is playing havoc with Uncle Sam's income. It is estimated that the government has lost $15,000,000 in revenues during the past year as a result of the crusade against the drink habit. The internal revenue collections for the past year were less than $300,000,000, a decline of $15,000,000, as compared with the previous year.

Taft's Qualities.

A writer in the Review of Review sums up Secretary Taft's good qualities in the following language:

"Not only has Taft had the training that fits him to be President; he has the temperament. It would be difficult to imagine a temperament better adapted than his to this difficult task. He is a happy halfway between McKinley and Roosevelt, with most of the strength and the weakness of both. He has the training of the lawyer, of the judge, of the administrator, of the diplomat. He knows the American people, he knows the government, he knows the affairs of the world. He has an almost unprecedented power of handling affairs and men. Serenity abides with him, and patience, and justice, and strength, and firmness. He may never fire the hearts of the people as Roosevelt has; he may never be looked upon as a paragon of unpretentious goodness as was McKinley. But if Taft becomes President, he will get results. He will be master without carrying a whip. He will always strive, as we see he has always striven, to use infinite pains to get at all the facts, to clarify them, to form slow but sure judgments, and then to stand by them. At the White House there will be a great calm, great patience of listening and investigation, great energy of work, great good humor, great peace."

The Next Vice President.

James Scholacraft Sherman, the Republican nominee for vice President, is a native of and resides in Utica, N. Y., having been born in that city October 25, 1855, and received an academy and college education, being graduated from Hamilton college, N. Y., in 1876. He was admitted to the bar in 1880, and though a practicing lawyer was also president of the Utica Trust and Deposit Company and the New Hartford Canning Company. Mr. Sherman has served in these public positions. Mayor of Utica in 1884, chairman of the New York state Republican convention in 1885 and 1890, chairman of national Republican congressional committee in 1896. He was a member of every congress from the 50th to the 59th. His record in Congress is an enviable one, being one of the staunchest of the protective tariff advocates, in which cause he has always yielded greatest influence.

$150 for Best Article.

The Republican Congressional Committee offers $150 for the best article not exceeding 1,000 words on the subject: "Why the Republican Party Should be Successful Next November."

The competition is open to all. In judging the merits of contributions consideration will be given not only to style, arguments and facts presented, but to the convincing power, and it should be borne in mind that Members of Congress are to be elected as well as President and Vice-President.

No manuscripts will be returned, but will be the property of the Committee. The best article will be widely used both in the newspapers of the country and in pamphlet form.

The award will be made and check sent to successful contestant about August 15th. Manuscripts must be mailed not later than July 15th to Literary Bureau, Republican Congressional Committee, Metropolitan Bank Building, Washington, D. C.

Neighborhood Notes.

Mrs. Applebaum, a Bradford woman, lost all her money in a business venture recently and has become violently insane.

John Olson, of Wetmore, who killed his nine-year-old daughter last February and was acquitted at trial on grounds of insanity, is in the North Warren State hospital.

Burgess Beshlin of Warren has ordered the policemen to arrest all auto drivers who travel at a rate faster than ten miles an hour, without regard to whom the person may be.

W. A. and Charles Ensign, father and son, owners of a private bank at North-east, Pa., recently closed, have been arrested on information of H. E. Schultz, a depositor. Schultz alleges the bank accepted a large deposit from him knowing it would be impossible to open for business the following morning. Both gave bond.

SETS HIS CLOTHES AFIRE.

Worrying Over Inability to Marry, Man Chooses Cruel Form of Suicide.

Philadelphia, June 23.—Thrice overtaken by misfortune when he was preparing to wed, Nathan Presser, a produce dealer, aged 37, committed suicide by pouring oil over his clothing and then setting it on fire.

He removed the tank from an oil stove and after pouring the contents over his clothing went into the yard, where he applied a match. When members of his family found him he was burned from head to foot and unconscious. At the hospital he told the physicians he had sought death by fire.

According to his friends Presser had been engaged to marry Miss Rosie Schatenstein of Allentown, and twice before when on the point of marrying had lost the money he had saved for the occasion. Saturday night he said he was down hearted and feared he could not marry because his money was all tied up in his business.

$5,000 For Alienation of Affection.

Kittanning, June 23.—Five thousand dollars is the value an Armstrong county jury has placed upon the affections of a wife. Leander J. McLaughy of Cowanshannock township brought an action to recover $25,000 from W. Mikesell for alienating the affections of the former wife. Mikesell lives in the same township and has a wife and children. Some years ago the defendant went to the home of the plaintiff to board. During the trial letters were produced which were listened to with interest. The jury returned a verdict of $5,000.

Carried Silver 37 Years.

Beaver Falls, Pa., June 23.—At the close of the civil war J. H. Shuster, now a justice of the peace of this county, returned home from the army and resumed his trade as a blacksmith. One day when at work a silver of steel penetrated the base of the index finger of his left hand. The wound soon healed and was forgotten until recently when the finger began to swell and give great pain. He went to Dr. J. S. Louthan, who cut open the finger and removed from it the piece of steel that had lain there 37 years.

"Let His Fish," Says Judge.

Steuersville, O., June 23.—J. D. Simeral of Wayne township asked the juvenile court judge here to arrest his son Robert. "He wants to be out fishing all the time," said the father. "Application refused," said the court. "When I was a boy I wanted to do the same."

Marion, O.—Fearing he would be robbed, Robert S. Stephens, who carries the mail to and from trains, hid $32 beneath the wagon seat. The money was stolen less than an hour later while Stephens was in the Union station.

—There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven, however, that it is a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

—Pineules for the Kidney, 30 days' trial $1.00. Guaranteed. Pineules act directly on the Kidneys and bring relief in the first dose to backache, weak back, rheumatic pains, kidney and bladder trouble. They purify the blood and invigorate the entire system. Sold by J. R. Morgau.

President at Oyster Bay.

Clad in a suit of white duck and looking extremely well on the second day of his vacation, President Roosevelt, with Mrs. Roosevelt, drove Sunday to the village from Sagamore Hill and attended the morning service of Christ church, of which Mrs. Roosevelt is a member. Rev. Henry Homer Washburn, the rector, delivered the discourse. No mention of the president or of national affairs was made.

A small group of villagers nodded a welcome as bowing right and left and raising his hat repeatedly the president drove into the shaded church yard. During the song service the president sang heartily with the congregation.

The president's yacht Sylph lies at anchor near Sagamore Hill. Mr. Roosevelt received no visitors.

Secretary Loeb was interviewed regarding the report from Washington that he might be asked to accept the position of chairman of the Republican national committee. Apparently he was pleased as he read the report, and a smile spread over his face.

"I have heard nothing whatever about the appointment," he said. "They seem to be arranging this matter in Washington."
