—The ladies of the Tionesta Reading Club will meet at the home of Mrs. A. C. Brown next Wednesday evening, July 1st, to arrange for the work of the coming year.

—Charles Irwin, employed at Eagle Rock, came up Thursday to have his right foot dressed, which he had nearly split in two with an ax while at work in the woods.

—Rododendron, commonly known as the big laurel, is now in bloom. It is one of the handsomest of the wildflower family, and not poisonous like the small variety of laurel.

—What about your summer haberdashery? Our line is always complete and up-to-date. Stylish straw hats, negligee shirts, collars, cuffs, ties, etc. We're never out of them. Hopkins.

—Already the days are growing shorter, not perceptibly so, of course, but the official almanac settles it. It seems but yesterday that we were rejoicing over the prospect of longer days. Tempus fugit, you bet.

—That new summer suit still awaits you at this store. We handle the world famed M. Wile Co. clothing, every garment of which is guaranteed exactly as represented, and our customers are named. Hopkins.

—A young man named Tim Burrows had the fingers of his left hand considerably chewed up by getting them mixed up in the live rollers on the box mill at Nebraska yesterday morning. He will not lose any of the members.

—An exchange tells of a woman who answered an advertisement headed "How to Save Your Gas Bills." She was instructed to paste them in a scrap book. It is such things as this that cause us to lose faith in our fellow man.

—The board of food experts of the Department of Agriculture at Washington have decided that hereafter manufacturers of alleged mineral waters must state clearly on the label whether they are imitation or artificial. The producers will have the privilege of the choice of the two words, but one of these adjectives must be applied to all waters the result of human art and not bottled from their original source.

Adam Smart, one of the old and respected residents of German Hill, Tionesta township, died at his home this Wednesday morning, at five o'clock, of a dropsical affection, from which he had been a sufferer for more than a year. He was upwards of 85 years of age. A more extended notice of the deceased will be given next week. Funeral Thursday afternoon at the Zuendel church.

—The Committee on Permanent Certificates for Forest County, W. W. Mills, Blanche Hunter and Maude Berlin, will hold examinations at the school house, Tionesta, July 1st and 2d. Those interested should make a note of the dates.

—The authorities having in charge the erection of the new M. E. church in this place have received many bids from prominent contractors, and will close the bidding next Saturday evening at 6 o'clock. Soon after that the contract will be let.

—People from this vicinity who attended the great picnic at Monarch Park, Oil City, given by Congressman Sibley a few years ago, will recall that James S. Sherman, the Republican nominee for Vice President, was there and made a fine speech in behalf of Mr. Sibley.

—For Sale, small farm within limits of Tionesta boro, 15 minutes walk from business portion of town. Twelve acres under good state of cultivation, splendid water, good new house and barn, and small orchard bearing. See or write C. M. Arner or G. B. Armstrong, Tionesta, Pa.

—Robert Scott, employed at the box mill at Nebraska, had the muscles of his right arm badly lacerated above the elbow last Wednesday, by getting his clothing caught by a set-screw on the end of a line shaft. Dr. Boydard found it necessary to employ several stitches to close the wounds.

—Rural Route Agent Johnston came in Monday from his regular trip through Green and Tionesta townships with the carcass of a four-foot rattlesnake dangling from the rear of his vehicle. He had met the reptile on the road and dispatched it. It was a large specimen of the yellow variety.

—The Carpenter-Morton Co., Boston, Mass. were the first paint concern to offer Varnish Stains to housekeepers. Campbell's Varnish Stain is the original, first made in 1888, and today recognized as the most satisfactory article of the kind upon the market. Boydard's Pharmacy carries a complete stock. Color card for the asking.

—J. J. Landers shot a big yellow rattlesnake while trout fishing on Hemlock creek last Friday. The snake measured three feet four inches and carried a buzzer attachment of eleven rattles and a button. On the same day Geo. W. Osgood, who is working on Indian Camp run, killed a big black rattler fully four feet long. This one carried twelve rattles.

—The public is advised by the contractors, Messrs. Beck & Ott, that it will be necessary to close Elm street completely from the Wolford property down for some distance, but this obstruction will not continue a minute longer than is necessary. Vehicles coming into town from the north may take the river beach at Tubbs Run and come out onto the street again below the cemetery. This can be done in a pinch.

