—Oil market closed at $1.78.
 —You can get it at Hopkins' store. If —Oil and gas leases, best form, for sale at this office. If —Tionesta was well represented at the Masonic picnic at Monarch Park last Friday and all report a splendid time.

—Shoes, hats, underwear, negligee shirts and everything else for the hot days yet to come at big reductions. Hopkins. If —Edinboro Normal is the school in which to learn how to teach school. Fall term begins September 8th, 1908. John —While the weather is still hot and likely to be for the next two months, Hopkins is selling all summer goods at a big reduction. Now's your opportunity.

—First secure a Business Education at the Hoff Business College and then a good position. This is the old, reliable, and established school at Warren, Pa.
 Write for particulars. L. J. Holmes and I. J. Hoff, Proprietors. If

—Ho, for the hot weather stuff. Hopkins is selling all summer goods at reductions that mean a great saving to customers. Don't miss the opportunity to provide yourself with new goods while it is yet quite in season. If —Lewis Cook started for Pittsburg last Friday with five barges owned by Collins, Darrah & Co., of Nebraska. J. A.

 Lawrence also took out four barges on Saturday, which were owned by the Forest Barge Co., of Hickory.

—Contractors Beck & Ott are considerably hindered in their road work this season by the heavy rains swelling the streams making it impossible to get the necessary river sand and gravel for the concrete foundation for the paving. Otherwise they have made fine progress having completed the paving to the southern corner of the cemetery.

—The first and final account of John M. Clapp, administrator of E. E. Clapp, deceased, as stated by Anna P. Clapp and J. J. Darlington, executors of John M.
 Clapp, was filed in Venango county last week. The estate is shown to have been worth $19,257.93, while the costs of administration, debts, etc., are $21,574.34, leaving a balance in favor of the administrator.

—The Lock Haven State Normal School is ideally located among the mountains of central Pennsylvania in a healthful and progressive community. It is easily accessible and therefore draws to it a large body of students from every section of Pennsylvania. Its beautiful buildings, fine gymnasium and splendid faculty make it particularly attractive. Its enrollment last year was greatly in excess of former years. A handsome catalogue will be sent upon application to the Principal. If

—Dr. George Siggins, who is now located at Linesville, Clarion county, was a visitor here Monday. He had a hurry-up call to go to a neighboring village called Pitchpine about five miles distant last Saturday night, where the village folk had patronized a church social and eaten copiously of the ice cream that was served and were poisoned. More than 30 people were affected many of them seriously, but all were in a fair way to recovery when he left. It is thought the flavoring extract was responsible for the trouble.

—Captain K. G. Shutt of Warren arrived here Monday afternoon with his steam launch, the "City of Warren," and is doing considerable business carrying passengers around the eddy at five cents for the trip. The craft is neat and trim and will comfortably carry twenty-five passengers. It is stationed near the river bridge. It is a stern-wheeler and was built by Mr. Shutt in Warren for excursion purposes but on account of its draught could not get out of the eddy at low stage. He expects to go to Pittsburgh on the next rise.

—Bill Nye had the truth well told when he said: "A man may use a wart on the back of his neck for a call button; ride on the back coach of a railroad train to save interest on his money till the conductor gets around; stop his watch at night to save wear and tear; leave his 'I' or 'O' without a dot or cross to save ink; pasture his mother's grave to save corn; but a man of this sort is a gentleman and a scholar compared to the fellow who will take a newspaper two or three years and when asked to pay for it, put it into the office and have it marked 'refused.'" —The alumni of the Edinboro Normal School is sending out an appeal to all former students, especially to those who attended between the years 1861 to 1892, asking for financial aid to purchase a home for Prof. and Mrs. J. A. Cooper.

 The aged Professor, who was principal of the school during that period has been forced, after a long, laborious service in the cause of education, to give up his comfortable home and take rooms on the second floor of a very old building, and it is to give the aged couple a home where they can find that rest and peace to which they are so much entitled in their declining years that the appeal is made. In all probability the response will be quite generous as it should be.

—Hon. George Maloney, one of the best known, best beloved and most enterprising citizens of Franklin, died suddenly Monday morning of this week in the Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia. He had left home about ten days prior for an eastern trip and while in Philadelphia was seized with an attack of appendicitis and peritonitis. His condition was such as to forbid an operation. Mr. Maloney was in his 59th year, and most of his useful and energetic life was spent in the oil regions of this state, where he was a prominent figure for nearly forty years.
 He was quite prominent in politics, being an ardent Democrat, and was twice elected Mayor of Franklin, and twice to the legislature from Venango county.

