The Forest County Summer Normal at Tionesta opens May 11th. Every teacher should avail themselves of this splendid opportunity of spending a summer of pleasure and profit. The management will be glad to answer any inquiries for information which the prospectus may not give.

The old apple tree in front of the Arner office was finally removed Saturday. In the heart of the tree, which was decayed and hollow, were found a brass eagle head of probably ancient date and a small whisky flask, which at some time had been placed in the forks of the tree and fallen to the bottom.

Mrs. Maud Stonecipher, plaintiff in a suit for divorce from her husband, Dr. Alva E. Stonecipher, was given $5,500 alimony and granted a divorce by Judge Pank in circuit court yesterday. She was allowed the custody of their two children and given $5 a month for their support. Dr. Stonecipher's children by a former marriage will remain in his keeping. Romig & Miller were counsel for Mrs. Stonecipher and Anderson, Parker & Brabill for the defendant.—Indiana

HON. FRANK X. KREIDLER.

—Two handsome monuments have just been placed in the East Hickory cemetery, one on the lot of Mrs. Chas. H. French, to the memory of her husband, and the other on the lot of Mr. E. L. Gorman, to the memory of his wife. The work was furnished by Foley Brothers Co., the Olean N. Y., monument dealers.

—The following is the report of Hunter Station school for the term ending April 12, 1909: Total enrollment, males 7, females 5; average attendance for term, males 5, females 5; per cent. of attendance males 89, females 100. Those present term are Mabel Armbringer, Marie Jaun, Edith Jaun, Annetta Swab, Mae Swab, and Joseph Kennedy. Hobart Swab missed but one day. AUGUSTA KORB, teacher.

—The following officers for the Nebraska M. E. Sunday school have been elected for the following year: Superintendent, F. X. Kreidler; assistant superintendent, I. H. Allison; treasurer, K. L. Haugh; secretary, Miss Mabel Blauser; assistant secretary, Miss Iva Preston; librarians, Misses Ruth Wiant and Olive Blauser; assistant librarians, Misses Grace Reed and Mabel Karns; organist, Miss Anna Blauser; assistant organist, Mrs. S. H. Secer.

—Gilbert Hagerty, who was employed as a tool dresser on Lowe & Co.'s well at the old Asbury Chapel, had his right arm severely injured last Thursday morning by getting it caught between the crank and the framework of the machine, while straightening the sand line. He came home and consulted Dr. Dunn, who informed him that while the arm was badly bruised there were no bones broken. The injury was very painful and will keep him from work for several weeks.

—W. L. Hardison, vice president of the Columbia Oil Producing Company, of Los Angeles Cal., formerly principal owner of the Los Angeles Herald, and at one time one of the wealthiest citizens of Los Angeles, was instantly killed at Roscoe, Cal., Saturday last, when the motor car which he was driving collided with a light engine. Mr. Hardison was formerly a resident of Bradford, Pa., and was a brother of James H. Hardison, formerly of Tionesta, but now residing at Geneva, Indiana.