—The most elaborate celebration of the Fourth of July in this county will take place at Kellettville this year. There is nothing that goes with the proper observance of this great American day that has not been provided for by the energetic committee in charge, and it is bound to be a success from start to finish. The good people of Kellettville will be glad to welcome all who attend, and will make it a point to see that everybody is well entertained.

—Mrs. Belle Guinness has demonstrated most conclusively that advertising pays. Her advertisements, "A Husband Wanted," brought men, and men with money, from all parts of the country. The fact that she cracked them on the head and planted them in her back yard detracts in no way from the conclusion that it pays to advertise. If you want a wife, advertise. If you want to sell goods, advertise. The duller the season, the greater the need for the help of the newspaper.

—The Oil City Blizzard thinks it is simply remarkable on how slight a provocation the price of beef can be advanced. A rain storm or a dry spell is equally serviceable, or a red sunset might suffice. Yet, all the same, there is no monopoly in this country more detrimental to the whole country and more nefarious in both its methods and its aims than the Beef Trust. If ever it be demolished, its destroyer will be entitled to full meed of the people's gratitude, and he will get it, too.

—In his monthly talk in the July Woman's Home Companion, Dr. Edward Everett Hale protests against the growing commercializing of travel in America, the making of it a business when it ought to be a pleasure. "The railroad people seem to think," he says, "that if they can make the public understand how to get from New York to Santa Barbara in fifteen minutes less than it needed a year ago, the great battle of life is gained. But whoever will try the experiment of saying, 'We will show you how to go from New York to the Pacific and back again, stopping forty times on the way, and coming back twice the man you were when you started,' will make a genuine contribution to the uplift of that hundred million people who are called Americans."

—I think one of the most useful dressings, one which can be used for the greatest number of purposes, is the boiled dressing. It is as delicate as mayonnaise— which is supposed to be the queen of all the salad dressings—is made without oil, which pleases many persons who cannot teach themselves to like olive oil, and it is convenient for family use, as it will keep for a week or ten days, so is always in readiness in case of sudden company or other need. Beat the yolks of three eggs until they are light and thick; add one teaspoonful of dry mustard, two teaspoonfuls of salt, a speck of cayenne or paprika, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, one cupful of cream, one-half a cupful of hot vinegar, and lastly, the whites of eggs beaten stiff. Cook the mixture in a double boiler until it thickens, stirring well the meanwhile. It should be as smooth as cream, but thicker, about the consistency of boiled custard. Let it get thoroughly cold pour into glass jars and cover, then put away in a cold place until you want to use it.—The Ladies' World for July.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McCalmont, of Franklin, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bonnell and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Gillen, of Youngstown, O., made up an automobile party which was here Monday. The party, with the exception of Mr. Gillen, who joined them at Oil City, came through from Youngstown, Saturday, and spent Sunday at the Fieldmore Springs hotel.

—Children's Day was appropriately observed last Sunday by the Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday schools, the exercises being of a very pleasing character. The Presbyterian service in the morning took the form of a children's choir with special music, and a sermon to the children by the pastor. At the Methodist church in the evening a more elaborate program of songs and recitations was given, which showed great care in preparation. The decorations at both houses of worship were very pretty, and altogether the day was one of joy and gladness to the little folks.

—Endeavor comes out ahead as always, the number of graduates from educational institutions this year exceeding that of most small towns: N. P. Wheeler, Jr. graduated at Princeton; Miss Ethel Scherer graduates at Penn Hall, Chambersburg, and took first honors of her class; Misses Lulu Crouch and Mary McKean graduated at Tidoute, Miss McKean taking the scholarship at Meadville; Alton T. Warden graduated at "Kiskadee" and took gold medal for oratory; while Rex and Roy Wheeler of class of 1910, Yale, and Gus E. Warden, class of 1910, Lafayette, are home on vacation.

