 recently sustained a paralytic stroke.

 large.
 —A correspondent calls our attention to a misprint which occurred in the REPUB-LICAN last week relative to the open season for killing bear, which begins October 1st instead of 15th, as we had it. Yes, Sir, it is October 1st; so fly into 'em boys.

 —We are indebted to Walter S. Brown of Punxsutawney for a photograph of himself and "that big fish" he booked while on a recent visit to Tionesta. It was a fine specimen of the 'longe family, and in future years some doubting Thomas might dispute the story. Mr. B. had the beauty preserved by the photographer's art.
 —The chestnut crop which gave promise of a big yield some weeks ago, will scarcely be worthy of mention now. The continuous dry weather has blighted the buds as well as the hopes of the small boy with good climbing proclivities, and what few nuts come to maturity are found to be small and few in a burr. 'Tis too bad, for everybody likes a nice big brown chestnut.
 —We have several places where young working before and after school hours.

 These places are very desirable and offer the opportunity of a life time to those and cost of living. Will be glad to have interested parties communicate with us —Superintendent of Public Instruction Schaeffer has issued the annual proclamation for autumn Arbor Day. In announcing it he says: "To perpetuate the laudable custom of celebrating Arbor Day when all the schools are in session, Friday, Oct. 23, 1908, is hereby designated as autumn Arbor Day; and all connected with the schools are urged to observe the day by the planting of trees and by other suitable exercises."

 —Quarter session court convenes next Monday, and will be the first that has been held in this county for almost a year. Besides a number of important civil suits to be tried there are several criminal cases to dispose of, among the number being a case of attempted xurocide, two of larceny, and some of lesser grades of crime, and it is likely the court's attention will be occupied the greater portion of the week.
 —Foster's latest weather forecast says immediately following September 19 a storm wave will be entering the Ohio valley, with a great cold wave following it, carrying frost far southward. That will be the coldest part of September.
 Corn, northern spring wheat and flax that are not mature at that time will be damaged. Some heavy rains will fall long after September 19. But here it is Sept. 23d, hot and dry as ever.
 —The continued dry weather has recalled some weather notes kept by Isaac Gerhart, Telford's oldest resident. He says that in 1881 there was not one shower, heavy enough to be of any benefit, between June 17 and Dec. 22. On Sept. 6 of the same year the thermometer stood at 110 degrees in the shade at 2 p. m., July 30 of the same year was also a very hot day, when it was 100 1/2 degrees. Hay proved a banner crop, but the late crops were a complete failure.—Jamestown Post.
 —To make "Philadelphia Scapple" boil three or four pounds of fresh pork (quite fat) until very tender; then take out the meat, and season the water in which it was boiled, and thicken it with yellow corn meal, as thick as for basty pudding, and let it cook a long time, to thoroughly cook the meat. Chop the meat tolerably fine, season well, and add it to the mush.
 When it is cooked, put it into square bread tins to cool; when cold, cut in slices and fry in a spider until brown. It should not require any fat for frying.— October Woman's Home Companion.
 —The autumnal equinox has passed and yet there is no change in the weather.
 It was hoped "when the sun crossed the line" the occasion would bring rain, as it almost invariably does, but all signs fail, they say, in dry weather, and the present state has proved no exception to the rule. But, cheer up! The smoke clouds are bound to roll by and disperse, and before we know it we'll be complaining about the wet and sloppy weather. A few drops of rain did fall Monday evening between 5 and 6 o'clock and the spectacle was a grand one, though witnessed only by those who happened to be out at that moment. Cheer up!
 —The Porkey Oil, Gas and Mineral company drilled in their No. 5 well in Forest county Thursday and it is estimated to produce 7,000,000 feet a day.
 The supply from the wells will be sold to the Jefferson County Gas company at six cents the thousand. A party consisting of Fred Morck, George Geracimos, Hawley Wheeler, Harper Critchlow, Albert Weigand, Ivan Jury and Dan Offerle went over to see the well drilled in.
 Mr. Geracimos served chicken and a lamb in Greek style and the feast was much enjoyed by the gas magnates.— Warren Mirror. This well is the company's No. 4, and is located about two miles north of Mayburg.
 —The October number of The Ladies' World is without question the best issue of that popular monthly that we have yet seen. It is about equally divided between fiction and practical departments, with some excellent special articles thrown in, notably that on The Holy Land of To-day, by Allan Sutherland;
 The Boy and His Parents, by Priscilla Wakefield, and What Women Can Do for Earn Money, by Laura A. Smith. The Fashions and Dressmaking department is notably good in this number, and those looking for pretty designs to make up the Autumn wardrobe cannot do better than consult this. Taken all in all, this is a good specimen of a good magazine.

