Memorial of Douglas and Fannie Monroe Robinson.

Bryan on Bank Guaranty - Saloons Closed In Atlantic City - Fleet at Melbourne - Seven Tons of Bad Eggs Seized - New British Patent Act-Want Timetables Published.

With a ceremony in which the president of the United States took a part the Jordanville public library was presented to the people of that community, the donors being Douglas Robinson of Mohawk and New York, Mrs. Robinson and Harriet D. Weiryche Whitmore, Mr. Robinson's sister, who had erected it in memory of Mr. Robinson's father and mother, Douglas and Fannie Monroe Robinson.

President Roosevelt, personally interested in the dedication, his sister. Mrs. Douglas Robinson, being one of the donors, honored the occasion with his presence, and although he had originally contemplated talking but briefly, pleased his audience of interested townspeople and dwellers in the nearby countryside by making an address of some length.

Secretary of State Root afterwards made a brief speech and was followed by James S. Sherman, who also spoke briefly.

The library is a pretty building, 50 by 100 feet, with large doric columns and steps extending across the entire width in front. In the center is a large double doorway at the right of which is a bronze tablet bearing in raised letters the following:

"Erected in memory of Douglas Robinson and Fannie Monroe Robinson by Douglas Robinson, Corinne Roosevelt Robinson, Harriet D.-Wolryche Whit-

The cost of the building was $5,000. There are 1,600 volumes of books at present in the library.

Bryan on Bank Guaranty. Before an audience which filled the Auditorium at Topeka, Kan., to overflowing, William J. Bryan spoke on the subject of guaranty of bank deposits. Previously he had delivered three other addresses, two from the veranda of his hotel and the third at Garfield Park, where he attended a picule by the Knights of Pythias.

Mr. Bryan, in view of the action of the Kansas Republican state council which endorsed the guaranty of bank deposits, made some remarks supplementary to his prepared speech on that subject. He asked why the deposits should be left unsecured when national government demands curity of any bank with which it deposited money.

He pointed out that the choice was between the postal savings bank and the guaranty plan and accused Mr. Taft of favoring an unnecessary extension of the sphere of government in advocating the postal savings bank instead of the bank guaranty. Mr. Bryan declared that he preferred the guaranty bank proposition, which would allow the banks to attend to the banking business and yet compel them to give their depositors necessary security.

Upon the conclusion of his prepared speech, Mr. Bryan said:

"I asked Mr. Breidenthal, a banker of Kansas City, to make inquiry among the bankers of Kansas and ascertain what proportion of them favored the guaranty law. I learned that of the bankers that had expressed themselves on this subject, about three-fourths of them favored a guaranty law and onefourth opposed it. Among the deposttors there is no opposition at all.

"I also inquired of Governor Has kell of Oklahoma in regard to the number of national banks that have surrendered their charters and become state banks in order to have the benefits of the guaranty system. I have a telegram from him saying that four national banks have already made the change and are operating under the state bank laws, and that sixteen other national banks have applied for state charters. This is conclusive proof that the Oklahoma law Saloons Closed In Atlantic City. A blue Sunday came to Atlantic City. Many persons familiar with the history of this far-famed resort have been inclined to doubt the possibility of such a thing, but every one of the 220 saloons and hotel bars were closed. They were closed alike to bona fide guests as well as to strangers. It was said that this was the fourth time in the fifty-four years of its existence that a drinkless day had been experienced in Atlantic City. A bulletin posted at police headquarters stated: "Saloons all closed. No troops in town." Another bulletin, officially signed by the chief of police, consisted of a card on which was printed:

"In 1861 it was 'hold the fort'; today it is Fort holds you."

Dense Mass of Sightseers.

The formal entry of the Americans into Melbourne took place Monday. Ad miral Sperry and his staff landed at the St. Kilda pier, where they were met by the prime minister, Alfred Dea kin; the premier of Victoria, Sir Thom as Bent, and the other members of the commonwealth and state minis tries.

