DROWNED IN TIONESTA CREEK. Sad Fate of Alphonze C. Beeson, of Alphonze C. Beeson, one of the best known residents of Kellettville, was drowned in Tionesta Creek, a short distance below Mayburg, about 9 o'clock Thursday night, July 16th, and his body was recovered about two hours later. Mr. Beeson, in company with Clarence Jenkins, the engineer, had taken a locomotive of the Sheffield & Tionesta Railway and gone to the place where the accident occurred to pull an abandoned wooden pier out of the water, the timin building a wharf near the Andrews by the fact that the locomotive could not be had during the regular working hours. Just how the accident occurred will never be known, as Mr. Beeson was alone or the pier, which stood about twenty feet -Squire C. H. Wilson, of Marienville, out in the water. Mr. Jenkins states that was transacting business at the county they had made a line fast to the pier and had turned it over once or twice. Mr. Beeson called for some slack to make another hitch and not hearing from him after a short interval, the engineer called and wading into the water. He could find no trace of him whatever and then took his locomotive to Kellettville and gave the alarm. A searching party went to the scene of the accident and after dragging the creek for about two hours the body of Mr. Beeson was found near where he sank. It was in fifteen feet of water and entangled in the branches of a sunken tree. He could not swim a stroke and probably never came to the surface after falling in. The only mark on the body was a slight bruise on the chin. The body was removed to Kellettville, where physicians worked over it for nearly two hours, but the spark of life was gone. Mr. Beeson was born near Oil City, December 30, 1869, and was a son of Mrs. Maggie Wilson, of Kellettville, by a former marriage. When a small boy he came to Forest county, where he grew to manhood, and for the past eighteen years had been employed as manager of the large general store of Mrs. M. Andrews at Kellettville. He was a man of indomitable energy and enterprise and was sel dom idle. Mr. Beeson was an affable and agreeable gentleman at all times and was universally respected by all who knew him. His tragic death was a great shock to the entire community He was never married. Besides his mother, he is survived by two sisters and three brothers.

Mr. Beeson was a member of the Masonic fraternity, having reached the thirty-second degree. He was affiliated with Olive Lodge, No. 557, F. & A. M., of Tionesta, Occidental Chapter and also the Commandery, of Warren, Zem Zem Temple A. A. O. N. M. S., of Erie, and the Consistory at Williamsport.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Andrews at Kellettville, Sunday norning, the services being conducted by Rev. A. J. Horner, of Mayburg, assisted by Rev. R. J. Montgomery, of Kellettville. The services were very largely attended. Among those in attendance were forty members of the Warren lodges, who were taken to Kellettville and back on a special train, through the kindness of Leon Watson, superintendent of the S. & T. Ry. The remains were brought to Tionesta Sunday afternoon and interred in Mt. #### Fred Rhodes Fatally Injured.

J Fredrick Rhodes, of Monroeville, Clarion county, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Agustus Rhodes, whose farm is located near Starr postoffice, in Green township, met with an accident near Bruin, Butler county, which proved fatal five days afterward. Fred had been in the employ of the B. O. railroad, narrow gauge system, nearly four years, being engaged at carpentering. On Tuesday, July 14, while assisting in the removal of some timber from a trestle a rope hitched to an upwright post gave way knocking the scaffold on which he was standing from under him, and he fell a distance of twenty-five feet striking squarely on his feet and then fell backward over some timber. When picked up by his companions it was found that he was paralyzed from his shoulders down, and it is thought the iar of alighting on his feet injured the spinal chord. He was removed to the Butler hospital where everything possible was done to make him comfortable, but on Saturday morning he breathed his last, having retained consciousness up to within a few hours of his death. His left arm was also fractured below the elbow, and there were some slight bruises on the left side of

Mr. Rhodes was one of the most capable men on the road, having in the short time that he had been in its employ risen from a day laborer to foreman of a crew of carpenters. There seemed no end to his powers of endurence, and he was sent to all sections of the road in the capacity of master carpenter. He was in his 38d year, having been born October 24, 1875. and was reared to young manhood on his father's farm. About four years ago he was united in marriage with Miss Dessle Best, of Blair's Corners, Clarion county, and she survives him. Other -Mrs. G. W.