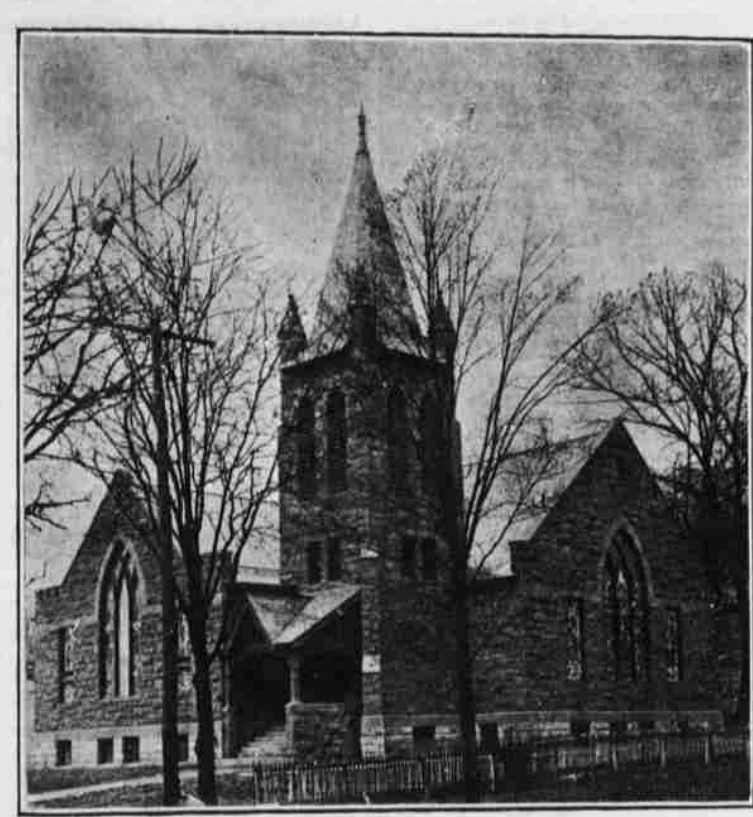

—The public will have the rare opportunity of hearing Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver, in the Oil City Theater on Saturday night, April 24. His work as Judge of the Denver County Juvenile Court and the active part he has taken against graft in politics, have gained for him a national reputation. All who know of the work of Judge Lindsey are anxiously waiting the opportunity of hearing him. Tickets may now be secured at Ormiston's Oil City. The general admission will be fifty cents; boys under eighteen, twenty five cents, and no extra charge will be made for reserved seats.

—The Edwin J. Hadley exhibition of high-class moving pictures, which comes to the Court House tomorrow night, is an attraction built upon the latest ideas and most modern methods employed in this style of entertainment. Mr. Hadley has held his motto "the best or nothing," and his strict adherence to this principle has placed "The Hadley Exhibition" upon the highest pinnacle of public approbation. Every effort has been extended to beautify the entertainment and there is a charm, a distinctive color to the Hadley pictures which has marked it as the show of originality and progress.

—The good people of Church Hill, in Hickory township, are determined to have a church and with this end in view secured the consent of the Evangelical Association for the removal of the Town Line church, in Kingsley township, to Church Hill. This building has already been torn down and will be rebuilt at once on a lot adjoining the Church Hill cemetery, the lot being donated by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Church, of East Hickory. The church had not been used for some time at Town Line and was rapidly decaying and it was thought best that it should be put to good use. Rev. A. F. Richards of Lickingville, Pa., was instrumental in starting the work of removal and will preach occasionally in the new church. S. K. Church of Church Hill is treasurer of the building committee and if any charitably inclined persons desire to assist a struggling congregation any contributions will be gratefully received.

Immediately following the ceremony, which took place at high noon, a very sumptuous dinner was served, after which the bride and groom departed for a short tour east, followed by the good wishes of their friends. The young couple are well known in this vicinity, and their many friends join in wishing them a long and safe journey in their matrimonial launch on the sea of life.

DEDICATION OF THE M. E. CHURCH

Tionesta's New and Beautiful Edifice

Consecrated to the Service of God

With Impressive Ceremonies.

No event in the history of Tionesta has been looked forward to with more pleasurable anticipation by her citizens and those of Forest county in general, than that which reached its culmination on Easter Sunday morning, April 11th, when the beautiful new Methodist Episcopal church, the gift of three of Forest county's representative and philanthropic citizens, Truman D. Collins, of Nebraska, George F. Watson, of Tionesta, and Hon. Frank X. Kreidler, of Nebraska, was formally and officially dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, by Bishop Joseph F. Berry, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Services preliminary to the formal dedication were held in the new church on Thursday evening, when a very able sermon was delivered by Rev. W. P. Murray, district superintendent of the Erie district, and a former pastor, who took for his text St. John 17:11 and 18: "And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world;" "As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world." This was followed on Friday evening by an excellent sermon by Rev. J. R. Rankin, district superintendent of the Jamestown district, and also a former pastor, whose text was selected from 2 Kings 2:15: "The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha." Both of these sermons were listened to with appreciation by large audiences of former members and friends. On Saturday evening, Rev. Charles N. Boswell, D. D., of Philadelphia, Pa., corresponding secretary of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, and known nationally as the "Cyclone of Methodism," delivered a characteristic sermon, which was enthusiastically received by a large congregation. His text was chosen from Ezra 3:7: "They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters."

