LET it be born in mind by those who are clamoring for a thorough revision of the tariff "downward," that such a movement would mean the downward trend of our great industrial interests, exports wages and business in general.—Punxy Sprit.

By an act of the last legislature the marriage license fee is now one dollar instead of fifty cents as heretofore. The new law is a sliding fee and provides that if the contracting parties are of age the fee is one dollar; if one of the parties is under age the fee is one dollar and a half; and if both are under age the fee is two dollars.

HENRY H. ROGERS, who was an old oil region operator, but for years past had been one of the Standard's leading capitalists and promoters, died suddenly in New York on the 19th inst., at the age of 69 years. A man of Rogers' great energy and force will be greatly missed from this gigantic corporation. He was a man of liberal instincts and his benefactions ran into the millions, and he had them to give.

THE county commissioners of this state have for several years taken a week off to attend a meeting of the state association, charging the expenses of the junketing trip to the county. The auditors of several counties refused to allow the bill, so a bill was passed by the legislature to force the counties to pay. Governor Stuart couldn't see it that way and vetoed the bill. It is a safe wager that the next meeting of the state association won't be so unanimously attended.—Conneautville Courier.

WHEN such a man as Captain Wirz, the Swiss who was hanged for murder and cruelty in his brutal treatment of Union soldiers confined in Andersonville Prison, can have a monument it seems as if Satan himself might expect one. We are a forgiving people, but the Daughters of the Confederacy must be mighty hard up if they cannot secure notoriety in some other manner than this, most righteously observed the Oil City Bizzard. To hades with such monsters as "Captain" Wirz!

GOVERNOR HUGHES, of New York, vetoed the bill to provide a pension of $6 a month to Civil War veterans enlisting from that State and still residing therein, who had served at least 90 days. In vetoing the measure the Governor said: "State pensions for military services are indefensible in principle, and will breed injustice in practice. If the states generally adopt the policy of granting military pensions independently for service in the United States army, it will be a most natural result that the burden of future pensions will largely be left to fall upon the State."

REFERRING to Governor Stuart's veto of the state highway bill, the Punxentawney Spirit says its approval would have cost the Republican party a large number of farmers votes next fall. The impression that it was to have been a sort of a speedway was general throughout the state, and outside of the counties through which the road was to have passed, there was little or no sentiment favorable to it. Pennsylvania is to be congratulated upon the death of this measure, as well as the Capitol park extension bill, which also fell under the governor's axe. There was just as little real demand for the extension of Capitol park at an expenditure of more than $2,000,000 as there is for the construction of an auto speedway at $3,000,000, and few are really mourning the final failure of either measure.

THE anti-splitting bill passed by the late legislature is now a law of the Commonwealth, so be a little careful where you spit. It prohibits expectoration in practically all public places except driveways—the places are listed in the bill—and requires that prominent signs be kept posted in such places, calling attention to the law. Where spitting receptacles are provided for the public they must be cleaned after each day's use. Persons violating the act can be convicted in summary proceedings before any magistrate and fined $1 and costs, to be paid into the municipal treasury; in default of payment the jail sentence is not to exceed five days. Persons, firms or corporations not keeping warning signs posted or not having cuspidors cleaned according to the law are to be fined from $5 to $50. Constables and other officers of the law may arrest persons violating the act upon view.

Memorial Day Program.

The joint committee of Capt. George Stow Post, No. 274, and Stow Woman's Relief Corps, No. 137, met at the home of Mrs. G. W. Holeman and arranged for Memorial Day program as follows: Rev. W. O. Calhoun has been secured and will preach the Memorial Sermon in the M. E. church, Sunday, May 30th, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. All members of the G. A. R., ex-soldiers and the public generally are cordially and earnestly invited to be present.

This year the 30th of May falling on Sunday, the Post and people will in accordance with General Orders of the Department of Pennsylvania, observe Monday, the 31st. Comrades, ex-soldiers, Sons of Veterans, Spanish war soldiers, and children of the public and Sabbath schools of Tionesta and vicinity are invited on that day to participate, each school under the charge of an officer or teacher and under the general charge of the W. R. C. John B. Eden is appointed Marshal of the Day.

The usual dinner will be arranged as heretofore by the W. R. C. at their hall in the Killmer building, from 12 o'clock sharp, for all soldiers, veterans, and their wives.