...Constable Mohney and a corps of men have had a busy time of it this week fighting forest fires. Persons should be very careful in starting any kind of a fire now as sparks carry so easy and where-ever they alight a fire is the result. The constable has had quite a time to get water. Wells are dry in town that were never known before to have a shortage.— Marienville Express.
 —Morrow, Carson & Co.'s No. 2 well on Dale Island, below the mouth of Little Hickory creek, was finished and shot yesterday. It is reported to be showing up better than the first well. The well being drilled on the Kelly lands, near Mayburg, was finished the first of the week and was dry. A well for T. D.
 Collins in the same field was finished at the same time and was also dry.
 —Wm. Gulton, Jr., who is awaiting trial on the charge of selling a hired livery rig, was given a hearing last Wednesday before Squire C. A. Randall, charged with the larceny of a gun from Jesse Overlander. He was held in $200 bail. Gulton then brought a counter-charge of felonious assault against Overlander and at a hearing before Squire Randall on Thursday, Overlander was held in $200 bail.
 —Rev. and Mrs. O. H. Nickle, formerly of Tionesta, were tendered a farewell reception one evening last week at their home at Glader, a suburb of Warren, where the reverend gentleman has been stationed the past year. The Evening Times says of the affair: About 75 were present to enjoy the occasion. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Nickle was the recipient of a valuable present from the ladies of the church. Rev. Nickle responded in his pleasing manner, thanking the people for the many courtesies extended him, hoping they would always emulate the highest criterion of a Christian life. Rev. Nickle in his year's work has discharged the church debt, and has won the highest esteem and co-operation of the people in Glade.
 —A London newspaper has got them all agoing on the following new "how old is Ann" problem: In the United States the Mexican dollar has exchange value of ninety cents. In Mexico the American dollar has the same value. On the frontier of the United States, where Texas joins Mexico, there are two saloons, one on each side of the frontier. A man buys a ten cent drink of whiskey at the American saloon and pays for it with an American dollar, receiving a Mexican dollar as change. With this he crosses the border, goes into the Mexican saloon, hands over the Mexican dollar for a ten cent drink and receives an American dollar as change. He finally wakes up with a bad headache and the American dollar with which he started. Who paid for the whiskey?
 —Selden McCray, who is one of the successful farmers at Hunter station, three miles below Tionesta, where the fields are fertile and the crops make new records every year, was in town Friday with a big pumpkin, and when we say "big" we mean it. This particular specimen tipped the beam at ninety-six pounds and was the smallest in the lot of several that "Seld" raised this season, and the reason he brought up the smallest is because he couldn't handle the big ones.
 He is sending the nicest one to the Stone-borough fair this week, and it weighs just one hundred and fifty pounds. This sounds like big pumpkins, and they are, too, and if anybody doubts it Selden will be on hand with the goods. This variety is known as the "hundred weight" pumpkin. They are said to make splendid pies, and it is safe to say one of them would make pies enough to feed a Congressional district two years.
 —The annual dinner at the County Home, given by the Tionesta W. C. T. U., was ably assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Wenk, managers of the home, was a pleasant event of last Wednesday. Fifty-three persons sat down to a bountiful and very appetizing dinner which was served in the large dining room, prettily decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Wenk. A sacred service, conducted by Rev. W. O. Calhoun of Tionesta, was a helpful feature of the program. Among the guests present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs.
 Freese and the latter's mother, Mrs.
 Jaer of Buffalo, N. Y., Mr. Baer of California, Mrs. Jennie Partridge of Pittsburgh, Pa., Mrs. Ralph Haines of Marion, Ind., Mrs. J. C. Bowman of Titusville, Pa., and Mrs. J. C. Martin of Lancaster, Pa. The day was a very enjoyable one, not only to the inmates of the home, but to all who participated in making it a success. PRESS SUPP.
 —Notwithstanding the unprecedented drought which has prevailed for the past month or more, the low water mark has not yet been reached in the river here.
 On Sept. 6, 1894, J. D. W. Reck made a low water mark on the middle pier of the river bridge, with a chisel cutting a scale of feet, the date and his initials on the stones of the pier. Mr. Reck has been keeping close tab on the stage of the water now and in company with J. W.
 Landers made an examination of the old mark on Tuesday and found that it yet lacked one inch of being as low as in 1894. At that time the bottom was dry between the pier and the shore next to the railroad. As the river seems to be about as low now as it could possibly be without going dry, we feel sure that Mr.
 Reck has established the lowest "low water mark" on the Allegheny river, as all others have been passed some time ago. His mark is in the eddy on an immovable object and not on a riffle.
 —In the ball game here Saturday afternoon between Tionesta and Fryburg, the score stood 4 to 1 at the end of the ninth inning and both sides agreed to call it a draw on account of darkness, it being impossible to see the ball. The game developed into a hot contest, especially after Lilly, the Oil City pitcher, went into the box in the second inning. He held the home boys to three hits. Foreman also pitched a fine game and Fryburg could not score until the eighth. Three of their runs in that inning came in on a hit that was fouled by fully fifteen feet but which the umpire allowed to go as a home run.
 The line-ups were, Tionesta—Foreman, P. Gray, C. Hagerty, I. Haslet, 2d, Weaver, 3d, Bankhead, s., Lawrence, r., Stroup, m., and Mulholland, l.; Fryburg—

 Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McCalmont, at Presi-—Mrs. Claude Himebaugh and three children, of Austin, Pa., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas —A marriage license was issued here last Wednesday to Marlen Maze, of Red-key, Pa., and Miss Nora Stover, of Clarion, this county.

 —Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Zahniser and daughter Martha, of Fleming, Pa., spent Monday and Tuesday here with the former's father, H. M. Zahniser.
 —Sam. Haslet, Joseph Weaver and Clifford Foreman left last evening to assist the Tyersburg ball team in playing two games at the Clarion fair.
 —Mrs. R. N. Randall and son of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. J. M. Vanderlin of Butler county, have been guests the past week at the home of their father, H. M. Zahn-—Among those from Endeavor who left last week for school duties were:

 Miss Mary McKean to the university at Wooster, Ohio; Miss Ethel Scherer to Smith College, Northampton, Mass.; Roy and Rex Wheeler to Yale.
 —Frank McNeal and C. H. Helm, of Kane, spent a couple of days here last week trying the river fishing. They took a nice mess home with them, but we are sure the catch in no way demonstrates their expertness in the line of angling, as Mr. Helm did not come fully prepared for the fray, while McNeal's "bait" casting rod took a bumpy streak.
 —Mr. and Mrs. John K. Whitton and daughter Mabel, of Dothan, Alabama, who had been spending the week at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Whitton, near Newmansville, Pa., were in town Saturday preparatory to their return to their southern home. Mr. Whitton is engaged in the manufacture of lumber at Dothan and reports business as being quite good in that section.
 —U. J. Matson and W. R. Hasselback, of the DuBois & Butler Brick Co., of Falls Creek, Pa., were visitors in Tionesta Saturday. The brick used in the handsome paving job just completed in this place is from this firm's works, and these principal representatives of the concern came over to see how the work had progressed. We guess they went away quite satisfied that there was no kick on the material which they furnished.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Richards.
 The Angel of Death entered the home of Rev. William Richards, at Mayburg, Pa., on Tuesday night, September 15, 1908, and relieved the suffering of the beloved mother of the household, after an illness of more than a year from a complication of diseases. Rosa Gayetty Richards was born in 1841, and was therefore aged 67 years. After her marriage to Wm. Richards the family resided for a number of years in Tionesta, moving from here to Mayburg, which has been their home for many years. The deceased had been a devout Christian woman nearly all of her lifetime, the greater portion of which was spent in the service of the Master's cause, being a great help and inspiration to her husband in his Christian labors. Of a kindly, amiable disposition she drew around her a host of friends to whom her demise has come as a great shock and grief, for she was beloved by all who knew her. To the family, especially the stricken husband, the sympathy of the community goes out in this the darkest hour of his life.
 Mrs. Richards is survived by her husband and the following children: A. W.
 Richards, of Warren, Pa.; Mrs. Belle Christy, of New Mexico; Mrs. Louise Card, of Brookville, Pa.; Joseph G., Charles and Francis, of Mayburg, and one daughter, Ethel, at home. Also by four brothers, J. M. Gayetty and P. J.
 Gayetty, of Oil City; W. M. Gayetty, of Colorado; G. M. Gayetty, of Sistersville, W. Va., and one sister, Mrs. Geo. Nicholson, of Oil City.
 Funeral services were held on Thursday evening at Mayburg, Rev. Mr. Miller, of the Free Methodist church, officiating. On Friday the remains were taken to Warren, and the interment was made in Oakland cemetery, from the home of her son, A. W. Richards.
