In 1890 the tariff storm center was tin-cups, and now it is stockings. Tin-cups continued to be as cheap as ever...

A BROOKLYN doctor denounces the habit of using salt on potatoes. The boy who defined salt as the stuff that spoiles potatoes if you don't put any on seems to have started right, but lost his way.

It is apparent from the course of revision that when the millennium comes there will be no tariffs or taxation of any kind, for what would a millennium amount to unless it pleased everybody?

THE announcement by Senator Crawford of Allegheny of his candidacy for the office of Auditor General moves the astute Punxy Spirit to ironically remark that "an effort will likely be made by the populous counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny to divide the offices between them on an equitable basis."

A NEW law in New York makes hazing at colleges or schools a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of from $10 to $100, or imprisonment from thirty days to a year.

A COMMITTEE of the Philippines Government has recommended the expenditure of $5,000,000 in irrigation in installments of $75,000 a year. It is stated that the investment would pay in the production of rice alone for home consumption.

PERHAPS the champion fool thing that Congress has done this session is the placing of crude oil on the free list. It shows how ignorance and prejudice acting in conjunction can make men blind to the plainest dictates of reason.

In the Senate of Pennsylvania the pension bill was permitted to die last week. The bill passed the House with almost entire unanimity, but when it reached the upper house that body, with possibly a tacit understanding, allowed it to fall by the wayside.

The Erie Dispatch has visions of that town of 70,000 people growing into a city like Pittsburg or Cleveland. Erie will have a big advantage over other cities in this section because of being a fine lake port as well as a railroad center.

The trout season opened up cloudy and cold. Four women with grit and spunk, and with blood in their eyes marched down the road with pots of bait and poles on their shoulders, labored hard all day and marched back home again at night at the time Johnny comes marching home.

No Willie Whittles on the bill and no millionaires, but we have some fine girls and a kidnapper who is fortunate enough to get away with one, if he did not get the ransom it took to get Willie, would find in her many times the value as a number one housekeeper.

Tody Price and Earl Berlin of this place, two great fox hunters, while cutting chestnut tannery wood on Otter creek the other day, felled a hollow chestnut of some kind of an animal with small head, body two feet long, tail 18 inches long and with web feet like a duck.

The forest fires are raging in sight of the hill and are coming very close. The big wind storm the other day took a five dollar bill from Ed. Rudolph's fingers and blew it away, never to be seen again. Too bad, these panicky times.

Sick headache, constipation and biliousness are relieved by Kings Little Liver Pills. They cleanse the system. Do not grip. Price 25c. Sold by J. R. Morgan.

The Late Legislature.

The legislature of Pennsylvania adjourned at noon on Thursday last, after one of the shortest and most business like sessions in the history of the state. While few bills of an important nature were passed, the work being mainly confined to the enacting of the necessary appropriation bills...

It is gratifying to note that Forest county's member, Mr. Meckling, was on the right side of every bill, voting against all vicious propositions and supporting every worthy measure that was proposed. No member, old or new, stood higher in the estimation of his colleagues...

More Railroad Talk. The Titusville Herald of Saturday has this additional information concerning the proposed new railroad from Erie to Punxsutawney...

The citizens of Punxsutawney have subscribed for $35,000 of stock in a silk mill proposition, and expect to have the plant in operation before the summer ends.

The Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company broke all previous records during March, when it turned out 39,000 tons of finished product. The plant is running full time and the prospects are bright for a successful summer.

Two years ago my daughter stepped on a needle, breaking it off in the ball of the foot, which swelled up very painfully swelling to the knee. The doctor at Gowanda lanced the foot, but was unable to find the needle. The X ray was applied, and we could see the needle. We then applied San-Cura Ointment, thick as a poultice, and after four applications the needle made its appearance...

Forty Days and Nights Of suffering from a broken needle in my thumb and hand, to which I applied flaxseed poultices for over a week with no benefit. A friend told me that San-Cura Ointment would draw it out. I applied it as thick as a poultice. My hand was swollen to twice its natural size. San-Cura reduced the inflammation and pain and drew out the broken needle, over an inch long. I never felt so thankful. I hereby write to Mr. Thompson, who has it with other specimens of what San-Cura has done. I recommend San-Cura as an absorbent to draw poison and pain from any suffering being, (man or beast). 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $2.00.
