SHOT IN HER BEDROOM

Bullet Crossed an Area and Went Through Two Windows.

Mrs. Tuckerman of Milton, N. Y., Accidentally Killed in Chicago—Mayor Busse's Brother Was Demonstrating Use of a Revolver to a Housemaid When It Was Discharged—Mayor Busse Present When She Died.

George Busse, brother of Mayor Fred A. Busse of Chicago accidentally shot and killed Mrs. L. C. Tuckerman, 52 years old, wife of a fruit dealer at Milton, N. Y. The bullet struck Mrs.
Tuckerman in the heart and she died almost instantly.

The shooting occurred in the Walton apartment building, 305 North Clark street, where she was visiting her father, Brigadier General A. C. Girard, retired, who occupies an apartment in the building.

Shortly before 7 o'clock George Busse, in his apartment across an areaway from General Girard's apartment, was demonstrating the use of a revolver to Miss Bertha Lambke, his housemaid, so that she could employ the weapon in case burglars came.

The revolver was accidentally discharged, and the bullet went through two windows, crossed the areaway into the Girard apartment and pierced Mrs. Tuckerman's heart.

Mrs. Tuckerman was in a bedroom dressing. When struck by the bullet, which crashed through an area window at her side, she staggered into a hallway. General Girard and Mrs.
Tuckerman's five-year-old son Alfred rushed from an adjoining sitting room as the woman cried, "Oh, father, I've been shot and I'm dying."

A minute afterward Mayor Busse and his brother George entered the Girard apartments to see whether the bullet had done any damage. They were horrified to find that Mrs. Tuckerman was dying of a bullet wound.
Mayor Busse's wife and mother tried to assist the wounded woman, while the mayor summoned a physician. But the woman died before the physician arrived. No arrests were made.

According to the statements made to the police, George Busse was about to leave for Cincinnati on a business trip. He did not care to leave his mother and the maid at home alone without some means of protection. He therefore purchased a revolver and was instructing the maid how to use it, when the trigger was pulled accidentally.

CUBA AGAIN FREED

President Gomez and Vice President Zayas Inaugurated.

With the administration of the oath of office at noon on Wednesday to Jose Miguel Gomez, the new president of the republic of Cuba, American occupation of the island ceased and the history of that country entered on a new era. In the afternoon Charles E. Magoun, until then provisional governor of Cuba, embarked for the United States, leaving the government entirely in the hands of President Gomez and his advisers. Most of the 5,000 American soldiers who have occupied the island since 1906 have been sent home, and the remainder will leave by April 1.

The oath of office was administered to President Gomez and Vice President Zayas by President Barreiro of the supreme court of Cuba in the presence of a great throng of Cubans, Americans and other foreigners. The day was a general holiday throughout Cuba, and from all the six states men prominent in the political, commercial and social life of the island were gathered to attend the inauguration.

At the close of the ceremonies President Gomez was congratulated by the foreign envoys, who extended to him the good wishes of their respective governments for the welfare of his country. A conspicuous figure was Mr. Ayers, representing the Vatican.
Many messages of congratulation were received, notably from President Roosevelt and William H. Taft, president-elect of the United States. He has many friends among prominent Cubans.

EDITOR HURT BY TRAIN

W. L. Woodson, of the American Press Association, Injured at Yonkers.

Trying to board a train at the Glenwood station of the New York Central, near Yonkers, N. Y., William L.
Woodson, editor of The American Press, fell and was injured by the moving wheels. His right foot was amputated at the station, and at St. John's Riverside hospital, to which he was taken, it was found that an amputation of the leg below the knee was necessary. He was badly hurt about the head and sustained other injuries.
He displayed wonderful fortitude, which the physicians say will materially assist him in recovering from the effects of his injuries.

Mr. Woodson's paper, The American Press, is issued from the main office of the American Press Association in New York. He has been connected with the association many years, coming to the main office from the Atlanta branch, of which he was manager. Mr. Woodson was formerly one of the best known newspaper men of the South. He is a native of Virginia, but lived also in Georgia and other Southern states.

LAWYER'S CONTINGENT FEE

Subject of Debate by New York Bar Association.

The 32nd annual meeting of the State Bar association was held in Buffalo last week. Adelbert Moot of Buffalo was elected president to succeed Francis Lynde Stetson of New York.

The acceptance by a lawyer of a contingent fee, which has been the subject of debate for years, was the cause of a lengthy discussion. The position finally taken by the association is defined in the code of ethics of the American Bar association, which was adopted in its entirety by the state organization.

The canon on contingent fees says that where sanctioned by law they shall be under the supervision of the court "in order that clients may be protected from unjust charges."

Papers by Dr. R. B. Lamb, superintendent of Matteawan State hospital, and State Commissioner of Lunacy Sheldon T. Viele created a profound impression and were referred to a committee for further consideration. Statistics collected by Dr. Lamb show that 27 out of 34 patients released from Matteawan on court orders had committed criminal acts, 12 of that number being charged with murder.

"It seems to me," said Dr. Lamb, "that such a record as this should gain some modification of the present law, whereby lunatics, and especially those committing murder, should be dealt with by a tribunal having individual responsibility."

