Every voter must make sure that his taxes are paid in order to entitle him to a vote at the November election. The last date upon which this can be done is Saturday, Oct. 2. Don't put it off.

A company in Pittsburgh charges $1.00 per year for the same service extended, as a courtesy, to the friends of the Oil City Trust Company by their Safe Deposit Department. Read their advertisement in this issue.

Farmer John H. Allio of the Township, raised some fine cabbage this season, and as evidence of this fact he brought us a head yesterday that measured 54 inches around the girth and weighed 32 pounds. If anybody can beat this we'd like to see the evidence laid on the editorial table.

"Jack" Brown, of Thompson eddy, old-time riverman, pilot and fisherman, reports that the water in the Allegheny river at that point was lower on September 13 this year than at any time since 1892 and was a full inch lower than at any time during the long drought of last year. Although the stage of water at Tionesta is exceedingly low, we doubt whether it has yet reached the low mark of last year by several inches.

An exact definition of a gentleman has been tried many times, never perhaps with entirely satisfactory results. Little Sadie had never heard of any of the various definitions, but she managed to throw a gleam of light on the subject, albeit one touch with unconscious cynicism. The word was in the spelling-lesson, and I said: "Sadie, what is a gentleman?" "Please, ma'am," she answered, "a gentleman's a man you don't know very well."—Woman's Home Companion for October.

If you care to vote at the next election, and you surely do, then pay your taxes on or before next Saturday, Oct. 21, as that is the limit of time you will have.

Potter & McCoy have fitted up a building for the storing of automobiles over night, at the rear of their livery barn. The stable will fill a long felt want, it being almost impossible to get an automobile into an ordinary stable, owing to the fear of fires or the loss of insurance.

A snow and hail storm lasting nearly an hour was one of the weather eccentricities witnessed by the inhabitants of the country surrounding Golitzin, this county on Sunday last. Where the snow fell in the dense woods it laid for some hours before melting. This is going some for the 23rd of September.

Henry Greenwalt, in his 70th year, died at the home of Jacob Lecht, Strobleton, at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening from paralysis after an illness of 10 days. The deceased who was a survivor of the Civil war, had made his home with the Lecht family for the past 16 years. The funeral services were held at St. Michael's church, Fryburg, at 9 a. m. Friday. The interment was with military honors under the auspices of the G. A. R.

J. C. Moulin and E. E. Norton of this city have sold to Fred Dickrager and Blum Brothers 243 acres of land in Forest county, located on Tubbs run between West Hickory and Nebraska. The consideration was $800. The first growth timber has all been cut off, having been lumbered several years ago by Messrs. Moulin and Norton. The second growth is not of great value, although some of it may be handled with profit.—Titusville Herald.

The Revolutionary Soldiers' monument committee of Tidioute Chapter, D. A. R., met with the park committee and borough engineer of Warren Saturday and staked out the location for the new monument. The ladies hope to get the foundation in place this fall so that in the spring the monument can be erected. Tionesta is represented by membership in Tidioute Chapter, and our county will furnish some names of Revolutionary soldiers to go on the monument.

Sportsmen will be interested in the efforts of Dr. Joseph Kalibus secretary of the state game commission, to have a license tax of $1 a year for hunters throughout the state. He says that such a tax would net $150,000 a year to the state and would be a positive benefit. This money he would use in the payment of bounties and in the care and propagation of game. He says that any man who can afford a gun and ammunition can afford to pay the license. He proposes to attempt the passage of such a bill in the next legislature.

That the grape crop this season in the North East-Westfield belt will be the heaviest in years and that the Nickel Plate Railroad has already contracted for the hauling of four thousand cars this season, was the statement made by an official of that road last night. This same official says that when he went over the grape territory a week ago he was surprised to find that there is a third more acreage this year than last, and that improved processes of garnering have made the outlook the best for two decades.—Warren Times.

The Ridgway Daily Record sends out a very handsome "special edition" in the form of a magazine exploiting and illustrating the industries, resources and beauties of that thriving city and its wide-awake neighbors in Elk county. The publication is brimming with fine halftone cuts of the county's business industries and fine residences, as well as the stirring and energetic men who are back of them and have been the cause of the wonderful growth of Elk county. W. H. Baker, publisher of the Record, is to be congratulated upon his enterprise in putting such a splendid specimen of the printer's art before the public, and no doubt his people fully appreciate his efforts.