—Ira Samuelson, of Warren, who has the contract of moving and rebuilding the old Bonner house for F. R. Lanson, found an interesting relic tucked away between the ceiling and floor of the building, on Saturday. The relic is a message in pamphlet form from Gov.
 Francis R. Shunk to the Pennsylvania Legislature and is dated Jan. 5, 1848. The most important statement in the message is a strong recommendation against special legislation, which was prohibited under the new constitution of 1873, so it will be noticed the reform was a long time coming. Old residents inform us that the house was built in 1852 for Hamilton Stow and that William McKinley, Gilbert McKinley and other old-time artisans did the carpenter work.

—Among the many camping parties in this vicinity this season none have chosen a more sightly or beautiful spot than a party of young men from Sharsburg, Pa., who are under the care of John Farrell, Sr., of that city. Their camp is located on F. L. Reil's land, on Tionesta creek, about a mile and a half from Tio-nosta, where they have been enjoying all the comforts of a well regulated camp for the past three weeks. They will break camp next Friday. Besides the first named gentleman, the others in the party are George Waiglit, Edward McCue, John Auth, Fred Auth, Martin Reppine, William Casey, Charles Zumpt, Frank Trocog, Edward Maeter, Albert Yerkins and Roger Nestor. The men have made many friends by their gentlemanly department and will be welcomed here every year if they decide to come. One of their strict rules was that no intoxicating liquor should be brought into the camp. The party entertained a number of invited guests at supper Sunday evening, the chief item on the menu being genuine turtle soup, prepared by Mr.
 Farrell from a turtle captured by one of the party, and it was a feast fit for a king.
 Among the visitors Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John L. Farrell, Jr., a bride and groom of recent date, who are quartered at the Hotel Weaver, and who came up to surprise the groom's father. The bride was formerly Miss Mabel Maynard, and the happy couple were married at Sharsburg on July 23d.

—"Camp Tionesta" has pitched its tents on the island below Dawson in the beautiful Allegheny river for a two weeks' outing and the pleasure of out-door life begins today. The camp is equipped with several large tents which provide sleeping, eating and lounging room for the entire party of thirty or more happy young people bent on having a splendid time every minute of their waking hours.
 Fresh and pure water is supplied from a driven well which is practically inexhaustible, and likewise an inexhaustible supply of fire wood is obtained from a huge drift pile thrown up by the recent heavy floods within easy reach of the chef. Hammocks, swings, boats and the like are in evidence on all sides for the convenience and comfort of the delighted party. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wyman are with the young folks during their outing and will see to driving them into their banks at night and out again the morning.
 Following is the roster of the party:
 Emma Arner, Lenore Ritehey, Clara Henry, Sarah Carson, Iva Gerow, Hazel Fones, Beulah Clark, Marie and Muriel Dunn, Maude Canfield, Ewie Scowden, Corinne Wyman, all of Tio-nosta; Helen Richardson, Driftwood, Pa.; Mammie Engdahl, West Hickory; Ruth Ballentine, Clarion; Miriam Messner, Warren; Charles Weaver, Charles Imel, Paul and Harry Carson, Ted Joyce, Glenn Henry, Ed. Lawrence, Curtis Proper, Dallas Reck, Earl Maxwell, Tio-nosta; George Ott, Warren; Frank Shirley, Clarion.

 George, paid Franklin friends a short visit last week.
 —Miss Alice Wertz left Tuesday of last week for a two months' visit with relatives in Mercer county.
 —J. N. Dunn came home Tuesday from an extended visit with relatives in Allegheny and Crawford counties.
 —Sam Farmer and family, of Tidouste, were here Monday, returning from a two weeks' outing at Connetquot Lake.
 —Frank Shirley of Clarion is visiting friends here and is a member of the camping party on Dawson Island.
 —Mrs. Leonard Agnew and daughter Sarah left Monday for a three weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Indiana county.
 —Mrs. Lee Davis and daughter, Miss Nellie, went to Meadville last Saturday for a short visit with George Davis and family.
 —Mrs. Chas. L. Hinkle of Erie, and Mrs. David Edwards and babe of Sharon, are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs.
 D. W. Clark.

