-Every indication points now to an ice amine throughout northwestern Pennsylvania. Less than 2,000 tons of ice have been cut at Conneaut Lake this winter, Not much has been cut at Chautauqua, and comparatively none in this vicinity. Five to seven inches of clear, blue ice could have been taken out of the creek at one time this winter, but the opportunity was allowed to pass thinking there would be a better and heavier crop later on.

-In a note from our old friend and former citizen, H. W. Roberts, who was recently promoted from master carpenter he says his family has gotten nicely settled in their new home at Renovo, Pa., and he is well pleased with the change, He has a crew of 56 men under him now, which number will be more than doubled in a short time. This will keep the "Elder" busy we're thinking.

class to be graduated in Forest county was granted diplomas at the church at Rev. W. O. Cathoun presented the papers and Melvin Sibble, who had completed the course as prepared by the State Sabbath School Association and taken the examination given by the association. The first class to be graduated was also at Nebraska, a year ago, This course of study is of great benefit to teschers and students in the Sunday schools and it is to be regretted that more do not avail themselves of the opportunity of procuring it. -In conversation with our worthy citizen, George F. Watson, he expressed himself as still in love with his old home county as against any other locality of which he has any knowledge, and it is his intention to make Tionesta his home, notwithstanding he has disposed of his lumbering interests at Kellettville. Mr. Watson still possesses large interests in the southern and western lumbering operations and as Tipuesta is located about as near the base of these interests -Special attention is directed to the as any other place could be, and having just completed a magnificent home here, on the opposite page. It is an old-estab- he doesn't understand why he should not remain with us to enjoy its comforts. And that's what we all think, George.

He was taking a load of hay to Nebraska and going over the Neuraska bridge that spans Tionesta-Creek he was caught by the girders. badly hurt at McDonald & Sons mill at Vowinckel last Thursday afternoon. He was working on the skidway and while piling logs the logs started to roll and passed over him completely, breaking one of his legs and badiy bruising his body. Dr. Phillips of Leeper, dressed his wounds. He is a married man with five children and this unfortunate acctdent has placed him in a serious condition financially .- Marienville Express, -Who was the man with the "eighty"? The Derrick of yesterday morning contained this item: "Early Thursday morning a visitor from Tionesta complained to Patrolman Bannon that he had lost a roll of $80 in one of the local hotels a few hours before. The landlord was called from his bed and informed of the complaint. He declared that the man had not bought anything in the hotel or was positive that he had lost his cash in nonneed that he had not drank anything since leaving home. Patrolman Bannon had him stand up and went through him scientifically, with the result that the roll was found in the inside pocket of the man's vest, where he had thrust it and promptly forgot where he had stowed it. The chap was so chagrined at his unfounded charges that he offered both the policeman and hotel man a $5 bank note, which they refused to accept."

-All business places of Kellettville have agreed to close their stores and of fices at S p. m., to enable the clerks to attend the meetings at the M. E. church, which were opened on Monday evening with a large attendance. -During the days of the Lincoln centenary the question arose as to ages of the men who won the Civil War for the north years old 225; boys 13 years old, 300; boys 14 to 15 years old, 105,000; boys 16 years old, 126,000; boys 17 years old, 613,000; battles and skirmishes during the war.

-The Warren Times of Monday gives this account of a mishap which befell a family that lived here last summer where the father was employed on the street paving work: Salvatore Scheponi, of Eddy street, is in Emergency Hospital as the result of a buggy upsetting Sunday evening on Eddy street. Scheponi, his wife and son were in the rig at the time and Scheponi bad a number of severe bruises and in addition several bones of the shoulder were wrenched loose. An operation was performed this morning at the hospital and the bones were wired into place. His wife and son escaped with a few scratches.

