An Exceptionally Representative Showing of Women's Early Fall Appareling.

When we say to you that it is possible for you to come here now—any time—and count the new Fall Suits by the hundreds, you will be able to form some idea of what we have prepared for you.

Never before have we had so many garments so early in the season.

It is a showing that would be worthy the store on its formal "Opening Days," and they are still some little time away. Everything that is new for the season is represented.

There Are Untold Advantages in Early Choosing.

First of all, you will get garments of an exclusive character—kinds like which there will be no duplicates later in the season. Your next door neighbor will not have a gown like yours—if you get it here.

Secondly—color range. Now all shades that are new and good are here in abundance. A month hence they will be scarce—the mills having supplied their output.

The garments now here too, are made by the best men tailors we know of and they are made ahead of the rush and crush that exists at the moment in the big New York tailor houses, for they are all in the midst of their busiest days. This means a little more careful attention to details in the handiwork and less opportunity for mistakes than when a suit has to be rushed.

Materials most favored include Wale Cheviots, Homespus, Bannockburn Tweeds, Serges and fine Broadcloths. All the coats are cut from 40 to 50 inches in length.

The price range is from $15 to $75.

SONDER BOAT RACES

Three American Defenders at Top of List in First Series.

Marblehead, Mass., Aug. 31.—America won a decisive victory over Germany in the first of the series of Sonder boat races for the President Taft and Governor Draper cups. All three places at the top of the list were captured by the defenders of trophies, while the three challenging boats brought up well to the rear.

The Joyette, owned by Commodore William K. Childs of the Bensonhurst Yacht club of Brooklyn, N. Y., won first honors, with the Ellen, owned by Charles P. Curtis of Boston, second, and the Wolf, owned by Caleb Loring of Boston, third.

Next came the Margarethe, one of the German challengers, and following her, more than six minutes astern, was the Hovella, while the Seehund II. finished last.

The Seehund II. carried away her throat halyards within five minutes after crossing the starting line and was unable to resume racing fully ten minutes while the damage was being repaired.

Vice Admiral Barandon, chairman of the joint committee of the Kaiserlicher Yacht club of Kiel and Eastern Yacht club of Boston, when asked after the race what he thought of the result said: "Oh, your boats are so much faster. It was a great surprise to me for this was real Kiel weather."

The air was clear as crystal, the wind delightfully cool from 12 to 15 miles strength and the sea so smooth that it did no more than give the contesting yachts a slight jump. Four revenue cutters were on hand for the purpose of keeping the course clear and the United States navy was represented by Secretary Meyer on board the dispatch boat Dolphin.

The race was twice around a triangular course of seven and a half miles.

GARDINER RETURNS CHECK

In Letter He Says He Rendered No Bill For Such Amount As Was Allowed.

Albany, Aug. 31.—Colonel Asa Bird Gardiner returned to State Treasurer Dunn a check for $2,000, the amount allowed him for services rendered during the administration of former Attorney General Jackson in representing the state in opposition to Harry Thaw's attempt to secure his release from Matteawan. Colonel Gardiner presented a bill for $15,000. In a letter accompanying the check Mr. Gardiner says he had rendered no bill for such an amount as allowed and did not propose to accept it. He is summing in the Catskills and says he will come to Albany later to see about his compensation.

Mr. Gardiner's bill, with several others aggregating about $150,000, was left unpaid during Mr. Jackson's administration. The legislature appointed a special committee to consider these bills and appropriated $75,000 to meet the bills audited by the committee. The committee recommended that the expenses incurred by special counsel designated by Mr. Jackson should first be paid. This practically took up all the appropriation except that in the smaller accounts it was possible to make some payment for services.

LOCK VICTIM IN ICE BOX

Robbers First Take $74 From G. Rossi In His Saloon.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Not content with obtaining $74, two masked men who entered the saloon of G. Rossi, 29 Chatham court, in broad daylight, put the proprietor in an ice box, locked the door and left the building.

Rossi, after he had been a prisoner almost an hour, attracted the attention of James Giblin, who rooms above the saloon, by pounding on the floor with a beer bottle. Giblin released him. His limbs and back were numb from the cold and his cramped position.

"Out of consideration for your gray hairs," the robbers had said, "we will allow you to have some air," and they opened a small window near the top of the chest to prevent the prisoner's suffocating.

Rossi said one of the men had a black mustache and the other red hair, but beyond this he could give no description of them.

FIRES FAREWELL SHOT

Dismissed Minister Likes to Tell Congregation Who Are Liars.

Cincinnati, Aug. 31.—In bidding farewell to his congregation at West Chester Sunday night Rev. J. Spencer Smith, the "fighting parson," who recently upbraided the elders of his church for allowing him and his wife to go hungry, took a parting verbal shot at those officials.

"I have been told to leave West Chester by my officials," he said, "and I go, though reluctantly. I like to get down to brass tacks every once in a while and tell who of my congregation are liars, gossipers, tattlers and backbiters. It ought to be a good lesson for the guilty as well as the innocent. Some of you have doubtless misunderstood my motive, but I want you to understand that I have tried to be always sincere, always charitable, always honest. You may get hear the truth here again for some time, but you will know it in the end. Now, let us sing, 'Jesus, Lover of My Soul.'"

With the closing of this hymn the pastor bade his congregation goodby.

How Prof. Anderson Invented Foods Shot from Guns

He was seeking a way to break up starch granules, so the digestive juices could get to them.

Cooking or baking only begins to do that. No old-time method breaks up all of the granules.

So he conceived the idea of blasting those granules to pieces by an explosion of steam.

And these foods resulted—the most delicious, most digestible cereal foods ever created.

Each kernel, by the explosion, is puffed to eight times size. It is made four times as porous as bread.

It is made nut-like and crisp, ready to melt in the mouth.

They are made so enticing that children delight in them. Grown folks, too.

They are so irresistible that seventeen million dishes were consumed last month.

When will you find them out?

Puffed Wheat—10c Puffed Rice—15c

These are the foods invented by Prof. Anderson, and this is his curious process:

The whole wheat or rice kernels are put into sealed guns. Then the guns are revolved for sixty minutes in a heat of 550 degrees.

That fierce heat turns the moisture in the grain to steam, and the pressure becomes tremendous.

Then the guns are unsealed, and the steam explodes. Instantly every starch granule is blasted into a myriad particles.

The kernels of grain are expanded eight times. Yet the coats are unbroken, the shapes are unaltered. We have simply the magnified grain.

One package will tell you why people delight in them. Order it now.

SWEEP WON FUTURITY

James R. Keene's Share of Purse of $31,000 Was $27,000.

New York, Aug. 31.—So hard held that his head lay almost in his rider's lap and yet without maintaining his graceful long stride and with his feetness of foot unimpaired James R. Keene's Sweep, a son of Ben Brush-Pink Domino, won the twenty-second running of the Futurity at Sheepshead Bay.

Five lengths back, ridden out with whip and heel to beat Sweep's stablemate, Gramere, a short length for the place, staggered the tired Montpelier stables candidate, Candlerberry, also a son of the sire of Sweep. Angerona, an added starter, was a fairly good fourth, but the other nine contestants were beaten off and well strung out over a furlong. The time for the six furions was 1:11 4/5. Sweep's share of the purse of $31,000 was $27,000.
