OCTOBER

Calendar for October 1908 with dates 1-31.

VOTE your ticket straight, Republicans.

AFTER a circle through the Middle West Mr. Taft is convinced that this is a mighty good year for Republicans.

BRYAN's election would convert the business of the United States into a huge conundrum, and the answer might not be forthcoming for years.

NEBRASKA has never voted Bryan's way except once, in 1896. The time that Bryan has given the state this year shows that he knows the chances are against him again.

REPUBLICANS will not be caught by the sleek trick of giving complimentary votes to the opposition this year. Vote your ticket with a single cross and your conscience will be clear.

THE election of Taft will give an impulse to all new enterprises. The election of Bryan would be a hold-up of business, perhaps for years. What good seaman fails to slow up in a fog?

EVEN southern factories, in future orders for the delivery of machinery and supplies, are inserting clauses specifying that, in case of Mr. Bryan's election, the orders shall be null and void. This shows pretty plainly which way the wind is blowing.

VOTE for Taft, Sherman, Porter, Wheeler, Rice, Mechling, Geist, Maxwell, Harrison, Zuendel, Gregg, Warden, and Sibble. One cross will do the job, and that's what every Republican should make this fall. You do not want to see a change to Democratic rule. Then vote your ticket straight. That's the way to prevent it.

MR. BRYAN in his recent speeches has almost invariably used this choice sentence: "Republican policies mean disaster, while Democratic policies mean prosperity." It is hard to realize that even the reckless "peerless one" would have the nerve to make such a statement, which is at variance with every fact in our recent political history. He plainly must believe that the American people are ignorant fools.—Titusville Herald.

ARTHUR C. GREGG and GEO. W. WARDEN, the Republican nominees for County Auditor, are men qualified by experience and training to fill this important station, and their election by large majorities is assured. Ernest Sibble, for Jury Commissioner, has had three years' experience in that office, and will make a satisfactory official when elected, which he is sure to be, having no formidable opposition. Give these gentlemen your support.

MR. GOMPERS declares that "despotic power under the emine is as dangerous as despotic power under the crown; to stay its progress some remedy must be had." The attack of Mr. Gompers is in reality on the Supreme Court of the United States, which has stood the test for 120 years, and commands the respect and confidence of the people as does no other institution of the Government. If there is one thing between the people of this country and chaos, it is the Supreme Court—that bulwark of liberty—where the rights of every man are sacredly regarded and sacredly secured. The voters of the country should ponder long and thoughtfully on any proposition looking to the doing away with it, says the Oil City Blitzard, to which every sane man in the United States will say "Amen!"

Less than two weeks yet remain of the present campaign. It has been one of the most remarkably quiet Presidential campaigns in the history of the country, especially in Pennsylvania, but this should not lull the Republicans to sleep. They must be up and doing. No need to get excited, but you ought to be doing something for the success of the local candidates, who are hustling for themselves and doing their duty to the party. Give them a cordial welcome when they come around and see that they get every Republican vote in your district. Our opponents expect to catch us napping, and by asking a complimentary vote here and there hope to elect a part of their ticket. See that they get left on that scheme. Give no complimentary votes. They sometimes defeat the very men you would like to see elected. Vote your ticket straight. That's the business proposition.

EVERY loyal Republican will stand by the ticket which he helped to nominate. A cleaner or better ticket has never been placed before the voters of Forest county. To elect it by good majorities it is only necessary for every Republican to get to the polls and vote quick by simply making a cross in the Republican square.

An Up-to-Date Charity.

The local advisory board of the Children's Home Society of Pennsylvania for Tionesta stands as follows:

President, Mrs. A. Carson; Vice President and Secretary, Mrs. Snie May Sharpe; Treasurer, A. B. Kelly; Legal Advisor, A. C. Brown; Medical Examiner, Dr. F. J. Bovard; Advisory Committee, Mrs. G. F. Watson, Mrs. J. B. Hagerty; Honorary Members, Pastors; Advisers, Mrs. Orion Siggins, Rev. W. E. Davis, West Hickory; Mrs. N. P. Wheeler, Rev. J. F. Scherer, Endeavor; Mrs. Leon Watson, Dr. C. Y. Detar, Rev. R. J. Montgomery, Keilleville.