BOTH COMPANIES FILE SUITS

Court of Admiralty to Decide Blame For Nantucket Collision.

Just what ship was responsible for the Nantucket collision, in which the White Star liner Republic was sunk and the Italian liner Florida damaged, and which company will pay the damages, will be decided by the court of admiralty.

Both companies have filed suits.
That of the owners of the Republic claimed damages of $2,000,000 and refuted, in concise legal form, the story of the marvellous sea disaster. The blame for the collision was placed on the Florida and the claim made that the last named ship was going ahead at an "immoderate rate of speed" when the crash came.

The owners of the Florida also filed a libel suit and a petition for a limitation of liability against the Florida.
The petitioners asked that their liability, in case the suits are decided against them, be placed at $224,000, the damage value of the Florida.

The Florida owners allege that the collision was due to the neglect of the Republic's officers.

ALL HIS RELATIVES DEAD

Heartrending Story of an American Visitor to Reggio.

Telling a heartrending story of his experiences in the Calabrian earthquake, in which over two score of his relatives perished, Antonio Strito of White Plains, N. Y., arrived at New York on the steamer Venezia from Marselles.

Strito was on a visit to his relatives in Reggio and awoke from unconsciousness after the shock to find himself in a heap of ruins. After a search of three days he found his 17-year-old sister dead.

Not one of his relatives was left alive, he said, and he had more than 40 of them in Reggio. Strito himself was practically uninjured. He is 24 years old and had come to this country when a small boy.

Man's Leg Found in Whale's Stomach.

Excavation among the ruins at Messina continues with the daily discovery of many bodies but all are unrecognizable. Slight earth shocks continue.

An enormous whale has been captured at Catania and in its stomach was found the leg of a man with a shoe on the foot. The shoe indicated that it had been worn by an Italian sailor, who probably was a victim of the great tidal wave following the earthquake of Dec. 28.

War Correspondent Died of Old Age.

William Fayal, once a widely known reporter and war correspondent, died of old age at the Memorial Home in St. Louis. He was 89 years old. Fayal was a chum of Henry M.
Stanley, who became famous by finding Livingstone in Africa. Fayal was born in Otsego county, N. Y. His wife was Alicia Jackson of Lockport, N. Y.

New Jersey's Last Hanging.

The court of appeals having affirmed the conviction of Frederick Lang of Middlesex county, New Jersey will witness its last hanging. Lang was convicted a short time before the new electrocution law went into effect of murdering his niece. Since his conviction Lang has been confined in the Middlesex county jail.

BRANDENBURG SKIPS

Could Not Be Found When Trial Was Called In Supreme Court.

Bail of $1,500 Furnished by a Bonding Company Was Ordered Forfeited by Justice Dowling—Brandenburg's Attorney Said That He Had Received No Word From His Client Since Sunday Night and Was Ignorant of His Whereabouts.

New York, Feb. 2.—A warrant for the arrest of Broughton Brandenburg, the magazine writer whose sale to the New York Times of an article alleged to have been written by Grover Cleveland resulted in his indictment on a charge of grand larceny a few weeks ago, was issued by Justice Dowling.

The case against Brandenburg on the grand larceny charge was to have come up before Justice Dowling in the supreme court yesterday, but when the time came for the calling of the defendant to the bar Brandenburg, who had been out on $1,500 bail furnished by a bonding company, could not be found. After ordering the calling of his name by the clerk of the court, Justice Dowling forfeited Brandenburg's bail and issued a bench warrant for his arrest.

Samuel B. Thomas, Brandenburg's attorney, stated that he had received no word from his client since Sunday night, when he had a telephonic conversation with him, and was in ignorance of the writer's present whereabouts.

The present case grew out of the selling by him of an article purporting to have been written by the late Grover Cleveland, in which the former president advocated the election of William H. Taft. After its publication the article was widely circulated as campaign literature. The article was brought to the attention of Mrs. Cleveland, who is alleged to have declared it entirely apocryphal, and an investigation ensued which resulted in the indictment of Brandenburg on a charge of grand larceny in the second degree preferred by the Times.

Among those who had been expected to testify in the case were Mrs. Cleveland, Richard Watson Glider, editor of the Century; John H. Finley, president of the College of the City of New York; David N. Carvalho, handwriting expert; Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, Mr.
Cleveland's family physician; George F. Parker, John G. Carlisle, secretary of the treasury during the second Cleveland administration; George R.
Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican national committee, and Richard V.
Oulahan, who had charge of the committee's publicity work during the past campaign.

CHILDREN THROWN INTO SNOWBANK

Third Child Burned to Death and Mother Fatally Injured.

Gaylord, Mich., Feb. 2.—Mrs. Albert Wauza saved the lives of two of her children when their home near here burned last night by throwing them from second story windows into snow-banks.

The mother, however, was probably fatally burned while rescuing the children and a third child was burned to death, the flames preventing the mother from reaching her room.

Wauza, the father, jumped uninjured from a window. The family almost roasted from waist to shoulders, had to walk half a mile through the snow to secure shelter.

