Shot and Instantly Killed.

Okie Dillinger, aged 20 years, son of William Dillinger of Titusville was instantly killed by the accidental discharge of a gun with which he had been hunting in Hickory township, on Wednesday evening last at 5:30 o'clock. Young Dillinger and his cousin, Roy Dillinger, also of Titusville had gone to the woods on Hickory, creek several miles above Endeavor, to hunt for bear. They had finished their hunt and were walking back, following the Hickory Valley railroad track. When about 4 miles above Endeavor they stopped to rest. The unfortonate victim was standing leaning on number is kept up, the year will be a re. his gun, the butt resting on the end of a arkable one, [New York; Fifty Cents a tie and his hands and chin resting on the muzzle, evidently, when the butt slipped off the tie, the hammer striking the tie and discharging the weapon, which was a Winchester repeating shotgun loaded with a shell containing a bullet weighing nearly an ounce. The heavy ball passed through the unfortunate man's left hand, multilating it terribly, and after cutting off the ends of the second and third fingers of the right hand struck him under the left jaw. It then passed upward train going north was detached to run to through his head, killing him instantly,

Roy Dillinger, the terror stricken companion, started at once for help, running to one side of the tracks. The funeral was held in Titusville Saturday. The unfortunate vic-tim was a young man of exemplary hab-

In this distressing accident the use and careless handling of firearms by those unaccustomed to them is once more forci-bly illustrated. The attitude in which young Dillinger was standing when the one week's time, and in many cases fatal discharge of the gun took place has within three days. The Post and Corps Installation. The joint installation of the newly elected officers of Capt, Geo. Stow Post, No. 274, G. A. R., and of Woman's Re-Hef Corps, No. 137, held Monday evening in their hall, was attended by a large number of invited guests, in addition to the members of these orders. The installation services for the Post were conducted by Past Post Commander Jonathan Albaugh of Eli Berlin Post of East Hickory, while a like service for the Corps was performed by Past Department President Mrs. Suie May Sharpe, both of whom performed their duties perfectly and with credit to themselves. The officers of the Post are as follows: Commander, D. W. Clark; S. V. C., R. B. Crawford; J. V. C., P. S. Lindel; O. D., G. W. Robinson; Q. M., S. C. Johnston; Chap., C. A. Hill; Adjutant, S. D. Irwin. The Corps officers are: President, Mrs. Mary L. Thomson; Senior Vice President, Mrs. Elizabeth Scowden; Junior Vice President, Mrs. Garry Holeman; Treasurer, Mrs. Jennie E. Agnew; Chaplain, Mrs. Suie May Sharpe; Conductor, Mrs. Emma Hunter; Guard, Mrs. Marie Hopkins; Secretary, Mrs. Neilie Stroup; Assistant Conductor, Mrs. Alice Vought; Patriotic Instructor, Mrs. Fannie Grove; Press Correspondent, Mrs. Daisy Canfield; Musician, Mrs. Anna Carson; Color Bearers, Mrs. Martha Gaston, Mrs. Della Canfield, Mrs. Anna Fones, Mrs. Lucy Carson.

In assuming the chair Mrs. Thomson who was re-elected president, said: "One year ago when you entrusted to me the office of president, I deeply appreciated the honor, fully reslizing the responsibility laid upon me, and determined with divine help, to the best of my ability, I would meet all requirements. I have freely given my time, strength and best thought to the work. Not all has been accomplished we hoped to do, but with constant lovalty of a few faithful ones we have marched together and the work has moved steadily on. In the future barvest of earnest effort there will be fruits gathered, not only from what we have done, but what we tried to do. We hope that in the coming year the high standard of my predecessors may not be lowered." A short but excellent program was then given by the Skidoo Club of young ladies, who sweetly sang a number of selecttions, by Miss Mary Fitzgerald in a humorous recitation, and by Prof. F. W. Gill, who gave two fine solos. This was followed by a camp fire presided over by Commander Clark, who introduced a number of Comrades, ladies of the Corps and the guests, all of whom responded with words of wit and good cheer for the hosts and hostesses of the evening. Among those who thus responded were, S D. Irwin, A. C. Brown, L. Agnew, J. E. Wenk, G. W. Robinson, Rev. H. A. Bailey, T. P. Harry, J. Albaugh, Prof. F. W. Gill, Mrs. Suie M. Sharpe and Mrs. G. F. Watson. And now last but not least by any means came the everpopular feature of these pleasant gatherngs. We reter of course to the elegant and satisfying lunch served as only the ladies of the Corps know how when they have a hungry man "on their hands," and we know from observation and personal experience that all did ample justice to the repast. The evening, all in all, was one of pleasure to the order whose ranks are so notice bly thinning out in the march of time, the ladies and their guests.

The following resolutions, which speak for themselves, were unanimously adopt ed by the Post and Corps:

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT. WHEREAS, Our beloved, patriotic and we can save you zealous Post Commander, Leonard Ag new, and his good wife, Sarah Agnew active and efficient members of Capt. George Stow Post and Relief Corps, are about to go the State of Oregon to found a new home, and

WHEREAS, They have always been ready and willing in every way possible and at all times to promote the noble principles of our order, Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty, therefore be it

Resolved, That we hereby as Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic and members of the Woman's Relief Corps bear testimony to the zeal and integrity of our good friends who are about to de part from our midst, and sever their connection with us, as they have been for many years faithful and earnest workers in our noble cause.

Resolved, That we commend them to those to whom they will come, and that Heaven's bles-ings may rest upon them wherever they go; also that a copy of this resolution be furnished for publication in our newspapers.
