Dunn & Fulton Pharmacy

A poor dressmaker can make an ugly gown from good material. The cutting is as important as the goods.

Shepherd's Plaid Paper
 Is not only the most beautiful of writing papers, but the cutting of the sheets and envelopes has given to it a style and "smartness" which appeals to the discriminating buyer of stationery.
 May we not show you this celebrated paper? 40c box.

 —Oil and gas leases, best form, for sale at this office.
 —Special sale of boys' and children's clothing all week at Monarch Clothing Co's.
 —The advertisement of the Oil City Trust Company in this issue is well worth reading.

—A. L. Coyle, M. D., eye, ear, nose and throat. Glasses fitted. Levi Building, Oil City.
 —One of August Charleston's team horses, which has been under the care of Benj. Charleston here, died Monday.

—See J. J. Landers when in need of doors, windows, lumber or shingles. Also samples of seven grades of Paroid roofing.
 —WANTED—A good girl for general housework can find a good home and good wages with Mrs. Hershfield, 604 West 2d St., Oil City, Pa.
 —All members of the W. R. C. are requested to be present at Corps Hall this Wednesday evening, to prepare for inspection. By order of the President.

FOR SALE—String of drilling tools in A 1 shape. Three contracts go with tools. Will invoice to suit both parties. C. J. Walker and Joseph Schmeider, Leeper, Pa.
 —The new fall suits for Ladies Misses and Juniors are attracting great attention at the Monarch Clothing Store. The prices are very low this season. Oil City, Pa.
 —Every voter must make sure that his taxes are paid in order to entitle him to a vote at the November election. The last date upon which this can be done is Saturday, Oct. 2. Don't put it off.
 —Chas. Anderson has disposed of his crop of cauliflower and potatoes, but still has some cabbage left which is going rapidly at the price he asks. Other vegetables can also be had. See him. 11
 —Morrow, Carson & Co. got a dry hole in their first well on the Jacob Wagner farm, Harmony township, finished last week. They have made another location east of this venture, on the same farm, and will try it again.
 —The ladies and society of the Presbyterian church will hold a market at the home of Mrs. S. S. Sigworth, Saturday afternoon, Sept. 18, at 9 o'clock. All the ladies of the church are requested to contribute to this market.
 —Linas, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Cropp, of Cropp Hill, fell from a horse one day last week and dislocated his left wrist. Claude, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bromley, of Tionesta, fell while coming home from school Monday and cracked a bone in his left forearm. Both cases required the services of a surgeon and Dr. Dunn rendered the necessary aid.

