age from their friends, as the proceeds —Adam Stroup, of near Pineville, Warren county, died at his home at an early hour on Friday last, after an illness of but a week, of pneumonia. He was aged 72 years and is survived by his wife, and the following children: Homer, Thomas, and David Stroup, Mrs. Emma Vincent, and William Stroup residing on Hunter Run. He was a brother of our former townman, Edward Stroup, and was a veteran of the civil war. The funeral was held on Sunday with interment in the cemetery at Neilltown, this county.

—Representative Martin, of Mercer, who presented the bill to provide a $50,000 reward for a tuberculosis remedy, is the center of another "remedy" story, which shows the characteristics of the man. The member from Mercer is a doctor and has a big practice. According to the Harrisburg Telegraph, he was called one night to attend a family whose circumstances were very poor and the story goes that they looked as though they had not been fed very well. The doctor gave them some treatment and said he would return with medicine next day. When he arrived the family asked for the medicine.
"Don't think it's medicine you need, so I've brought you a ham," remarked the doctor, in reply.

—This is the year fixed for the reappearance of the Halley comet that makes a visit once every seventy-five years.
According to the current notion it always prophecies war, pestilence, famine or revolution. The comet is due next May, and is no ordinary astronomical event. Its first appearance was noted 12 B. C. when, being visible to the naked eye, it created much excitement throughout the ancient world.
—Dr. A. E. Stonecipher, his lawyer and several witnesses were in town yesterday when depositions were taken to be used in defense of his wife's suit for divorce. Proceedings for which will be heard before the courts at South Bend, Ind. Mrs. Stonecipher was represented by Dr. Harry Towler and Attorney F. J.
Maffett of Clarion. The depositions were taken before Esquire Wilton.—Marienville Express.
—Don't let it escape your "memorandum" that an important election takes place next Tuesday, and that it is your duty to get to the polls and vote—mainly the Republican ticket, which for the borough is as follows: Burgess, J. D. W. Reck; councilmen, Wm. Smeathough, A. B. Kelly; school directors, J. C. Dunn, Q. Jamieson; collector, W. H. Hood; auditor, J. N. Bankhead; judge of election, R. B. Crawford; inspector, Bruce Hagerty.
—Fred Morok of the Porkey Oil Company, yesterday drilled in their No. 3 well on the Wheeler tract in Forest county. The well is as good as its predecessors and started off at a 5,000,000 foot gait. A remarkable feat was performed at the well yesterday when in 15 minutes after the well was drilled in all connections were made and the gas was on its way to Warren through the Pen-sylvania Gas Company's mains.—Warren Times, Saturday.
—There's much apprehension on the part of our citizens, and people generally in this latitude, as to the ice crop which doesn't seem to materialize to any extent.
Here is the 10th of February, with the sun getting a little higher each day and the nights only approaching the frost line.
The crop has never yet failed entirely in this place, but it has a mighty dubious aspect at this stage of the game. What would the good old summer time be without a little ice in it?
—The state highway department has issued blanks to the supervisors of the 1,548 townships of the state requiring reports from them about the amount of cash tax levied and collected for road purposes. This is done under the act of 1905 and if they make return they get 15 per cent. of the money from the state. Two years ago many reported, but others have failed, being evidently under the impression that one report is enough. If they do not report this year they lose the appropriation.
—The Farmers' Institute begins a two days' session at the court house in this place at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, and bids fair to be well attended and of unusual interest. The program, which has already been published, covers a wide range of subjects pertaining to farming, gardening, stock raising, etc., and a good corps of instructors and lecturers from the state department of agriculture will be in attendance to impart knowledge useful and helpful to the farmers. Don't fail to attend.
—Arthur McWilliams, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. McWilliams, of Smoky Hill, broke his right leg just above the knee last Wednesday evening, while sliding down hill near the home of Jesse Carson. The boy was riding the sled in the regulation boy-fashion on a hill that was very steep and it is supposed that in steering the sled he stuck out his leg and struck it against a tree or some other projection along the road.
Dr. J. C. Dunn was summoned and reduced the fracture.
—In response to a special invitation, the ladies of the W. C. T. U., at Kelletville, were entertained at the home of Mrs.
Fred Slocum, last Wednesday afternoon.
Nearly all the members being present the meeting proved to be very interesting, and was conducted by Mrs. W. F. Jones, who is Superintendent of Mothers' Meetings. After the meeting was adjourning a fine lunch was served by the hostess, and all were sincere in expressing their pleasure for the afternoon. The guests present included Mrs. Harry Watson and Mrs. M. Andrews, of Kelletville, and Mrs. G. F. Watson and Mrs. A. B. Root, of Tionesta.
—A day or two ago we received a copy of Vick's Garden and Floral Guide, the annual catalogue of one of America's oldest seed firms. This issue is full of interest to anyone who makes a garden of vegetables or flowers, likewise to the man who cultivates a large farm. It is handsomely illustrated with photo-gravings direct from nature; the illustrations of Alisa Craig Onion, "Good Luck" Pea, Golden Nugget Sweet Corn, Carmen Seedling Potato, and the famous Vick Asters, being particularly attractive. It will be greatly to our readers' advantage to write to James Vick's Sons, 143 Main St., Rochester, N. Y., and ask for a copy.
It is free.
—No plausible theory for the sooty appearance of the snow on Wednesday morning last, the snow having fallen the previous night to the depth of about three inches, day yet advanced by our philosophers. It was everywhere the same, according to reports, and was generally noted. Had it fallen in the heart of a great soft coal consuming center it could not have presented a blacker or dirtier appearance, and being the same in the country as in the towns, the phenomenon was all the more marked and mysterious.
The sooty portion of the snow was about an inch in depth, underneath that it was of the usual purity and whiteness. Who can figure it out?
—Henry M. Kaltenboch, of Tidoute, died suddenly at his home, Tuesday morning last week. He will be remembered here as having been employed as a tool dresser on a number of wells drilled by Contractor Snyder in Tionesta township during the past year. He was aged forty-five years. The News says:
"He complained of not feeling well and did not get up at breakfast time. His wife spoke to him around nine o'clock and he answered but when called at the noon hour he did not reply, and upon going up stairs she found him supposedly unconscious. Dr. Kemble was called later and pronounced the man dead, heart disease being the probable cause. He leaves besides his wife, three sons and one daughter."

