Washington, Sept. 1 .- Mr. Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister, when shown the dispatch from Pekin saying that the government was considering the question of his recall and mentioning the name of his probable successor, declared that the Pekin government had not in any way intimated to him that it was distatisfied with anything he had done, and that it had not called him to account for any thing he may have said.

He appeared rather amused and puzman ambassador at Washington, died suddenly in Heideberg. zled over the statement that the gov ernment had been embarrassed by his Mr. Taft expressed the view that attitude "as a public character in America," and his disposition was to all nations favoring the open door policy should aid China in her efforts smile in talking about it. The minis ter added:

"What few speeches I have made since my return to America have beer mainly to colleges and universities and have been educational in charac ter and in the further effort to cement the friendship between China and the United States, 1 have scrupulously avoided touching on politics.

"If the utterances credited to me which the Pekin dispatch says have embarrassed the government relate to the so-called American-Chinese alliance, I wish to say that I have not committeed myself in any way on that subject more than to remark that it was "interesting.""

Liang Tun Yen, mentioned as a possible successor to Mr. Wu, heretofore actually has been named for the post tion of minister at Washington. This occurred when he was customs taotai of Tien Tsin and followed the retirement of Sir Chentung Liang Cheng,

Mr. Wu's predecessor, Liang Tun Yen went to Pekin for an audience with the authorities and was kept there, being appointed to the position he now holds. Mr. Wu was then again his wife left for New York with her appointed minister to Washington.

Charged With Farmer's Murder.

Oneonta, N. Y., Sept. I.-Earl Hill, for whom search has been made on a charge of killing a man named Davis at Bainbridge, N. Y., was captured here today. Eldridge Davis, a farmer at West Bainbridge, was found dead in his pasture last Wednesday. There were four bullet holes in the back of his head and two in his stomach. Da vis had gone to the pasture after the cows. Ever since the shooting Sheriff Beardsley and a posse have been hunting for the alleged murderers and Daniel Underhill was taken into custody last week. Underhill made a statement implicating Hill, who had worked for Davis.

Accepts Nomination of Independence Party For President.

Candidate Declared It Was Necessary to Organize a New Party In Order to Bring About Needed Reforms. With Direct Primary Party Boss Disappears-Initiative and Referendum With Right to Recall Constitute Purest Popular Government

New York, Sept. 1 .- There was not room enough in the new clubhouse of the Independence league to hold the large crowd that gathered last night for the dual purpose of being present at the notification of Thomas L. Hisgen, Independence party candidate for president, and the housewarming of the club. It had been the intention to show the party leaders the new club quarters, but as every inch of room in the modest little building in Waverly place was occupied this was almost impossible, but the attempt was made and this delayed the notification cere-

William R. Hearst and Mr. Hisgen entered the clubhouse shortly after 9 o'clock and were greeted by an outburst of cheering. Hisgen was enthusiastically referred to as "the trust buster" and "our next president." These titles brought forth more cheer-

Warm Sulphur Springs, in Virginia. Henry A. Powell, chairman of the notification committee, presided. He said, in view of the signs of the times, the new party was destined to be historical in the future of the city, state and nation.

Mr. Powell told Mr. Hisgen that he had been seleced as the standard bearer of the new party and then there was prolonged cheering when Mr. Hisgen rose to reply, and it was several minutes before the candidat could begin. He read his address.

After stating that he regarded his nomination as a call to public service. Thomas L. Hisgen, in his speech of acceptance, went right into the main issues of the campaign and gave a vigorous outline of the principles and policies he stands for.

He declared it was necessary to organize a new party to bring about needed reforms, and so the Independpure food and drugs act, which pro ence party came into existence. The hibits the shipment from one state candidate asserted that the present division of the reform elements had permitted the control of the governcomposed, or putrid animal sub ment to slip from the hands of the people into the hands of machine politicians and party bosses, and he said that to take control out of their hands he advocated "direct nominations, the initiative, the referendum and the re-between the postal savings bank and the guaranty plan and accused Mr. Taft of favoring an unnecessary extension of the sphere of government in advocating the postal savings bank instead of the bank guaranty. Mr. Bryan declared that he preferred the guaranty bank proposition, which would allow the banks to attend to the banking business and yet compel them to give their depositors necessary security.

Upon the conclusion of his prepared speech, Mr. Bryan said:

"I asked Mr. Breidenthal, a banker of Kansas City, to make inquiry among the bankers of Kansas and ascertain what proportion of them favored the guaranty law. I learned that of the bankers that had expressed themselves on this subject, about three-fourths of them favored a guaranty law and onefourth opposed it. Among the depositors there is no opposition at all.

"I also inquired of Governor Haskell of Oklahoma in regard to the number of national banks that have surrendered their charters and become state banks in order to have the benefits of the guaranty system. I have a telegram from him saying that four national banks have already made the change and are operating under the state bank laws, and that sixteen other national banks have applied for state charters. This is conclusive proof that the Oklahoma law is a success."

Saloons Closed In Atlantic City. A blue Sunday came to Atlantic City. Many persons familiar with the history of this far-famed resort have been inclined to doubt the possibility of such a thing, but every one of the 229 saloons and hotel bars were closed They were closed allke to bona fide guests as well as to strangers. It was said that this was the fourth time in the fifty-four years of its existence that a drinkless day had been experienced in Atlantic City. A bulletin posted at police headquarters stated: "Saloons all closed. No troops in town." Another bulletin, officially signed by the chief of police, consisted of a card on which was printed:

"In 1861 it was 'hold the fort'; to day it is Fort holds you." Governor Fort's proclamation of last week containing his threat to send troops to the seashore in the event of a further violation of the Sunday closing law had its effect.

Paying For Springfield Riots. Springfield officials will try to shift upon the state of Illinois liability for the damage incurred in the recent riot. The state's responsibility will be as serted upon the ground that when troops were called for they were sen to the scene of the rioting without am munition and were restrained, under orders, from charging the mob with their bayonets.

As all the depredations were com mitted after the state militia had tak en charge of the situation, it is contended that the municipality was not responsible.

State's Attorney Hatch expects an other batch of indictments against the rioters. The inquisitorial body was busy with the case of Frank Bryant, allas Sullivan, who confessed to the killing of Thomas Bray.