—Fishermen are afraid that the slimy moss, which for some unaccountable reason covers the beds of the river and creek, is going to interfere with the fishing to a considerable extent this year, says a knowing (?) exchange. As though this same condition does not always prevail at this season of the year and on up to the end of the season. Whenever the water in the rivers and creeks gets low and sluggish more or less moss and slime accumulates, but if you're up to your business you can catch the fish all right. We leave it to John Bush, who can always dig up a few nice ones when occasion requires.

—Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Bailey leave today for their former home at Callensburg, Pa., where they expect to spend a week with old friends. The 101st anniversary of the organization of Concord Presbyterian church will be held this evening and tomorrow, which will be attended by all the former ministers of the charge now living, and it is expected the important event will bring together a large concourse of people from far and near. Friday evening a reception for the former pastors will be held at the church at Callensburg. Mr. Bailey's pulpit here will be vacant next Sabbath, as he will remain over for a few days, and Mrs. Bailey will extend her visit for a week or so longer.

—A short road to misery is to begin by fancying that no one cares for you; that you are of no use to anybody,—a sort of nonentity in the household, where your place would not be missed, but easily supplied. Reflect on your want of beauty, and lead yourself to believe that no one can love a plain face, or think you agreeable because there are others more charming. Fancy that everyone who looks upon you makes a mental comparison which militates against you in favor of someone else. Imagine that every word said in jest is only meant to cover a deeper and more painful meaning—that every other article of wearing apparel you don is criticized and ridiculed. Do all this and your tendency to morbidity of feeling will so increase that in a very short time you will become one of the most miserable of human beings.

—An electric storm, accompanied by considerable wind and rain, passed over this section Monday night, which for grandeur of display of lightning eclipsed anything of the kind that has been seen here in many a day. It began at about half past nine and from that time until after midnight the heavens presented almost a continuous glare of lightning, very vivid at times, with much heavy thunder. No damage was done in this vicinity but the nerves of the timid were tried to the limit. Constable Eden, of the township, whose domicile is situated over on "Pretty View," overlooking the town, had his peace of mind somewhat disturbed when a stroke of lightning shattered a tree 40 feet from his house, set his gas regulator, just outside the house, on fire, and lit about six leaks in the gas line running past his property. But no harm was done and the fires were easily extinguished.

—According to many exchanges, the editors of which know perhaps as little about it as the man in the moon, deer are going to be plentiful the coming season. It is stated that "droves of as many as seven in a bunch have been seen, and three or four traveling together is no uncommon occurrence. The increase in number is said to be due to the shortness of the game season and the protection afforded female deer the past season. Bear, too, are said to be numerous more so than ever, and unless there are heavy forest fires the coming summer there is every indication of big game being abundant in a few years, and the shooting as good as it was when deer could be found almost in any forest." All of which would be gratifying if authentic and reliable. This bit of intelligence will draw a smile from the old hunter, who has watched the passing of the noble deer with sadness and regret, and who knows that they have gone—practically so—never to return to us again. Like the buffalo of the great plains.

Teachers' Examinations.

D. A. R. Meeting.

Tidoute Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Orion Siggins at West Hickory Friday, members and guests arriving by automobile, carriage and train. The hostess, Mrs. Siggins, assisted by her daughter Josephine heartily welcomed all to the hospitable home, caring for every need and making all comfortable. The roomy house both in and outside was decorated with the beautiful flag of our nation, while roses, vining greens, pansies and ferns lent added beauty and fragrance to the occasion. The day was one of June's rarest, not a cloud to mar its skies. The guests enjoyed the comfort of the breeze and the beauty of the surrounding country seated on the porches, renewing friendships and social greetings until summoned to partake of luncheon, which was served at noon, tables being set in parlor, dining and breakfast rooms. Covers were laid for sixty. The place souvenir was a silk flag. The luncheon of six courses, served in dainty and tempting manner was of the best, and all tarried long over the festive board. At 2 o'clock the gavel called to order, Mrs. Lillian Hunter, vice regent, in the chair. The meeting opened with prayer and singing "America." Roll call was responded to with appropriate quotations by thirty-four members, after which business was transacted, followed by a program suited to Flag Day, Miss Alice N. Siggins, Miss Nellie G. Turner, and Miss Everson taking part. Miss Harmon added to the pleasure of all by singing twice during the meeting. The governing board met and transacted business. Application papers were issued, and this being the last regular meeting of the year the calendar was closed.