The other officers of the American fleet and blue jackets and marines, to the number of more than two thous and, landed at Port Melbourne pier and marched, twelve deep, past Por-Melbourne and South Melbourne town halls, to St. Kilda road, where the densest masses of sightseers had as sembled. The school children had gathered there and formed themselves into a tableau, giving a great welcome to the men.

It was more like a triumphant march than a parade of visiting sailormen; the ferver of the Australians' welcome was almost indescribable. The exhi bition buildings were reached at 12:15 where a public reception was held in honor of the officers and men by Lord Northcote, the governor general, and Sir Thomas Gibson-Carmichael, after which the visitors were entertained a

New British Patent Act.

The year of grace granted to for eigners under the new British pat ent act has expired, and henceforth foreign patents in this country may be revoked by Great Britain after a rea sonable interval, unless the patented article is manufactured or the patent process is operated in the United King dom to an adequate extent.

A great number of foreign firms at ready have taken sites and started works in Great Britain; many others are making arrangements to do so These are mainly German and Ameri can firms.

Sir Alfred Jones, head of a promin ent firm of ship owners, estimates that $125,000,000 will thus be invested here for the manufacture of articles former ly manufactured abroad, and a prominent expert in patent law thinks that no fewer than 8,000 patents granted to foreigners will come under the new

Seven Tons of Bad Eggs Seized.

Seven and one-half tons of eggs everyone of which is alleged by the United States pure food inspectors to be absolutely bad, have been held at a Detroit (Mich.) cold storage warehouse since July 26, pending ar investigation as to what use it was intended to make of them.

It is claimed that the eggs were gathered in an already spoiled condition, in the vicinity of Cincinnati, and that they were shipped to Detroit to be used in the manufacture of fancy cookles and crackers

The seizure was made under the pure food and drugs act, which prohibits the shipment from one state to another of "foodstuffs which consist in whole or in part of a filthy, de composed, or putrid animal sub stance."

Paying For Springfield Riots.

Springfield officials will try to shift upon the state of Illinois liability for the damage incurred in the recent riot. The state's responsibility will be as serted upon the ground that when troops were called for they were sent to the scene of the rioting without ammunition and were restrained, under orders, from charging the mob with their bayonets.

As all the depredations were committed after the state militia had taken charge of the situation, it is contended that the municipality was not responsible.

State's Attorney Hatch expects an other batch of indictments against the rioters. The inquisitorial body was busy with the case of Frank Bryant, alias Sullivan, who confessed to the killing of Thomas Bray.

Accepts Nomination of Independence Party For President.

Candidate Declared It Was Necessary to Organize a New Party In Order to Bring About Needed Reforms. With Direct Primary Party Boss Disappears-Initiative and Referendum With Right to Recall Constitute Purest Popular Government.

New York, Sept. 1.-There was not room enough in the new clubhouse of the Independence league to hold the large crowd that gathered last night for the dual purpose of being present at the notification of Thomas L. Hisgen. Independence party candidate for president, and the housewarming of the club. It had been the intention to show the party leaders the new club guarters, but as every inch of room in the modest little building in Waverly place was occupied this was almost impossible, but the attempt was made and this delayed the notification ceremonies to a late hour.

William R. Hearst and Mr. Hisgen entered the clubhouse shortly after 9 o'clock and were greeted by an outburst of cheering. Hisgen was enthusiastically referred to as "the trust buster" and "our next president." These titles brought forth more cheer-

John T. Graves Unable to Attend. Many inquiries were made for John Temple Graves, the party's candidate for vice president. It had been originally planned to have Mr. Hisgen and Mr. Graves notified at the same time, but owing to the poor health of Graves this plan was abandoned. He is at

Warm Sulphur Springs, in Virginia. Henry A. Powell, chairman of the notification committee, presided. He said, in view of the signs of the times, the new party was destined to be historical in the future of the city, state and nation.

Mr. Powell told Mr. Hisgen that h had been seleced as the standard bearer of the new party and then there was prolonged cheering when Mr. His gen rose to reply, and it was several minutes before the candidat could be gin. He read his address.