The Worst Drought In Years.
 The present drought is by far the worst known to the oldest inhabitant, and is daily becoming more serious throughout all sections of the country. Locally there has not been as much suffering as in other parts adjacent to this particular community. Added to this condition is the fact that many destructive fires have been raging in all sections of the country, and for nearly three weeks the dense smoke has hung like a pall over the land until at times the entire firmament has been obscured. The almost entire absence of wind has been favorable in the saving of property from fires during this period, but the ground is so parched that the earth itself will almost burn. In many places there has been no rain for two months past, and rivers are lower than they have ever been known before, while smaller streams are entirely dried up.
 In this connection the Associated Press on Saturday sent out the following from Pittsburgh:
 "With forest fires destroying much valuable property, the enforced suspension of many industries, crops ruined, live stock suffering, river navigation at a standstill and numerous small streams absolutely dry, a drought, which has practically been unbroken for over two months, is fast assuming serious proportions in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia." The extreme caution should be exercised in such a case as this. Water should be used very sparingly on all hands, as there is yet no sign of an abatement of the dry spell. While Tionesta has had a good supply of water for domestic use so far there should nevertheless be no waste whatever as it may yet become very precious. In Titusville the mayor has advised a cessation of street sprinkling on account of the water famine which threatens the city, and other towns are taking similar measures to husband their water supply. If sprinkling is done in this borough it should be most sparingly.
 Better endure the dust nuisance for a season than run the risk of having no water in case of a fire.
Is Held For Trial.
 John Sassenrock, a native of Poland, employed as a laborer by the P. R. R. at Dawson, this county, was robbed on Sunday last week of his savings, amounting to $307. On Wednesday one of his fellow countrymen and co-laborers quit work and went to Oil City. He was suspected of knowing where the other man's money went to and was arrested when he arrived there. When searched at police headquarters $435.45 were found in his possession. The man's name is Simon Parckaki, and his arrest was made by Captain Shanefelter and Patrolman Brophy, who searched the man and found that wrapped around his ankles, was a sum of money identical in amount with that lost by Sassenrock. The suspected man was brought to Tionesta Thursday morning and given a hearing before Justice D. W.
 Clark, who bound him over to court in the sum of $500 bail. Being unable to secure bail the man was lodged in jail and will have his trial next week.
 Sassenrock conducts a boarding house for foreigners near Dawson station, and on the day on which he missed the money had been asleep for several hours. When he awoke he discovered his money was gone.
Shoes to Last a Lifetime.
 Say, Mr. Shoemaker, would you rather have your customers speak of your shoes as wearing well, as not running down at the heel, as turning water, and taking a shine; or wag their heads and say nothing?
 We'd rather have ours, at long intervals, say: "We want some more, and we want Devoe." We know it isn't in human nature to paint very often; we don't expect them to come very often; don't want 'em to. All we want is to paint what they have to paint, whenever they paint it; the longer the time, the surer they are to come back. There's business enough in the world; there are houses enough to paint; let 'em take their time.
 If we were a shoemaker, we'd make shoes to last half a lifetime, and shoe the whole town.