As the hunting season is nearing the opening dates a little freshening up will not be amiss, as follows: Bear, no limit, October 1st to January 1st. Deer, male, with visible horns one each season, November 15th to December 1st. Grouse or pheasant, five in one day, twenty in one week and fifty in one season, October 15th to December 1st. Hare or rabbit, ten in one day, November 1st to December 15th. Weibooted fowl of all kinds, unlimited, Sept. 1st to April 1st. Woodcock, ten in a day, twenty in a week, fifty in a season, October 1st to December 1st. Squirrel, fox, black or gray, six of combined kind in one day, October 15th to December 1st. Game cannot be shipped out of the state or sold.

The October number of The Ladies' World is by far the largest and handsomest issue of that publication we have yet seen. Dr. William H. Maxwell, Superintendent of the New York Public Schools, contributes a most interesting article on the Modern Spirit of the Schools. It is a most inspiring paper. Another contribution of the uplif kind is the story of Phillips Brooks, the famous Massachusetts divine, which is more fascinating than fiction. The stories as usual are above the average, in the house-keeping, needlework, fashions, dress-making and other sections, there are articles that appeal to the reader as very good and very practical.—[New York Fifty Cents a Year]

The Oil City Derrick was 39 years old this week. It is one of the journals that has always been kept up to the highest standard, its visits always looked forward to with pleasure by its readers. Good old Derrick! Why, to the editor of The News it seems as though that paper had always existed. His first experience in the newspaper business was as salesman of the Derrick. Years ago, when he wandered over to the Lake Shore station one morning, when the papers were thrown off and "Jim" Muse (one of the founders of The News), who had charge of the Derrick agency, was parceling the papers out to his force of boys, the writer asked him if he wouldn't let him sell a few for him. Proving successful, he became a regular fixture on the staff of newsmen. Being the only paper hereabouts then, the Derrick was a great seller, especially when any big item of news was on, like the Larrabee murder trial, or the Fall river disaster—the breaking of the reservoir above the town and the loss of many lives. So, as the Derrick was our first love, the soft spot for it in our breast has ever remained and will till time shall be no more with us.—Franklin Evening News.

A horse and buggy belonging to Wm. F. Shaffer, two miles north of Reno, Venango county, was stolen from his barn on Thursday night last. The stolen animal is a brown horse about 12 years old. It has a black mane and tail, the mane being parted in the middle. There is a blemish on the left front hoof. The horse is of squatly build and was used as a work horse. The buggy has a top and is painted black. The running gears are red and one spring is larger than the other.

Reserve seat tickets for the Teachers' Institute course, Oct. 18-22, 1909, will be on sale at Dunn & Fulton's drug store next Saturday. One section of the house is reserved for teachers, another for directors and their wives. All others can secure reserve seat tickets for the entire course for $1.00. Some seats will be sold to pupils of the schools at 50 cents for the course. Durno and Company, Magician and Humorist, Monday evening; Commonwealth Male quartette, Wednesday evening; Lecture, "Tales of a Traveler," Dr. S. J. Preston, Tuesday evening; Lecture, "Julius Caesar," Dr. O. L. Warren, Thursday evening. Next Saturday at Dunn & Fulton's. Remember the day and place.

Grover Cleveland Wagner, aged 20 years, of Johnstown, Pa., and Edward Harry Auman, aged 16 years, of Ridgway, Pa., are in the custody of Sheriff Maxwell, the lads having run away from the institution for feeble minded children at Poik last Friday night at nine o'clock. They walked overland, coming down the hill road Sunday morning, and were hanging around the Pennsylvania railroad pump station, when the engineer, Paul Carson, by persistent questioning learned their story and notified the Sheriff. The boys told the officer they had started for Ridgway. The Sheriff will return them to the institution, in company with Fred Briggs, the fifteen-year-old son of G. L. Briggs, of Musette, this county, the papers for whose admission are now being prepared. Young Briggs is a brother of Warren Briggs, who was murdered March 19th at Musette, by Amos Walton, who also killed Mrs. Briggs and himself. The boy was present when the tragedy occurred.