-The sleet storm of Monday night gave a dreary enough aspect to all out-of-doors yesterday morning, and with ice coverof the Buffalo division of the P. R. R., to | ing everything-trees, shrubs, sidewalks an important division on the P.& E. road, and all, there is still every evidence that an ice famine is imminent and unavoidsble. Considerable damage resulted from the heavy body of ice that clung to the branches of shade and ornamental trees in this place and a number were stripped of large limbs by the weight. Monday night a large pine tree standing on the hill side opposite town came down with a crash that sounded like a dynamite explosion. Every telephone line in the borough being put out of commission by the sleet it is impossible to get reports from the country districts, but the havoc wrought to standing timber must be considerable

-State Superintendent of Public Instruction Schaeffer has informed the authorities of the thirteeu state normal schools of Pennsylvania that the allowance for the state aid is exhausted and that the students will be obliged to pay their own tuition for a part of the present term and for all of the coming spring term. The reason given for the deficiency is the increased attendance of students, there being large numbers in attendance from other states. A few years ago the state gave fifty cents a week to each student over seventeen years of age who would agree to teach in the publie schools for at least two years after graduation Lately this "aid" was increased to $1.50 a week, being the entire board being charged at about $3 00 and $3.50 a week.

-Teaching temperance in the Sunday school was the subject taken up by the years of age. women of the W. C. T. U. at Nebraska, February 11th. Mrs. James Thomson meeting being held at the home of the former. Making the most of the lesson for Temperance Sunday as given in the quarterly was discussed; also other questions relating to teaching and primary class pledge signing. Among those taking part in the discussion were Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Allison, Mrs. Secor, Mrs. Marie K linestiver and others. Thomson gave her report as superintendent of the Cradle Roll as follows: 39 infants enrolled, 8 have moved away, 1 Nebraska last Sunday morning when died, and 6 have passed on to the Sunday school. It was decided to hold a service to Miss Pearl Neal, Miss Elia Klabbatz on the appiversary of the death of Miss Willard, Thursday evening, in the church, at which time a memorial of Mrs. Mary Collins will be read.

-The school is often made a focus of infection from which spreads the many preventable epidemics. It every family were brought to an intelligent realization of the need of isolation of a patient in any case of preventable disease -or in other words the rigid separation of the sick from the well-there would be no school infection. Every school epidemic begins in some h me where the efficiency and justice of quarantine is either not understood or else the family wilfully allows the infection to be brought into the school. The school thus becomes the disseminator of disease to the entire community. The people must be educated in the great study of modern medicine,-prevention. As long as there exists ignorance, neglect or carelessness in regard to these well recognized preventative measures - so long will we be unable to limit spread of intection and Boards of Health will be impotent to effect the general spread of preventable disease.

Notice to the Public.

Our attention has been called to a no tice published by the County Commissiorers stating that the Auditors' report for the year 1909 was incorrect, in that it shows a balance in favor of the County of $11,346 25, while in reality it should show but $7,161,98.

The Auditors' report is correct. The discrepancy in question is due to the fact that the Commis-ioners omitted $4,184 27 outstanding liabilities from their financial statement.

The liabilities in question have not yet been before the Auditors, but remain in the Commissioners' office in the shape of unpaid bills.

The action of the Commissioners in rushing into print in this matter was, in our opinion, ill considered. If such a statement is to be published it should set forth the facts so that the blame might be placed upon the right parties,

We hope the Commissioners will have the fairness to explain their statement and say to the public that the blame belongs, not to the Auditors, but to them-G. H. WARDEN, Terrific Suicidal Method.

Charles Hull, aged about 40 years, a farmer living at Sanford, Warren county, near Grand Valley, committed suicide by blowing himself to pieces by dynamite on Saturday afternoon. Worry over the fact that his farm and stock were to be sold out at sheriff sale during the coming week, following a period of financial difficulties, is believed to have been back of his desire to take his own life.

Hull placed 15 pounds of dynamite under a small stump of a tree, sat on top of the stump and lighted the fuse. Neighbors were attracted to the scene by the terrible concussion and, after a half day's search of the fields in the vicinity, found but two small portions of the man's legs, the only portion of his anatomy left intact, Hull leaves surviving a widow and one