—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Forest Telephone Co. in Marienville on Tuesday of last week, the following directors were elected: D. B. Shields, J. H.
Russell, D. Mintz, L. H. Mensch, Asa H. Sigworth. The officers elected are President, Asa H. Sigworth; Vice President, J. H. Russell; Secretary and General Manager, J. B. Cottle; Treasurer, D.
B. Shields.
—G. W. Osgood is still keeping an accurate record of weather conditions and makes the following report: During October there was a total rainfall of but 1 inch, with no snow and little or no cold weather. In November there was a total rainfall of 11 inches, and 8 1/2 inches of snow; no zero weather; the last day of the month, 30th, the thermometer registered 73 degrees heat. December did some better, there being 3 1/2 inches of rain, and 18 inches of snow. The coldest days fell on the 10, 18, 25 above zero; 6th, 6° above; 8th, 8° above; 23d 3° below zero. This makes a total rainfall during the last 3 months of 1908 of 5 1/2 inches, and 20 1/2 inches of snow.
The same months of 1907 showed rainfall 9 1/2 inches, and snow 16 inches.
—The Utopia minstrel club's entertainment at Bovard's Hall Saturday evening proved a fine treat for all who attended, and the boys have no kick coming on the reception which the well-pleased audience tendered them. The company is a purely home-talent affair, being composed exclusively of Oil City's best young men, who came up more as a diversion and outing than for any financial success which they expected to reap. Their choruses were fine and evidenced a number of very fine voices among the membership, and about every solo and quartet was recalled and responded to eagerly.
The jokes of the endmen were original, well put and all of them quite ludicrous and mirth-provoking, yet with an entire absence of coarseness, such as is often employed by minstrel troupes. A very respectable show throughout, in fact, and deserving of encouragement by the people of Oil City.
—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of this county has arrangements well under way for conducting a temperance essay contest. This movement is a national one, beginning with the schools of the county under the direction of the local Unions. Prizes will be given by the local, the county, the state and the national Unions. The grand prizes by the national union will be $50 in gold for the best high school essay, and $30 in gold for the best grammar school essay. Five subjects are proposed for the high school, the one preferred being, "The Value of Total Abstinence to a Life." Four subjects for the grammar school grades, "What is the Harm in a Glass of Beer?" being the subject preferred. This contest, which will end before the school term closes, is expected to awaken new and unusual interest in the cause of temperance, not only in each school district, but in the whole nation as well.
Nineteen Years Ago.
The winter of 1890, nineteen years ago, was very much such a winter as the present one, only more so, according to those who remember, backed up by the published records. In that year the little peep frogs were doing stunts in the latter part of February. A large amount of lumber had been rafted on Tionesta creek, and on the 3d day of March several Allegheny fleets left here for the upper markets, but were compelled to "tie up" on account of snow-slush in the river, yet all got safely to Pittsburgh before the month ended. It was in March that year that the ice was harvested, there having been none up to that time, and the crop was taken out of the mill race at the Lawrence & Smeathough mill across the creek. To give one a better idea of the weather conditions at that time, we herewith reproduce an article which appeared in the REPUBLICAN of March 5, 1890: A tramp ambled into our office one sultry afternoon recently, and dropping into a doze had this dream: This thing beats us; can't figure it out at all; it might as well be a Chinese puzzle or a sentence in Volapuk. Here it is the last of February and winter not begun yet; the grass is actually growing and the ground so full of water that it is dangerous to turn the cattle out to graze for fear they will disappear through the sod. Here's courting cut right off before it had begun; a thunder storm last night that ought to belong to the middle of next summer; the peach crop in Delaware reported so far along that new peaches will be in order before new potatoes, and watermelons ahead of green peas. It takes the ambition of all of one so far as raising early garden stuff is concerned. It doesn't seem to leave much for one's ambition to grow or feed upon. The first suckers of next spring's catch were caught last January.
But after all it isn't so much the present that troubles us as the hereafter. Now, for instance, if the thing runs along as it is the Summer will sit right down on Spring and if Winter attempts to linger in the lap of Spring, we'll have Winter sprawling around over Summer, and roses and snow, and ice-cream and ulti-mors, and even if winter retires decently, or keeps retired, Fall will fall into line somewhere along about the time potatoes ought to be hoed; Winter, Spring, Summer, Autumn disposed of, and about five months of the year left to do something with, and nothing to use it for.
Time is money. 150 days worth no more than Confederate's script. The world seems out of joint. If science is going to do anything for us we are ready to have it done right along. We know the thing as well as anybody when it comes along, but we want to know how the wind up will be. If science can point with unerring finger to the end we'd like her to show her hand.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Most Popular Because it is the Best.
"I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past eight years and find it to be one of the best selling medicines on the market. For babies and young children there is nothing better in the line of cough syrups," says Paul Allen, Plain Dealing, La. This remedy not only cures the cough, colds and croup so common among young children, but is pleasant and safe for them to take. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Bank Cases Settled.

