

Calendar for September 1909 showing days of the week and dates.

Republican Ticket.

STATE. Justice of the Supreme Court, ROBERT VON MOSCHIZSKEI, of Philadelphia. Auditor General, A. E. SISSON, of Erie. State Treasurer, JEREMIAH A. STOBBER, of Lancaster. COUNTY. Associate Judge, SAMUEL AUL, Jenks Twp. District Attorney, M. A. CARRINGER, Tionesta Boro. Coroner, ...

EVERY voter must make sure that his taxes are paid in order to entitle him to a vote at the November election. The last date upon which this can be done is Saturday, Oct. 2. Don't put it off.

THE Philadelphia Inquirer is much exercised over the fact that if the Mauretania keeps on breaking ocean voyage records, the trans-Atlantic trip will not take long enough to conclude even a moderate poker game.

If it is true, as reported from Lewis-town, that the express robbers who held up the train got $65,000 instead of $65, as first stated, it is little wonder that the express company is anxious to capture the thief, having 180 detectives on the track, who with guides are scouring the mountains of that neighborhood.

THE ballots to be used at the coming fall election in this state will be something awful in size if the sample received at the office of the County Commissioners is anything of a criterion, it being about one by two feet in dimension, and contains the state candidates and constitutional amendments alone, the local candidates still to be added. It will be a "blanket ballot," surely.

THE newspapers of towns along the Clarion river are making a general and vigorous protest against wholesale contamination and pollution of the stream. At Ridgway the stench is said to have become unbearable since the water has fallen so low. The tanneries, paper and chemical factories are charged with its present bad condition. At the mouth of the Clarion where it empties into the Allegheny river below Foxburg the water is as black, almost as ink and there is apparently nothing living in the stream. There is no appreciable odor from the water, however.—Derrick

ONE of the Pittsburgh papers says the sportsmen of that town are burnishing up their guns and getting their dogs in fettle for the fall shooting season, which is only a few weeks distant. Under the laws of Pennsylvania pheasants, wild turkeys, quail and squirrels may be shot on and after October 15. They may burnish up their guns as much as they please, but they need not look for game in Venango County. It is very scarce this year. It is to be hoped the local papers will not hold out inducements for outside pot-hunters to come here by misrepresenting the situation. The river is not full of fish, nor the woods full of game. But there is fine hunting in Canada and Africa.—Oil City Blizzard. The Blizzard is correct. Too many false impressions about the great abundance of game are given out by editors who don't know a woodcock from a turkey buzzard, or a muscualone from a blood-sucker.

Who Owns the Pole?

This question is asked by the Punks-tawney Spirit, which then proceeds to say: Many persons assume that the mere fact that an American was first to reach the North Pole makes that frigid territory the property of the United States. Such is not the case, unless we choose to occupy it, and take the responsibility of regulating matters up there.

The State Department, fearing that the impression might become general that the polar regions belong to the United States by right of discovery has been at some pains to correct possible misconceptions. "Of course," says the Springfield Republican, "there is now no such thing as legal possession by the mere right of discovery; but original discovery strengthens a claim if it is followed up by an official flag-raising and an effective occupation. There must be real possession, in the long run, and not a mere paper claim to jurisdiction, based on one proclamation of sovereignty. When the new world was discovered these questions were gradually thrashed out, and the modern practice finally established. At first, Spain claimed the coast of America because Ponce de Leon, in 1513, landed on the coast of Florida; but the English claim was equally good, because the Cabots had already explored the coast from Nova Scotia to Cape Hatteras. Such conflicts were necessarily compromised, in the end, only by the development of the doctrine of effective occupation. There have been many discoveries of new lands in the extreme polar regions in the past fifty years, but of effective occupation by their government there has been exceedingly little, for reasons seen at a glance."

At present, therefore, nobody has dominion over the polar regions, because there are no people there to be governed or interests to be safeguarded. It is a matter of possession. It belongs to the first country that may colonize it and utilize it for any legitimate purpose.

Duhring.

Last meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held at Miller's camp, Friday evening, 10th, by Ervine E. Deer and Charles J. Borden. They have gone to Port Allegany, where they will hold meetings.

Mr. Leslie and John Porter were Marienville visitors Friday evening, returning home at break of day. Attended a ball and report a fine time.

Mrs. F. G. Berg was a Sheffield visitor Monday.

Oscar Spetz of Dunkirk was home with his parents Monday, his sister Ellen returning with him as far as Sheffield.

Mrs. Wm. Irvin of Barnes was the guest of relatives here over Thursday night, where her little son Arthur is staying and going to school.

Messrs. Gibson and Henderson of Straight run visited our town Thursday. They were looking after business affairs.

