FinalClearance in Millinery.

About another month and fall hats will begin to arrive. Our buyer is now in the market making early selections. The problem before us now is to make room for them. Cases and tables are still well filled with summer styles, and these have been cut to the quick to clean out in short order. So now we disregard entirely cost of making and trimming, disregard the beauty and style and value of the hats in our efforts to clean up stock without delay. Need another hat for vacation days or to supply the needs between seasons? They're here now for al-
