LABOR WORLD FOR TAFT.

[From the Concord (N. H.) Monitor.] The Labor World comes out strongly in its advocacy of Mr. Taft. It characterizes him a true friend of labor and declares that the unfair attacks of Mr. Gompers will have little or no effect in alienating from him the labor world. It says: "That Secretary Taft is a true aid in a strike is right. friend of labor is certain, and all the, untrue, ungenerous, vicious attacks that President Gompers or any one else may make on him cannot prevent him from continuing to be the friend of the wage worker. Organized labor cannot afford to have itself split up into factions on this political issue. That President Gompers is wrong in forcing that most ominous fight is certain, and in | ized labor a more unqualified indorsetelligent wage workers will certainly ment than Judge Taft gave when on came to this conclusion."

The New Suits.

Wish you knew what great pains we take to secure right merchandise for this Cloak and Suit Department. How day after day suit house after suit house is visited in quest of the very best to present to our patrons. From some houses showing several hundred suits not one selected -a memorandum made of one or two suits that attracted our attention in one place-in another possibly a dozen-in another twice that. Then when we've "gone the rounds" to return to the houses where the several memorandums were made, and the suits gone over carefully again. And all these suits, mind you, tried on a perfect model-and the materials, workmanship and every little detail of perfect suit construction most carefully scrutinized. Then the suits must open up in our Suit Department just as perfect as the model shown in the New York sample room. If it isn't, it goes back immediately by express.

From a shipment of 42 suits sent us recently we returned seven for a cau e so slight as to be hardly noticeable. Our work room racks already contain many suits awaiting fittings. Better give this suit matter your early attention. The selection is large.
