

Calendar for November 1909 showing days of the week and dates.

ELECTION RESULTS.

At the hour of going to press the indications are that Forest county has given its usual off-year majority for the Republican State ticket...

It appears from the returns that Samuel Aul, the Republican nominee for Associate Judge, is elected by about 75 majority over Dr. Allison, Prohibitionist...

IN THE STATE.

In Philadelphia, where a hot fight was waged on District Attorney, Rotan, Republican, won over Giboney, Independent, by 30,000. The Republican ticket in the State is elected by about the usual off-year majority, estimated at 100,000.

In New York City, where the contest on the mayoralty was very bitter between Gaynor, Tammany-Democrat, Bannard, Republican-Fus., and Hearst, Independent, it appears that Gaynor is elected by from 60,000 to 70,000 plurality.

Articles of agreement have been signed between Jeffries and Johnson, the colored gentleman, to fight to a finish for the world's heavyweight championship, the encounter to come off somewhere in the United States, probably California, not later than July 5th next. Between now and that date the public will be treated to a continuous wind-mill performance, no doubt. Most people will jeer to win, but we are not so sure that that would be best. How would it do to let the negro win the championship, then fight him against a bull dog with the understanding that the latter should be shot after winning the fight. All prize fights should be regulated to the brute creation at any rate.

It is given out that John D. Rockefeller has donated a million dollars to a board of chemists and physicians selected from the leading colleges of the country to fight the "hook-worm" disease. It is claimed that 2,000,000 people, principally in the South, are afflicted with this disease. It is a parasite that infests the intestines, sapping the vitality and energy of its victims, and rendering them languid. It is often mistaken for ordinary laziness. "The hook-worm parasite," says a member of the commission, "often so lowers the vitality of those who are affected as to retard their physical and mental development, render them more susceptible to other diseases, make labor less efficient and in the sections where the malady is most prevalent greatly increase the death rate from consumption, pneumonia, typhoid fever and malaria." The disease is easily diagnosed and readily and effectively treated.

On Wednesday while Emery Decker of Whig Hill was driving through town his horse became frightened at a train of cars. Turning suddenly, Mr. Decker was thrown from the buggy, but escaped with a few slight bruises. The horse ran into G. R. Johnson's fence, freed itself from the buggy, ran through the yard and out into the road, tearing two panels out of the fence. The horse was caught near Kribbs and Ray's livery barn. The buggy was badly broken.

ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

A runaway accident occurred on Main street last Wednesday that terminated in the demolishing of a top buggy, but fortunately the occupant was not injured to any great extent. The particulars are that E. N. Decker, of Whig Hill, had met a friend and while in conversation with him the morning train came up behind the vehicle and frightened the horse, which was a young and spirited animal. The horse was standing about 60 feet from the track and making a sudden jump sideways the carriage turned turtle, also Mr. Decker. In his acrobatic feat Mr. Decker must have clung to one of the reins, as the horse suddenly decided to turn to the right and in so doing the buggy was righted and upset to the right, throwing Mr. Decker to the ground with enough force to cause him to lose hold of the reins. The horse started down the street and only ran a few rods until he extricated himself from the buggy, which had become almost a total wreck. Not having any desire to stop in his mad flight he turned and collided with the picket fence which surrounds the residence of Hon. George R. Johnson, taking the panel of fence with him. He dashed down along the north side of the residence among the shrubbery and over walks until his hind foot penetrated the heart of a good sized pumpkin, which snapped up his limb as far as the gambrel joint, where it remained with about seven yards of pumpkin vine streaming out behind like the tail of a comet. The horse flew on, the vine fluttering in the breeze, until he encountered the fence in the front yard. This was as easily removed as the first one and speeding on straightway for the bridge that spans the creek. By this time Wm. Detar, landlord of the Kingsley house, who happened to be about the center of the bridge, made a bold but unsuccessful attempt to play the hero act. The horse eluded him and dashing across the bridge sought refuge in Kribbs & Ray's livery barn. Another vehicle was secured and soon Mr. Decker was wending his way homeward, feeling thankful the race terminated as fortunately as it did.

