—Ira A. Milliron, one of Venango county's representatives in the Legislature, is out in an interview stating that he will vote for Frank B. McLean for speaker of the next House, in opposition to John F. Cox, the candidate backed by the liquor interests. He also states that he will vote for Boies Penrose for United States Senator.

—In sending Christmas packages through the mails the Red Cross stamps should not be used to seal them, as this renders it necessary to pay first-class postage, and in cases of insufficient prepayment the packages have to be held. Unless care is exercised in this matter some parties may be disappointed in the receipt of their gifts.

—Well number four was drilled in last week on the Cobb lot, owned and operated by Slater & White and the Forest Chemical Company, and is a nice producer. This property is a good one, and the well recently drilled in on the adjoining lot for the Pennsylvania Gas Company by C. A. Gilson, makes the entire lot look good.—Sheffield Observer.

—L. L. Zaver, Tionesta's artistic photographer, has fitted up a very pretty news stand in the borough building, and is prepared to furnish all the best periodicals and current literature of the day. Such an enterprise has long been needed here and it is hoped our citizens will show their appreciation of it by extending to Mr. Zaver a substantial patronage.

—The Presbyterian and Methodist Sabbath schools will appropriately celebrate Christmas, both having in preparation special programs for the glad occasion in which the little folk will be the main attraction. The teachers and officers of the schools are working diligently in drilling the scholars, and will have a nice treat in store for those who attend these exercises.

Y., who has recently returned from a trip around the world in the interests of foreign missions, will speak in the Tionesta Free Methodist church, tonight, at 7:45 o'clock. He will also exhibit a large number of curios which he gathered in the course of his travels in Africa, India, China and Japan. You are cordially invited. Admission free.

—The Christian Endeavor and Epworth League societies have made arrangements for a course of three concerts or entertainments to be given during the winter under the auspices of these societies. The first of these is announced to be given in the court house, Friday evening, January 29th, 1900, and will be Miss Willis, a reader and entertainer, who comes with the very highest recommendations, both from the bureau and from places where she has appeared.

—On next Monday morning Judge James S. Young, of the United States District Court, will dispose of all matters before that court, including the cases against John M. McKee and W. C. McKee, of Clintonville, in which a motion for a new trial has been made. It is likely that at the same time sentence will be imposed upon Harry S. McKee, a son of John M., who pleaded nolle prosequere to a charge growing out of the failure of the Clintonville and Embleton banks. The Mount Pleasant bankers will probably be sentenced at the same time, also.—Franklin News.

—Here are a few suggestions for mailing holiday parcels that will come handy: Use strong paper and twine for wrapping. Register all valuable parcels. Do not send money in ordinary mail. Send by money order or register. Write name and address of sender on upper left hand corner of letters and parcels. Do not enclose letters in third or fourth class mail. Have all packages weighed at window. A great number of souvenir cards are mailed without postage and sent to the Dead Letter Office because no name of sender is signed. Do not use thin envelopes to enclose cards, as this requires first class postage.

—The Parker Phoenix says old-timers who tell of the Allegheny river closing from shore to shore in one night have been vindicated. At Templeton on Monday evening, when the sun went down, the river was clear from bank to bank. On Tuesday morning, when the residents looked out, it was frozen from shore to shore, with over one inch of ice as clear as crystal and smooth as plate glass. And it was not in one spot either, but its broad surface for half a mile was completely covered, without a crack. Everybody was amazed, and the ancient mariners are in high glee at the wonderful demonstration that such a rare event was possible.

—Pennsylvania railroad executives are said to be working on a plan whereby officials and employees, who have reached the age of 65 years may be placed on the retired list. Under present rules employees may retire at the age of 65, if they desire, but are compelled to give up active work, when they become 70 years old. If the new plan becomes effective a number of higher officials will be compelled to sever their connection with the company. The report has caused considerable comment in road circles in view that the rules have been changed to allow them to enter the service of that company provided they were not more than 40 years old. Prior to that time no one was given employment provided he had passed the 35 year mark unless he was an expert in some line.

