Republican Ticket.

- Justice of the Supreme Court, ROBERT VON MOSCHIZSKER, of Philadelphia. Auditor General, A. E. SIBSON, of Erie. State Treasurer, JEREMIAH A. STOBBER, of Lancaster. Associate Judge, SAMUEL AUL, of Jenks Twp. District Attorney, M. A. CARRINGER, of Tionesta Boro. Coroner, [Name].

To the Voters of Forest County.

On the second day of November next the voters of Forest county will be called upon again to express their opinion at the polls, through their ballots, upon questions that are of vital importance to every citizen, and whilst this is deemed an off year in politics, we deem it to be the duty of every good citizen to exercise his right to go to the election and cast his vote on this occasion, and thereby bear his share of the responsibility of government. The Republican party in Forest County presents for your consideration candidates who are exceptionally strong and competent for the various offices to which they aspire, and if elected will fill their offices faithfully, honestly and justly to all, without fear or favoritism, which seems to us to be the full measure of duty to every fair minded man. Our State ticket is composed of men that have been tried and not found wanting, all sons of Pennsylvania soil, and thoroughly competent. The various constitutional amendments are questions of vital importance to every citizen of the State. Are we or are we not in favor of extending the terms of all County officers for four years, instead of three years, as now? Are we in favor of abolishing the Spring election and having all Township and Borough officers elected at the Fall election? There are ten proposed amendments. Each amendment stands by itself. Each embodies a distinct proposition and must be voted upon separately. The tariff has been revised and the revision has been downward, as was promised, with the result that business has been revived. Factories and mills that were idle have been started up. Thousands of laboring men have been given employment in the business centers of our country. A tax has been laid on the income of corporations, which promises to give adequate revenue for all purposes. The Panama Canal has progressed beyond the expectation of the most optimistic. Pennsylvania interests have been ably defended by our Senators and Representatives in Congress, and whilst the bill was passed by a Republican Congress, it will be seen by an analysis of the vote that the measure was supported by both parties, a number of Democrats voting for the measure and a number of Republicans voting against it, with the diversified interests of a country like ours this might be expected, and also denoting that all tariff laws are to some extent a compromise. We trust therefore that the voters of Forest county will esteem it a duty to go to the polls next Tuesday and cast their votes.

C. A. RANDALL, Chairman.

The general election takes place next Tuesday. Every citizen who possesses the right should be at the polls on that day and cast his ballot. There should be no stay-at-homes. In the latter days of a campaign there are apt to be many "roor-backs" and "last cards" set afloat by political tricksters. Of these no sensible or fair-minded voter will take any notice as their object is always a parent.

There are ten constitutional amendments and a schedule to be voted on at the ensuing election. Each amendment, and the schedule, must be voted separately, by making a crossmark in the square opposite the word "Yes" or "No," according to how you desire to vote. All the amendments seem desirable and in the line of economy, doing away with spring election and leaving but one election each year, and that in November.

SOMETHING of the magnitude of the postal card business may be inferred from the announcement that the Postmaster General at Washington has just awarded a contract calling for the supply of 3,487,000,000 of these articles for the four years beginning with January next. These are the ordinary postal cards such as are furnished through any United States postoffice. When to these are added the innumerable "souvenirs," domestic and foreign, from which no one can escape, there is no occasion for surprise that a big part of Uncle Sam's mail consists of postal cards.

ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

The Kelleitville Gas Company have secured a lease of the Watson and Freeman lands, which comprises a tract of about 1,100 acres and lies southeast of Kelleitville, between Salmon creek and Muzette. They are soon to commence operating, having a crew of men clearing off a location for a well and opening up a road to get their material on the property. Work will soon begin on a change of the railroad grade of the Sheffield & Tionesta Railroad at Kelleitville flats. The idea is to follow the foothills and do away with the flats which are always more or less troublesome when the ice and high water have their parades. The distance will be something less than a mile and will secure better service generally. Recently the management has had erected several water tanks along the route, which goes a great way towards adding to the pleasures of a driver and lessening the troubles of the engineer, to say nothing of the saving of at least fifteen minutes time in filling the tender. The Salmon Creek Lumber Co. have been meeting obstacles for the past two weeks in the way of keeping their mills running full time, owing to their inability to secure the stock necessary. The logs are about 15 miles distant from the mills and with very heavy grades and so much extras, such as hauling bars, chemical wood and supplying the section crews with rails and ties to extend the road, the work requires a lot of money. Four engines, saying nothing of the one used constantly in the woods, to deliver 100,000 feet of logs daily and keep the other work going is no small item. As soon as the bark is loaded and the new log skidder gets into operation it is evident there will be a supply of logs on hand to keep the mills humming constantly. G. W. Tate, for the past two years manager of the Salmon Creek mercantile department, has resigned, the exchange taking place Saturday. Mr. Tate has made many warm friends since his advent into Kelleitville business circles and we are sorry to see him leave. Mr. Tate has not fully decided just what business he will engage in but for the present will be at Kelleitville, his home. P. L. Hill will fill Mr. Tate's place as manager of the store. A. L. Weller has purchased a driving horse for the superintendent of the South Penn Oil Co. at Clarion. This is the second horse bought recently for the same party. The last horse is a thoroughbred roaster and was purchased from the Davis stock farm. Bert Shaffer has moved to Sheriff, where he is jobbing for Henderson & Miller. Mr. Shaffer has moved into the house vacated by W. S. Kelly, who has purchased a grocery store. Joseph Cunningham has been laid off duty for some time, having been afflicted with red "exyema."