—Dunn, Landers & Co. have purchased the Dunt & Foreman sawmill, which has been located on Little Tionesta creek, and moved it to their timber tract on Salmon creek, above Kelletville. They expect to be sawing within a week.
 —Landers & Wyman are moving their mill to the Deible farm, four miles from Tidoute, where they will clean up the timber standing on the tract. The mill has been in use for the past year or so by F. E. Kifer on the Kiser farm, German hill.
 —The Thursday evening prayer meetings of the Presbyterian church will be held in the Woman's Relief Corps Hall until the completion of the new church. All the other services of the church will be held in the court house. Preaching each Sabbath morning and evening at the usual hours.
 —A suit involving a disagreement over a verbal contract for cutting logs and peeling bark in which Frank Blum was the plaintiff and Henry Rudolph defendant, was tried in Justice D. W. Clark's court last Saturday. After hearing several witnesses the justice rendered a verdict in favor of the defendant.
 —Thomas Wilkinson, one of the old and well known citizens of North Pine Grove, Clarion county, died on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia. He was aged 75 years and is survived by his wife and seven children. Also by one brother, William Wilkinson of Marienville, and one sister living at Parkersburg, Va.
 —G. H. Lowe, Charles and Clarence Ricker finished and shot a good oil well the first of the week on the Henry Kitch farm, formerly known as the Landers farm, near Neiltown. The well is the third drilled by them, the lease having quite a number of old wells when they purchased it. The new well was shot in both the second and green oil sands and was said to be showing up for a fine producer.
 —The REPUBLICAN acknowledges with thanks receipt of an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the training school for nurses at the State hospital at Warren, Thursday evening, Sept. 16th. The program includes an address by Rev. Dr. Thos. R. Thornburn and several fine musical selections. The graduating class numbers five, as follows: Mildred May Goodenow, Caroline Marie Koch, Ella Lee Lightner, Agnes Frances O'Donnell, Homer Bright Bowersox.
 —The two young sons of Mrs. Fannie Wheeler have been turned over to the American Salvation Army by the mother and the youngest, aged nine months, has been placed in a private home in Union City. The other, aged two years, was taken to the rescue home of the society in Washington, D. C. Representatives of the society were in this vicinity last week soliciting funds to defray the expenses and desire us to express their thanks to all who in any way contributed.
 —A barn in the rear of the property of J. T. Brennan was destroyed by fire last night about 10 o'clock. The fire originated from sparks from a fire started by children who were enjoying a corn roast. It was with difficulty that a pony in the barn was rescued. In the building was a large quantity of furniture owned by Mrs. J. N. Davies and this was a total loss. The loss is estimated at $4,000 partially covered by insurance. The fire gained great headway before any water could be secured, as the water company was opening the line on East street and had the water shut off.—Warren Times, 10th.
 —Agent W. C. Imel of the Adams Express Co. received two flocks of homing pigeons from Rochester, N. Y., during the past week, which were released here for the flight home. The first, a flock of thirty, were from V. W. Welker and were released at 11:10 a. m. Friday and took a course up Hunter run. The second, a flock of sixty, were from F. G. Thon and were liberated at 9:36 a. m. Sunday, taking a straight course up the river. No word has been received as to the time of their arrival home. It is an interesting sight to see the unerring instinct of these birds as they strike out for home on being liberated.
 —Quite a transformation has been going on in the interior of the Hotel Weaver within the past couple of weeks. The front windows have been replaced by a larger and more modern pattern, lending more light and cheer to the office and dining room, while the hall and sitting room have been so changed as to render them much more comfortable and convenient. The reception hall is ample, and the new sitting room is considerably enlarged and greatly enhanced in beauty, cheerfulness and comfort. In fact one hardly recognizes the new hostelry on a first entering, so complete has been the transformation.
 —A petition of 900 signatures has been presented to the Franklin council asking for a curfew ordinance, whereupon the Tionesta Courier remarks that "Tionesta has a curfew bell that rings at 8:45 o'clock every night, and it comes very handy for housekeepers to set their clocks by. Otherwise the bell has for a couple of years been of little use." Tionesta likewise has an ordinance of this sort which has been practically obsolete for the past year or two, the bell having fallen into innocuous desuetude. The ordinance was all right when thoroughly enforced, but without that it is a farce. Possibly, however, our young folk are growing better, and don't need curfewing.
 —Captain John S. Hudson's new steam boat, the Fred Hudson, which was designed by Thomas Hudson and built at Hickory, Pa., is finished and ready for delivery. It will be delivered on the first rise in the river. The Fred Hudson is a handsome new river steamer, 140 feet in length and 25 feet beam and draws about 30 inches of water. It is equipped with modern machinery throughout, having three boilers and an electric light plant. It will be the handsomest boat at work on the Allegheny river.—Kittanning Times. The hull referred to was built by Mr. Carson's crew at the yards of the Forest Barge company, and is a very substantial craft. As soon as there is sufficient water in the river Albert Lawrence, river jobber for the company, will start the boat on its trip to Kittanning where it will be completely equipped.
 —Granulated Sore Eyes Cured.
 "For twenty years I suffered from a bad case of granulated sore eyes, says Martin Boyd of Henrietta, Ky. "In February, 1903, a gentleman asked me to try Chamberlain's Salve. I bought one box and used about two-thirds of it and my eyes have not given me any trouble since." This salve is for sale by Dunn & Fulton.