Sunday dawned bright and clear and it was an Easter of the ideal sort, reawakening in the minds and hearts of all persons thoughts of the new risen Lord, to whose glory and service the beautiful new temple was about to be dedicated. The services of the day were begun with the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at 7:00 o'clock a. m., Rev. D. A. Platt, district superintendent, having the meeting in charge and being assisted by Revs. W. O. Calhoun, F. M. Small, A. O. Stone, M. B. Riley and R. A. Buzza.

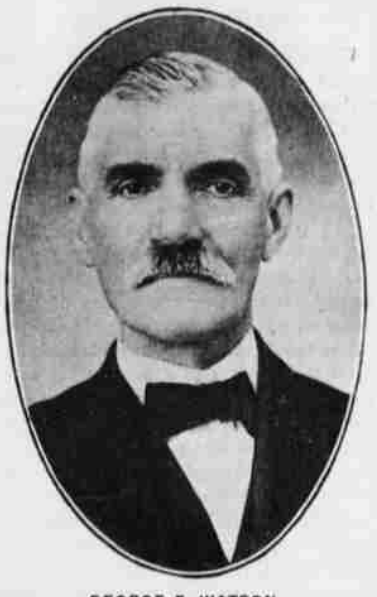

The dedicatory services proper were held at 10:30 a. m., and were interesting, edifying and unusually impressive. Long before the hour set a large audience made up of all denominations of the town and coming from many surrounding towns had gathered at the church. The services were opened by the rendering of a fine anthem, "The King of Glory," by the choir, hymn No. 1 by the congregation, followed by prayer by Rev. R. A. Buzza, a former pastor. Miss Kittie McKnight, of Oil City, then sang a beautiful solo, "Open the Gates of the Temple," which was followed by the reading of the 8th Psalm by Rev. H. A. Bailey, and the singing of hymn No. 699 by the congregation. Bishop Berry then delivered the sermon of the day, which was an able effort and an intellectual treat. For an hour he held the vast audience spellbound by his eloquence, basing his remarks on the text as found in Job 23:3: "Oh that I knew where I might find him!" Rev. W. O. Calhoun, the pastor, gave a statement of the finances, showing that the sum of $1,500.00 was needed to pay for the furnishings of the church, and under the inspiring leadership of Dr. Boswell this amount was raised in a short time by voluntary subscriptions. The trustees were then called to the altar rail and the building was formally dedicated by Bishop Berry, according to the ritual of the church, the building being presented for dedication by Hon. F. X. Kreidler, on behalf of the donors and trustees. The benediction by Rev. D. A. Platt closed the exercises.

A platform meeting was held at 3:30 p. m., at which short addresses were made by Revs. W. O. Calhoun, H. A. Bailey, D. A. Platt, A. O. Stone, R. A. Buzza, F. M. Small, L. H. Shindeldecker and Charles N. Boswell.

The Sunday evening service was the beginning of the revival meetings which are being continued throughout this week. Two anthems by the choir, "Soleils are Shattered," and "Praise the Lord," and a solo, "Face to Face," by Miss McKnight, introduced the service. A powerful and touching sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. Boswell from the text as found in 2 Kings 7:12: "If we carry till the morning light, some mischief will come upon us." A number came to the altar. Rev. Mr. Stone occupied the pulpit on Monday evening and Rev. Mr. Small on Tuesday evening.

This article would be incomplete without a full record of praise being given to the two choirs which furnished such excellent music, and also to those who trained them.