Guests of the day were Mrs. T. J. Wright, Mrs. J. B. Siggins, Miss Mary Alice Siggins, Oil City; Mrs. W. J. Bleakley, Franklin; Mrs. G. F. Watson, Tionesta; Mrs. R. L. Buzard, Sheffield; Miss Wright, Lebanon, Ohio; Mrs. Gillilan, Mrs. E. B. Grandin, Miss Sara Harmon, Miss Anna Martin, Miss Harriet Smutz, Miss Daisy Siggins, Tidoute; Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Carl Smith, Mary Alice Warden, Agnes Stiles, Endeavor; Mrs. A. J. Siggins, Mrs. Jane Myers, Mrs. Frank Lawler, Mrs. W. E. Davis, Misses Jennie and Fannie Siggins, West Hickory.

The day will long be remembered as one well spent and enjoyed by all present. All said good bye, hoping to be present at the meeting in October.—Warren Times.

Kellettville.

John Robbins has gone to West Hickory, where he is being employed by L. A. Fehman.

Mrs. James McMichael of Sheffield visited friends in town a few days last week.

Alice Lease, who has been in Mayburg for some time, returned home Monday evening.

Mary Porter and Mary Stizie are visiting the latter's brother at Venus.

Edith Spencer is quite seriously sick. Mrs. W. E. Barrett and daughter, Mrs. Robert Watson, visited the former's sister, Mrs. Clarence Harriger, at Tionesta, on Wednesday.

Blanche Hendricks left Saturday for Tionesta, where she will attend summer school.

Mrs. D. Thompson of Nebraska visited friends here a few days last week.

Clara Jenkins and Lulu Shaw were elected delegates by the Queen Esther Circle to attend the W. H. M. S. convention, which was held in Franklin last week.

Wesley Whitehill visited friends at Endeavor over Sunday.

Mrs. R. R. Shimmel and little son Gerald, who have been visiting Mrs. Shimmel's mother for several months, left Tuesday for Watoga, W. Va., where her husband is employed.

James Wolfe of Mayburg spent Sunday in town.

Dr. C. Y. Dotar is on the sick list.

Mrs. James Welsh of Halltown was the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. A. Babcock, last week.

Olive Wolfe is suffering from a very sore arm.

Mrs. Lew Brennan and children, of Minister, spent Sunday with Mrs. Brennan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shaffer.

The Local Oil Field.

E. E. Fleming's No. 2 on the Robinson tract, in the McKee field, was finished and shot last Saturday. On Monday there was over 300 feet of oil standing in the hole and the well promises to make a good one, at least much better than No. 1.

G. H. Lowe & Co.'s No. 2 on the Robinson tract, in the McKee field, is due to strike the sand today.

G. H. Lowe & Co.'s No. 2 on the Clapp tract, Hickory township, was dry in the second sand and is drilling to the third sand.

In the West Hickory field, Carson & Morrow's No. 8 on the A. J. Siggins farm, and the South Penn's No. 4 on the Carter farm, were finished the first of the week and both are very light, but may make producers after being shot. Orion Siggins on his own farm, and E. Pequinot on the W. P. Siggins farm, have wells due this week.

The Clarion Democrat says that Kahle Bros. struck a fine oil well last week on the McGinnis farm, 1 1/2 miles north of Fryburg. It will make a good producer and this may open up a field that was formerly condemned.

Did You Ever

Wear a good suit of ready-to-wear clothes—not the $8.98 kind, but the kind we sell? Or are you one of those men that can't be fitted in ready-to-wear because your tailor told you so?

You bought a pair of shoes a week or two ago at a shoe store, as you have done for years. Yet they were ready made. But clothes—banish the thought! Why? Does your tailor pay thousands for his designers, cutters and tailors? Does he dictate style? Does he control the cream of the woolen mills' output?

Our Tailors Do.

The clothes they made for us for spring and summer wear are a decided improvement over last season's—a new "kick" on the coat collar—a different cut in the coat. In fact, a suit for the spring and summer of '08—not the vintage of '06 or '07.