Mr. Heppner has moved into the new camp at Parrish, on the Ellitrop job. Glad to see more men, neighbors.

Mrs. Art Johnson is preparing to attend the Clarion fair next week.

F. G. Berg drove a man to Marienville, Friday evening, that was quite badly out in the woods here. We could not learn his name.

B. F. Branch of Warren was in town Friday. A traveling agent, we understand, for lumbering machinery.

Messrs. Swanson and Miller are again busy with their log job here.

F. G. Berg's are intending to make their departure the first of the month for his home at Chandler's Valley, where they will take care of his aged parents during the winter. They are preparing and will store their furniture. Mr. Fulmer of Hyramtown will take his place on the farm, which is owned by Mr. Frost of Fredonia, N. Y. Mr. Fulmer will take care of the lease, farm, store and post office. We are sorry to see the Berg family go but are glad to see more neighbors. Not as though the house would be vacated for good, as it is large and would look lonely.

There was an auto in our town a few days ago. We did not learn where it was from, but it was a big beauty and brought in some men that were interested in the oil business here.

Ray Schuler of Warren was visiting his uncle, Fred Kuupp, over Sunday, taking Monday dinner with A. F. Kinney and returning to his home in the afternoon.

Charles Lindsey went to Snyders camp, near Nansen, to work. He expects to work on the pipe line soon.

Mr. Kendall of Marienville is our teacher this term. He has a nice school of 32. They all seem to like their teacher and he proves satisfactory.

Charles Anderson of the Keller farm, Frostown, passed through our town this week.

There will be a ball game at Auguston, Sunday afternoon. Our boys are doing fine this year.

Whig Hill.

Farmers and all others of this place who can work or would like to work, could be busy just now plowing, sowing and thrashing.

The Littlefield thresher is here doing business. Mr. Littlefield is a hustler and works from the shoulder, and we would not forget his partner, Mr. Mealy, who is a jolly good fellow with always a smile on his face. We would not forget the freeman, who makes a great addition to the crew; a great fellow for chicken, and fall of jokes, but some feel just a little suspicious of the freeman, as he seems to have his mind fixed on something else. Farmers have their eyes on him and no doubt he will be watched closely and if necessary will be taken care of.

While everything seemed to be quiet for some time past, there seems to be quite a commotion here just now when we read of Dr. Cook and Mr. Peary, the two great explorers, and the discovery of the North Pole and the honor and fortune of those great men. We would like to see them, but when we think of them as great men we don't want to forget that we have men in Forest county who could become famous if they had Uncle Sam at their backs. We will just mention a few. Tony Price, a great fox hunter, clad in hunting clothes, with dogs, gun and knapsack, started out last winter to find the arctic fox or the pole. After a long journey and many hardships he found the pole leaning against a big rock, but did not leave the Stars and Stripes to mark the spot. But he did have one of Uncle Sam's flags and with a load of double B shot marked a large arctic fox which had a long black streak down its back. After a long chase away from the pole the fox escaped but the hunter thinks he can find it again.

Another genius of this place invented a three wheeled bicycle. The blacksmith's bill was $9.50. When completed he mounted the machine but the motion was so great he could not steer it and the rough rider of the west fell into the ditch, tore his shirt, barked his nose, skinned his arm and then went dripping home. Oh, how the gravel flew. He was discouraged and huffed. If he could have had a small compensation for his machine, say a small mill levy from the township or a small appropriation from the U. S., no doubt we would all be running three wheeled wagons today.

ACCORDING to the Harrisburg Telegraph, usually accurate in its political prognostications, there already is considerable discussion of the gubernatorial campaign available for the Republican nomination next year. Inasmuch as Pittsburg and Philadelphia have the two senators and furnished the last three governors, it is conceded that Governor Seneca's successor will be chosen from the country. Former Lieutenant Governor Watres, of Senanton, is prominently mentioned as coming from a section of the state that is entitled to recognition. Others whose names are heard in this connection are Senator Sprout of Chester, famous as the father of the good roads law in this state and Lieutenant Governor Murphy, Cambria's favorite son. From the northwest Hon. Charles W. Stone and State Chairman W. R. Andrews have been suggested for the nomination. From a perusal of these and other names which might be added to the list it is apparent that there will be no dearth of good material from which to choose when the time for selection arrives.

To be shut in the vault of a cemetery for 25 hours was the experience of Mr. Lawson, J. P., of Elginburg, Ont. He had been examining it when another man on going out closed the door behind him, leaving Mr. Lawson inside. The door has a spring lock. His shouts and cries for help were of no avail. Fortunately for the imprisoned man there occurred a funeral yesterday afternoon. When the door of the vault was thrown open Lawson rushed out half famished and suffering severely from shock. His liberators were startled by what they thought was an apparition.