September Court Minutes.

The regular quarter sessions court for September convened at ten o'clock Monday morning, with President Judge Rice and Associate Judge Kreidler on the bench, Associate Judge Hill being absent on account of illness.

On the civil list, the cases of T. D. Collins vs. Cough, and Lilly Hillard vs. W. J. Mobery, were continued, while the case of Hindman vs. Decker was settled. Judge Rice read an opinion in the settlement of the auditor's finding in the disbursement of funds in the estate of Mary Ann Gless, deceased, allowing John Jamieson the sum of $180 for her maintenance and care for a period of thirty-six weeks. A rule was granted to show cause for the correction of the records in the case of G. G. Snowden vs. E. E. Pequinot. On motion of S. D. Irwin, Esq., the court granted the petition of Walter P. Crouch, of East Hickory, praying for the legal adoption and change of name of Miss Lulu M. Merriam, a daughter of William and Laura Merriam, late of Tionesta, deceased. Miss Merriam, who will hereafter be legally known as Lulu M. Crouch has been a member of Mr. Crouch's family for the past nineteen years, and is at present attending Wilson College. Mr. Crouch made this application so that she may have and enjoy all the rights of a child and heir of the petitioner. A charter was granted to the North Forest Cemetery Association, located at Marienville. Lewis H. Mensch of Marienville gave a bond in the sum of $5,000, and was appointed guardian of Elinore M. Merrellott, daughter of Mrs. Daisy Merrellott, deceased. Joseph W. Green was appointed tax collector of Harmony township to fill a vacancy.

The constables were called and their quarterly reports received. Judge Rice took this occasion to again inform these minions of the law as to their duties on the liquor question, also as to the removal of loose stones from the public roads, and prohibiting the carrying of fire arms by all unnaturalized residents of this commonwealth. The grand jury was then sworn and made acquainted with their duties. Thomas Snodgrass was appointed foreman of the grand jury. Attachments were placed in the hands of Sheriff Maxwell for Albert Hulings, a grand juror from Barnett township, and Daniel Douglass, a petit juror from Hickory township, who failed to answer to their names when called. Judge Rice excused the latter, who is laid up at home with a broken leg. Mr. Hulings was reproved by the court and sentenced to pay the costs of the attachment. He had sent over a letter saying he was too busy to attend court.

The Grand Jury acted upon five bills of indictment, three of which were found true bills and two not true bills.

Commonwealth vs. John Hoover, charge assault and battery, M. Peters, prosecutor, a true bill. Tried and found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs. This is a case where Mr. Hoover was prosecuted for reckless driving on the streets of Marienville, having run over and injured a son of Mr. Peters. Com. vs. James Irwin, charge disposing of his personal property to defeat a creditor, Dr. J. E. Beck, prosecutor, true bill. Tried and Judge Rice directed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty. The jury placed the costs on Irwin. Exceptions were taken in the matter of the costs but after argument Judge Rice refused to set aside the verdict.

Com. vs. W. A. Deemer, charge larceny, not a true bill, and the prosecutor, Henry A. Wilson, to pay the costs.

Com. vs. Mentor Felt, charge assault and battery, J. B. Eden, prosecutor, not a true bill, and county to pay the costs.

Com. vs. Alvin Mealy, charge desertion, not pressed on payment of costs.

All petit jurors not drawn on the Irwin case were discharged on Tuesday at noon. The grand jury, having visited the county home and filed their report, were also discharged. The session closed Tuesday evening, all business being completed.

Prof. Frank A. Wheeler of Mercer, spent a portion of last week visiting Forest county relatives and friends.
 Miss Genevieve Douth left Monday for Southern College, Sutherland, Fla., to take up her studies for the winter.

Mrs. Paul D. Schilling and son Sylvanus, of Baltimore, Md., are visiting Mrs. Amos Lebeur for a few days.
 Mrs. Frank Schoonmaker and son James, of Oil City, were guests of Mrs. Isaac McCoy, Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Margaret and Mary Irwin of Franklin were guests at the home of their uncle, Judge S. D. Irwin, over Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hunter and son Chester, of Penn Station, Pa., spent the past week visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gordon and Miss Marguerite Haslet returned last week from a month's visit with friends in Indiana.
 E. E. Fleming has moved from the Dr. Hunter property on River street to the H. S. Canfield property on May street.