After stating that he regarded his nomination as a call to public service, Thomas L. Hisgen, in his speech of acceptance, went right into the main issues of the campaign and gave a vigorous outline of the principles and policies he stands for.

He declared it was necessary to organize a new party to bring about needed reforms, and so the Independence party came into existence. The candidate asserted that the present division of the reform permitted the control of the government to slip from the hands of the people into the hands of machine politicians and party bosses, and he said that to take control out of their hands he advocated "direct nominations, the initiative, the referendum and the recall."

The Direct Primary Necessary.

Mr. Hisgen said in part: "The direct primary is spreading rapidly through the states of the South and the West. Wherever the direc primary goes the party boss disap pears. The party convention and its dummy delegates are the bosses' tools Destroy them and the boss is power

"The right to initiate legislation and when occasion arises, to pass upon and reject legislation, is the purest popular government, and condemned only by those who have lost faith in the right and in the ability of the peo ple to govern.

"Hand and hand with these meas ures of popular government goes the right of recall. When an official elected for a term of years demonstrates his unfitness or betrays the public trust early in his term, there should be a speedy and simple way of recalling or getting rid of him. "Ie believe, furthermore, that to obtain genuine popular government the corruption of money must be eliminated, and I endorse our platform declaration which not only calls for full publicity of campaign contributions, as do the platforms (but not the legislation) of the Republican and Democratic parties, but which prohib its, as they do not, the use of any money in elections except for meetings. literature and the necessary traveling expenses of candidates.

"As a business man, it seems to me to be a first essential to national prosperity that there should be economical and business-like conduct of public

"No business man has more reason than I to insist upon a strict enforce ment of the law against oppressive trusts and criminal monopolies, but I would substitute conviction of criminals for reckless and disturbing threats and denunciation. Further more, I believe, as our platform de clares, in jail for the responsible offenders, instead of fines that are in reality imposed upon stockholders or collected from the consuming public.

"Our platform condemns the evil of over-capitalization and demands as a primary necessity for sounder business conditions the enactment of laws, both ing week for Governor Hughes, and state and national, to prevent watermark his first excursion out of his own | ing of stock, dishonest issues of bonds state to assist in the Republican na- and other forms of corporation frauds, tional campaign. On Saturday he will I believe that stock watering and dismake the principal address on nation- honest financiering have been potent al issues at the opening meeting of factors in bringing on the country's

"To another anxious body of the country's producing classes, the nation's workingmen, the Independence party's platform proposes definite plain and concrete measures, where the old parties deal in attempts to delude and mislead.

"Regulation of court rules and practice, however desirable, falls far short of being the goal for which labor has been waging its long struggle. Fair wages, reasonable hours, sanitary conditions, safety applicances, protection from convict, pauper and Asiatic labor. abolition of child labor, trial by jury and prohibition of the 'black list' are the objects for which workingmen have combined, and their protest is against being branded as outlaws because of having so combined.

"Ie believe in organization among workingmen, designed to increase the effectiveness of human effort and improve the conditions of human life and labor, and that such organization should not be classed as in criminal restraint of trade. I stand firmly on the Independence party plank that gives the American workingman the American right of trial by jury before he shall be deprived of his liberty, and that forbids the use of the writ of injunction in labor disputes until after a jury trial upon the merits.

"When the Independence party's la bor planks are compared with the Republican plank, which all agree is a fraud, or with the Democratic plank, which requires a constitutional lawyer to expound. I do not believe that any living man can deliver the workingman's vote either to Mr. Bryan or

He said he believed in a national system of good roads to be built by national aid to states and counties, and also advocated the immediate extension of the parcels post, and continued:

"The gambling transactions of so called cotton and produce exchanges involving the fictitious selling of farm products for future delivery, are a menace to great sections of our country. Such transaction rob the farmer and planter and unsettle industries and I sincerely support the demand for the suppression of such bucketshop methods and fictitious dealings.