IMMIGRATION DECISION

Secretary Straus Overrules Special Board in Respect to Canadian Nurse.

Washington, Feb. 2.—An important immigration case was decided by Secretary Straus of the department of commerce and labor. Ethel Wright, a Canadian woman of 25 years, applied for admission to the United States in order that she might enter the "nurses' home" at Chicago to study nursing.

In connection with other student nurses at the institution she was to be allowed a small compensation. A special board of inquiry rejected her application and denied her admission.

Miss Wright appealed her case to Secretary Straus and he has directed that she be admitted. He holds that the case in no way comes under the prohibitions of the alien contract labor law.

PREPARING FOR INAUGURAL

Work of Erecting Reviewing Stands Begun in Vicinity of White House.

Washington, Feb. 2.—To delay expenditures for fitting the Capitol for the inauguration of William H. Taft, a joint resolution was agreed to unanimously in the senate appropriating $16,000.

The resolution provides that the inaugural platform to be erected in front of the Capitol shall seat 6,000 people, which is one-third more than four years ago. It also authorizes extra police men at the Capitol for three days. The work of erecting reviewing stands in the vicinity of the White House was begun today.

TAX LAW CHANGES ADVISED

Auditor Would Relieve Real Estate of Part of Its Burden.

Harrisburg, Feb. 2.—The creation of a commission to thoroughly study the problem of equitable taxation in Pennsylvania, which should seek out the classes of property now exempt rather than increase the burden on those now paying, is the idea of Auditor General Robert Kennedy Young in his annual report on the finances, which has just been laid on the desk of Governor Stuart.

Among the classes now exempt from taxation, but which he mentions as available, are trust companies and savings institutions, personal property which is not returned because of laws which do not strictly hold the local assessor to his duty, the stock of manufacturing corporations and lastly bank deposits.

He proposes readjustment of the methods of taxation whereby relief will be extended to the real estate owners.

The report, which deals with taxation questions in an unreserved manner, is presented about half a year in advance of the best time ever made on a similar report. The fiscal year closed on the last day of November, and in years gone by it took anywhere from six months to a year to get the report in shape for submission to the governor.

General Young hands in the usual statistical table, but he prefaces it with a general discussion of the affairs of his office, in which he calls attention to the fact that it is conducted on old-time and unsatisfactory legislation and to make it more satisfactory and efficient the enactment of new statutes is necessary.

ROBBERS SHOOT AND KILL FARMER

Visiting Neighbor Escapes With Money in a Kettle.

Lancaster, Pa., Feb. 2.—At 8 o'clock Sunday night, while Alfred Haullman, an aged farmer of Pequea township, this county, was sitting at the bedside of his sick wife, in company with Mr.
Kreider and Mrs. Cramer, two neighbors, two masked men entered the room and demanded money.

The sick woman called to Mrs. Cramer to give them what was in a kettle in the room. Mrs. Cramer picked up the kettle containing the money and fled.

The men shot at her, then turned and shot Mr. Haullman in the neck and killed him. They then shot Mr.
Kreider twice and dangerously injured him. The robbers fled and have not been captured.

The Haullmans some years ago lost money in a bank failure and have since kept their cash in their house in a kettle. It is supposed that the robbers knew this and were after it.

MONUMENT FOR COL. DRAKE

Marking Site of First Oil Well on Fiftieth Anniversary.

Titusville, Feb. 2.—Colonel John J.
Carter has been appointed chairman and Hon. John E. Emerson, Mayor R.
E. Dickinson and Rev. J. M. Critchfield members of a committee of arrangements for the grand jubilee celebration to be held here the latter part of August for the purpose of celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the striking oil by Colonel Edwin L. Drake.

The Daughters of the Revolution are taking subscriptions for the purpose of erecting a $100,000 monument where the well was drilled, and it is to be unveiled during jubilee week.

Recover Lost Jewelry.

Harrisburg, Feb. 2.—One of the packages of jewelry thrown into the Susquehanna river on Thursday morning, when an express car caught fire while crossing the Rockville bridge of the Pennsylvania railroad, was discovered at Middletown yesterday. It was found floating on the river by a boatman and contained jewelry worth $77. Four more packages are missing, but it is declared that none of them is of great value.

Too Much Dynamite.

West Newton, Pa., Feb. 2.—Dyna-meters excavating a cut in the branch railroad being built by the Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal company are terrorizing the residents of Bells Mills.
A rock was hurled 1,200 feet, tearing a corner off the residence of W. P. Bell.
Another weighing several tons was thrown nearly a quarter of a mile into one of Bell's fields.

Doverites Are Honest.

Canal Dover, O., Feb. 2.—A "Golden Rule" postage stamp box has been in operation at a drug store here since Dec. 19, customers helping themselves and making their own change. The receipts have been but one cent short and more than 1,500 stamps have passed through the box.

Scared to Death by Dog.

Philadelphia, Feb. 2.—Albert G. Winner, a three-year-old child, died here yesterday from fright caused by seeing a dog which had bitten him seven weeks ago. When he saw the animal in the street near his home the child fell unconscious.