Samuel Fitzgerald and family of New Castle, Pa., are spending a few weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Fitzgerald.
 Irvin Motter, of Barnett township, who was serving as a juror at court this week, gave the REPUBLICAN office a pleasant call Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam. Farmer and children were down from Tidioute to spend Sunday with Mrs. Farmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blair and daughter Margaret, and Miss Lulu Shaw, of Tionesta, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smearbaugh over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Carr, of Lottsville, Warren county, spent several days of the past week visiting the brothers of Mrs. Carr, F. R. and C. A. Lanson.

Mrs. John G. Jamieson and Miss Mary Everett left Saturday for a three weeks' visit in Pittsburgh and vicinity. John expects to join them there in two weeks.

Miss June Herman, Miss Helen Smearbaugh, John Ritchey and Howard Kelly drove to Titusville Thursday evening to witness the play "Girls Will Be Girls."

Rev. K. T. Jaquay, pastor of the First M. E. church of Salamanca, N. Y., will occupy the pulpit at Nebraska and Tionesta next Sunday morning and evening.

W. A. Connelly, of Ludlow, Pa., was circulating among old Forest county friends here Monday. He has been at the old farm in Hickory twp. for the past week or two.

Among the REPUBLICAN'S welcome callers yesterday were Geo. H. Richards of Watson Farm, Fred Gillespie of Kellettville, C. M. Jones of Marienville, and J. S. Colwell of Pigeon.

Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Monroe went to Kane this morning to attend the annual session of the Oil City Conference of the Free Methodist church, which meets there Sept. 29th to Oct. 5d.

Will S. Clark and wife of Tionesta are moving to the Bowman oil lease, near Plumer, for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Artie Handy will look after the farm during their absence.

Asa Lovejoy, a former well known citizen of Tionesta, is critically ill at his home a few miles above Tidioute, and his many friends here will learn with regret that little hope is entertained of his recovery.

Neil Kunselman, of Endeavor, has been elected to teach the school at Licklingville, taking charge Tuesday morning. No school had been held there up to this time, the teacher first elected to the position failing to appear.

Assistant cashier J. B. Kelly of the Forest County National bank, took a run down to New York last week to see what was doing in the Hudson-Fulton celebration. He reports some people already there and more coming.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Catlin came down from Sheffield in their auto and spent Sunday at the home of James Huling. Mrs. Mary Tobey and Mr. Huling accompanied them here from Kellettville, the party returning Sunday evening.

Miss Marie Small of Nebraska, who is slowly recovering from an attack of typhoid fever, was kindly remembered by her young friends on her 17th birthday by a shower of postals and many nice presents which were most appreciated by the young lady.

John A. Jones has moved his family from Nebraska to the Sateley house, on May street. Mr. Jones has been with the Collins firm for many years and will now have charge of the log cutting on a big job for the same firm at Hastings, a short distance above Kellettville.

Howard Carnahan and Fred Lantymers spent Friday fishing, at Trunkeyville, and brought home a good catch of Black Mexican sweet corn.—Oil City Bizzard. A fellow who can "hook" a good mess of roasting ears at this season of the year is no slouch of an angler, either.

Mrs. W. A. Showman and son Alon, started for their western home at Oregon City, Ore., Friday, after a summer very pleasantly spent in Tionesta. Mrs. A. B. Root accompanied her granddaughter and will again take up her home with her children, who are located in the State of Washington.

George H. Lowe, head of the firm of Lowe & Co., operating in the McKee field across the river, is at his home in Jamestown, N. Y., suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. At last accounts his condition was slightly improved, and it is hoped by his many friends here that he may continue to gain.

Harry H. Harp of Marienville brought down a load of honey from his apiary Monday and delivered it to Oil City dealers. There were upward of a thousand pounds in the consignment; it was of the very finest grade and "went like hot cakes on a frosty morning," and on which the most of it will doubtless find its way.

