SEPTEMBER

Calendar for September 1908 with days of the week and dates 1-30.

Voters, Take Notice.

To the Republican Voters of Forest County: On or about August 10th I mailed to each and every Republican Committee-man in the County a small booklet, entitled, "Forest County Republican Campaign, 1908," in which I called attention to the matter of non-payment of taxes. In case this matter has not been attended to, I appeal to you again, and also to every Republican voter to see your Tax Collector, and if you have not paid a County or State tax since the 31 day of November, 1906, you must do so on or before the 31 day of October, 1908. Do not neglect this, but attend to the matter at once. I am, Truly Yours, H. S. BROCKWAY, Chairman County Committee, Sept. 23, 1908.

Gov. HASKELL is Mr. Bryan's national treasurer, but not necessarily slated now to be secretary of the treasury in the Bryan cabinet. Meanwhile, the farmers are still holding back with their $100 bills.

The treasurer and one of the chief council of the national Democratic campaign, the one whom Mr. Bryan selected as chairman of his resolutions committee at Denver, is down and out. His name is Haskell, and he resigned because Hearst published letters reflecting upon him as too intimately associated with Standard Oil interests in Oklahoma. He didn't want to embarrass his chief, Mr. Bryan, who is making a great bluff at opposition to such concerns as the Standard. Oh, pshaw! What reformers!

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT speaks a timely word when he says that an election which gave a Republican President but lost the House of Representatives would be of no value. Taft must have a Congress in sympathy with Republican views and policies or the election may almost as well be lost. There should be no hesitation this year; let every Republican help to get out the vote and vote the Republican ticket in full and the country will be spared the troublous times which any form of Democratic party success always brings.

President Roosevelt Flays Bryan.

In his reply to Bryan, who called upon him for proof that Haskell, treasurer of the National Democratic committee, was intimately associated with Standard Oil interests, the President writes a most scathing letter to the candidate of great paramount issues. It is doubtful whether a more withering rebuke was ever administered to a candidate seeking the highest office in the land than the President's epistle to Mr. Bryan. In closing Mr. Roosevelt gives him this stinging reply.

"I put Mr. Taft's deeds against your words. I ask that Mr. Taft be judged by all his deeds, for he wishes none of them forgotten. I ask that you be judged both by the words you wish remembered, and by the words that seemingly you and your party now desire to have forgotten. I ask that your present plan for regulating the trusts be judged in connection with your past utterances, that you did not believe in their regulation, but in their destruction. And again in connection with your past utterances, to the effect that only government ownership by a complicated national and state system of railroads would avail. And again by your past utterances when you proposed to remedy all the sufferings of our people by a depreciated currency.

"I hold it entirely natural for any great law-defying corporation to wish to see you placed in the presidency rather than Taft. Your plans to put a stop to the abuses of these corporations are wholly chimerical. How chimerical your last plan is you will yourself see if you read Governor Hughes' speech at Youngstown, Ohio. "Let me repeat that no law-defying corporation has anything to fear from you save what it will suffer in the general paralysis of business which any attempt on your part to reduce to practice what you have advocated would bring. This paralysis would affect the wage worker, the farmer, the small business man, more than it would affect the great business man. But it would affect the latter, too. Therefore I hope and believe that all far-sighted citizens who wish to see this country prosper in material things will support Mr. Taft. But above all I ask for support for him because he stands for the moral uplift of the nation, because his deeds have made good his words, and because the policies to which he is committed are of immeasurable consequence alike to the honor and the interest of the whole American people."

Congressman N. P. Wheeler.

Mr. Wheeler, our able member of the National House of Representatives, and who was unanimously re-nominated by the Republicans of the 28th district last spring, presided at a monster Republican meeting at Library Hall, Warren, last Wednesday evening, which proved to be a most auspicious opening of the campaign in Warren county. The meeting, which filled the large hall to overflowing, was addressed by Hon. John Ditzell, a colleague of Mr. Wheeler in Congress, and one of the ablest of them all, and by Pennsylvania's silver-tongued orator, Lieutenant Governor Robert S. Murphy. The appearance of Mr. Wheeler on the rostrum was the signal for prolonged applause, attesting the love and respect which the people in all parts of the district have for him, and the popularity and enthusiasm which his re-nomination has aroused. Mr. Wheeler's record during his short period in Congress is one in which his neighbors and constituents take great pride. No new member ever exerted a greater influence for good than he has done since he took his seat, and no congressman has been able in his first term—or even after several terms—to get more for his people, his pension record being perhaps the leading one in the last session. His vote and influence on all legislation were always on the right side, and our matchless President, in his efforts for the great reforms which he has inaugurated, has had no warmer or more enthusiastic supporter than Congressman Wheeler.

From every portion of the district assurances of hearty support in the present campaign come to Mr. Wheeler, and these are not always confined to his own party, either. Everybody likes an honest, incorruptible official, and that's why his re-election is doubly assured.