The five civil causes which have been pending in our courts for the past year or two, entitled Citizens National Bank versus Osgood & Jamieson, and same versus Landers & Wyman, were amicably settled on the 3d inst. All parties to the litigation, including counsel on either side, met by appointment, in Oil City on the date named and after going over the various phases of the cases and discussing their merits, pro and con, came to an agreement, the basis of which was a settlement of all controversies involved, on a basis of about one-third of the claim of the plaintiff.
Thus ends what has been a contention of over two years' standing, bidding fair to continue indefinitely, or until the controversy should be passed upon by the courts of last resort.

The Curus Hawgs.
Under the above caption the Saturday Evening Post of January 30th published the famous hog story of our Gih Morgan.
It may be interesting to Gih's friends to know that he is yet one of many old soldiers in the National Military Home at Johnson City, Tennessee. The story follows:
"They's some parts of that Arkansas country where the hills is steeper than all git out," said Gih Morgan. "Steepest I ever see."
"Why, I was comin' along one day an' run int'r a drove of haws, I noticed they all had slitz cut in their ears. I was kinder curus about it an' stopped to see what the slitz was for."
"Simple enuf. I was tellin' you the hills was steep there. Well, them haws was on to it. When they had to come downhill they just put one of their hind-legs through a slit in an ear and rough-locked themselves down the hill. Talk about smart haws and steep hills! Gid-dap!"
REMARKABLE.
About six weeks ago a swelling came in my groin 2 1/2 inches from my navel and said to be caused by blood poison. I doctored about six weeks, and was getting worse, when Mr. Brown told me about San-Cura Ointment. I applied it as a poultice, changing morning and night, removing all pain at once. In two days it broke, discharging pus. I then changed it once a day until it was perfectly healed. I recommend San-Cura Ointment as the best poultice I ever used.
It removes pain and all pus, keeping a sore moist and soft.