—Miss Mary Wolfe of Kittanning and Miss Augusta Cook of Nebraska have been guests of Miss Florence Hagerty during the past week.
 —Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cunningham, of Sunthorpe, Pa., were guests at the home of County Commissioner Agnew from Wednesday till Friday last week.
 —Miss Mary Everett visited friends near Newmansville last week and leaves tomorrow for a week's visit with Miss Alice McCloskey, at North Pine Grove.
 —Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lanson and children, May and Arthur, are visiting friends at the former's old home at Lottsville and other sections of Warren county this week.
 —Miss Mabel Herron of Kittanning is a guest at the home of her uncle, H. M.
 Foreman. Miss Louie Foreman spent the past three weeks with Miss Herron in Kittanning.
 —Mrs. D. G. Glenn and Mrs. W. D.
 Glenn of Corsica, Pa., were guests at J.
 C. Geist's over Sunday. Mrs. Geist and sons, Glenn and Willis, return home with them today for a three weeks' visit.
 —John Spruill of Uniontown, Pa., who had charge of the Lanson grist mill here when it was first built, is visiting old friends here this week. He now owns a flourishing shoe store in Uniontown.
 —Miss Mary Louise Cook, of Cooksburg, is having a house party at her home this week and Misses Rebecca Ross and Ella Moore, of Clarion, are among the guests present.—Clarion Democrat.

—Mrs. J. N. Sandrock is visiting her daughters in Oil City and Tittusville, this week, and Miss Della Sandrock is spending a few days with Mrs. James Thomas at the Doutt & Foreman mill, down the river.
 —J. L. Hepler, of the Sigworth & Hepler livery, has moved his family from Newmansville to Tionesta, and is occupying the new house recently completed by Edward and Jesse Graham, on May street.
 —Patrick Joyce was down from Buffalo during the week visiting at the home of his son Frank, and meeting old Tionesta friends. Mr. Joyce, while feeling good otherwise, is still much troubled with his old rheumatic enemy.
 —Mrs. Frank Hood and Miss Belle Hood attended the reunion of the Meager family at Venus, Pa., last Saturday. Mrs.
 Hood is a member of the family connection which is an extensive one, there being upward of a hundred present at this celebration.
 —Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Vaughn and son, Harold, of Joliet, Ill., spent the greater part of the past week with Mrs. Vaughn's sister, Mrs. Isaac McCoy, leaving for home Tuesday. Mr. Vaughn is superintendent of the Illinois Match Co., at Joliet.
 —Born, to Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Mc-Coy, of Keppeltown, July 25th, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Handy, of Stewart Run, July 22, a son. Mr. and Mrs. Handy were called to mourn the death of their son, which occurred the same day.
 —The families of Rev. E. L. Monroe, H. M. Foreman, J. G. Bromley, J. C.
 Bowman, Moses Hepler, A. E. Daniels, M. L. Rhodes, Wm. McGee, Mrs. C. K.
 Bradbury, Mrs. R. W. Moon and Mrs.
 John Noble, of Tionesta, will have tents at the Pleasantville camping, which opens tomorrow evening.

—Messrs. Albert Weingard and A. J.
 Burhenn, two students of the Hoff Business College, went to Warren last Friday to attend the annual college alumni reunion, which was held in Hunter's Grove, on the banks of Conewang creek, opposite the State Hospital. A large number of students was present and they report a very enjoyable time.
 —Mrs. J. Norman Davies left this morning for New York, where she will join Dr. Davies, who is still in a hospital, and on the first of next week they will take passage for Europe, spending most of their time in Switzerland, where the doctor hopes to fully recover from his illness.—Warren Times, 25th. They sailed Tuesday on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse and expect to return home in about two months.
 —Sam. Haslet came home Sunday evening from Fredonia, N. Y., and returned to that place yesterday. He is holding down second base on the Fredonia ball team and playing a fine game. Joe Weaver is playing third base on the same team and putting up a fast game.
 The Fredonia team has a great record so far, having won twelve games and lost three, one of their victims being the strong Pullmans of Buffalo in a fifteen-inning game.
 —Mrs. Nelson P. Wheeler, wife of Congressman Wheeler of Pennsylvania, was the guest of Mrs. William A. Shewman, Jr., Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler have suits at the Portland Hotel and are taking little side trips to the many cities along the coast and Mr. Wheeler is also inspecting the vast redwood forests of California, having heavy interests in the big trees.
 While in this city Mrs. Wheeler with Mrs. Linwood Jones partook of a dainty luncheon with Mrs. Shewman, later driving to Rose Farm, returning to Portland in the evening.—Oregon City Courier.