A. Ross Mechling.

Mr. Mechling is the Republican nominee for Assembly in Forest county. Fourteen years ago he located in Clarion where he associated himself with the firm of Mechling, London & Braden in the mercantile business, which he has successfully continued to the present time, having by honest, square dealing made a host of fast friends who are very much interested in his success at the approaching election. With all due respect to those who have in the past occupied the same position politically as he does at the present time, we believe it can truthfully be said that never has the Republican party of Forest county—or any other party for that matter—presented a better equipped candidate for the office of Assembly than is A. R. Mechling. He has all the qualities that fit a man as a Representative of his people in a legislative capacity. Splendid business and educational qualifications, energy and activity, absolute honesty and integrity, pleasing manners and a knack of making and retaining friends, a thorough knowledge of the needs of the people whom he seeks to serve, and withal a character for moral uprightness that is above reproach. With such a man in the House of Representatives Forest county will have a high standing in the councils of the law-making body of the State, the equal of any. These are elements which count in a legislative career, and are such as the voters of this county will approve on the third day of next November by giving Mr. Mechling a large majority. That his vote, influence and energy will be directed toward the very best interests of the county goes without saying, and when his services have been rendered we question whether there will be one to find a flaw in his career.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. E. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75. Hall's Family Pills are the best. —Rees Laxative Cough Syrup always brings quick relief to coughs, colds, hoarseness, whooping cough and all bronchial and throat trouble. Mothers especially recommend it for children. Pleasant to take, gently laxative. Sold by J. R. Morgan.

RECENT DEATHS.

GREENSLADE. Eliza Greenslade was born in Bristol, England, in April 4, 1848, and emigrated to New York in the early twenties. From there she moved to Vineland, N. J., and came to Bear Creek, Forest county, Pa., with the Bonds, about 1874 or 1875. She became a member of the family of Mrs. H. H. May early in 1876, and remained with them a greater part of the time until her death, which occurred at the home of Mr. A. B. Kelly, Sunday noon, Sept. 27th, 1908, at half past twelve o'clock. She is survived by one brother, Mr. John Greenslade of London, England, and two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Lett of Hull, Canada, and Mrs. Ira Murphy, of Geneva, Indiana. She was truly a womanly woman, whose life was complete, as her thoughts were always for others and little for self. During the long years of Mrs. May's invalidism her constant devotion and attention to her was such as only deep seated love could render, and the love of Mrs. May's children and grandchildren, many of whom she saw grow from childhood to man and womanhood, was such as is rendered only to one's own. All her life she was a professing Christian and tried to live as one of the elect, and after the manner of Christ, and she found comfort and life in them. In partaking of her last sup of water she uttered these words, her last: "Taste and see, for the Lord is good." Funeral services were held at the home of Mr. A. B. Kelly yesterday afternoon at three o'clock and were conducted by Rev. E. L. Monroe, pastor of the Free Methodist church, who was assisted by Rev. H. A. Bailey, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Interment in Riverside Cemetery. BREAKLEY. Hon. William J. Breakley, a life-long resident of Franklin county, one of the most prominent, progressive and highly esteemed citizens, passed away at his home on Sunday morning last, after a brief illness from apoplexy, aged 59 years. Mr. Breakley was a public spirited man, giving much of his valuable time to the building up and improvement of his city, of which he was twice elected mayor and which he had served five terms as a member of the city council, besides serving for ten years on the school board. May 17, 1876, he was united in marriage with Mary S., daughter of John and Anna (May) Lamb, who survives him, and who is well and most favorably known to many of Tionesta's people. Five sons and three daughters also survive, namely: Anna M., wife of George R. Woodburn; Orrin L., Frederick J., Margaret M., Evelyn E., William Jay, Donald and Kenneth, all of Franklin except Frederick, who is engaged in mining operations near Phoenix, Ariz. The funeral services were held at his late home yesterday afternoon at four o'clock.

Porkey.

Forest fires are still raging. James Welsh and wife are at Tionesta this week attending court. Mrs. Jas. Spence and daughter, Mrs. Myrna Weaver, of Trueman, visited Mrs. Wm. Slocum last Friday. A. L. Weller has several teams at work hauling the lumber which has been piled along the sides of the road at Porkey for the past two years, across the creek and loading it on cars for shipment. Geo. McKinney of Warren, head Superintendent for the South Penn Oil Co., drove in Saturday in his "auto" and looked over the territory which has been visited by the forest fires. Frank Littlefield and wife, James Littlefield and wife, Mrs. J. W. Littlefield, and Claude and daughters, Bessie and Myrtle and Miss Bertha Jordan attended the funeral of a six months' old son of Lafayette Littlefield at Whig Hill on Wednesday, Sept. 23d. L. S. Cough, wife and two sons and attorney W. H. Rice of Warren, drove in Saturday in their "auto" and spent a little time in town looking up some valuable information pertaining to their law suit, which is expected to be tried in court this week. Mrs. W. E. Gillespie, Mrs. Geo. Blum and Mrs. James Littlefield were Trueman visitors on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Wm. Slocum and Miss Katharine Hepler were at Sheldahl between trains Saturday afternoon. We expect to hear wedding bells in our town this week. A number of our people attended the granite shower and reception at John Stover's, Saturday evening, in honor of Marlen Maze and wife, who returned that evening from their wedding trip. The bride was formerly Miss Nora Stover. The friends of the young couple wished them a happy and prosperous journey through life. Jack Spencer spent a few days last week digging potatoes for Ed. Gillespie. Claude Littlefield visited friends at Hastings over Sunday. There will be a pie social in the vacant room of the Porkey school house next Saturday evening. Let there be a general rally from all surrounding towns. —If you are a sufferer from piles, Manzanita Pile Remedy will bring relief with the first application. Guaranteed. Price 50c. Sold by J. R.
