Calendar for September 1908 showing days of the week and dates.

Mr. Taft has struck another keynote: "Are the Bryan promises of 1908 worth any more than those of 1896 and 1900?"

EVERY Republican in this country should see that his taxes are paid promptly. Every voter will find the privilege of casting his ballot for Taft and the whole ticket in November.

In a speech at Toledo last Wednesday night Senator Foraker said: "There never has been, so far as I know, the slightest ill feeling of any kind between Judge Taft and myself. And if there had been you could not lose me in that way. If there is anything I have a right to claim beyond another, it is that I am a Republican 85 days in the year."

THE proposition to build a magnificent road from Washington to Gettysburg as a memorial to Abraham Lincoln is the theme of an attractive article by the Hon. James T. McCleary in the September Review of Reviews. Mr. McCleary has served as a special representative of the Lincoln Memorial Commission appointed by Congress, and after spending some time in Europe in search of ideas, came to the conclusion that a beautiful and permanent roadway would be a more fitting memorial than any form of shaft, building, arch, or bridge. The arguments that he advances to sustain this view are both interesting and instructive.

CLEVELAND'S commendation of Taft, published in the Sunday papers, is a strong endorsement of the Republican nominee. It was written by the ex-President shortly before his death and is a paper of peculiar significance. It is like a voice from the grave, and would suggest that the opposition of the ex-president to Mr. Bryan continued even after death. The article is written in the well known heavy style of the deceased and will carry additional weight, as the writer undoubtedly realized that the death-damp was settling on his brow at the time of his writing.—Oil City Bizard.

COMPLETE returns from the state election in Vermont last week on the vote for governor show the following results: Geo. H. Prouty, Republican, 45,201; James E. Burke, Democrat, 15,003; Quimby S. Backus, Independence League, 1,232; Eugene M. Campbell, Prohibition, 828; I. H. Dunbar, Socialist, 479. The total vote of all parties was 66,741, and Prouty's plurality over Burke was 29,576. A Republican plurality of 20,000 would have been ample to show the drift of sentiment as touching the outcome in the Presidential race, but to make it nearly 10,000 more than that shows how overwhelmingly the people will reject the theories and vagaries of that man Bryan at the November election. Straws indicate the course of the wind unerringly.

THE Republicans opened their national campaign in a monster meeting at Youngstown, Ohio, Saturday, at which over 12,000 laboring men were in line of march. The principal speakers were Governor Hughes of New York, Governor Harris of Ohio, and Senator Beveridge of Indiana. It was one of the greatest gatherings of Republican hosts since the memorable meeting at Warren, Ohio, in 1880, in the Garfield campaign, when Grant, Conkling and other great campaigners started the ball rolling, and as showing where the labor vote stands in this campaign the wonderful gathering is most significant. The great success of the meeting is conceded on all sides, and shows that the party will wage an aggressive campaign from this time forward. Get into the Taft landwagon.

A CERTIFIED copy of the ballot to be used at the November election has been sent to each of the sixty-seven counties of the State by Secretary of the Commonwealth McAfee, but it is accompanied by a letter making the unusual statement that there might be other certifications and that it would be wise for commissioners to wait until shortly before the election to award contracts for printing. This unusual action was taken because of the requirements of law. The State statutes provide that certified lists of nominations shall be forwarded to the counties at this time. In his letter the Secretary says: "I beg leave to call your attention to the fact that nominations can still be made by nomination papers, which may be filed in this Department up to and including Tuesday, September 29, and these additional nominations must be certified to you at least fourteen days before the election. We have reason to believe that there will be filed in this office additional electoral tickets and there can be filed independent nominations for other offices, and the ballot as finally made up may be much greater in size than it is at present. It will, therefore, be inadvisable for you to make contracts until fourteen days before election. Because of this singular state of affairs it is probable that some effort to amend the election law may be made this coming session of the Legislature."

Minutes of W. C. U. Convention.