The ministers present from out of town were: Bishop Joseph F. Berry of Buffalo, N. Y.; Rev. C. N. Boswell, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. W. P. Murray, of Erie, Pa.; Rev. J. R. Rankin, of Jamestown, N. Y.; Rev. D. A. Platt, of Franklin, Pa.; Rev. A. O. Stone, of Harrisburg, Pa.; Rev. R. A. Buzza, of Meadville, Pa.; Rev. F. M. Small, of Ferdinand, Pa.; Rev. W. E. Davis, of West

GEORGE F. WATSON.

REV. W. O. CALHOUN.

Hickory, Pa.; Rev. M. B. Riley, of Tylersburg, Pa.; Rev. L. H. Shindeldecker, of Seneca, Pa., and Rev. K. E. Shindeldecker, of Watson Farm, Pa.

We have on previous occasions published complete descriptions of the church and furnishings, and this week print a good picture of the building. The people of all denominations take a very pardonable pride in the magnificent new temple of worship, which will stand for ages as a monument to the generosity of our three distinguished citizens. It is a matter of regret that Mr. Collins was ill and not able to attend the services.

A SUICIDE AT KELLETTSVILLE.

Mike Kalafatin Tries to Kill a Young Lady and Then Kills Himself.

On Monday afternoon at about two o'clock, Mike Kalafatin, a Slav, aged about 19 years and unmarried, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart, at Kellettsville. The unfortunate young man lives with a married sister in one of the Elk Tanning Co.'s houses and was an industrious young man in the employ of the tannery. As is the custom with about all the foreigners, the day following Easter is a day when but very few do any labor and the majority of them celebrate to their heart's content. Monday was no exception to the rule and considerable drinking was indulged in. The young man had been drinking heavily and it seems he was determined to make a good job of it. Mike was intimated with a young girl from his native country, Miss Anna Mitcaw, who resides with her uncle, George Mitcaw, and is employed in the kindling wood factory, but who did not seem to take kindly to his advances. This seemed to prey on his mind so heavily he decided to die by his own hand. Sometime after the noon hour the young lady was taking a walk with two married ladies when Mike saw them go up the railroad. He secured his gun, which is a single barrel shot gun, and went out back of the house and on a line nearly parallel with the railroad tracks. By the amount of shells found on the ground where he lay he must have discharged a full dozen of shots. After firing several shots he leaped the ladies coming back and hiding behind a stump he opened fire on the trio, one shot struck the young lady back of the right ear, but did not even draw blood. A few shots came very close to all the parties but as the distance was about twenty rods nothing serious happened to the ladies, except they were badly frightened.

When but one shell remained he went about to end his own life. First he loaded the gun and taking his handkerchief he tied one end of it firmly to the trigger and the other end was tied to a stick about 2 1/2 feet long. Placing the muzzle of the gun firmly against his left side directly over his heart, he pushed the stick and discharged the weapon. He was attired in his Sunday raiment and did not wear a coat or vest. His clothing was badly powder-burnt and a small hole into his side told the tale. The charge was likely lodged in his shoulder, as there was no evidence of its coming out.

The place where the deed was committed lies on a little elevation and was visible from the school house and other places on the opposite side of the creek. Nick Arnold, who has a shop directly opposite the location and near the school building, saw the shooting. Mrs. M. F. Catlin, who resides a few rods from the school building, and several of the scholars also saw the shooting. Those that witnessed the affray were too far distant to realize at the time just what was occurring until too late. Where the shooting occurred was only about ten rods from the house and in the lot. He was removed to the house in a few minutes after the shooting. It was not deemed necessary to hold an inquest. The remains were turned over to undertaker Robbins. The preparations have not yet been completed for the funeral, but it is likely the interment will be made at Tidouit.

Titusville, Pa., March 31, 1909.

For twenty years I suffered with bleeding and itching piles, at times was confined to the house for more than a month. Two years ago I began using E. K. Thompson's San-Cura Ointment, and one 50-cent bottle made a firm and permanent cure and have not been troubled since. I can truly recommend San-Cura to any suffering humanity.

I am glad to give this testimony and will guarantee a cure if used as directed. I have had perfect health for 8 years.