Mayburg.

Miss Lena Anderson of Brookston visited Mrs. Stephen Steele over Sunday. Ward Boyd has been quite ill.

The ball game scheduled between Mayburg and Sheffield for Saturday was called off on account of Sheffield being unable to get all their players together.

Miss Helen Plater is spending the week attending the Corry fair.

Miss Beulah Falls has returned home from attending her father's funeral.

Charles Richards returned Saturday from a week's business trip to Buffalo. A baby girl came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson, Thursday last.

T. D. Collins was in town on a short business trip Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Richards and son Ralph and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Harriger had a pleasant auto ride to Plummer on Sunday and took dinner with Peter Berry and family.

Miss Libby Cook entertained the young people at her home Saturday evening, in honor of her cousin, George Cook, of Williamsport.

Porkey.

Mrs. O. E. Rupert and three children visited her sister, Lottie Bloss, at Henry's Mills, last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lore returned home Thursday, after spending several days in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Height visited at the home of H. E. Gillespie, Sunday.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller was buried in the cemetery at Sheffield, Tuesday last.

Mrs. G. H. Blom and Mrs. D. W. Downey were shopping in Sheffield Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Kinch is slowly improving in health.

Miss Bertha Jordan of Hastings is visiting friends in town for a few days.

Wm. Slocum and wife of Hastings took dinner Sunday with the family of George Blum.

R. W. Burdick visited his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Miller, over Sunday.

Mrs. Lewis Brennan and two children of Minister visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shaffer, of Kelletville, over Sunday.

Stealing chickens, tomatoes, potatoes, rings of harnesses, and suit cases seems to be the order of the night in our peaceful little village the past week.

Hottelville Briefs.

David Bish and family of Clarion, were visiting at Mrs. Mary Mazes last week.

Jack and Wm. Grant of Sigel, visited with Jim Cossogrove a few hours last Tuesday.

John Uplinger of Redelyffe was around with his steam thrashing machine last week, thrashing oats and wheat, and our farmers are happy once more.

A number of gentlemen from East Sandy are clearing the brush off of the twelve inch gas line that runs through this section and are stopping at Mrs. Mazes.

Clair Silvis while going home from school on last Thursday fell and cut a part of one of his ears off.

The farmers here have all got their buckwheat out and some have their corn cut also since the big frost of September 8th which froze the most of it in this section.

Rev. Slocum, who is helping with the tent meeting at Clarion, made several pastoral calls in our town last Thursday.

John Silvis and Albert Wolfgang are working for Ralph Crossman cutting logs.

Harry Hotel is working for J. B. Campbell on his farm.

Frank Cassatt is working for Clarence Moore digging a cellar under his house.

Clyde Gadsley is driving team for Clarence Moore, helping to stock the Crossman saw mill.

J. B. Maze wife and two youngest children of Lamont, Pa., visited his mother, Mrs. Mary Maze here over last Sunday.

Still Another Correction.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—I notice in your last issue a correction of an item published some time ago referring to the ball game played at Mayburg between Kelletville and Mayburg. In the ninth inning with the score six to eight in favor of Kelletville, a runner on third, two out and two strikes on the man at bat, the squeeze play was attempted. The delivery was wide and the batsman stepped over the plate and struck the ball in the catcher's mitt. The ball bounded to the first baseman, who tagged the base, the umpire said "out," and everyone left the field. The batsman was out for stepping over the plate. (See 10, Rule 11). He was out in accordance with Sec. 5, Rule 51, for he clearly attempted to hinder the catcher from putting the runner out at the plate. Also out (Sec. 5, Rule 55). It was contended that he was not out because he did not hit the ball; but it was the third strike. (See 15, Rule 56). And last but not least he was out because the umpire called him out. I was at the game and saw the play made.

THE Punky Spirit calls attention to a feature connected with the North Pole discovery which might easily be overlooked, and which again brings out the noble traits of the despised and much abused canine: "When the hardships, deprivations and courageous perseverance necessary to reach the North Pole are being discussed, it must not be forgotten that not among the least of the faithful heroes were the dogs that accompanied the expedition. Without the dogs, in whose reliability and cheerful obedience implicit faith could be placed, the apex of the earth could never have been attained. Here, then, is to the dog, the oldest and truest friend of man."

What is Best for Indigestion?

Mr. A. Robinson of Drumung, Ontario, has been troubled for years with indigestion, and recommends Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets as "the best medicine I ever used." If troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. They are certain to prove beneficial. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. The W. C. T. U. Convention.