The twenty-second annual convention of the W. C. T. U. held its first session in the M. E. church, Kelleysville, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 1st, 1908. Mrs. Derickson led devotional exercises during which several earnest prayers were made for the success of the convention and the temperance cause. Miss Edna Wallace Neill of Bradford sang "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown." Mrs. Kribbs, the president, then took the chair and declared the convention opened and ready for business in this noble cause. Roll call resulted in response from thirty members. Minutes of the executive were read and approved. Mrs. Montgomery of Kelleysville Union very cordially invited us to the town, the church and to the homes of Kelleysville. Mrs. Meching of Clarington responded to the address of welcome in well chosen words. Mrs. Kribbs of Marietta, in her annual address, reviewed the work of temperance in the United States and very hopefully bids us to have courage, as the cause is rapidly advancing. The corresponding secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and accepted. The following committees were appointed: Time and place, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Small, Mrs. Henderson; Courtesies, Mrs. Savilla Shippe; Resolutions, Mrs. Nettie Adams, Mrs. Anna Watson, Mrs. Harriet Cook, Mrs. Euphemia Meching. After singing by the choir, convention adjourned.

At 7:30 music by the Kelleysville Band. Anthem by the choir. Miss Genevieve Douth rendered three very interesting recitations entitled "Hot Day at Home," "Dear Old Yale," and "Keeping a Seat at the Benefit." Miss Neill gave a solo. Rev. Bailey of Tionesta, in his enthusiastic manner, gave us a stirring address on temperance. The collection which followed showed the appreciation of the audience for the evening's entertainment. Exercises closed by singing "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow," and benediction pronounced by Rev. Bailey. The executive body met at 8:45 in the Sunday school room. Prayer by corresponding secretary. The nominations for superintendents next in order: For Press, Mrs. Martha Derickson; Parlor and Kitchen, Mrs. Belle Hunt; Lumberman and Foreigners, Mrs. Anna Watson; Young Woman's Branch, Mrs. Sue Warden; Sunday School, Mrs. Henderson; Suffrage, Mrs. Marian Kendall; Literature, Mrs. Savilla Shippe; Scientific Temperance Instruction, Mrs. Nettie Adams; Legislation, Mrs. Euphemia Meching; Evangelistic, Mrs. Hagerty; Flower Mission, Mrs. Arley Lynch; Mercy, Mrs. Nelson Cole; Purity, Mrs. Jack Siggins; Prison and County Home, Mrs. Carson Medical Temperance, Mrs. Dotterer; Juvenile Societies, Margaret Beck; Anti-Narcotics, Ida Small; Railroad, Mrs. Ellen B. Catlin; Soldiers and Sailors, Mrs. Harriet Cook; School Savings Bank, Mrs. Hopkins; Underfermented Wine, Nancy Dale; Mothers' Meeting, Mrs. N. P. Wheeler; Assistant, Mrs. Sue May Sharp; Sabbath Observance, Mrs. Agnew Health and Heredity, Mrs. Cora Jones; Medal Contest, Mrs. Sarah A. Gorman.

Convention called to order and devotionals led by Mrs. Cora Jones of Kelleysville. Singing by the choir. She read for our instruction 1st Peter, 1st chapter. Scripture reading by leader and members. Sentences prayers by different members. Superintendents were read and accepted. Minutes of the executive meeting read and approved. Election of officers resulted in the election of Mrs. Sue May Sharp for President and Mrs. Euphemia Meching for Vice President. Nominations for prayer worded by Mrs. A. B. Kelly of Tionesta. Adjourned.