"I declare that the power to issue money and control its volume should not be confided to individuals or private corporations, but is inherent in the government, and should be exer cised by the government, and that the rational and safe way to put necessary increased issues of money into circulation is through the medium of a central government bank.

Postal Savings Banks.

"A most valuable adjunct of such system will be the establishment of postal savings banks, which will draw money out of hiding, make deposits secure and furnish a great conven ience to numerous localities not now supplied with any banking facilities

"I confidently believe that the declaration of the Independence party for a gradual reduction of the tariff, with just consideration for the rights of the consuming public and of establish ed industry, will appeal more strongly to businessmen and workingmen than the Republican demand for an extra session and an immediate general revision, calculated to alarm and throt tle reviving business, or the Demo cratic demand for a tariff for revenue

"I warmly approve of our platform declaration favoring the extension of public ownership as rapidly as the government demonstrates ability to conduct public utilities for the public benefit. The railroads must be kent open to all upon exactly equal terms Rebates and discriminations 200 crimes and must be treated as such

"Expressing my cordial and earnest support of every plank in the carefully thought-out and statesmanlike plat form upanimously adopted by the first national convention of the Indepen dence party. I enter the campaign as its standard-bearer with a solemn ap preciation of the duty that devolves

Case Similar to Thaw's. New York, Sept. 1 .- After a confer ence with District Attorney Jerome regarding the plan of prosecution to be adopted in the trial of Captain Pe ter C. Hains, Jr., and T. Jenkins Hains, charged with the killing of William E Annis, District Attorney Darrin of Queens county said that he was going to be governed largely in his prepara tion of the case by Mr. Jerome. He would do this, he said, because of the similarity of the case to that against Harry K. Thaw, the prosecution of which Mr. Jerome directed. "I do not think there is a lawyer in the United States better qualified than Mr. Jer ome," said Mr. Darrin, "and I shall take advantage of his aid."

Fitzgerald Hearing Again Postponed Chicago, Sept. 1.—Preliminary hear ings of the case against George W Fitzgerald, charged with the theft of $175,000 from the local sub-treasury were again postponed by Judge Chetlain in the criminal court. From statements made by Assistant State's Attorney James J. Barbour and George M. Poppam, it now appears probable that the federal authorities may assume the prosecution of Fitzgerald. The case was set for hearing on Sept. 9.

They went in to dinner together. He was very bashful, and she tried in vain to draw him out. Finally she be gan to talk books, and he became re sponsive. "And Hugo?" she asked. "Do you like his style?" "Oh, yes," he replied; "I find him intensely interesting. I've read a number of his books." Then she asked, "Have you read 'Nine ty-three?" "No, I've-er-only read three. Statement That Chinese Government Is Considering His Recall.

Washington, Sept. 1 .- Mr. Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister, when shown the dispatch from Pekin saying that the government was consid ering the question of his recall and mentioning the name of his probable successor, declared that the Pekin government had not in any way intimated to him that it was direatisfied with anything he had done, and that it had not called him to account for any thing he may have said.

He appeared rather amused and puzzled over the statement that the government had been embarrassed by his attitude "as a public character in America," and his disposition was to smile in talking about it. The minis ter added: What few speeches I have made since my return to America have been mainly to colleges and universities and have been educational in charac ter and in the further effort to cement the friendship between China and the United States. I have scrupulously avoided touching on politics.

"If the utterances credited to me which the Pekin dispatch says have embarrassed the government relate to the so-called American-Chinese alliance, I wish to say that I have not committeed myself in any way on that subject more than to remark that it was 'interesting," '

Liang Tun Yen, mentioned as a possible successor to Mr. Wu, heretofore actually has been named for the position of minister at Washington. This occurred when he was customs taotai of Tien Tsin and followed the retire ment of Sir Chentung Liang Cheng, Mr. Wu's predecessor. Llang Tun Yen went to Pekin for an audience with the authorities and was kept there, being appointed to the position he now holds. Mr. Wu was then again appointed minister to Washington,
