—Enroll now for the Fall Term at the Hoff Business College, Warren. Special discount offer this month. Call or write, I. J. Hoff and L. J. Holmes, Proprietors.

—An auto party in J. F. Propert's car ran over and killed a large black rattlesnake in the road a few rods below the creek bridge, in the thorough limits, last Saturday evening. Who will deny that the automobile has its uses?

—Everett, the young son of Axel Aronson, fell into the river Friday afternoon while playing with his mother and other children, along the railroad track below town. He was quickly rescued and aside from the scare was all right in a few hours.

—Excavating for the basement of the new M. E. church was begun last week, and the concrete work and laying of the foundation stone will probably begin this week. It is expected the ceremony of the corner-stone laying will take place early in August.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ewing of Fox Creek, Green township, were poisoned by eating canned tomatoes on the evening of July 3d. For a time they were seriously ill but were all right by the next morning. Dr. Dunn was summoned to attend them.

—For Sale, small farm within limits of Tionesta bore, 15 minutes walk from business portion of town. Twelve acres under good state of cultivation, splendid water, good new house and barn, and small orchard bearing. See or write C. M. Arner or G. B. Armstrong, Tionesta, Pa.

—Your dining room floor can be touched up and refinished with Campbell's Floor Finish and the result will be very satisfactory. Bovard's Pharmacy carries a full line of all size cans and the manufacturers guarantee perfect satisfaction if the simple directions are followed.

—The annual campmeeting of the Oil City District of the Free Methodist Church will be held July 30-August 9 on the premises of the Pleasantville Campmeeting Association. It is expected the attendance will be very large, as the former meetings held under the direction of this church proved very successful. There has been a splendid programme arranged and the committee in charge will have all the conveniences supplied that will afford comfort for those in attendance.

—The residence of George Coe, Jr. at Pleasantville was struck by lightning about eight o'clock Friday night, July 3d. The bolt entered by a chimney, which it demolished, split a joist and passed out the side of the house without doing any further damage. Mr. and Mrs. Coe were in Oil City and the only occupant of the house was a twelve-year-old boy, who was not injured. A freak of the lightning was the extinguishing of a lighted gas jet in the house.

—Selden Whitman was in Franklin a few days last week endeavoring to enlist the services of capital to develop the rich deposits of ochre on his farm, which lies in Green and Tionesta townships. About eight years ago Mr. Whitman sold ten acres containing this deposit to Fred Leberger, of Franklin, and there was strong talk of establishing a factory here for the manufacture of paint. Mr. Leberger and several other parties are expected here today to look over the proposition again.

—The following teachers have been elected in Green township for a term of seven months: Nebraska, No. 2, Miss Emily Reichler of Brookville; Nebraska, No. 1, Miss Clara Platt of Franklin; Flynn, Miss Olive Wolfe of Tionesta twp.; Hinderer, Miss Grace Reed of Nebraska; Golins, Miss Belva Hoover of Tyersburg; Blum, Miss Bebe Cole of Nebraska; Tubbs Run, Miss Evelyn Grove of Tionesta; Young, Miss Janet Haugh of Nebraska; Guitonville, Miss Etta Rodgers of Tyersburg.

—The Grove City bible conference will begin July 30th and close August 9th. The program for this year in point of character and scholarship exceeds that of any preceding year. Distinguished scholars and educators from both sides of the Atlantic have been engaged to take part in this work. Entertainment can be had at very reasonable rates. Grove City is a delightful place to combine Bible study with an enjoyable outing. For terms and all other information address President Isaac C. Ketter, Grove City, Pa.

—The school board of Kingsley township has elected the following teachers for a term of eight months, beginning August 31st: Kellestville, No. 4, Prof. Emerson F. Wade of Pottstown, Pa.; Kellestville, No. 3, Miss Mildred Catlin; Kellestville, No. 2, Miss Blanche Hendricks; Kellestville, No. 1, Miss Golda Hill; Newtown, Miss Pearl Clay; Whig Hill, Miss Kate Guenther; Starr, Miss Edith Gayley; Ross Run, Howard Zueddel; Muzette, Miss Nellie McClary; Mayburg, No. 2, Mrs. Maud Berlin; Mayburg, No. 1, Miss Elinor Small; Buck Mills, Irvin Kunselman. The tax levy was made 13 mills for school and 5 mills for building purposes.

—As showing what trolley roads will do for a community the Warren Times notes that the D. A. V. & P. railroad, which parallels the trolley road to Falconer, near Jamestown, is making a strong bid for the business to Jamestown and intermediate points from Warren. Four tickets are sold from Warren to Jamestown for $1. These are good from Falconer into any point in Jamestown, including Celoron, and include transfers. This makes the fare from Warren to Celoron just twenty-five cents. The road also sells these four trip tickets to Fremburg and intermediate stations at proportionately low rates. The road is also preparing to make stops at the Court House and points along the Conewago.

—Since our last issue we have a number of snake stories to report: Mrs. J. B. Eden killed a yellow rattler three feet, eight inches long and carrying eight rattles, near the home of Edward Fox, in Tionesta township. A few days later Mr. Fox got a yellow one about the same size in the road near Wm. Lawrence's home. It carried ten rattles. Dr. Dunn killed a four foot black rattler sporting sixteen rattles, in the road near Donnan's, across the river, and a few minutes later a man who walked by the same spot killed a large yellow one. Lester Dotterer, the 12-year-old son of H. A. Dotterer, whose home is at Guitonville, shot and killed a rattlesnake which measured 3½ feet and sported seven rattles and a button.

—A house occupied by Lewis Dale, in Marienville, was struck by lightning about three o'clock Sunday afternoon, during a severe storm which passed over that place, and totally destroyed by the fire which followed. Mr. Dale and family were seated at the dinner table when the bolt struck the house but none of them were shocked. The whole roof seemed to catch fire at once and nothing could be done to check the flames. All the household goods on the lower floor were saved but everything on the second floor except a gun and trunk was burned. Mr. Dale's loss on goods will be about $500, with no insurance. The house was owned by Mrs. Margaret Snyder of Butler, Pa., and her loss will be $500, with no insurance. Mr. Dale states that this is the second time he has been burned out while seated at the dinner table, the other time being at Bowmanville.

—A very pleasant social event was the Tionesta High School Alumni reception at Bovard's Hall last Wednesday evening. The hall was elaborately decorated with college pennants, flags and laurel leaves and the work received unstinted admiration and praise. A reception committee met the guests at the door and made all feel at home. After an hour of sociability dainty refreshments were served. Coleman's Orchestra enveloped the occasion with fine music and at eleven o'clock it was "on with the dance," which was enjoyed until an early hour. The guests present from out of town were: Miss Virginia Siggins, Arch Perry, Will Scott, E. C. Dunkle, of Oil City; Miss Bernice Scowden of Meadville; Miss Ruth Ballentine, Harry Corbett, of Clarion; Miss Jennie Dutton, Miss Gertrude Gifford, of Vineland, New Jersey; Dr. Karl E. Weink of Kane; Frank Wheeler, Jr., of Mercer; Albert Zahnleiter of New Britain, Conn.; Miss Mabel Walker of Erie; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Beck, George Ott, of Warren, Mr. and Mrs. George Dawson of Stewart Run; Walter Dunham, Fred Slocum, of Kellestville; Miss Sarah Morrow of Tidoute; Amon Carson of West Alickery, and Mrs. James Green of Ash-tabula, Ohio.