The twenty-third annual convention of the Forest County Woman's Christian Temperance Union, held in the First M. E. church, Tionesta, Sept. 9th and 10th, was one of the best in the history of the organization. Beside the officers, president, Mrs. Sue May Sharpe, vice president, Mrs. Euphemia Mechling, recording secretary, Mrs. Ellen B. Catlin, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Myria Huling, and treasurer, Mrs. A. B. Kelly, there were present quite a large number of delegates from the several Unions.

The president's annual address breathed forth a loyalty to the principles of the W. C. T. U., a wide knowledge of its history and achievements, and a consecrated service to the cause so dear to the heart of every white ribboner. The reports of the corresponding secretary and treasurer showed the work of the county to be in an encouraging condition. The departments of scientific temperance instruction, work among soldiers and sailors, flower mission, and prison and county home deserve special credit for work done. The reports from the different departments showed a renewed zeal and better results, it is believed, than last year. The interest manifested by the superintendents and delegates who were present promises much for the success of the coming year. The entertainment furnished by the convention was of a high order. Miss Edna Wallace Neill of Bradford, accompanied by Tionesta's brilliant pianist, Miss Olive Lanson, delighted the audiences with her charming personality and beautiful solos, as did also Mrs. William Alon Sheeman of Oregon City, Ore., with her delightful readings. The choir of the M. E. church also rendered two beautiful anthems. On Thursday evening a class from the intermediate department of the public school, trained by Miss Blanche Pease, gave an inspiring marching song, accompanied by appropriate banners, also the song, "Sailors Must Go." Other features worthy of notice were a parliamentary drill by Mrs. Alice Siggins of West Hickory; a paper entitled patterns and problems by Mrs. N. P. Wheeler of Endeavor; a touching memorial of Mrs. T. D. Collins by Mrs. Emma Secor of Nebraska, and a paper on local option by Mrs. Mechling of Clarion.

Mrs. Emma Graves Deitrich of Lockport, N. Y., was present during the entire convention and her readiness to give information or assist in any way possible helped to make every session both interesting and profitable. On Thursday evening she spoke on the subject, "Who Bids for the American Boy." On Friday evening her splendid address on Joshua and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union held the attention of the large audience from start to finish. Too much cannot be said of Mrs. Deitrich's work during the convention, and the executive committee surely made no mistake in engaging her services.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Sue May Sharpe, Tionesta; vice president, Mrs. Euphemia Mechling, Clarion; recording secretary, Mrs. Adda Keck, Marienville; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Myria Huling, Tionesta; treasurer, Mrs. A. B. Kelly, Tionesta. Delegate at large to the state convention to be held at Philadelphia, Oct. 8-12, Mrs. Nettie H. Adams, Tionesta; alternate, Mrs. Ellen B. Catlin, Kelletville. PRESS SQUIP.

RESOLUTIONS. The following resolutions were adopted by the convention: The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Forest county, in some of its earnest endeavor to enforce the state law. Resolved, That since our future citizens are being trained in our public schools today, our local Unions direct their efforts to securing the best literature, by voice and by pen, work for the enactment of this reasonable legislation in Pennsylvania, trusting that we will not meet with defeat.

WHEREAS, We view with alarm the growth of the tobacco and cigarette habit among our youth; therefore, Resolved, That we earnestly recommend that the W. C. T. U. of Forest county put forth more energetic effort in the department of anti-narcotics, and make more earnest endeavor to enforce the state law.

Resolved, That since our future citizens are being trained in our public schools today, our local Unions direct their efforts to securing the best literature, by voice and by pen, work for the enactment of this reasonable legislation in Pennsylvania, trusting that we will not meet with defeat.

Resolved, That every W. C. T. U. woman of Forest county, in order to be well equipped for her work, should provide herself with plenty of literature, especially with our state and national organs, the "Bulletin" and "Union Signal," and with the "Crusader Monthly."

Resolved, That a special effort be made this year to secure the best literature, and young women of our county for temperance.

Resolved, That we heartily thank the pastor and official board of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Tionesta for the use of their beautiful house of worship; the choir for their music; the Misses Olive and Elva Lanson, accompanists; Mrs. Sheeman for her fine readings; Miss Pease for her excellent work in training the children of the public school; and also the children themselves for their splendid part in the program; our faithful page, Ann Mary Huling; the editors of the county who so kindly printed our notices; the ministers who aided by their counsel and good will; the reception committee who so carefully provided for the entertainment of the delegates. We desire also to express our thanks to Miss Neill for the inspiration of her beautiful songs; to Mrs. Deitrich for her excellent address and instructive and helpful talks during the convention, and to anyone who has in any way aided to the success of the convention.