W. Fitzgerald's last week. Stella Hotel and Elva Cassatt visited friends at Leeper last week. S. M. Ward and W. A. Smathers of Cooksburg attended church here last Wednesday evening. Rev. J. F. MacAboy will commence a revival meeting at the Greenwood Methodist church next Saturday evening. Clint Hotel is hauling logs for Wm. Crossman. Captain J. M. Gayetty left on the Valley train this morning for the big woods at the head of Blue Jay and Spring Creeks, in Forest county, on his annual trip for bear. He will be comfortably settled in camp when the deer season opens the middle of next month. Captain Gayetty will be joined enroute by E. M. Kiser, of Elk City, G. B. Kiser, of Shippenville, and William Walley, of Crown, Clarion county, all experienced hunters. While the party is in camp several hunters from this city will pay them a visit for several days' sport.—Oil City Blizard, 20th. $100 REWARD, $100. Warren County Murder Mystery.

F. O. Anderson of Glade township was murdered and his wife, who is missing, is believed to have committed the crime. On Saturday morning, Elmer Anderson a son of the dead man whose home is in Warren, received an incoherently worded letter from his mother, which the postmark showed, had been mailed at 6 o'clock Friday evening. In it she informed Elmer that "something terrible has happened," and asking him to go out to the farm and look after the cattle. Another sentence informed the son that the writer had "dug her own grave" and begged her son to forgive her. The son communicated with the authorities and in company with Coroner W. S. Pierce and County Detective Magee, drove out to the Anderson place. They found the doors locked but the son had a key for one of the doors and admitted the party. Crumpled up at the foot of the bed was the dead body of Anderson, his head resting upon a chair, as though he had been lying on the bed and fell forward when he attempted to rise. Three wounds, evidently made by a revolver, and two stab wounds were found. One of the bullets had passed through the heart and the other two were below the heart. The stab wounds were in the stomach. There were no indications of a struggle and no weapons were found. Anderson was about 55 years of age and his wife 50. He had lived in this country for 30 years and for the past 22 years lived on the small farm in Glade township. He bought and killed cattle and peddled the meat from a wagon and also in the street market at Warren. He was a heavy drinker and of a surly disposition and was especially cruel with his family, driving his four sons away from home in their childhood. His wife has repeatedly spoken to her sons regarding the intolerably cruel manner in which her husband treated her and declaring that she did not know how long she could stand his treatment of her. Although a thorough search has been made of the Anderson farm and vicinity the woman has not been located and the authorities are of the opinion that instead of committing suicide, she fled to New York with the intention of going to Sweden. Later.—Mrs. Anderson returned Monday evening, stayed with her son over night, and was taken into custody Tuesday morning. She stated that she had been in a large place, supposed to have been Philadelphia, and that she was advised to return to her home.

A terrific tornado which passed over a portion of Crawford county last Thursday evening did damage to the extent of $150,000. Houses and barns were blown down but there was no loss of life. Cambridge Springs alone suffered damage to the amount of $50,000. It was the worst storm in many years. The track of the storm extended from Watson's run, to the south of Meadville, to the extreme northeast corner of the county.

M. F. Alberts, state game warden, of Franklin, was sent to the workhouse for 60 days, after being convicted of two charges of extortion. The prosecutors, James M. Strode of Pittsburg, and John A. Reed of Allegheny, claimed that when Albert caught them fishing he demanded $15 from them under threat of arrest, and that they gave him $1 each. Later, they said, Albert went after them again with warrants, and they preferred the charge of extortion against him.
