PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA AND PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

A JOINT RESOLUTION.

Proposing amendments to sections eight and twenty-one of article four, sections one and two of article five, sections two, three, and fourteen of article eight, section one of article twelve, and sections two and seven of article fourteen of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

The Governor shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of two-thirds of the members of the Senate, appoint a Secretary of the Commonwealth and an Attorney General during pleasure, a Superintendent of Public Instruction for four years, and such other officers of the Commonwealth as he is or may be authorized by the Constitution or by law to appoint; he shall have power to fill all vacancies that may happen in offices to which he may be appointed during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their term.

and civil causes with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be five years and they shall be elected on general ticket by the qualified voters of each ward or district, and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds of the number of persons to be elected than more than one are to be chosen. The salaries, to be paid by said county; and shall exercise such jurisdiction, civil and criminal, except as herein provided, as is now exercised by aldermen, subject to such changes not involving an increase of civil jurisdiction or conferring political duties, as may be made by law. In Philadelphia the office of alderman is abolished, so as to read as follows:— "There shall be a council established for each thirty thousand inhabitants, one court, not of record, of police and civil causes, with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be six years, and they shall be elected on general ticket at the municipal election, by the qualified voters at large, and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds of the number of persons to be elected than more than one are to be chosen; they shall be compensated only as aldermen, and shall exercise such jurisdiction, civil and criminal, except as herein provided, as is now exercised by aldermen, subject to such changes not involving an increase of civil jurisdiction or conferring political duties, as may be made by law. In Philadelphia the office of alderman is abolished.

Just as Good.

"We are trying to educate our readers to recognize the evils of substitution," said the business manager of one of the popular magazines. "Through our advertising pages we are trying to get them up to the point where they will insist upon getting what they ask for and will take nothing else. The merchant who has 'something just as good' is no more to be depended upon than a clerk in a certain country store who a friend visited to buy something.

"My friend had been invited unexpectedly to make an automobile trip and was not fully prepared for it. The roads were very dusty, and after traveling several miles the party came to a little country village, where my friend thought he might be able to purchase something to protect his clothing. The automobile halted before the general store of the village. My friend alighted and accosted a drowsy clerk. 'I want to get a linen duster,' he said.

'I am very sorry,' said the clerk, 'but we are just out of linen dusters. I can let you have a nice feather duster!'

Some Odd Notions.

In some European countries it is said to follow the person who stirs any liquid in a pan from east to west. In Scotland persons when taking out cakes break a piece off and throw it in the fire to appease evil agencies. Still another custom in that land is to make a birthday cake with nine knobs. Then nine of the assembled company, when the cake comes hot out of the oven, each breaks one knob off and, throwing it behind him, says, 'This I give to thee, fox, eagle, wolf,' etc.

In some countries it is considered unlucky to give a mouse pie to a guest—it should be asked for. Likewise a mouse pie should never be cut with a knife, but held whole with the fingers and eaten that way; also to eat as many mouse pies as possible at as many different houses before Christmas, it is believed, will insure so many happy months for the eater. To wrap a mouse pie in silver paper and keep it from Christmas till July and then eat it is also said to bring good luck.

When Women Admired Whiskers.

For ages beards were the delight of ancient beauties. The sight of a shaved chin excited sentiments of horror and aversion. To obey the injunctions of his bishops Louis VII, of France cropped his hair a la pompadour and shaved off his luxuriant whiskers. Eleanor Aquitaine, his consort, found him with this unbecoming appearance very ridiculous and very contemptible. She revenged herself by becoming something more than a coquette. The king obtained a divorce. She then married the Count of Anjou, who shortly afterwards ascended the English throne, and gave him as her marriage dower the rich provinces of Poitou and Guienne. And this was the origin of those wars which for 300 years ravaged France and which cost the French nation 3,000,000 men, all of which probably had never taken place if Louis VII had not been so rash as to shave off his whiskers, by which he made himself so disgusting to the fair Eleanor.—New York Press.

Section 3. Amend section three of article eight, which reads as follows:— "All elections for city, borough and township officers, or regular terms of service, shall be held on the third Tuesday of February," so as to read:— "All general elections by the electors of the State at large, and all elections by electors of a ward, borough, township or regular terms of service, shall be held on the municipal election day; namely, the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each odd-numbered year, and shall appoint one or more aldermen, and such other officers of each ward, borough, township or regular terms of service, as may be provided by law. That such election shall always be held in an odd-numbered year."

Section 4. Amend section three of article eight, which reads as follows:— "District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen annually by the citizens. Each elector shall have the right to vote for the judge and one inspector, or shall appoint one or more aldermen, and such other officers of each ward, borough, township or regular terms of service, as may be provided by law. That such election shall always be held in an odd-numbered year."

Section 5. Amend section fourteen of article eight, which reads as follows:— "District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen annually by the citizens. Each elector shall have the right to vote for the judge and one inspector, or shall appoint one or more aldermen, and such other officers of each ward, borough, township or regular terms of service, as may be provided by law. That such election shall always be held in an odd-numbered year."

Section 6. Amend section fourteen of article eight, which reads as follows:— "District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen annually by the citizens. Each elector shall have the right to vote for the judge and one inspector, or shall appoint one or more aldermen, and such other officers of each ward, borough, township or regular terms of service, as may be provided by law. That such election shall always be held in an odd-numbered year."

Section 7. Amend section seven of article fourteen, which reads as follows:— "Three county commissioners and three county auditors shall be elected in each county where such officers are chosen, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and every third year thereafter; and in the election of said officers each qualified elector shall vote for no more than two persons, and the three persons having the highest number of votes shall be elected; any casual vacancy in the office of county commissioner or county auditor shall be filled, by the court of common pleas of the county in which such vacancy shall occur, by the appointment of an elector of the proper county who shall have voted for the commissioner or auditor whose place is to be filled," so as to read:— "Three county commissioners and three county auditors shall be elected in each county where such officers are chosen, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and every third year thereafter;