At 1:45 executive meeting was called. A motion was made and carried, after remarks, that a new department be taken up, called National Reform. Motion made and carried that each Union pay three dollars to be used for defraying delegates' expenses to state convention. Two delegates to be elected, besides the president and Y's. The Y's pay their own expenses. The president-elect requests each Union to send the names of riflofters. Mrs. Cook of Nebraska led devotional exercises. Reading of the 103rd Psalm was our scripture lesson. Order of business was again taken up. Mrs. Cora E. Seberry of New Jersey was introduced and made an honorary member of the Union. The election of officers was again taken up: Recording Secretary, Mrs. Ellen B. Catlin. Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Myra Huling; Treasurer, Mrs. Augusta Kelly; Delegates to Convention, Mrs. Ida Small, Mrs. Myra Huling, Y. Delegate, Miss Ellen Bowman. Alternates, Mrs. Savilla Shippe, Mrs. Euphemia Meching; Y's, Miss Viola Grubbs. Mrs. Shippe conducted memorial service. Mrs. Murphy of Marietta read the memorial. Mrs. Seberry recited a beautiful poem entitled "Some Time." Closed the service by singing "O Sweet to Trust in Jesus." The remaining reports of superintendents were read and approved. Miss Genevieve Douth favored the convention with a recitation. Mothers in Council was conducted by Mrs. Sharpe. It consisted of a paper by Mrs. Sharpe to the mothers; Mrs. Adams wrote of the temperance training in the home; Mrs. Cook wrote about the bond of sympathy; Mrs. Derickson's paper was to mothers in the public school; Mrs. Kelly told us why the girls should sing the pledge; she said to be a co-worker with Jesus Christ; Mrs. Huling talked on the evils of cigarette and tobacco using; Mrs. Wheeler sent an account of Mothers' Congress held in Washington, which was very interesting; Mrs. Seberry talked on the duties of fathers. Miss Neill sang one of her sweet solos. For closing Mrs. Anna Watson gave a review of the lumbering industry from the time the first saw mills on Tionesta creek until the present time, which was listened to with much interest. Report from Committee on Time and Place reported Tionesta the place for holding the next annual convention. Minutes read and approved. Prayer by Mrs. Cook and after singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," adjourned.

Wednesday evening the last session of the convention was opened by music by the Kelleysville Band, followed by an anthem by the choir. Miss Neill then rendered a solo in her usual beautiful manner, after which Mrs. Cora E. Seberry of Bradford, the speaker of the evening, was introduced and delivered a very interesting address on the subject "What is Man?" Mrs. Seberry received hearty applause. By special request Miss Neill then repeated "The Snowflakes," which she had sung the evening before. The audience was dismissed by the Mizpah benediction repeated in concert.

ELLEN B. CATLIN, Secretary.

Resolved, That while we appreciate the work done for temperance in our county during the past year, we deplore the fact that the rum power still exists, and we declare continued warfare against this foe. Resolved, That we as an organization give more attention to the teaching of temperance to the children—scientific temperance instruction in the school, the teaching of temperance in the Sabbath school, the observance of the Lord's Day, giving special attention to the Loyal Temperance Legion, realizing that the success of our work and the welfare of our country depends upon the training of the boys and girls of today. Resolved, That we express our heartfelt thanks to the people of Kelleysville for their courteous treatment during our sojourn in their beautiful town, to the trustees and official board of the local M. E. church for the use of their church, and to the members of the Kelleysville Concert Band who so ably assisted in the musical program. Resolved, That the thanks of the convention are due to Rev. H. A. Bailey, of Tionesta, for his strong temperance address, to Miss Edna Neill, of Bradford, for her beautiful solos, to Miss Genevieve Douth for her delightful readings, and to any one who added to the success of the convention. Mrs. ANNA WATSON, Mrs. HARRIET COOK, Mrs. EUPHEMIA MECHLING, Mrs. NETTIE ADAMS, Committee.

Resolved, That while we appreciate the work done for temperance in our county during the past year, we deplore the fact that the rum power still exists, and we declare continued warfare against this foe. Resolved, That we as an organization give more attention to the teaching of temperance to the children—scientific temperance instruction in the school, the teaching of temperance in the Sabbath school, the observance of the Lord's Day, giving special attention to the Loyal Temperance Legion, realizing that the success of our work and the welfare of our country depends upon the training of the boys and girls of today. Resolved, That we express our heartfelt thanks to the people of Kelleysville for their courteous treatment during our sojourn in their beautiful town, to the trustees and official board of the local M. E. church for the use of their church, and to the members of the Kelleysville Concert Band who so ably assisted in the musical program. Resolved, That the thanks of the convention are due to Rev. H. A. Bailey, of Tionesta, for his strong temperance address, to Miss Edna Neill, of Bradford, for her beautiful solos, to Miss Genevieve Douth for her delightful readings, and to any one who added to the success of the convention. Mrs. ANNA WATSON, Mrs. HARRIET COOK, Mrs. EUPHEMIA MECHLING, Mrs. NETTIE ADAMS, Committee.