"The most serious single cause of the increase of misery, crime, and dependence is the neglect of childhood." This statement is true and when it comes from the lips of a man like Devine of New York, we can feel assured that such is so. In this following motto I will bring before you the idea and purpose of this society: "Two things which should not be a home with-out a child and a child without a home." This board is to co-operate with superintendents and assistants, reporting cases of destitution and neglected children, helping to find desirable homes and assisting to safeguard the welfare of those placed in homes in their locality. This society is national in the area of its operations, yet each state is separate in its scope and plan of work. Its agents and missionaries move out all over this state in search of the home and the homeless. This makes our Children's Home Society very aggressive and it is permanent because its friends are joined in the bond of membership. As an interdenominational organization it unites the best hearted and benevolent in all its noble efforts. From a scientific standpoint it studies the home conditions and the child nature. If we take it from a supplementary standpoint, it has but one purpose, which is to help any person, society or institution to save a child.

Now we will take another view of this great work. It is protective in that it substitutes intelligence for ignorance and virtue for vice. As a patriotic and loyal force in society, it has but one aim, which is to take and give the unfortunate child a chance to qualify for useful citizenship. From an economical standpoint, it secures the largest results for the least expenditures of any philanthropic movement on foot. It gives what God gave, mother and home, therefore it is divine and truly Christ-like as an institution to save children. Helpful, comforting and scriptural, "Who so shall receive one such little child in My name receiveth Me." Our local advisory board will be glad to have you join this society. Please be liberal and helpful to this movement so that it can render the right kind of service here in Forest County. We are securing local representatives from different points in this county. Any of our officers or Mr. Geo. H. Thompson, District Missionary, will be glad to give you further information. State Superintendent Rev. W. Henry Thompson, D. D. 719 Ferguson Building, Pittsburg, Pa., is the founder and executive officer.

Neighborhood Notes.

The mill of the Heath Lumber Company at Ludlow, Pa., was destroyed by fire Thursday night, entailing a loss of $25,000, on which there was but $5,000 insurance. It is supposed to have been caused by a hunter who shot at a rabbit in one of the piles of lumber, the burning wadding setting fire to the dry lumber. The owners are Corry men.

Mrs. Betsy Freeman passed her 114th birthday anniversary Monday, Oct. 20th and the occasion was duly celebrated by about forty of her relatives and friends at her home near Red Bank Junction. Mrs. Freeman is without doubt the oldest person in this section of the country and is apparently as hale and hearty as she was at the celebration of her last birthday.

Col. Edward A. Irvin, of Curwensville, one of the foremost citizens of Central Pennsylvania, died at Atlantic City, Oct. 13th, aged seventy years. The deceased was known best throughout the State and country as the Colonel of the famous Bucktail Regiment, which was recruited throughout Central Pennsylvania, but he was also widely known because of his vast business interests and political associations.

Joseph Hogue, aged 20 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hogue, who live in Sugar Creek township, seven miles from Franklin, died at 6 o'clock Thursday night at the home of Fabian Romminger, in Oakland township, from the effect of a gunshot wound in the abdomen. He had been rabbit-hunting Thursday and in returning home his shotgun was accidentally discharged, the contents of one barrel entering his body.

Arthur Stover, aged 35 years, whose home is in Cranberry Township, was instantly killed Thursday night while at work on an oil well near Eminton. Stover, while assisting in drilling the well, was standing at the bull wheel while the tools were being raised from the hole and was caught in the cable. His body was wrapped about the bull wheel, and before the engine could be shut down Stover was crushed to death.

The township high schools of Pennsylvania will be given 90 per cent. of the maximums allowed in each of the three classes out of the state appropriation of $137,500 for that purpose. This is the decision reached by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Schaeffer. The rate of payment on the borough high schools, which are separated for the first time this year, has not been fixed. The total is the same as for township high schools.

STATE OF OHIO CITY, OF TOLEDO, ss. LUCAS COUNTY, FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of P. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE. FRANK J. CHENEY. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1908. A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.