—Roy Passauer, the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Passauer, of Tionesta township, was the victim of a peculiar accident last Saturday, which will likely leave him with a crippled leg. He was assisting his brother in sawing wood and had hold of one end of a cross-cut saw. Just as they were sawing a log it dropped down and struck the handle of an axe, swinging it around in such a way that the sharp blade struck the young man on the inside of his left knee, severing the muscles and an artery. Dr. Dunn was summoned and dressed the injury.

—The four remaining memorial windows in the new M. E. church which had not been contracted for at the first contract letting, have now been assigned. Of the two flanking the large Watson window on the south side of the building, the one to the east is erected to the memory of Lewis and Elizabeth Arner, by their children. The one to the west is erected to the memory of Sylvester J. and Zeta Setley, by Mrs. S. J. Setley. The window facing the auditorium on the east side of the building will contain a likeness of Hoffman's painting of the mature Christ, and the donor of this window prefers to remain unknown for the present. The window on the north side of the Sunday school room will be erected by the congregation in memory of the present pastor, Rev. W. O. Calhoun, and his wife, Anna L. Calhoun. Judge Kreidler has provided that one of the three tablets in his window on the north side of the building shall be inscribed with the name of Rev. C. C. Rumberger, formerly pastor of this congregation.

A Pretty Entertainment.
Friday evening last guests to the number of forty or more were delightfully entertained by the Musical Club of Tionesta, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Floyd Proper. The program, embracing instrumental selections, choruses, quartets, duets and solos, was exquisitely carried out, and so delighted the audience that about every performer was obliged to respond to an encore. In a brief address Mrs. Sharpe, the President, gave an outline of the origin of the Club, its aim and purpose. This was followed by the Polish Dance, an instrumental duet by Mrs. Sherill Smith and Miss June Herman which received very liberal applause as did also The Club's rendering of the "Voice of the Western Wind." Miss Edith Hopkins' rendition of Ballade, opus 47, Chopin, was beautiful, as were the other instrumental selections, Adagio, Haydn, by Mrs. James D. Davis, and Polonaise, opus 11, Moszkowski, by Miss Olive Lanson, each of which drew forth generous applause from the assemblage. Two solos by Prof. Gill were well received, and in each case he was obliged to respond to an encore. Miss Lenore Ritchey was recalled after very beautifully rendering "Love, The Pedlar," in a solo of unusual sweetness. "Love's Old Sweet Song," a quartet by Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Cora Feit, and Misses Elva Lanson and Lenore Ritchey was a feature of the pretty entertainment greatly appreciated.

As hostess of the evening Mrs. Proper was lavished with compliments and unstinted praise, and the refreshments she served compared most favorably with the sweetness of the musical luncheon upon which the guests of the evening had feasted.

Got a Large Bear.
Frank and Earl Sterling of Troy Center were two of the proudest young men in Pennsylvania Saturday evening when they arrived in this city from Marienville, Forest county, with a handsome black bear which they had shot earlier in the week. They exhibited their prize on the corner of Spring and Franklin streets and were the admiral of all admirers, for he it was known that bear hunters who kill their game are few and far between. The bear was a beauty, having a thick black coat and weighing over 200 pounds. The boys, who are hardly of age, told the story of their capture of the bear. They were crossing a clearing where the brush was very thick, when suddenly their dogs began to show by their nervous manner that they scented big game and were not very anxious to advance. They were urged along and at last it was found that the game, whatever it was, was in a thick clump of slashings. The dogs grow bolder and finally they went close to the brush. Then came a crashing among the branches and the bear, looking as big as a freight car, came charging out. He stopped for a moment to take in the situation and was dispatched by two well directed shots. The boys took the bear with them to Troy Center.—Tionesta Herald, 14th.

—"Judge" F. E. King and wife of Tylersburg, were Tionesta visitors Thursday, having accompanied their two daughters, Misses Anna and Ethel to this place where they took the train for Franklin to visit friends for a few days. Mr. King stated that the water situation was getting desperate at Tylersburg and that fully seventy-five families were getting all their water from a good spring on the land of R. W. Shotts, midway between that town and Leeper. The spring is a fine one, located within a few feet of the public road, and it is free to everybody. Mr. Shotts has it in mind to lease the spring to the public by will or legal conveyance, so that the people may have free use of it for all time to come, which would certainly stamp him as a public benefactor in that community. He has frequently refused to sell the land and the spring.