R. M. Morrison, a former well known and popular resident of Marienville, but for several years extensively engaged in lumbering in West Virginia, has bought a handsome property in the pretty town of Wilkingsburg, Pa., and taken up his permanent residence there. Milt's many old Forest county friends will be glad to know of his prosperity and will wish him many years of solid comfort up to and away beyond the chloroform age.

Leonard W. Blum and Miss Ruth S. Peavy, both of Oil City, were united in marriage Wednesday morning last at 11 o'clock at the parsonage of Good Hope Lutheran church, that city, Rev. H. J. Reimann officiating. The couple were attended by Miss Loretta James and Adolph A. Blum. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Blum returned to Oil City, where they will reside. Many Tionesta friends will join the REPUBLICAN in extending best wishes for a long and happy married life to Leonard and his fair bride. Mr. and Mrs. Blum are here for a few days' visit with the former's parents.

To Lose A Good Citizen.
 It appears from the following items taken from the Mt. Jewett, McKean county, Herald, that the town of Endeavor is soon to lose one of its very desirable and popular citizens. Mr. and Mrs. Lehentaler have been residents of the place for a number of years, and we know that their departure will be very much regretted by the entire neighborhood.

Owing to his having connected himself with the Kushequa Ceramic Company as a stockholder, and the board of directors of the concern having selected him as one of the active operating forces, T. B. Lehentaler, for several years a resident of Hazlehurst, and latterly of Endeavor, Pa., will at once take up his residence in Mt. Jewett. Mr. and Mrs. Lehentaler are of the proper sort, and will be welcomed to Mt. Jewett by the entire community.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Kushequa Ceramic Co., held in Mt. Jewett Tuesday evening, the following official board was elected: President, T. E. Moulton; treasurer, Dr. John B. Nason; secretary, T. B. Lehentaler; directors, T. E. Moulton, Elisha K. Kane, J. G. Amsler, W. H. Hill, John B. Nason, Albert Nason, T. B. Lehentaler, J. G. Strong, G. S. Robb and J. B. Gray. Ground will be broken at once for the erection of the plant with a capacity of 25,000 roofing tile per day, and the work will be pushed to completion just as rapidly as possible.

RECENT DEATHS.

CHARLESTON.
 August Charleston was born near Stockholm, Sweden, October 25, 1853, and died in the Oil City hospital, September 22, 1909. In 1880 Mr. Charleston came to America and located in Tionesta, where he remained for fifteen years. Since then he has lived in the vicinity of Franklin and Oil City, following his vocation of teaming in the lumber and oil country. He was never married, making his home while here with his brother, John Charleston, who died four years ago. He was an industrious citizen, one who made many friends among the people with whom he labored. He was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran church of Sweden and died in his faith. For the past two months he has been in the Oil City hospital, suffering from that dread disease, cancer of the stomach. His suffering was intense and death was an angel of mercy. He is survived by a brother and sister, who reside in Sweden.

The body arrived here Wednesday evening and was taken to the home of Mrs. Louise Charleston, where funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. O. Calhoun on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, after which the body was laid to rest in Riverside cemetery.

KERR.
 Mrs. Mary A. Kerr died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. M. Henry, in Tionesta, at 3:00 p. m., Tuesday, Sept. 28, 1909, of dropsy, after an illness of several years. Mrs. Kerr was born at Clarington, this county, June 2, 1843, and was a daughter of James and Rebecca Rogers. She grew to womanhood there and about forty-eight years ago was united in marriage with Edward Kerr, now deceased, and all of their married life was spent in that vicinity. Two years ago she came to reside with her daughter, by whom she was tenderly cared for during her long and trying illness. Hers was the first death to occur in a family of nine children. Mrs. Kerr was a member of the United Brethren church at Clarington and was always a consistent follower of the Master. Besides her daughter, she is survived by one son, E. E. Kerr, of Marienville; also by her mother, aged 87 years, residing at Volant, Pa., three brothers and five sisters.

Brief services will be held at the Henry home this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The body will be taken to Clarington Thursday for interment, where the funeral services will be held at 1:00 o'clock p. m., conducted by Rev. W. O. Calhoun, pastor of the M. E. church of Tionesta.