The Local Oil Field.
 John Reek is moving his drilling machine to Bobbs Creek, near Mayburg, and will drill several wells for A. B.
 Kelly on the Taylor tract. The first well will be located about 2,000 feet from the big gasser struck last week by T. D.
 Collins.
 In the West Hickory field Orion Siggins got a good well in his No. 3 on his farm, which was finished and shot last Wednesday. Morrow & Carson finished and shot their No. 10 on the A. J.
 Siggins farm, yesterday, and it is showing up for a good producer.
 Charles Carnahan, drilling for Lowe & Co. on the Kirk tract, Hickory township, has had a bad fishing job for several weeks, has abandoned the well and will drill another. A bit was lost in the hole just after tapping the sand at a depth of over 700 feet.

Porkey.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson of Gusher called on friends in town Sunday afternoon.—Mr. and Mrs. John Lore were Warren visitors Monday of the past week.
 —James Welch, Sr. is quite sick.— Frank Littlefield was in Sheffield, Saturday, on business.—F. C. Proper has drilled his second well on the Proper reserve. It is reported to be an eighteen barrel well.—A very interesting game of ball was played Sunday on the Porkey ball grounds between the married men and single men. We were informed the score stood 19 to 13 in favor of the latter.
 Hustle up old men; don't be so slow!— Jack Spencer is about to go to housekeeping in the brown-stone front residence on East Main street, he making the purchase of A. L. Weller of Kellett-ville.—Nathan Birdick was a Sheffield visitor Saturday between trains.—Mrs.
 James Welch visited her daughter, Mrs.
 James McMichael, at Sheffield, Friday of last week.—Mrs. Pearl Higginson spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
 Wm. Sloeum.—J. Brown has moved his family to Minister.

Former Resident Passes Away.
 We take the following account of the death of a former citizen of this community from the Marquette, Kansas, Tribune of July 23d. The subject was once a resident of Stewart Run, this county, and will be remembered by a number of the older residents of that section: Stephen Norris was born in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, Nov. 3, 1829 and died in Marquette, Kansas, July 17, 1908, at the age of 78 years, 8 months and 14 days. His funeral was in charge of the Odd Fellows and he was buried at Riverside cemetery July 18, in the afternoon.
 An immense crowd of his old neighbors and friends attended the last sad rites.
 He leaves his aged wife, mother of his ten children, half of whom are still living—three sons and two daughters. These have the sympathy of all in their sorrow.
 In April 1859 he was married to Miss Catharine Thompson and in October they moved to Kansas, homesteading the Norris farm up the river where they lived until moving to town some years ago. He and J. G. Maxwell were the first elected Justice of the Peace in what was then Shars Creek township. He was one of the most active and best known pioneers in that part of the country. By his death the family lose a kind husband and father, the community a substantial friend and the county a good citizen.

Kellettville.
 Dr. and Mrs. C. Y. Detar attended the Masonic picnic at Oil City, Friday.
 Alta Jensen, who has been visiting her parents for several weeks, returned to Garland, Monday.
 Mark Wilson spent several days in Sheffield last week.
 Mrs. Swanson and Kate Arner of Tio-nosta, who have been visiting their brother, Lewis Arner, returned home Friday.
 Wm. Robbins of Worcester, N. Y., is the guest of his brother, F. B. Robbins.
 Julia Lohmeyer visited her sister, Mrs.
 Linus Shriver, in Tionesta, last week.
 Mrs. W. S. Heedricks and daughter Roberta, who have been visiting relatives in Butler, returned home Friday.
 John Robbins of West Hickory visited his father over Sunday.
 Bessie Porter is visiting friends at Tylersburg.
 Mrs. Sebina Miller of Brooklyn, N. Y., was a guest at Leon Watson's and Wm.
 Sizle's last week.
 Quite a number of persons from town attended the ball game at Sheffield, Saturday.
 Leon Watson, son and daughter, Floyd and Alda, drove to Tionesta, Thursday.
 M. F. Catlin's family have moved into their new house.
 Communion services were observed at the M. E. church Sunday evening. Rev.
 Mr. Platt of Franklin preached a very able sermon.

It Pays.