RECENT DEATHS.

HULLDESON.
John G. Huddleson, who was a son of the late Daniel and Margaret Huddleson, was born at Berkeleyville, Venango county, in 1830 and died December 11, 1900, at his home at Stewart Run, Pa., aged 78 years, 3 months 3 days. Mr. Huddleson might be termed one of the pioneer residents of this community, having removed with his parents to Forest (then Venango) county in the year 1855, occupying what is still known as the old Huddleson farm, in the Redbrush settlement of Tionesta township. During the more than fifty years following that date the deceased had made his home in this vicinity, where he had many friends and was well known to the older inhabitants. In March, 1863, he was married to Miss Katherine, daughter of the late Cassel Jamieson, who survives him, together with one son, John, and two daughters, Margaret, wife of H. C. Yarnell of Stewart Run, and Mary, wife of Morgan Miller of West Hickory. Two brothers and two sisters also survive, namely: Robert L., of Hickory twp.; George residing in Oklahoma; Mrs. George Williams of Allegheny, and Mrs. Geo. B. Armstrong of Tionesta. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. W. A. Backus, were held Sunday at 2 o'clock p. m., at the late home of the deceased, and the burial took place in the cemetery near the White Church.

M'CRAY.
From a recent issue of a paper published at Magolia, Mississippi, we gather the following account of the death of a former well known citizen of Tionesta and Forest county:

"Charles E. McCray was born in Tionesta, Pa., on the twenty-seventh day of December, 1846. He was a boy in his teens when the Civil War broke out, but volunteered in a Pennsylvania regiment and served his country during that memorable struggle. After the war he returned to his native state and in 1875 was united in matrimony to Miss Margaret Elizabeth Darr. To this union were born four children, three of whom survive him, Mr. E. C. McCray, of Meridian, Texas; Mrs. J. F. Lenoir, of Lumperton and Miss Florence McCray of this city. The summons from the Master came suddenly to the deceased, Monday, Nov. 23, at Griffin, Ark., and he was brought to this city and laid to rest Thursday, Nov. 27. Mr. McCray came South with his family about twenty years ago and held many responsible positions, being connected with Capt. J. J. White for a number of years. He numbered among his warmest friends many confederate veterans. He was a man of excellent habits, fine moral character and sturdy constitution, and he continued to be active in his accustomed pursuits to long past the age of which men ordinarily drop out of the ranks of the workers. Although Mr. McCray was a member of no church he exemplified, by his pure and honorable life, the teachings of the golden rule, and unflinchingly evinced a practical piety that will long be remembered as the best of professions. He believed in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. He believed that the man who scatters flowers in the pathway of his fellowmen, who lets into the dark places of life the sunshine of human sympathy and human happiness, is following in the footsteps of his Master."

Mrs. John Littlefield is slowly recovering from a severe attack of asthma. Chas. Eastwood of North Clarion visited his sister, Mrs. Earl Downey, the past week.

Mrs. John Jordan of Hastings visited friends in Porkey over Sabbath, returning home Monday afternoon.

Our school is closed until after the holidays and possibly longer. We think it would have been just as well to let the school continue as it was without making the last change, as it will be getting quite warm before school will be closed. The small boy will be getting spring fever and be anxious to go fishing and will not be interested in his studies.

Mrs. Thomas Miller, Mrs. Earl Downey, Mrs. Frank Littlefield were Kellettville visitors during the past week.

Loftie Bloss visited her parents at Sheffield over the Sabbath, returning here Monday.

Mrs. A. E. Highgate of Hastings visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Slocum, over the Sabbath.

The box social given in the school room Saturday evening was quite well attended. The proceeds were applied on our minister's salary, the amount raised being $18.65. There will also be an oyster supper given in the school room at Porkey, January 16th, for the same purpose. We hope everybody that can will attend.

Services were well attended Sabbath morning owing to the stormy weather.

A. L. Weller is busily engaged loading his lumber on the cars here.

Mr. Jesellink's friends assisted him in connecting up his stoves a few days ago. The stoves required considerable extra work as it took four men all day.

B. J. Kinney is at home for a few days. Mrs. Mabel Littlefield and Mrs. Dan Downey visited friends at Hastings Tuesday of last week.