—The sixteenth annual conference of the United Evangelical church closed a week's session at Somerset, Pa., on Monday. Among the appointments of ministers the following are noted: Rev. B. F. Felt of Tionesta, is reappointed to the Rockland church. Rev. F. W. Ware, a former principal of the Tionesta school, is returned to the Parker avenue church, Franklin. Clarendon, Rev. G. E. Erskine; Lickingville, Rev. F. C. Timmis.
 —The following item taken from the Parsons, W. Va., Advocate, refers to a former Tionesta boy, who seems to have acquired quite a reputation as an inventive genius, having patented a number of useful articles: "Our ingenious and enterprising tinsmith, James H. Hurlings, has brought to public notice a combination spray, sprinkler and solid nozzle which interesting and desirable water contrivance after satisfactory tests promises to be of much practical utility. They will likely cost about 20 or 25 cents."
 —The members of the Tionesta ball team have some work cut out for themselves this week. Tomorrow they will attend the harvest home picnic at Fryburg and will play two games with the team of that town. Saturday the Kelletville team will again be in Tionesta for a game, which will begin at three o'clock. The Kelletville boys are coming down this time "with the goods" and expect to win, while Tionesta will try to convince them that there are others, so a fine game may be expected. Tionesta has two to her credit this season against Kelletville, 2-1 and 4-2, and the Kelletville boys naturally want to wipe some of those scores off the book. Don't miss this game.
 —Robert Lynch, for many years employed at the Wheeler & Dusenbury mills at Endeavor, met with an accident Tuesday afternoon of last week that will maim him for life. He was working at the edge and attempted to remove a splinter from the sawdust near the saw when his left hand was drawn into the saw and very badly lacerated. Dr. Kerr, assisted by Dr. Morrow, of West Hickory, attended the injured man and found it necessary to amputate the index finger close to the hand. The second and third fingers were badly lacerated, but the physician has hopes of saving them. The little finger was injured some but not seriously. Mr. Lynch is aged 55 years and has a family.
 —At two o'clock this afternoon at the court house there was accepted by the Warren county Bar association a splendid likeness of Hon. Wilton M. Lindsey, who served as president Judge of the fifty-fourth judicial district including the counties of Warren and Forest. The likeness was perfected by R. H. Burfoot of Warren and considered a splendid portrait. This afternoon the presentation was made by the Hon. Charles W. Stone on behalf of the Bar association. Remarks were also made by D. I. Ball, C. E. Bordwell, J. H. Alexander and W. S. Clark, all of whom are members of the Warren Bar association. The portrait of Judge Lindsey is the seventh of the judges who have presided over the judicial district that now adorn the court chamber.—Warren Mirror, 10th.

—Constable James Grog of Kingsley township brought a man down from Kelletville yesterday on a commitment from Justice John Shaw and left him in charge of the County Commissioners. His name is Hamond Kuhn, and he is a veteran of the civil war, having been a member of Co. A, 5th Pa. Cavalry, and it is the opinion of the authorities that he strayed away from the Soldiers' Home at Erie. He gives his age as 68 years. The commissioners are communicating with that institution, and if their surmises are correct the man will be returned. Kuhn came to Kelletville Sunday evening and was taken care of at the boarding house until yesterday when proceedings were instituted to learn where he belonged. His pension papers indicate that he is drawing a pension on account of epilepsy and rheumatism, and the former disease has undoubtedly affected his mind.
 —The Madison, Indiana, Democrat of a recent date has this item concerning the little steam boat which has harbored here last fall and winter: "The City of Warren, a handsome and comfortably arranged twin screw pleasure launch is lying at the landing today. The boat is in command of Captain O. L. Dalrymple, with N. G. Harkathian, engineer, both of Warren, Pa., and H. W. Bogs of Vevey as mate. Captain Dalrymple is a meat merchant of Warren, a city near the headwaters of the Allegheny river, a few miles from the northern line of the state, and near Lake Chautauque. He is taking a summer tour for his health on the river, and finds his health wonderfully improved. He left Warren last April in the Warren, a boat 36 feet in length, with two gasoline engines, and fitted out for living, accommodating three men comfortably, and has since been fishing, hunting and visiting the various towns en route. They are now bound for Little Rock, Ark., going down the Ohio and the Mississippi to the mouth of the White river, and up the Arkansas river to Little Rock, and further on up if they feel inclined when they reach that point. Captain Dalrymple is a very pleasant gentleman and is enjoying his vacation."
 —Cholera Infantum Cured.
 "Something like two years ago my baby, which was then about a year old, was taken seriously ill with cholera infantum, vomiting and purging profusely, writes J. F. Dempsey of Dempsey, Ala. I did what I could to relieve her but did her no good. I being very much alarmed about her went for a physician but failed to find one, so came back by Elder Bros. & Carter's store and Mr. E. L. H. Shindler's Cholera, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. I procured a bottle of it, went home as quickly as possible and gave the baby a dose of the remedy. It relieved her in fifteen minutes and soon cured her entirely." For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Boys' Suits

With Extra Trousers, $5.00

Sizes 7 to 17. Both Blouse Trousers.

Suit made from absolutely all wool cloths, (and when we state all wool don't mean cotton mixtures) heavy weights in several pleasing and stylish mixtures.

Well made, stylishly cut and not "skimpy" in any manner.

And when we state that we believe this combination of suit and extra pants to be the largest five dollars worth of boys clothes we ever offered, we are doing it with full knowledge of the five dollar combination we sold last fall, which every parent who bought, knows by this time was extra good values.

Boys' Suits $3.00.

Plain trousers only, from our $4, $5 and $6 lines. If your boy will wear plain trousers come and take your choice of suits that sold as high as $6 for $3. They are, every last one of them, absolutely all wool cloths but the pants are wrong for their worth.