The members of the Kellettville high school gave a hallowe'en party in the school building, Saturday evening. We have not been furnished with a program of the doings, so can only say that they likely had a very enjoyable time.

Other amusements were furnished by masqueraders about the town. Vehicles were elevated to some extent, signs changed residence, whistles were tooted and the night was made hideous with one continuous round of revelry. Some of the married men were out all night, because they were afraid to come home in the dark.

By the posting of notices at the stations of the Sheffield & Tionesta Railway, we notice, commencing with Nov. 1st, the fare will be raised from two to three cents per mile. It will be remembered that all the leading papers have stated that the financial condition of the country is in better condition today than it has been for some months past, and while we must take note of the advance in the necessities of life and in wages, it is reasonable to the fair minded citizens that the railroads, being equal, must advance also.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Weston of Dunkirk, N. Y., are visiting relatives in town for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Weston were former residents of town and for the past three years Mr. Weston has had charge of a large amount of yard work for the Pennsylvania Railroad in the city of Dunkirk. Mrs. Weston is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Albaugh, while Mr. Weston is one of the eight young men who came near losing their lives in the hotel fire at Kellettville twelve years ago, when three occupants of the second story were burned to death. Professor Frank B. Robbins has been sick for the past week but was so far recovered as to be able to go to Endeavor on Saturday, where he has a band organized and is instructing an organization of 27 members.

Word has been received here that a large bear was killed at Cherry Grove last Friday.

John C. Lougee had the misfortune, a short time ago, to fall and fracture three of his ribs.

Mrs. Stephen West, who has been a sufferer from a diseased bone of her left limb for several months, is not gaining as rapidly as could be expected and last week a second operation was to have been performed, but was postponed for a few days.

P. J. Cunningham has moved into the house lately vacated by the family of O. L. Johnson. Professor Simmons will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Cunningham.

Through an over-heated stove pipe the house occupied by Chas. Johnson was slightly burned one day last week. The fire was discovered very soon after it originated and a few pails of water applied judiciously soon extinguished the flames.

Pat Welsh left Monday morning for Oil City, where he expects to secure employment as a brakeman on the P. R. R.

F. J. Henderson left Friday for a business trip lasting a week or ten days in the interest of the Pennsylvania Lumber Company.

Mrs. Chas. D. Baker of New York is visiting relatives in town for a few days.

A. H. Downing is not improving in health as rapidly as his many friends could wish, his illness being quite complicated.

A. L. Weller is having his new barn treated to a coat of paint.

—An exchange says "the talk of the town" is much more sensational than the printed news of the town and has a large circulation. It destroys characters with neatness and dispatch and fears no libel suits. Yet those same people who start and keep it going are very easily shocked by the stories they read in "the horrid papers."

—Croup is most prevalent during the dry cold weather of the early winter months. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many mothers are never without it in their homes and it has never disappointed them. Sold by all dealers.

Russian Women. A Russian paid the following glowing tribute to the women of his native land: "The women of Russia combine the vivacity and wit of the Frenchwoman with the industry and thrift for which the women of Germany are famous. She is a superb wife and mother and withal a fine mental worker. The Russian girl student is generally in the front rank at the universities. Doubtless some of her fine qualities are due to the fact that in Russia women are free and are in every respect considered to be the equals of men. Russian women are born politicians and diplomats and so intensely patriotic that they esteem no sacrifice too great for their country; hence as revolutionists—however misguided—they are infinitely more daring and devoted than the men. Secrets have been wrung from male revolutionaries by torture, but never from the women."

Sliding Down a Cask. One of the vintage ceremonies at Klosterneberg, the famous convent which the Viennese visit annually on St. Leopold's day, consists in sliding down a giant cask of wine. The immense cask was first filled in the famous year of 1711. The origin of the sliding is found in a story of a cooper who was in the habit of returning home in a merry condition. His wife fetched him one day from the village inn, and he attempted to hide behind the cask. She seized a broom, however, and with the help of several friends forced him to scramble up one side and slide to the ground on the opposite as a punishment for his conduct.—London Mail.

$100 REWARD, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.