The Sabbath schools are, under the supervision of the W. R. C., appointed to provide flowers both for strewing on the waters, in memory of our gallant sailor dead, and to decorate the graves of our beloved comrades who sleep in the cemetery.

At 1:15 sharp the Post, ex-soldiers, W. R. C., and children will march to the Allegheny River bridge, where the beautiful ritual and order of service as directed by our National Department will be performed, after which ceremony all will march to Riverside cemetery, conduct the customary ritual services, decorate the graves of our soldier dead with the flowers of spring, after which all will march to the court house, where other exercises will be observed and the Memorial Address of the day will be delivered by Mr. A. C. Brown, of Tionesta.

A happy feature of the day will be the presentation to Forest county of a beautiful oil painting of Capt. Geo. Stow, the hero after whom our Post is named, by his war comrade, Lieut. D. W. Clark, our present commander. Also a portrait of Capt. Benj. Smith, another Captain of Co. G, 83d Pa. Vol., who likewise lost his life in battle. Mr. M. A. Carringer, on behalf of Forest county, will receive the same, making a short historical address pertaining to the lives of these patriots. We request singers to form a choir and aid us by their odes and songs in properly observing the day.

The Post this year expects to have the new metallic markers for the first time. This is a manifest improvement.

The following details have been made for those buried in cemeteries within our jurisdiction: Mt. Zion church and Newmansville, D. R. Walters, G. W. Rody; President, G. W. McAlmont, C. C. VanGiesen; Bartholomew and Evangelical, Christopher Zoendel, A. H. Downing and John Matha. It is suggested that these details perform their duties early in the forenoon, so as to enable them to be present at all the exercises at Tionesta in the afternoon.

D. W. CLARK, Commander. SAMUEL D. IRWIN, Adjt.

The Patriotic Dead.

Following is a complete list of the patriotic dead who sleep in the cemeteries in this vicinity and whose graves will be strewn with flowers next Monday by their comrades of Capt. Geo. Stow Post, G. A. R. The Post lost two members by death during the past year, John S. Wilson and David Stakeley, the latter interred at Tylersburg and out of the Post's jurisdiction.

Whooping Cough. This is a more dangerous disease than is generally presumed. It will be a surprise to many to learn that more deaths result from it than from scarlet fever. Pneumonia often results from it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, and always with the best results. Delbert McKeig of Harlan, Iowa, says of it: "My boy took whooping cough when nine months old. He had it in the winter. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which proved good. I cannot recommend it too highly." For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Pleasant Grove.

Jim Fitzgerald, the champion quill picker of Cooksburg, was here last Saturday trying the boys a game and he was beaten. Miss Edna Pierce of Leola is visiting in town for a few days. GOLD DUST.

RECENT DEATHS.

BREWSTER. Peter Brewster was born in Montrose, Susquehanna county, Pa., June 14, 1829, and died in Tylersburg, May 18, 1909. When he was 19 years of age his parents moved to Clarion county and settled on a farm near Tylersburg. Fifty-five years ago he was united in marriage with Priscilla Butler. To them were born ten children, seven sons and three daughters, the following surviving: John Brewster of Johnstown; Alice Wolf of Johnstown; William of Reynoldsville; James of Elk City; Minnie Campbell of Marienville; Frank, George and R. B. Brewster of Tylersburg. He leaves to mourn his loss besides his children, three sisters, Mrs. Mary Stakely, Mrs. Hattie Marshall and Mrs. Apollo Miller of Tylersburg. The funeral services were conducted Thursday by Rev. W. C. Ferrer of the Presbyterian church assisted by Rev. M. B. Reilly of the M. E. church, and the remains were laid to rest in the M. E. cemetery at Tylersburg.

WALFORD. Walter Wesley Walford, son of W. W. Walford, died at his father's home at the north of Elm street, Tionesta, Friday evening, May 21, 1909. He was born December 2, 1872. He left home when he became of age and was employed in several places, but of late years he had made his home in Franklin, Pa. About a year and a half ago he contracted that dread disease, consumption, and came to his father's home about the holidays. He gradually grew weaker until the end came. He was a patient sufferer, and was never heard to complain. He was the only surviving son and leaves to mourn his death a father and five sisters, his mother having died two years ago. The sisters surviving are, Mrs. Daniel Sautsger, of Tionesta; Mrs. M. H. Strain, of Franklin; Mrs. Frank Robinson and Mrs. Bart Wiles, of Tionesta, and Mrs. L. A. Wiles, of Tidioute. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. H. A. Bailey, pastor of the Presbyterian church, assisted by the Presbyterian choir, who rendered appropriate music, and the remains were interred in the family lot in Riverside cemetery. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved father and family.

LONG. Isaac Long, aged 77 years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. L. Kerr, Marienville, Pa., Saturday evening, May 15, 1909. For about four years his health had been declining, and his age militated against his recuperative powers. Mr. Long who was born in Londonderry, Ireland, came to this country when he was a young man, and settled in Clarion, Forest county, and where he lived for more than 30 years. He was a man of good education having in his younger days been a close student in the best schools of his native country. He served an apprenticeship as a shoemaker in the old country and for a time after settling in Clarion followed his trade. Later he engaged in the mercantile business. In the fall of 1875 he was elected a Commissioner of Forest county, and in his official conduct he displayed so much good common sense and sound judgment in the management of the affairs of the county, that he was easily re-elected to another term in 1878. While a resident of Clarion he was united in marriage with Miss Sarah E. Steele, who, with one daughter, above mentioned, survives. For a short time he resided at North Pine Grove, Clarion county, where he was engaged in mercantile pursuits, and from there moved to Phillipsburg, Kansas, where he was also engaged in merchandising. He remained for a short time only, and then returned to Pennsylvania, purchasing a general store at Newmansville and conducting the same for about 17 years. He retired from active business about four years ago, and made his home with his daughter.

A man of sterling honesty, probity and sincerity, Mr. Long bore the highest esteem of all who knew him. Wherever his acquaintance extended the confidence of the people was his and never was that confidence betrayed in the least degree. Funeral services in his memory were held on the Monday following his death, being conducted by Rev. H. E. Phipps of the Methodist Episcopal church, and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Marienville.

Game wardens throughout the state have within the past few days received copies of a letter from Secretary Kalbfus of the state game commission, in which they are given positive instructions to enforce the law which prohibits unnaturalized foreigners from having firearms of any kind in their possession. Under this law unnaturalized foreigners are not permitted to even own a gun of any description and if one is found in the house of an unnaturalized foreigner, the weapon is subject to confiscation and the owner liable to arrest. Game wardens and others, however, have been instructed not to enforce this law until after the first of July, so that owners of weapons will have the chance to dispose of them before they are made subject to the penalty imposed for owning or carrying weapons. If foreigners are caught violating the game laws before the first of July, according to the instructions they are to be arrested under the provision of the new law. The use of automatic guns in hunting is absolutely forbidden and game wardens are instructed to make arrests of any persons having such guns in their possession while out hunting.

Jay Mann, a prominent farmer at Findlay Lake, N. Y., was killed in a peculiar manner last Friday, while blowing out stumps with dynamite. He had arranged two charges in two different stumps, and lighting the fuse in one of the charges hurried to what he considered a safe distance. The concussion from the first explosion caused the other charge to explode. Mr. Mann was near the second stump and was so terribly mangled that his death occurred in a few hours. He is survived by a wife and five children.

Sad Luck. "Mother," said five-year-old Jack, "how much older than you is father?" "Just thirteen years," replied the unsuspecting parent. "Well, mother," seriously continued the child, "the next time you marry, don't marry a man thirteen years older than you. Don't you know it is bad luck?"—Dellencourt.

Summer days are coming fast. Already vacation days are being discussed in the home and in the office, and in a few weeks the annual exodus to country, seashore and mountain will have been begun.

America abounds with delightful summering places, in valley, on mountain and beside the sea—thousands of resorts whither went the pilgrims in search of pleasure and recreation. Pennsylvania Railroad ticket agents now have on sale excursion tickets to the greater number of these resorts; by the first week in June there will be about eight hundred points covered by Pennsylvania Railroad summer excursion tickets.

From the rock-bound bays of Newfoundland to the sunny slopes of the Virginia shores; from the White Mountains of New Hampshire to the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee; along the forty beaches of New Jersey; even to the far coast of the Pacific Ocean, these summer resorts stand ready to entertain the transient or all summer guest. Any Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent will cheerfully give information concerning routes and fares to these resorts, enabling summer pilgrims to plan their outing at a minimum of time and cost.
